

Faculty List For Summer Largest Yet

Total of 107 Members on Staff of Eugene and Portland Sessions

Noted Visiting Educators To Augment Oregon Instructors

Oregon's summer session faculty for 1929 numbers 107 members, or one more than were included in the 1928 faculty, until then the largest in summer session history. These instructors will give work in 260 courses, distributed among 25 major departments of study.

Following are the departments of study represented in the Eugene campus curriculum: art, business administration, chemistry, drama, economics, education, English, geology, German, history, journalism, library methods, mathematics, music, philosophy, physical education, physics, political science, psychology, Romance languages, sociology, and zoology. Courses given in Eugene and not repeated in Portland are Chemistry, drama, library methods, physics, and zoology. Courses given in Eugene are: biology, botany, geography, physiology, platoon library.

Following is the list of instructors, by schools and departments:

Eugene Session
Art—Nowland B. Zane, assistant professor of art, University of Oregon.

Business administration—David E. Paville, dean of the school of business administration, University of Oregon.

Chemistry—O. F. Stafford, head of department of chemistry; Dr. F. L. Shinn, professor of chemistry; Richard Rochm, assistant in chemical laboratories, all of University of Oregon.

Drama—Ottile T. Seybolt, assistant professor of English, University of Oregon.

Economics—Dr. J. H. Gilbert, dean of college and professor of economics, University of Oregon; Victor P. Morris, professor of economics, University of Oregon.

Education—Dr. H. D. Sheldon, dean of the school of education, and the following other members of the Oregon faculty: Dr. B. W. DeBusk, Dr. C. L. Huffaker, Dr. Nelson L. Bossing, C. E. Rothwell, Edgar R. Means, all of the school of education; visiting educators are: Dr. Grace Fernald, associate professor of psychology, University of California at Los Angeles; Dr. Omen Bishop, professor of education and psychology, Whitman college; Dr. Raymond E. Baker, professor of education, Albany college; Dr. Melvin T. Solve, associate professor of English, University of Arizona; Miss Marion Brown, dean of girls, University high school, Oakland, Cal.; Miss Ruth Kneeland, research director, Modesto (Cal.) public schools.

English—Dr. C. V. Boyer, head of English department; Dr. Rudolf H. Ernst, professor of English; Ernest G. Moll, assistant professor of English, University of Oregon; Wilkie Nelson Collins, professor of English in Portland extension center.

Geology—Dr. E. L. Packard, professor of geology, University of Oregon.

German—Dr. Kurt Reinhardt, assistant professor of German, University of Oregon.

History—Dr. R. C. Clark, head of history department, University of Oregon; Laurence J. Saunders, associate professor of history, University of Oregon; Dr. Dan E. Clark, professor of history, University of Oregon; Dr. Livingstone Porter, assistant professor of history, University of Illinois.

Journalism—Eric W. Allen, dean of the school of journalism, University of Oregon.

Library methods—Mrs. M. E. McClain, circulation librarian, University of Oregon; Miss Ella S.

Carriek, and Miss Leone Casford, University library; Miss Gladys English, librarian, high school library, Piedmont, Cal.

Mathematics—Dr. W. E. Milne, professor of mathematics; Dr. D. R. Davis, assistant professor of mathematics, University of Oregon.

Music—Dr. John J. Landsbury, dean of the school of music; Mrs. Anne Landsbury Beck, professor of music; John Stark Evans, professor of music; Rex Underwood, professor of music, violin, University of Oregon.

Philosophy—Dr. Ernest Sutherland Bates, literary editor, Dictionary of American Biography (former professor of English and philosophy, University of Oregon.)

Physical education (summer school of athletic coaching)—Virgil D. Earl, professor of physical education, director of athletics; Capt. John J. McEwan, head football coach; William J. Reinhart, head basketball and basketball coach; William L. Hayward, head track coach; W. D. Fletcher, trainer.

Physics—Dr. A. E. Caswell, professor of physics; Dr. E. D. McAllister, assistant professor of physics, University of Oregon.

Political science—Dr. John R. Mez, assistant professor of economics, University of Arizona.

Psychology—Dr. Edmund S. Conklin, head, department of psychology; Dr. Howard R. Taylor, associate professor of psychology; H. H. Jasper, instructor in psychology, University of Oregon.

