

SOCIETY

By DOROTHY BAKER

If anyone can stop long enough at this season of the year to think of things social they will divide their thoughts between plans for the annual Christmas College Ball, to be held at the Multnomah hotel in Portland, December 29, and the Mortar Board Ball, to be held on the campus, January 5. Both dances are formal and will be the first large formal affairs to usher in the winter season.

During this week, too, this year the post-season rushing is culminating in many dinners honoring new pledges, before the settling down to the Bohemian atmosphere of exam week.

Ruth Bryan Owen Honored at Many Affairs

An interesting and much feted visitor to the campus and Eugene of the past week was Ruth Bryan Owen. On Thursday Eugene alumnae of Delta Gamma, of which Mrs. Owen is a member from the University of Nebraska, planned a luncheon in her honor at the Eugene hotel.

Places at the luncheon were laid for Mrs. Owen, Miss Dunn, Mrs. Harris Ellsworth, Miss Jeanette Calkins, Mrs. Ivan Ware, Mrs. Hugh Ford, Mrs. Walter Banks, Mrs. Blair Anderson, Mrs. Rex Underwood, Mrs. R. C. Romig and Mrs. Edward Forbes.

In honor of Mrs. Owen, members of Delta Gamma were hostesses on Thursday afternoon between the hours of three and five at an informal tea at the chapter house, to which Eugene clubwomen were invited to meet Mrs. Owen. Mrs. Katherine Yerex received with the honor guest and Mrs. J. B. Bell and Miss Mozelle Hair poured during the tea hour. Members of the sorority assisted with the serving.

Mrs. Owen was again honored when a group of faculty women entertained at dinner Thursday evening in the regents' room of the men's dormitory.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fetes Dads

Members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon sponsored a Dads' Day program at their chapter house this last week-end, and 18 dads spent the week-end with their sons on the Oregon campus.

At a banquet held Saturday night, Bert E. Hanev of Portland and O. C. Boggs of Medford spoke for the fathers. Welcomes were given by Robert Benjamin and Robert Predergast. A smoker followed later in the evening.

Dads who were guests at the house for the week-end included William Moore, Bert E. Hanev, L. D. Goodrich, C. D. Bodine, W. G. Manning, Chas. H. Eva, John G. Abele, E. R. Wiggins, F. L. Giles, H. R. Lowry, R. W. Benjamin, all of Portland; W. T. Reed, Oregon City; O. C. Boggs, Medford; O. P. Coshov, Salem; H. C. Galey, Ashland; R. E. Lafferty, Edgar L. Keeney, A. F. Kopp, Eugene.

Members of Mortar Board met at the home of Miss Hazel Prutsman on Sunday evening for tea, and a short business meeting. The group included, Mrs. Prince L. Campbell, Mrs. David Graham, Mrs. A. W. Everett, Miss Margaret Daigh, Miss Margaret Boyer, Miss Charlotte Carl, Miss Marion Sten, Miss Ruth Barcham, Miss Helen Webster, Miss Edith Dodge, Miss Dorothea Lensch, Miss Martha Swafford, Miss Dorothy Baker, and Miss Prutsman.

The literature and poetry group, of the hobby groups sponsored by Phi Theta Upsilon, met Sunday afternoon in the woman's building. During the first part of the hour, the group attended the reading of Robert Frost's poems by Mrs. Seybolt in Alumni hall. Following this the group adjourned to the woman's lounge room and spent the remainder of the time in reading and discussing original work by various members of the group.

Announcement of December 17 as the marriage date of Miss Coral Graham to Claire Kneeland was brought to the members of Pi Beta Phi Thursday evening on tiny candy hearts in the fraternity colors, wine and blue. The ceremony will be performed in the Rose City Methodist church in Portland and attendants will be Miss Rosemary Mahoney and Hugh Biggs. Miss Graham was graduated last year and is a member of Pi Beta Phi, and Mr. Kneeland of Alpha Tau Omega.

Miss Lenore Myers, Alpha Xi Delta, was a guest at the chapter house last week-end from Monmouth where she is attending school this year.

