

SOCIETY

By LAVINA HICKS

The past week-end seems to have climaxed the winter term social season with a great many house formal and the formal given by the new men's dormitory, Friday evening. The formal tea for Miss Prutsman was another affair of special interest to the campus. The Senior Ball, which is to be given this coming Saturday, February 23, is the one remaining large campus event, before the week-ends are closed to social events.

Miss Prutsman Honored at Tea

Women's league sponsored a lovely formal tea in Alumni hall of the Woman's building, last Thursday afternoon between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock. The affair was given in honor of Miss Hazel Prutsman, dean of women.

Members of the council were in the receiving line which included Miss Prutsman, Mrs. Katherine Reed Ross, Edith Dodge, Helen Peters, Jane Cochran, Betty Schmeer, Dorothy Kirk and Gracia Haggerty.

Committee chairmen of the league who acted as hostesses were: Florence McNeerney, Martha Swafford, Beatrice Milligan, Phyllis Van Kimmell, Louise Clark, Margaret Edmondson, Maybell Robinson, Dorothy Lenseh and Joan Patterson. Members of Kwama, sophomore women's service honorary, served. Jane Cochran had charge of all arrangements for the affair.

Men's Dormitory Gives Formal Dance

One of the largest formal dances of the week-end was that given, Friday evening, by all the units of the new men's dormitory which included Sherry Ross, Alpha, Gamma, Zeta, Sigma, and Omega halls. Palms and floor lights were placed about the main dining room and daffodils were used on the place cards.

Invited to be patrons and patronesses were Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Dean Hazel Prutsman, Dean Hugh Biggs, Mrs. E. Frey, and Rev. and Mrs. H. W. Davis.

Douglas De Cow was general chairman of the affair and he was assisted by John Pesula who was in charge of music and programs.

Yellow, which was carried out in the decorations and flowers, was the predominating color scheme used at the Delta Delta Delta formal dinner dance at the Osburn hotel, Saturday evening. Palms and colored flood lights of amber and rose were also used as part of the decorations. Alberta Rives had charge of the dance.

The quartet of Sigma Alpha Epsilon consisting of Chown Phillips, Arthur Hansen, Donald Eva and William Sievers, furnished the feature.

Patrons and patronesses were: Dean and Mrs. H. J. Gilbert, Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton E. Spencer and Mrs. Jessie Singleton.

Jane Hudson and Winnifred Wildardne from Corvallis, Helen Shank and Betty Schultze from Portland were guests at the dance.

The Eugene hotel, Friday evening, was the scene of the formal supper dance given by Sigma Alpha Epsilon. The dancing room and orchestra was surrounded with St. Valentine's colors and decorations. Don-old Belshe had charge of arrangements for the dance.

As a feature, Delbert Moore gave several violin solos.

Out of town guests included William Hynd, Seapoose, Walter Spencer and John Finley, Portland.

Acting as patrons and patronesses for the dance were: Dean Hugh Biggs, Dean Hazel Prutsman, Mr. and Mrs. William Tutman, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Green, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Seashore and Mr. and Mrs. Fowler B. Harper.

At a formal dinner party, Thursday evening, members of Gamma Phi Beta entertained at the chapter house for a group of guests including Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Chambers, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Dale, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bryson, Mrs. E. O. Potter, Mrs. Rose Osburn, Mrs. Addie Osburn, Mrs. Otilie Seybolt and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Calkins.

Members of the Girls' Oregon club entertained informally at the club house, Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Robertson acted as patron and patroness for the affair.

Alumni guests at the Alpha Tau Omega house during the past week-end included Harold Brunfield, of Portland, and Harold Lundburg, of Grants Pass.

Futuristically shaped silver stars and lighted comets were used as the decorative scheme for a formal dance given at the Alpha Phi house, Saturday evening. Miss Ruth Irwin had charge of arrangements for the dance.

Invited to be patrons and patronesses were: Mrs. Henry Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. James Harding, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Newbegin, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Eilers, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. DeGou.

Out of town guests included Miss Lucille Pearson of Portland, Miss Ellen Woerner and Miss Elizabeth Shiveley of Stanford university.

Black silhouettes of colonial times against a white background was the motif for decorations used at the chapter house of Kappa Alpha Theta at their formal dance, Saturday evening. Elizabeth Martin had charge of all arrangements for the dance.

Those who served as patronesses were Mrs. Lehmann, Mrs. Auld, Mrs. Rorer and Miss Hazel Prutsman.

The charm school group sponsored by Phi Theta Upsilon, women's service honorary, met at the home of Miss Hazel Prutsman, Thursday evening, for a short discussion.

Mr. Jack Christie, of Corvallis, Mrs. Oscar Tuerek, of Portland, and Mrs. Newman, of Grants Pass, were guests at the Gamma Nu house for dinner Sunday.

