

Cougars' Ball Club To Play Here May 6, 7

Buck Bailey Bringing 15 Players Down For Contests

Two-game Series Will Be Monday and Tuesday

WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE, Pullman, May 3.—(Special)—Washington State college will meet the University of Oregon in the first two of a four-game series at Eugene Monday and Tuesday. The third and fourth games will be played here later in the month.

Last year the Cougars won the championship of the eastern division and the Webfoots of the western. In one of the most sensational three-game series ever played at Eugene, the Oregon team won the third and final game when Don McCormick, Webfoot third baseman, hoisted one over the fence in the 10th inning.

McDowell to Start
Eddie McDowell, Cougar star, probably will open against the Webfoots. McDowell is one of the best pitchers in the northwest and he hopes to have an opportunity to pitch against Reynold MacDonald, the ace of the Ducks.

Washington State started off poorly by dropping the first two games to Idaho, 9 to 10, and 8 to 11. The Cougars had plenty of fire at bat, but their pitchers lacked their last year's effectiveness, mainly because of poor weather during the spring training.

Fifteen Men on Trip

Fifteen players, Coach Bailey and Student Manager Marion Alexander are making the coast trip. Five of the squad are pitchers, Eddie McDowell, Ted Cragin, Kermit Warden, Hilding Nelson and Oscar Jones. The squad also includes Don Buzzard and Frank Mitchell, catchers; Ted Rohwer, first base; Guy DiJulio, second base; Harvey Cole, shortstop; Archie Buckley, third base; Earl Mitchell, Marvin Koster, Howard Damon and Maynard Lundberg, outfielders.

The baseball games between the University of Oregon and Washington State college here Monday and Tuesday, will start at 4 o'clock, it was announced last night by Jack W. Benefield, graduate manager. This afternoon's game with Idaho will start at 2 o'clock.

Sandwich Makers Will Prepare 6000 For Yearly Lunch

Frosh, Sophs and Juniors Appointed on Squads By Dot Villiger

Thirty girls—freshmen, sophomores and juniors (senior dignity forbids their working)—will be put to work Friday morning at 7 o'clock. Six thousand sandwiches have to be made in three hours. Dorothy Villiger, head sandwich maker, has selected three squads, with a captain at the head of each, to spread the sandwiches for the 3000 students who will attend the campus luncheon next Friday.

Beatrice Bennett, captain of the freshman group, will work from 7 until 8 with the following girls: Jeanne Bell, Margaret McKnight, Bea Luten, Julia Curry, Alice Ruth-erford, Elizabeth Payton, Virginia Smith, Katherine Roome, and Estelle Mays.

The second shift will be engineered by Jo Barry who will be assisted by sophomores: Mildred McGee, Leone Barlow, Marion Pattullo, Alice Hessler, Florence Elliot, Gracia Haggerty, Margaret Delaney, Mary Gauntlet, and Polly Povey.

The final hour will have a group of juniors, headed by Marguerite Looney, to finish the work. Those assisting from 9 to 10 are: Dorothy Dundore, Leone Swengel, Ione Wedemeyer, Jeanette Gunther, Lucille Powell, June Goodell, Marjorie Chester, Evelyn Hartman, and Grace Yonkley.

Semi-finals Will Be Completed This Week

The semi-final round of the women's tennis tournament must be played before Monday, May 6, according to Naomi Moshberger, who is in charge of the tournament. Those who will play are, Jane Cochran vs. Carolyn Haberlach and Grace Vath vs. Jeanne Bell. Matches will be played at the convenience of the contestants.

Dean Powers Leaves

Dean Alfred H. Powers of the university extension division has gone to Texas to attend the annual meeting of the National University Extension association which will be held at Austin, Texas, May 13 and 14.

He will read a paper on the subject of graduate work by extension. He will visit extension divisions in Colorado, Kansas, Arkansas, and other states on his way to the meeting and on the return trip.

