

League For Baseball Fans Is Organized

Merrill Hagan to Head Representatives for Bat Slingers

Large Series of Games Are Entered by Houses

Formation of two donut baseball leagues was undertaken yesterday at a meeting of intramural representatives under the supervision of Merrill Hagan, in charge of baseball. As there were 23 entries, it was impossible to divide them into three or four leagues without giving some a decided advantage, so the houses were divided into two leagues, one with 12 and the other with 11 entries. In this way both leagues will play approximately the same number of games. Each house will play every other member of the league once, and the winners will settle the championship in a three game series.

Those in league A are: Sherry Ross, Sigma Pi Tau, Bachelordon, Omega hall, Chi Psi, Delta Tau Delta, Phi Gamma Delta, Gamma hall, Alpha Tau Omega, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Alpha Beta Chi, Phi Delta Theta.

League B: Beta Theta Pi, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Chi, Phi Sigma Kappa, Alpha Upsilon, Kappa Sigma, Sigma Nu, Phi Psi, Zeta hall, Theta Chi.

It was decided at the meeting that pledges living in the halls may play either with their fraternity or with the hall, as they see fit.

Mortar Board to Cast Vote for Senior Women

A meeting for all junior women on the campus will be held in room 108 Villard hall at 4:30 today to choose women eligible for election to Mortar Board. Fifteen women will be voted upon by the juniors. The active members of Mortar Board will then vote on them for membership, considering grades, activities and scholarship. Pledging of those selected for Mortar Board will be held on Campus Day of Junior Week-end. Mortar Board is a national honorary for senior women.

W. M. Tugman Tells About Editor's Work

Patience, tolerance, and respect for others are essential if editorial comment is to be handled successfully, William M. Tugman, managing editor of the Eugene Guard, said yesterday in an address to journalism students on "The Importance of Being Good-natured as Well as Earnest in Editorial Comment."

Sigma Delta Chi, international journalism honorary, sponsored the talk. Eric W. Allen, dean of the school of journalism, introduced the speaker.

Mrs. Beck to Attend Spokane Conference

Mrs. Anne Landsbury Beck, professor in the school of music, is now a delegate to Spokane where she is attending the northwest public school supervisors conference, April 10, 11, and 12.

It was through the efforts of Letha McClure, president, and Mrs. Beck, vice-president of the association, that the conference came into existence. Mrs. Beck will be head of all the chairmen for the meet and will have charge of the entire Friday session.

Dr. Seashore Working On New Chronograph

Dr. Robert Seashore, associate professor in psychology, and his brother, Sig Seashore, junior in the same department, have begun work on a machine which will record the elapsed time necessary for an individual's nervous system to react to an outside stimuli. The machine is called a chronograph and will be built along the lines of an old-fashioned phonograph except that it will be run by electricity. The new machine will aid greatly in further experiments in the field of psychology.

Auction Yields Big Sum; Joe McKeown's Lit Sold

They sold a "From Beowulf to Thomas Hardy"—one that had the naive notes of a 1926 freshman named Joe McKeown—for four cents. They sold a ten-dollar slide rule to some math major for five dollars. They sold dozens of men's slickers, red ones, yellow and green ones, some new and some "slightly worn." They sold a pair of black silk hose, a fraternity pin, 20 fountain pens, wrist watches, books, umbrellas, jewelry, gym bloomers.

They kept the "what I am offered—now's your chance" gag going from nine o'clock in the morning to three in the afternoon yesterday—and when the last droopy hat and streaked raincoat had been disposed of the auctioneer in charge of the annual Woman's league sale on the library steps found $83 had been added to the treasury.

French Play April 19

The part of Lucinde, formerly held by Jeanne Bacher, in the French comedy, "Le Medecin Malgre Lui," which will be given in the Guild hall theater April 19, has been taken by Cornelia Pipes, instructor in French.