Romance languages—Dr. Leavitt O. Wright, associate professor of Romance languages; Dr. A. H. Rowbotham, assistant professor of Romance languages; Felix LeGrand, instructor in Romance languages, University of Oregon.

Sociology—Dr. Charles N. Reynolds, associate professor of sociology, Stanford university.

Zoology—Dr. R. R. Huestis, associate professor of genetics, University of Oregon.

Portland Session

Art—Miss Esther Wuest, director of art instruction, Portland public schools; Miss Ruth E. Halverson, instructor in art, Portland center; Mrs. Natalie Deatrich Grey, instructor in art, Portland center.

Biology—Dr. Olof Larsell, professor of anatomy, University of Oregon school of medicine; Almon J. White, laboratory assistant in biology, Portland center.

Botany—Dr. G. W. Prescott, associate professor of biology, Willamette university; Miss Evelyn M. Hogue, laboratory assistant in botany, Portland center.

Economics—Arthur E. Nilsson, instructor in political economy, Yale university.

Education—Dr. Homer P. Rainey, president of Franklin college, Indiana, former member of Oregon education faculty; Dr. Frank Chapman Sharp, professor of philosophy, University of Wisconsin; W. G. Beattie, extension lecturer, University of Oregon; Thomas H. Gentle, professor of education, Portland center.

English—Frank P. Rand, editor The Signet, Amherst, Mass.; Dr. Melvin T. Solve, associate professor of English, University of Arizona; S. Stephenson Smith, associate professor of English, University of Oregon; Dr. Ralph D. Casey, professor of journalism, University of Oregon; F. M. Warrington, professor of Romance languages, Portland center.

Geography—A. L. Lomax, professor of business administration, Portland center; Dr. Korenori Anan, instructor in Japanese, Portland center.

German—Dr. F. G. G. Schmidt, head of the department of German, University of Oregon.

History—Dr. Joseph Schaffer, superintendent of Wisconsin Historical Society; Dr. Livingstone Porter, assistant professor of history, University of Illinois; Dr. Andrew Fish, assistant professor of history, University of Oregon.

Journalism—Dr. Ralph D. Casey, professor of journalism, University of Oregon; Walter W. R. May, Portland Oregonian.

Mathematics—Edgar E. DeCou, head of department of mathematics, University of Oregon.

Music—William H. Boyer, supervisor of music, Portland public schools; Frederick W. Goodrich, instructor in music, Portland center.

Philosophy—Dr. Frank C. Sharp, professor of philosophy, University of Wisconsin.

Physical education—Robert Krohn, supervisor of physical education, Portland public schools; Miss Elizabeth Lewis, instructor in physical education, University of Texas; Dr. Ira A. Manville, associate in physiology, University of Oregon school of medicine.

Platoon library—Miss Harriet Wood, supervisor of school libraries, state department of education, St. Paul, Minn.

Political science—Dr. Ben H. Williams, associate professor of political science, University of Pittsburgh; Dr. Casey.

Psychology—William Griffith, assistant professor of psychology, Reed college.

Romance languages—F. M. Warrington, professor of Romance languages, Portland center.

Sociology—Dr. Ulysses G. Weatherly, professor of sociology, Indiana University; Dr. Ada C. McGowan, assistant professor of sociology, Russell Sage college, Troy, New York; Mrs. Saldie Orr-Dunbar, executive secretary, Oregon Tuberculosis association; Homer A. Chamberlin, secretary, Oregon Social Hygiene society.

22 on Faculty Of Education Summer Term

Specialists from Oregon And Other Universities Will Give Courses

(Continued from Page One)

during the school year, 1919-20, has since been teaching on the staff of the University of Michigan and since 1928 on that of the University of Arizona.

Dr. Leavitt O. Wright, associate professor of Romance languages in the University of Oregon, will give a course in the teaching of foreign language.

Dr. Raymond E. Baker, who is a professor in education in Albany college, will have a class in child psychology. Dr. Baker took his Ph.D. in 1928.

Charles G. Wrenn, secretary, committee on vocational guidance at Stanford, will conduct two classes, one in educational and vocational guidance, and the other in curriculum construction.

Course for Girls' Advisers

Miss Marion Brown, who is vice-principal and dean of girls at the University high school, Oakland, Cal., will have a course on the work of deans and advisers of girls.

Miss Ruth Kneeland, research director of the Modesto public schools, California, is also included on the staff.