'You and I' to be Given at Rex Theater; Plot Has Complications

Phillip Barry's poignant comedy-drama, "You and I" will be presented May 16 at the Rex theater by the Community Drama club.

Letty McEwan wife of Capt. John McEwan, head football coach, and Bob Earl, brother of Virgil Earl, athletic director of the university, have the two leads: "You" and "I" being, respectively, Mr. and Mrs. White.

Mrs. Kenneth Shumaker, the wife of Kenneth Shumaker, supervisor of English A, and Harry Camden, professor of sculpture, are taking the juvenile leads.

The club was started about two months ago, and this play is the first one to be given. The story is that of a blighted career. Mr. White had dreams of becoming an artist, and then he got married. There was a child, and so he had to go into business.

The action of the story takes place when, as a middle aged man, he leaves his business world and becomes an artist again—for just one year.

He uses the servant as his model. The servant, "Etta" is played by Gerda Brown.

At the end of the year the picture is bought for $4,000 as an advertisement. So much for dreams and aspirations.

It is coached by Arthur Gray, former student, who has for the last several years been engaged on the New York stage. Mr. Gray also has a part in the play.

Another part, that of a business man, is taken by Ernest Ludlow, Eugene business man.

Frosh Select Hockey Captains for Season

Captains for four of the intramural hockey teams were elected this week, according to Louise Hodges, instructor in physical education who acts as coach for the teams. Those elected were: Harriet Osborne, seniors; Naomi Moshberger, juniors; sophomores, Josephine Barry; and freshmen, Dorothy Goff.

Water Polo Aces Practice Daily For Aggie Game

Tilt With O. S. C. Coming Here May 10; Donut Schedule Drawn

In preparation for the Oregon State water polo game here Saturday, May 10, the varsity and frosh squads are engaging in practice tilts at the pool in the men's gymnasium. Games will be played at four o'clock every afternoon next week until Friday in an effort to whip the varsity players into shape for high-class competition, Coach Abercrombie announced last evening.

Intramural games will go on as usual next week with two softball league games Tuesday, S. A. E. vs. Kappa Sigma, 4:30; and Phi Delta Theta vs. Delta Epsilon, 5. Sigma Nu has defaulted their scheduled encounter with Phi Sigma Kappa.

In hardball league games Thursday, the Betas take on the A. T. O. quintet at 4:30, Kappa Sigma meets Phi Psi at 5, and the Phi Sigs face the Pijis at 7. The Independents will be idle.

Positions Open For Men Wanting Odd Time Work

142 Men Placed This Term By Mrs. Donnelly; Jobs Bring Total of $750

Men wishing odd jobs such as dish and window washing, lawn and yard work, floor waxing, and distributing hand bills must file their schedules at the Y. M. C. A., Mrs. Charlotte Donnelly, secretary of housing and employment for men, said yesterday. Several opportunities for

Psychology Professor Works on Color Test

Dr. Harold R. Crosland, associate professor in the psychology department, is working on an experiment which deals with the effect of color of printing paper on proof reading efficiency. During the winter term 115 members of his beginner's psychology class took a series of reading tests which tended to show the accuracy and reading time required for a proof sheet.

Small Charge on Plates

Contrary to the head over the cut of Miss Betty Shipley, holding a University of Oregon nameplate for an automobile, appearing in the Emerald yesterday, which said the plates were free, a charge of 40c for one, or 75c for two, must be made to cover the cost, the express and the handling. Call at George Godfrey's office.

work have come in lately that she has been unable to fill, she said. So far this term odd jobs to the amount of $750 have been distributed by Mrs. Donnelly. One hundred forty-two men have to date this term been given regular positions which will by the end of the school year have netted them $15,436. Of this amount foreign students will have earned $3,710, the secretary reported.

The best jobs available for students are waiting tables and washing dishes, which nets them their board and possibly their room rent. Men working their way through school also act as janitors in public buildings, steam pressers, collectors, stenographers, house cleaners, lunch counter assistants, solicitors, bus boys, waiters in hotels, and house boys.