The play will be put on by instructors and students of advanced French. Costumes of the time of Louis XIV, which the cast will wear, were designed by Mrs. Pierre Thomas.

PLEDGING ANNOUNCEMENT

Phi Delta Theta announces the pledging of Bill Prætor, of Eugene.

'Congress' Public Speaking Contest Being Organized

Burt Brown Barker Award To Compose at Least Three Prizes

The Burt Brown Barker award, to be offered to the winners of the speaking contest conducted by the Congress club, will consist of at least three prizes, according to Leland N. Fryer, president of the organization. The total amount will be $25, donated to the Congress club recently by Burt Brown Barker, vice-president of the university.

The contest is open to all students on the campus who have manifested interest in public speaking activities during the past year, except those who have represented the university in inter-collegiate speaking contests. At least two attendances of Congress club meetings after this date and prior to the opening of the contest will be required of those entering.

There will be two main divisions, the extemporaneous, requiring a seven-minute speech on topics to be selected from a list of those discussed during the term, and the oratorical, requiring a ten-minute written oration on any subject which the speaker may choose. Each contestant will speak in both divisions, the extemporaneous speech counting three-fifths and the oration two-fifths in the judges' calculation of the final results.

Judges are to be chosen from the faculty and townspeople. The exact date of the contest is yet to be definitely selected, but it will be some time in May.

The committee in charge of the conducting of the contest, members of which are Thomas Simons, Roger Pfoff, and Sylvester Smith, will meet Wednesday evening with the president. The subject for discussion will be "Capitalism," to be introduced by Leland Fryer. The subject at last week's meeting was "Religion vs. Modern Thought," introduced by Paul Laub.

Oregon Hears Praise Ali Formerly of Punjab

An interesting but reticent student is Mohd Ali, who enrolled in the economics department this term from the University of Southern California.

Ali's home is in Punjab, India. He received his earlier education at the University of Punjab under a government scholarship. When he had finished the prescribed work there, friends helped him to come to America to continue his schooling.

He received his degree from the University of Southern California in 1928, and is now working for his master's degree. Ali likes Oregon very much. After earning his master's degree he expects to go to Harvard to seek a Ph.D., and then he will return to India and teach school.

Faculty to Swim

A faculty class in swimming will be held every Monday evening from 7:30 until 9 o'clock at the Woman's building, according to Louise Hodges, instructor in physical education, who will be in charge of the class.

Both men and women faculty members may attend. Johnny Anderson, varsity swimmer, will be life guard.

Famed Journalist Will Deliver Phi Beta Kappa Talk

'The Unsettled Generation' Is Theme of Rowell's Address May 16

Chester H. Rowell, nationally known newspaperman and writer on international affairs, will be in Eugene May 16, and will deliver the Phi Beta Kappa address and speak to the assembled University of Oregon students on that date.

"The Unsettled Generation" will be the topic upon which Rowell will talk. He is famous as an orator as well as a speaker, and has devoted considerable time to a study of the subject upon which he will talk.

Rowell is a regent of the University of California, and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa. Since 1925 he has been a prominent member of the Institute of Pacific Relations, an organization that has for its purpose study and research of problems of the Pacific basin. He was in attendance at the session held in July, 1927, in Honolulu, and took a prominent part in discussions. He is expected to be in attendance at the coming session of the institute to be held in November in Kyoto, Japan.

Art School to Exhibit

The school of architecture and fine arts will exhibit a collection of school work at the First National bank in Portland, from May 9 to May 16.

Oregon Delegates on Journey to Seattle

As representatives of Oregon, Mahalah Kurtz and Dorothea Lensch left Eugene yesterday to attend the seventh western sectional W. A. A. conference to be held April 11, 12 and 13 in Seattle.

The delegates took with them a display of pictures of women's sports and of athletic equipment with which they hope to win for the second time the trophy awarded Oregon at the conference held last year at the University of Arizona.

Peggy Price and Phyllis Gove, instructor in physical education, have also gone to attend the meet.