Mrs. George Reed, housemother of Kappa Alpha Theta, was honored at an informal tea given by upperclassmen of the sorority at the chapter house Saturday afternoon from 4:30 to 5:30. Housemothers on the campus and other friends of Mrs. Reed were invited to call during the tea hour. Mrs. Reed is leaving to take a position in Miss Catlin's school in Portland.

Alpha Omicron Pi observed their annual Founders' Day with a formal banquet at the chapter house on Saturday evening. The table was brightened with red tapers and red carnations, and Miss Luola Bengo, president, read the message from the founders.

Alumnae members who were present for the banquet were Mary West Reinhart, Jane Dudley Epley and Vee Saunders Ablar.

At a breakfast at the Eugene hotel Sunday morning, December 9, Mu Phi Epsilon, honorary music fraternity, entertained in honor of the 11 new members initiated last spring. Covers were laid for 26.

The honored new members were: Miss Virginia Hunt, Miss Doris Gramm, Miss Gretchen Kier, Miss Edith McMullen, Miss Bernice Neer, Miss Agnes Pruzold, Miss Frances Perry, Miss Prudence Spright, Miss Louisa Storla, Miss Emelienne Roach and Miss Roberta Wilcox. Mrs. A. E. Roberts, province president of Mu Phi Epsilon, was also an honored guest.

The Women's league tea, which was held on Thursday afternoon, was in honor of Miss Luise Huls, the foreign student from Germany. Members of Alpha Gamma Delta acted as hostesses and Miss Eva Davis and Miss Pauline Schuele were placed in charge.

The tea carried out an Oriental idea with the program in keeping. Constance McKenzie played a piano solo and Dorothy Villiger, accompanied by Leone Barlow, gave a violin solo. A duet was sung by Ethel Conway and Marie Nelson. Fielda Wiggins gave a whistling solo.

Mrs. H. D. Sheldon entertained for the Girls' Oregon club at an informal tea last Wednesday afternoon at her home on University street. The hours were from 3 to 5:30, and chrysanthemums were combined with red carnations about the rooms. Mrs. H. G. Townsend poured and Mrs. Earl Pallett assisted the hostess.

Faculty women complimented at the tea included Miss Hazel Prutsman, Mrs. E. G. Moll, Mrs. Emerson P. Schmidt, Mrs. C. B. Gavit, Mrs. R. H. Scashore, Mrs. L. O. Wright, Mrs. Charlotte Donnelly, Mrs. M. H. Douglass, Mrs. Walter R. B. Wilcox, Miss Marjorie Westcott, Miss Bedell Sloper, and Miss Beatrice Towers.

education were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Tuttle at a party Thursday evening designed as a get-acquainted mix. The University high school assembly room was the scene of the party which lasted from 8 until 10. Numerous games entertained during the evening and refreshments were served later, the host and hostess being assisted by Mrs. Parker and Miss Ida May Pope. Dean and Mrs. H. D. Sheldon were also guests for the affair.

Week-end guests at the Sigma Pi Tau house were John M. Clark, '27, John Sprouse, ex-'30, and Carleton Hande, ex-'30. All are from Portland.

Members and pledges of Girls' Oregon club met together Friday evening for a supper party which they called "Dainty Moore's Special," corned beef and cabbage leading the supper, at which Mrs. Earl Pallett and Mrs. Henry Sheldon were patronesses. Miss Eileen Palmer and Miss Alice Shaw were in charge of the affair.

Members of Kappa Kappa Gamma who were guests from Portland at the chapter house over the last week-end were Miss Emery Miller, Miss Caulen Creath, Miss Leslie Gage, Miss Pauline Yeon and Miss Elizabeth Talbott.

Miss Bobby Reid, Alpha Omicron Pi, spent the last week-end at the home of her sister in Monmouth, Oregon.

Oregana

eral years ago. Since his first year at Oregon, 1925-'26, he has had business experience in New York and other eastern cities, selling advertising, bonds, and automobiles. Since his appointment he has gone intensely into the business problems of the Oregana and says he intends to give his best efforts and to see that his staff does the same to solve the difficulties the book has confronted and to insure a creditable publication that will be out on time, with money to pay its bills. At the meeting George Turnbull, adviser for the year book, spoke in praise of the new editor and manager, commenting on the efficient manner in which they had taken hold, at the same time saying a word for the officers who had given up their task.

