

SOCIETY

By DOROTHY BAKER

All interest of the campus society world at present is gravitating toward the annual Christmas College Ball of December 29, which will be at once the climax of the fall term social calendar and the initial event of that gay round of bright, formal affairs which characterizes the winter season. With the lapse of social activity on the campus of late university folk should more than welcome this revival of social life. But there must be lapses in such frivolity when there are teams to be cheered, Thanksgiving dinners to be eaten—and exams to be studied for.

Mu Phi Epsilon Gives Southern Luncheon

On Tuesday, November 27, the Eugene hotel was the scene of a luncheon served in an entirely southern atmosphere. The luncheon was given as a benefit by Mu Phi Epsilon, national music honorary for women, and the menu and program combined to carry out the idea of the old south. Hours were from 11:30 to 1:30 and more than 150 townspeople and university folk were present.

The program given by members of the music honorary during the luncheon follows:

Duet, "Old Folks at Home," "My Old Kentucky Home," "Can't You Hear Me Calling Caroline," Mrs. Buford Roach, Miss Agnes Petzold. Solo, "Mighty Like a Rose," Miss Violet Mills.

It is planned to make the luncheon an annual event, and for next term the organization has planned to give a Spanish luncheon.

The evening of January 5 has been set as the date for a campus dance which is to be sponsored by Mortar Board, senior women's honorary. It is planned that this dance will become a traditional affair as the large class dances and others held annually on the campus. Gentlemen:
As my Christmas present I purchased for myself a pound of your tobacco (Edgeworth) in 1/2 lb. flat tins. This morning on the train I met a man with whom I am only slightly acquainted, and filling my pipe produced your tin, at which he exclaimed: "I am not a pipe smoker, but occasionally I have a try in that direction and I consider that the tobacco in your hand is the finest made."

I am in entire agreement with his statement.

Yours faithfully,
J. J. Mason

Football Cheers on Portable Radio Wreck Perfect Golf Score

The question of how one may listen to a football game and play golf at the same time has been solved. A certain animated golf and football fan took his portable radio with him Saturday afternoon and hired two caddies to carry it around at the Portland course while the foursome played a game. Don Moe, the University of Oregon's big golfing star, was a member of the foursome.

The idea is not conducive to good golf, the players say, because the uproar of the football crowd disturbed them. Moreover, when the Trojans scored their four touchdowns against Notre Dame the excitement caused them to miss their exit shots.

Not a play of the football game was missed, the caddies trudging along with the loud speaker going full blast; and the golfing-football fans considered the afternoon a huge success, although par was less frequently threatened than usual.

Judges in the all-star contest will be the Oregon sports writers. They will pick for the Emerald a first and second team, composed of the coast's outstanding gridiron warriors. The student coming closest to guessing exactly as they do wins the duets.

developed the strongest football teams. Three of them administered whitewashings to the East's best, Army, N. Y. U., and Notre Dame, last week. On these triumphant teams such stars as Howard Maple, "Biff" Hoffman, Don Williams and Thomas have been outstanding performers, as well as many other flashy men like Chuck Carroll, Benny Lom, Ted Rohwer, Johnny Kitzmiller.

Many fine linemen who are not heard of so often in the newspaper squibs have aided their teams. If they like, the readers may also select an all-coast water boy to go with their teams.

The coupons can be mailed to the Contest Editor of the Emerald, or dropped in the ballot box at the main library entrance. The contest will close at the end of the week and the winner will be announced in the last Emerald of the year, Saturday.

"With most honorable approval"

When the Most Honorable Tourist enters a Japanese shop, experienced travelers tell us, he is instantly struck by the elegant bareness of the shelves. The astute Eastern merchant discloses his wares one piece at a time, working down from the choicest to an eventual sale.

If our local tobacco shops were conducted on the Japanese system, we venture to predict that Chesterfield would be the first cigarette offered—and about eight times out of ten there'd be a sale on the spot!

At least that's what the sales figures indicate—over six million smokers keep asking for Chesterfield and the salesmen all know it.

And no wonder, you who have tried 'em know there's no need to sell Chesterfields—that mild different flavor just puts itself over.
