

SOCIETY

By LAVINA HICKS

Very few social affairs were sponsored on the campus the past week. The Phi Gamma Delta informal grille dance being the only dance enjoyed. The luncheon given by Mrs. Eric W. Allen for a group of faculty women was an outstanding event of the week as was also the announcement of the engagement of Miss Eleonor Kilham to Archibald Campbell, at her home in Portland, Saturday afternoon.

Phi Gamma Delta Has Informal Grille Dance At Eugene Hotel

Palms and colored lights were used as the setting for an informal grille dance given by members of Phi Gamma Delta, at the Eugene hotel, Saturday evening. Baskets of sweet peas and daffodils were placed on each of the tables.

Those who served as patrons and patronesses included Mr. and Mrs. Donald Erb, Mr. and Mrs. Claude D. Rorer, Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Conklin and Rev. and Mrs. John Maxwell Adams.

Ronald Murray had charge of arrangements for the affair.

Campbell-Kilham Engagement Told

Miss Eleonor Kilham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Kilham, announced her engagement to Archibald Neil Campbell, son of Mrs. Jane Campbell, at a tea, Saturday afternoon, April 6, at her home in Irvington in Portland.

Besides Miss Kilham and her mother, Mrs. Kilham, Mrs. Jane Campbell assisted in receiving.

Miss Eleonor Kilham is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. Mr. Campbell attended the University of Montana. No date has been set for the wedding.

'Y' Cabinet Plans Series of Events For Coming Weeks

Seabeck Rally With O.S.C. Groups Scheduled for Eugene, April 21

A schedule of Y. M. C. A. events for the next few weeks was arranged by the cabinet when it met in the hut yesterday afternoon. A Seabeck rally, a joint meeting with the Oregon State college Y. M. cabinet, and a hike with the local Y. W. cabinet were scheduled as follows:

April 21, Seabeck rally in Eugene at which the presidents of the Oregon state Y. M. and Y. W., as well as the two secretaries from Corvallis will be guests.

May 5, meeting of the Wesley club, student organization of the local Methodist church, at which the Y. M. Seabeck committee will have charge.

The exact date for the meeting with the O. S. C. cabinet has not been set, although it will come within the next two weeks, according to Don Campbell, Y. M. president.

Wayne Robinson, junior in business administration, was appointed chairman of the visitation committee. He will choose from time to time helpers to aid him in making life easier for infirm patients. Visits, gifts of magazines, and other services are the duties of the committee.

Senior Committee Named

Sally Hughson, chairman of senior entertainment for April Frolic, appointed a committee to arrange a senior stunt yesterday and has called a meeting of the committee today at 4:30 at the College Side. The committee: Doris Wells, Mary Lou Dutton, Joy Ingalls, Jane Holbrook and Mae Tobin.

The next time you step through the doors of the Co-op glance around and notice the variety of stocks carried for your convenience. Everything is here—without the hodge-podge of the "general merchandise" store. Lacking space we can only remind you in today's ad of three important articles:

GREETING CARDS Spring time brings colds — sickness. Don't let your friend be forgotten. Send a greeting card. We carry a full line of them.	TYPE-WRITERS Your grades depend somewhat upon neatness — use a typewriter. We carry Remingtons and Corons and a full line of supplies for them. Cash or terms.	TYPING PAPER The best, cheap typing paper that can be bought. 60c a ream. Of course, there are more expensive — up to $3.50. But for every day use the 60c ream wins.
