

Oregon Nine Faces Vandals Next Saturday

Webfeet Slated to Show More Powerful Attack Than Before

Rheinhardt Starts Original Lineup in Game

Oregon baseball enthusiasts will have another opportunity to size up the 1929 varsity nine next Friday and Saturday afternoons when the Rheinhardt coached crew will meet the University of Idaho tossers on Reinhart field. The Webfeet should show a more powerful attack against the Vandals than they exhibited in the Aggie games, when they were unable to hit when Ira Woodie hits meant runs.

Coach Billy Rheinhardt will start the same lineup he used in the first Aggie game, as he figures he has a well balanced team in those nine men. They played good ball against the Corvallis team, only two errors being made in Friday's game. Dave Epps dropped a hard high fly and Frankie Andrews, who shows great promise at short, threw high to first after stopping a hard hit grounder.

Team Unable to Hit
The chief trouble Rheinhardt has experienced with his squad is their inability to hit. This condition is unavoidable, due to only one practice game having been played before the opening conference tilt. The game at Corvallis Saturday was postponed after the fourth inning because of rain. Bill Baker was in the box for Oregon and had allowed the Aggies only two hits. Oregon went hitless and neither team was able to score. It is probable that this game will be played off at the end of the regular season.

Idaho to Face Oregon
Idaho will take the field against Oregon with two conference victories chalked up, both against Washington State. The Vandals defeated the Cougars 10 to 9 Friday and 11 to 8 Saturday. Oregon pitchers will have their hands full to stop the hard hitting Idaho team. In the first game of the season Idaho went on a batting spree and scored seven runs in the fourth inning, knocking two Cougar pitchers out of the box before the hitting orgy stopped. Frank Judy, Floren Grabner, and Everett Lawrence do the major share of hurling for the Vandals with Walt Price catching. In this game three Idaho players hit circuit drives.

Movie Dance Scene Is Scheduled for Today

About 50 couples will be needed for the social affair which is one of the main scenes in the whole film. Men will wear cords and coats while the girls will wear sport clothes.

Tennis Play Resumed; Two Matches Scheduled

Intramural tennis play will be resumed today providing the unfavorable weather that has temporarily halted tournament progress does not continue. Coach Abercrombie announced last evening. Two doubles matches are on schedule at 3 o'clock this afternoon, Theta Chi vs. Delta Tau Delta and Independents vs. Kappa Sigma.

The A. T. O.'s sailed up alongside the Phi Deltas, who have been ready for the semi-finals for several days. The winner of the Theta Chi-Delta Tau Delta match tackles the A. T. O. pair, but the Independent-Kappa Sigma winner must face the Fijis before the Phi Deltas will have competition.

Frosh Baseball Teams Win Two Tilts at Ashland

Mimnaugh Gets Three Hits in Each Game; Salem Is Next Opponent

The freshman baseball team is practicing for games with Salem high school, here Friday and Saturday, after returning from Ashland where the yearlings won two contests from Southern Oregon Normal school.

The score of the first was 4 to 2, and the second ended 14 to 3. In both games, the first of the year for the freshman, the team played good baseball although the players became erratic at times, says Spike Leslie, frosh coach who headed the trip south.

Brian Mimnaugh, second baseman, got the most hits for the frosh, three in each game. John Londahl, third sacker, collected five, one in the first tilt and four in the second. Larry Jackson, outfielder, was next with one hit in the opening game and two in the next.

Edmund Charles and Hal Waffle pitched in the first and second games, respectively. Each went the full route. Both men are from Portland schools. Charles allowed seven hits and Waffle was nicked for five.

Six Records Fall As Vancouverites Win Relay Meet

Portland Schools Annex Eight of Twelve Track Events

Setting two new state records and tying one, Vancouver high school of Washington, after grimly fighting their way for two hours in the drizzling rain which settled upon Hayward field Saturday afternoon, finally wrested the laurels in the third annual Oregon state relay meet from a field of 250 athletes representing 19 different schools.

During the course of this meet six state records, including one mark of more than a quarter of a century's standing, were smashed and one tied. Of the dozen events on the program the records of only one of two were not seriously threatened by the competitors during the course of the afternoon.

Quarter Mile Records Smashed
New records were established in the quarter mile, two mile, distance medley, 100-yard dash, broad jump and shot put. The sprint medley mark was equalled.

Of the performances of the Vancouver athletes by far the most outstanding was that of Frank Rosenquist who shattered a 24-year state record in the broad jump when he bettered by eight inches the mark of Dan Kelly of Pendleton, who jumped 21 feet, 7 inches, in 1904. Although Rosenquist had a slight wind at his back, the officials decided that his leap of 22 feet, 3 inches was made during a lull in the breeze and so let the mark stand.

Vancouver's other record shattering mark was made in the quarter mile in which they were paced to the new record of :44.5 by Franklin high of Portland, last year's champions and record holders. The winning team was composed of Cleveland, Cadwell, Lapsley and Rosenquist. In the sprint medley also the far northerners barely managed to nose out the quakers in the only heat run.

Other Winners Listed
Other teams winning events were: Grant high, which set a new record in the two mile; Commerce high, which bettered all previous distance medley marks; Franklin high, which won the half-mile relay and smashed the individual 100-yard dash. Hill Military academy of Portland which bettered the former individual shot put record; Washington, which was victor in the shuttle low hurdles; Corvallis, which won the one-mile relay; and Benson Tech, which won the pole vault and high jump events.

Among the most thrilling features of the day was the race won by Charley Fyock, Franklin sprint star, when he bettered his own carnival relay record in the 100-yard dash by covering the distance in 10:4. Even with this mark he barely managed to break the tape in front of Hamilton, Benson Tech.

The only two events in which the marks fell below those of past years were the pole vault and high jump. In former years the vaulters were forced to compete in a cold rain which hampered them to a great extent. C. Bristol, Benson Tech star, made the highest vault when he soared over the bar at 11 feet. This is nine inches below the state mark. The high jump was won by Conklin, also of Benson Tech, who carried off the event with a leap which failed to come anywhere near the record of 6 feet, set by Crawford of Jefferson last year.

The committee who worked to make this week-end a success were: Olive Banks, general chairman; Charlotte Carl, Co-eds Revenge; Louise Clark, Kappa Koffee; and Agnes Petzold, Bar-room Bust.

Special and regular members were elected into Pi Delta Phi, national French honorary, at a meeting last Thursday in the Anchorage.

Regular members chosen were: Evelyn Hollis, Catherine Calour, Jan Van der Vate, Edward Daniel, and Jean Tompkins. Special members were Felix Legrand, of the French department; Verne Blue, professor of history; and Juan Centeno, of the Spanish department.

Varsity Frosh Water Polo Men To Play Series

Squads Divided Up Into Two Groups; Artau Leads Donut Aces

Starting today the varsity and frosh water polo players will be divided into two teams to play a practice series. The first varsity game with Oregon State is ten days away, and Coach Abercrombie expects the practice games to put the men in shape for stiff competition.

The fourth week of intramural play finds the Phi Deltas leading the softball league, closely followed by Delta Epsilon and Alpha Tau Omega. Artau of Phi Sigma Kappa is ahead in scoring with three field goals and six free throws for a fifteen total. McKim of A. T. O. is second with thirteen points.

In today's softball league games, Phi Sigma Kappa meets Phi Delta Theta at 4:30, Alpha Tau Omega plays Kappa Sigma at 5, and Delta Epsilon tangles with Sigma Nu at 7 o'clock.