An unusual informal dance of the week-end was that given at the Bathelordon house, Friday evening. Cartoons of John Held Jr. were cleverly arranged about the room to form the decorative scheme.

Those who served as patrons and patronesses were Prof. and Mrs. Frederick S. Dunn, Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Miller and Dr. G. Guldager.

Paul Forsythe and Dayton Skirving were in charge of the affair.

Active members of Phi Beta, women's national professional fraternity of music and drama, were entertained at an informal tea given by the associate members of that organization, Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. John J. Rogers.

The colors of lavender and yellow were carried out in the flowers and candles and made a very attractive tea table.

Assisting Mrs. Rogers were Mrs. Earl Pallett, Mrs. G. A. Ross, Mrs. Ernest G. Moll, Mrs. Bryant DeBar, Mrs. Frank Carl and Miss Maude Engstrom.

Guests at the Theta Chi house the past week-end included Paul Young, William Saltendahl and Earl Whitehouse, all of Corvallis.

The chapter house of Alpha Tau Omega was the scene of their regular winter term formal, Friday evening. The decorations were of a modernistic nature done in black and white and also consisted of many colored lights and palms about the room.

Marshall Hopkins and William Whitely were in charge of the affair.

Patrons and patronesses were Dr. and Mrs. John Straub, Mr. and Mrs. La Salle Coles, Lieut. and Mrs. George Herbert, and Dr. John J. Landsbury.

Elton Schroeder, of Myrtle Point, Theodore Gillenwater, of Klamath Falls, and George Thompson, of Portland, were guests at the dance.

Miss Mildred Johnson from Portland was a visitor at the Alpha Xi Delta house during the past week-end.

Dr. W. Osburne and Miss Lilian E. Tingle spent Saturday in Portland for the state nutrition council meeting.

Frederick Mitchell, of New Hampshire, spent the past week at the Theta Chi house. He is the traveling secretary from their national headquarters. Monday evening Mr. Mitchell was honored at an informal dinner at the chapter house. R. C. Graves, of Portland, and many Eugene alumni were also present.

Wednesday afternoon, Mr. Mitchell broke ground for the new Theta Chi house, at 19th and Potter streets.

Green and gold were the colors used at the Delta Gamma formal dance, Saturday evening, at the chapter house. Palms, spring flowers or roses and daffodils, green candles and gold candleholders were some of the interesting feature of the dance.

Serving as patrons and patronesses were Dr. and Mrs. Endicott, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Zane, Mr. and Mrs. Ware, and Mrs. Katherine Yerex.

Alpha Chi Omega entertained at a formal supper dance at the chapter house, Saturday evening. The dancing rooms were decorated in black and white silhouettes to carry out a colonial idea. Palms and colored lights were also used in the decorations.

Those who served as patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Anna Hart, Judge and Mrs. L. J. Harris, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Douglass, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bryson.

Out of town guests included Gertrude Sack, Doris Gilliland and Helen Bell, all of Corvallis. Alumni guests were Theodore Tarbel of St. Helens, Frances Kuhl, and Edith Fenwick, of Portland.

Lucille Bowman had charge of arrangements for the dance.

Gamma Nu entertained at an informal dance at Lee Duke's, Friday evening. The upstairs dancing room was decorated with baskets of heather and acaia. Carolyn Cooper had charge of arrangements for the dance. As a feature, Ruth Diekey gave a Jack Frost dance.

Patrons and patronesses included Miss Hazel Prutsman, Mrs. Elizabeth Seafie, Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Gavit, Mr. and Mrs. John Seavey, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Miller and Mrs. V. D. Seobert.

Guests from out of town were Ruth Newman from Grants Pass, La Vera Keyt from Portland, Dorothy Thompson from Newberg, and Dorothy Deitze from Corvallis.

Poker chips and cards were used to carry out the idea of an Apache dance at the Alpha Upsilon house, Friday evening. Candle lights were used against a black background and refreshments were served from a bar. Mel Parker had charge of the affair.

Acting as patrons and patronesses were Dean and Mrs. Earl Pallett, Mr. A. Holmes Baldrige, and Mr. George V. Blue.

Members of Psi Kappa gave their regular winter term formal at the Eugene hotel, Saturday evening. Violets, sweet peas and red candles were used on each of the tables around the room. Bruce Titus was in charge.

Invited to be patrons and patronesses were Miss Hazel Prutsman, Capt. and Mrs. J. J. McEwan, Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Abercrombie, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Dale, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hartham, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Morris, Mrs. Sherer, Mrs. Stuart and Dr. J. F. Titus.

Out of town guests included Mr. Gooding and Mr. Wilkinson from Portland, and Miss Katherine Dearborn from Corvallis.