Godfrey, Who Knows His Hawaii, Gives Gridders Some Good Advice

Hands Players Lowdown About Island Manners

Final instructions on what's what and how to do and say it in Hawaii were given to members of the University of Oregon football squad just before they left for the Paradise of the Pacific by George H. Godfrey, director of the public relations bureau. Mr. Godfrey lived for two years at Hilo, Hawaii, where he was managing editor of the Hilo Tribune-Herald, and he also worked for a time on the Star-Bulletin in Honolulu.

The first lesson given the players, coaches and faculty members was in the pronunciation of "Hawaii." There is no "ia" on the end of the word, Godfrey pointed out, and it should be pronounced "Ha-wa-ee." The word "Aloha," which means "hello," "goodbye," "I love you" and several other things, is pronounced "Al-oh-ha" and not "aloha" as is done here.

The players were also cautioned never to refer to Japanese and Chinese as "Japs" or "Chinamen" as these terms are regarded almost as insults in the islands. The boys were also told not to say "United States," when referring to the mainland, for the people of Hawaii regard their territory as an integral part of this country, with rights equal to any other part of the nation. The term "mainland" is always used.

A few other Hawaiian words in common use were added to the vocabulary of the travelers. "Wahine" is the universal designation of girls or women. "Wikiwiki" means "hurry up." "Pilikia" means trouble, and the phrase "no pilikia" means "it is no trouble to do it" as speaking of a favor requested. A word in universal use is "pau" meaning "completed, done, finished, or through." "Pau for the day," means that work for that day is over.

Godfrey also told the boys that

Influenza Sufferers Reduced in Numbers

The number of influenza patients under university care is lower today than it has been since the epidemic started, about November 3. But 26 students are now in the infirmary and the annexes suffering from the flu.

New patients at the infirmary are: Bernard Lindeman, who, however, has a sprained ankle, Elizabeth Criswell, Pearl Rayburn, Lucille Hill, Mae McFadden, and Anne Maler. At Thacher cottage: Maxine Paulson, Jean Young, Jane Burnester, James Watts, Peter Hamilton, William Winter, Anne Bricknell, George Varney, and Howard Dirks. At the annex: Houston Dunaway, Lawrence Engstrom, and Howard Lipp.

A. Thompson To Talk At Pan Xenia Meeting

Avery Thompson, one of the Oregon world tour debaters, will talk to members of Pan Xenia, international foreign trade fraternity, tonight at their last meeting before examinations and the end of the term. His subject will be on Japan and China, largely from the commercial viewpoint. The talk will be based on his travels.

The meeting will be in the form of a banquet at the Anchorage at 6 o'clock.

H. Kimbrough, W.S.C. Music Dean Visits Local Musical Fraternity

Herbert Kimbrough, dean of the school of music and fine arts at Washington State college and Northwest province governor of Phi Mu Alpha musical honorary, was in Eugene Sunday, November 9, to inspect the Oregon chapter of that organization.

Kimbrough has under his supervision, chapters at University of Washington, Oregon Agricultural college and University of Oregon, and after being entertained at a meeting Sunday afternoon, he said, "I am very pleased with the University of Oregon chapter of Phi Mu Alpha. The organization here includes many mighty fine men, and it is right up to the minute with the rest."

"I have noticed a great similarity between the methods used here and our men at Washington," said the dean after he was shown through the University of Oregon school of music. "Dean Landsbury and I work on very much the same plan. The enrollment in both schools are just about equal, and also the faculty numbers nearly the same."

"On a recent trip east," he continued, "I had the pleasure of discovering the various rating of many schools throughout the United States. Our university and college schools of music far exceed most of those in the East and in California. Kansas for instance has a good one, but that of Illinois is very poor. The Western schools seem to be better organized and better attended."

"Many schools, Stanford for instance, do not cater to music at all and have neither a school or department in that line. One difference between the systems used between Washington State and Oregon is that at Washington the department of music, together with the art and speech department, is included in the school of music and fine arts, while here the school of music is alone."
