

Campus Spring Play Chinese In Atmosphere

'The Yellow Jacket' Will Be Presented At Commencement

Mrs. Seybolt Visited California to Get Plans

"The Yellow Jacket," a play which has had long and successful runs in New York, London, Berlin, Munich, Vienna, Budapest, Petrograd, and Moscow, will be presented late this term on the campus as the commencement play, according to Mrs. Otilie Turnbull Seybolt, head of the university drama department.

Mrs. Seybolt was in San Francisco last week getting costumes and properties for the forthcoming production.

"The Yellow Jacket," by George C. Hazelton and Benrimo, is a play in the Chinese manner, and the only full length play of its kind in the English language. It is built in the style of the ancient heroic drama, a style which is still actually used in China today. The plot involves royal characters and intrigue in the royal household centered around a second son who usurps the throne.

Mrs. Seybolt, on her recent visit to San Francisco, was especially interested in becoming thoroughly acquainted with the Chinese theater there. She was invited by one of the Chinese directors to attend some of the performances, and he explained details to her which only those intimately connected with that work understand.

Mrs. Seybolt's interest in the Chinese theater was first aroused when she saw the original production of "The Yellow Jacket" in New York. The play was recently revived in New York by the Coburns and has just closed after a successful run.

The authors, in expressing their purpose in the creation of the play, said that they had attempted to "string on a thread of a universal philosophy, love and laughter, the jade bead of Chinese theatrical convention."

Silver Tea to Be Given At Hut Today for Y. M.

A silver tea, the proceeds from which will help defray the expenses of the new orange paint and curtains in the Y. M. C. A. hut, will be given in the hut this afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock by the wives of members of the Y. M. advisory board. Students, members of the faculty, and townspeople will be welcome.

A program of accordion music and vocal selections will be presented during the afternoon. Mrs. M. H. Douglass, whose husband is chairman of the United Christian work board, is in charge of the affair.

Fee Payments Slow

Up to Tuesday night only one-half of the students had paid their fees, E. P. Lyon, cashier, reported. Only one and one-half days are left besides today, and because of congestion at the office many students will be left with fees unpaid when the fee window closes at noon Saturday.

Library Employees Must Absorb Learning

Are students working in the library smarter than other students attending the university?

Figures compiled of the grade averages of the university library employees show that the average grade made in the fall term by student library workers was 2.68, while that made during the winter term was 2.39.

Lois Baker Inman with a straight "I" average headed the list for fall term. Among the undergraduates, Katherine Karpenstein was the highest with an average of 1.66 and Ronella Lewis was second with a 1.72.

Others with a grade better than C were Evelyn Warnke 1.73, Lincoln Constance 1.8, and Ella Carrick 1.93.

In the winter term, Lois Baker Inman and Kenneth Bonbright each made a "I" average. Of the undergraduates Alyce Cook made a 1.46, Hilda Wanker 1.53, Ronella Lewis 1.53, Lincoln Constance 1.53, Evelyn Hollis 1.56, Olive Fisch 1.75, Katherine Karpenstein 1.85, Katherine Rutherford 1.88, and Evelyn Warnke 1.93.

Ashland Students Visit

Men from Ashland high school visited the Oregon campus yesterday afternoon. They went through the various buildings, saw the Oregon seal and other interesting places at the university.

Twenty-three of the Ashland high leaders are in the party which is led by W. P. Walter, Y. M. C. A. secretary at the southern city, and former secretary in Eugene. Leaving Eugene this morning the men will go on to Salem for a visit, then to O. S. C. where they will spend a day. The week-end will be spent in Portland.
