The Ambler

Yesterday we saw: HERMAN GAWER flirting at Gossers' . . . DEAN ALLEN pacing the floor giving dictations to Miss Greig . . . ERNEST JACHETTA eating hurriedly with both hands . . . FRED CHRISTENSEN swearing he'd been "dateless" for three months . . . ALEX KASHUBA losing a game of handball . . . JOHN "COKOO" COX talking about the "dream" girl he met at the Journalism Jam . . . MARION HALL wearing moleskins . . . MARION LEACH driving a Dodge roadster . . . JENNIE KLEMM standing on a corner of the library stairs talking to a boy . . . JOE McKEOWN standing on the curb about to freeze . . . DR. E. T. HODGE at Saturday's game looking worn-out . . . VERNE DALE looking peaceful and happy after the announcement of his engagement.

For sooth, there be eleven on a side.

Our compliments to the cook— Our apologies to "Alexander's Feast"—

None but the strong,
None but the strong,
None but the strong,

THE COOK

Today's question: What is your definition of love?

Eddie Mergis, junior in pre-law: "Love is a tickling sensation around the heart that cannot be scratched. I learned this through bitter experience."

Mary Canaparoli, sophomore in mathematics: "I feel that I am not qualified to even attempt to define love,—but to me, in my own small way, love is only admiration in disguise."

Phyllis Van Kimmell, sophomore in journalism: "I don't think there is any such thing as love—we just sort of get along with people."

Mickey Schmeer, sophomore in architecture: "I haven't any—it's beyond me—undefinable."

Francis Reader, senior in business administration: "Love is a breach of good judgement, but a pleasant indulgence of sentiment."

Hugh Logan, senior in pre-medicine: "It is something that cannot be defined, only felt."

DUCK SOUP

INTRODUCING THE LATEST SONG HIT, "THE GOUT SONG." "GOUT AND GET UNDER THE MOON."

TODAY'S PUTRID PUN

"delight"

Hey! When ya gonna turn out delight?

The sea was cooking and boiling. . . . A vessel of Irish sailors A mighty wave . . . A sunken vessel.

The sea was cooking and boiling. An Irish stew.

Professor R. C. Clark in eulogizing Thomas Jefferson in American History class: Jefferson was extremely modern; in fact he was the father of fast MALLS.

Dear Aunt Ducklie, What is a restitution? CURIOS.

Dear Curious, It is a place where co-eds go to take rest cures. AUNT DUCKLIE.

SOME ONE SAID THE "TALKIES" DOWN AT THE McDONALD HAD COME TO STAY. Oh, no, why we just thought they had popped in for a chat.

Several of my friends have asked me why I don't produce a daily feature like the "Ambler," telling what I see around the campus.

You see, it's like this. My observation of co-eds has been altogether LIMITED. SOPHOMORE SAM.

William, The Conqueror

William, the conqueror, a bold man was he. He fought for all his renown. When anyone dared oppose his plans He merely knocked them down.

The day that he saw Matilda, so fair He swore she'd be his bride. But Matilda herself had plans of her own And decided to lower his pride.

When professions of love did not avail And she refused to be his wife Did William threaten to drown himself? Not upon your life.

Seeing his chance one merry day When Matilda was airing herself He hit her a lick like a ton of brick That laid her on the shelf.

Soon after that the lady was calm And humbly named the day. Then William said unto himself "That caveman stuff does pay."

Mr. McMurray Waxes Poetic over Tobacco

Carrollton, Texas May 15, 1928

Larus & Bro. Co., Richmond, Va. Gentlemen:

Having been a user of Edgeworth for over eight years, I can truthfully say that it is the best on earth. I am enclosing a little ditty that I believe expresses my sentiments entirely:

Old Man Joy and Old Man Trouble Went out for a walk one day. I happened to pass when they met on the street

And I overheard them say, Said Old Man Trouble, "She's as wrong as she can be, There ain't no fun in anything to me, why I was just talking' to Old Man Sorrow,

And he says the world will end tomorrow." Then Old Man Joy he started to grin,

And I saw him bring out that "OLD BLUE TIN," Then OLD JOHNNY BRIAR was next on the scene, And he packed him full from the "OLD BLUE TIN,"

And I heard him say as he walked away, "You have to have a smoke screen every day. When a man gets the blues, and he needs a friend, He can find consolation in the OLD BLUE TIN,

And I jist don't believe on all this earth There's a thing that'll match good old EDGEWORTH."

Yours very truly, F. H. McMurray

the Oregon first string been in shape the score would undoubtedly have been higher, but even so the Green-shirts showed they had all the offensive power they needed when they put over three touchdowns in the second canto.

McEwan gave his men a light workout last night. About all it amounted to was a period of signal practice. The team as a whole is in good condition and the mental attitude of every man is to take the Ucla game and finish the year right.