A subterranean cave, a gangplank leading into the house, maps and ships were used at the pirate dance given by Sigma Kappa at the chapter house, Saturday evening. A treasure hunt for pennies was another interesting feature of the dance.

Acting as patrons and patronesses were Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. N. Armes, Mrs. Burrows, Lieut. and Mrs. Herbert and Mr. and Mrs. Stillman.

Laurine Needham of Portland was a guest at the dance.

Alpha Lambda of Kappa Delta held its winter formal, Saturday evening, at the Eugene hotel. Palms were used effectively around the rooms. At each table were dainty orchid colored sweet pea bouquets and embedded in the middle were lighted orchid tapers. Marjorie Seiple had charge of the dance.

Patrons and patronesses for the formal included: Mrs. Jeannette Lange, Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Pallett, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Caswell, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Koke.

Mr. George Williamson, assistant professor of English, spent the week-end visiting in Corvallis with a friend.

Miss Amy Burnham Onken, grand president of Pi Beta Phi sorority, was a guest of Oregon Alpha chapter for this last week-end.

Miss Onken is making an inspection tour of the Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana chapters of the fraternity. Her home is in Chapin, Illinois.

Members of Pi Beta Phi entertained at a formal dinner, Thursday evening in honor of the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Chambers, Dr. and Mrs. Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bryson, Mrs. Potter, Mrs. Rose Osburn, Mrs. Addie Osburn, Mr. and Mrs. Calkins, and Mrs. Otilie Seybolt.

Red tulips and tapers were used as the table centerpiece in keeping with St. Valentine's day.

Alumnae guests at the Pi Beta Phi house this last week-end included: Margaret McGee, Kay Stinger, Nancy Luckel, Mary Luckel, and Elizabeth Cress.

Margaret Edmondson To Lead 'Sing' Tonight

Tickets for Dinner on Sale At Living Organizations

An informal "sing" led by Margaret Edmondson is to feature the cafe dinner which is to be held this evening at the Y. W. C. A. bungalow by members of the Frosh Commission.

The dinner, which is being held in an effort to bring about more friendship among the freshmen women on the campus, is the first event of the sort ever to be done by the Frosh Commission.

Tickets for the dinner are twenty-five cents and they are on sale in all the houses. The affair will last from 6 to 7 o'clock, and Lois Nelson, president of the Frosh Commission, urges that all freshmen women attend. Helenarr Grissom is in charge.

Grille Dance

FRIDAY NIGHT ONLY

Make your Reservations Early

CAMP SHOPPE

YOU GUESSED IT

IT'S A TYPEWRITER YOU NEED

Better Grades—Easier Work

We can furnish typewriters of any make Buy or Rent—Student Terms

OFFICE MACHINERY & SUPPLY CO.

1047 Willamette Phone 148

FASHION DICTATES

Red, Blue and Green SHOES

and

William's Self Service Store

shows them

We have just received the following patterns in colored shoes direct from the East:

Marine Blue, cuban heel pump, front bow of blue and tan .....	$4.98
Green or Blue spike heel pump futuristic pattern .....	$3.48
Red or Blue spike heel pump, silver trimmed bow .....	$4.98
Blue or Green spike heel pump, futuristic pattern .....	$3.48
Red cuban heel T strap slipper .....	$3.48

Our low prices enable you to purchase several differently colored pairs for the price you would ordinarily pay for one

SEE THEM IN OUR WINDOW

WILLIAM'S Self Service Store

77 East Broadway

SERVE YOURSELF AND SAVE

SPECIAL

RENT ANY BOOK IN

the HIGH HAT

from

Thursday till Monday

15c

This includes all fiction, poetry and non-fiction. Take the book our Thursday Morning and return it Monday anytime. The charge will be 15c. There are 160 books to choose from.

the Book Balcony

of

the UNIVERSITY "CO-OP"

Cousin Jedediah

Company coming from Boston . . . . Aunt Sophia, Jedediah! Eva runs to Aunt Betty's to tell her the news. Josh hitches the colt to the double-seated chaise. Jerusha puts the kettle on; Obed tallows up his shoes. The family's slick and ready now for Cousin Jedediah . . . . "coming sixty miles—think of it!—in only eight hours." Slick and ready for the latest Boston news . . . . "A glass thing with a chimney that lights the whole room—called a lamp!"

Green forever now—those Jedediah days. Fast trains do away with the excitement of an approach. Aunt Betty owns a telephone; Josh drives a car; Jerusha pours dinner, cooked, out of cans; Obed thinks nothing of jumping into brand-new shoes.

Advertisements make the difference. They've urged conveniences upon you till you're old-fashioned not to enjoy them. Phonographs, radios, refrigerators, breakfast foods—they've talked about them all. So spread the news that they are easy for you to get. Every day the advertisements tell of new improvements; tell of a number of things you might not like to miss.

Read Emerald Advertisements—They're News