Professor and instructors on the regular University of Oregon faculty who will remain in Eugene are: Dean Sheldon, Dr. B. W. DeBusk, professor of education; Dr. C. L. Huffaker, professor of education; Dr. Nelson L. Bossing, associate professor of education; Charles Easton Rothwell, instructor in University high school; and Edgar R. Means, instructor in education at the University of Oregon.

Instructors and professors at the Portland session follow:

Dr. Homer P. Rainey, president of Franklin college, Indiana, will give two courses in Portland. One of these will be the history of American education, and the other administration of elementary education. Dr. Rainey is recognized as an authority in both fields.

Dr. Frank Chapman Sharp, who has been professor of philosophy at the University of Wisconsin since 1893, is scheduled for a course in moral education.

Thomas H. Gentle, former director of the training school at Oregon normal, now on the University of Oregon extension staff, will have classes in psychology of the common branches, observation and practice in platoon demonstration school, and principles of elementary instruction.

W. G. Beattie, extension lecturer at the University of Oregon, will have a class in educational sociology. He will also be chairman of correlation which is being given at the Platoon Demonstration school at Shattuck school, a few blocks from Lincoln high school.

C. R. Holloway, assistant superintendent of Portland public schools and principal of the Holladay Demonstration Platoon school, is to teach a Portland course in platoon organization, administration and program building.

Auditorium Work Taught
Miss Grace Bridges, of Portland, will teach an auditorium work course. She is director of auditoriums of the Portland schools.

Library work will be taught by Miss Emeroi Stacy, librarian at the Holladay Demonstration school.

Miss Carolyn Brown will instruct in material and equipment of visual education and the application of visual aids in platoon schools. Miss Brown is director of visual education in the Portland schools.

Games Scheduled for Intramural Hockey

Seven games have been scheduled for the women's intramural hockey for next week, announced Ruth Bureham, head of that sport. The schedule for the week following: Monday, frosh first vs. seniors and sophomores vs. mixed team; Tuesday, juniors vs. frosh first; Wednesday, seniors vs. sophomores and frosh first vs. frosh second; Thursday, juniors vs. sophomores; Friday, frosh second vs. mixed team.

LES PARFUMS COTY

IN EXQUISITE METAL CASES

Dainty marvels of chic—perfect for the purse. Quarter ounce flacons in platinum-toned cases.

ODEURS
L'ORIGAN
"PARIS"
CHYPRE
EMERAUDE
L'AIMANT
LA ROSE
JACQUEMINOT $1.50
STYX—$1.75
JASMIN DE CORSE $2.25
Refillable with regular 1/4 oz. flacons

SOLD AT THE BETTER SHOPS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD

They Have "IT" This Week's Releases

Victor Records

"My Time is Your Time"
Fox Trot by Rudy Vallee.

"The Wedding of the Painted Doll."
Song by Charles King.

"Im Ka-razy for You"
Fox Trot by Horace Heidt

Hear these new fascinating numbers today at—

Laraway's

TAXI

Phone 99

RED TOP CAB

32 West Eighth

Junior Week-end--

That last happy gesture of the college year. For the Frosh—no more "libe" steps spectre; for the Soph—cords just around the corner; for the Juniors—a chance to show the seniors the most pleasurable moments of their college career. But this year—Something more.

Mothers Day--

You will share your fun this year. Mother will enjoy those happy college times—You'll see to that. And she'll want to remember them too—have you thought of that?

Here are a number of suitable reminders

Bath Power      Atomizer      Toiletries
Stationery      Perfume

University Pharmacy

Happy with Mother---

This week-end is primarily for your best pal, for her entertainment and joy. We are in the position to aid you in showing her an excellent time.

Delicious Drinks That Throw a Scare Into the Sun

Dinners that mother has often hoped for—to relieve her of the usual preparation—they're mighty good.

Special Strawberry Sundaes
Excellent Service
You'll Come Again

COLLEGE SIDE INN

Pat Scott, Manager

Remember, Mother's Day Is a Part of Junior Week-end

Don't forget to remember Mother in the most appropriate manner by getting her something that she will appreciate.

Remember, too, that the Broadway offers the best and most attractive merchandise at prices appropriate to a collegiate's pocket. The Broadway is just 30 lazy steps from Willamette and is the desirable place to shop for Mother.

The BROADWAY
30 E. Broadway