Oregon Tennis Team Captures Coast Honors

Intercollegiate Title Is Taken from Stanford Squad

Harrison, Lockwood Take Doubles Laurels

When the Oregon tennis team returns to Eugene tonight from a week's stay in California, they will bring back with them the Pacific coast intercollegiate team championship and the doubles championship.

Yesterday afternoon at Palo Alto the Oregon quartet of Bradshaw Harrison, Sherman Lockwood, Stanley Almuqit, and Henry Neer won four matches out of the six in a dual meet with the highly-touted Stanford team, thus giving Oregon the team championship and eliminating the other California school of the Pacific coast, since Oregon had previously defeated O. S. C. and Washington, and Stanford had schools.

At Los Angeles last Saturday, the Oregon doubles combination of Harrison and Lockwood won the coast doubles championship by defeating in the finals of the conference tournament the crack Stanford pair, Johnny Doeg and John Wheatley, 6-3, 6-2.

Eighty-four Education Majors to Take Positions

Education Bureau Selects Majority

More Appointments to be Made During Summer And Fall

Eighty-four student of education have received appointments to teaching positions since the first of January, according to a list issued yesterday by Miss Ida Pope, secretary of the school of education appointing bureau. A few of the 28 men and the 56 women whose names appear on the list have already begun their new duties at the beginning of the school year next September.

The majority of the placements listed below were made directly by the appointment bureau, and cooperation from the staff of the bureau figured in the securing of a large part of the appointments not made directly.

These names represent only the appointments made to date," said Miss Pope in giving out the list for publication. "More appointments will be made and announced all through the summer and fall. From January first, 1928, to January first of this year we made 265 appointments, and expect to equal that mark before this year is over.

Prof. F. L. Stetson of the education school is director of the appointment bureau.

The list of placements follow in full:

Harold W. Allison, Eugene, Oregon; Marion Elizabeth Anderson, Roseburg, Oregon; Olive Banks, Wallowa, Oregon; K. Dealtry Bean, Chiloquin, Oregon; Frederick Beck, Waldport, Oregon; Luola Bengt, Medford, Oregon; Mrs. Edna Converse Berst, Miss Catlin's School, Portland; LaRoy Bove, Fossil, Oregon; Lawrence Boyle, Florence, Oregon; Hope V. Pi Sigma o Initiate Pledges Tuesday Night

Pi Sigma, Latin honorary will hold formal initiation at 5 o'clock Tuesday, in Alumni hall. The ceremony will be followed by a banquet at 6 o'clock in the Osburn hotel, to which all Latin students are invited. Dr. Clara M. Smertenko, associate professor of Greek and Latin, will address the group, and Catherine Calouri, president of the honorary, will be toastmistress.

The initiates are: June Goodale, Ethel Mackey, Fred Calef, Margaret Turner, and Catherine Westra.

Movie Workers Will Broadcast

EXTENSION DIVISION EMERALD BROADCASTS THIS WEEK

Tonight—Special Campus Movie Night broadcast from 8 to 9 o'clock. Featuring talks by the stars, music, and comedy.

Wednesday—Talk by Bill Hayward on the Pacific coast conference track and field meet to be held here May 31 and June 1.

A Campus Movie Night broadcast will be sent over the air from KORE between 8 and 9 o'clock tonight as a special feature of the regular Extension Division-Emerald time.

Jim Sharp will act as master of ceremonies of the "whoopie" program. George Weber is in charge of music for the broadcast.

Two of the directors of the movie, Jim Raley and Carvel Nelson, and Ron Hubbs, business manager of the photoplay, will each give short talks. Raley will give the history of the movie, telling how the original idea of the film was worked out and how the first plans were made. He will trace the entire background of the movie. Nelson will talk on the production end of the picture and tell of the technical work that has been done so far. Hubbs will outline his plans for the release of the picture and of the bookings it will have over the state.

Leads to be Introduced

The leads in the film, Dorothy Burke, Verne Elliott, Norman Eastman, Phyllis Van Kimmell, Helen Allen, James Lyons and Bill Overstreet, will be introduced to the radio audience and will give brief outlines of the parts they are playing in the production.

Johnny Robinson and his Varsity Vagabonds will lead their "whoopie" by playing several numbers during the course of the hour, and Jack Dennis will be on hand with a new supply of popular songs.

Graham Covington and Howard Wall will introduce a suggested theme song of their own composition for the movie. Another call for theme songs was sent out yesterday by the directorate of the movie. Theme songs must be turned in to Jim Raley or Carvel Nelson before June 1. The song that is accepted will be used with the film wherever it is presented.

Bill Gillette and Omar Palmer will present a takeoff on one of one of the scenes from the campus movie. Novel sound effects will be used by the pair in their comedy sketch.

Movie Tone Predominates

The movie idea will predominate throughout the entire broadcast hour, Sharp said yesterday. Each number on the program will be introduced as if it were a scene from the movie. The familiar studio call for lights, action, and camera will be heard.

"The Campus Movie Night broadcast will offer a well-arranged, diversified program that will be well worth listening to," a member of the directorate said yesterday. "Don't fail to tune in on KORE tonight at 8 o'clock."

Farmer Honored at Pan Xenia Banquet

A banquet in honor of Arthur J. Farmer, manager of the Maritime commerce department of the Portland chamber of commerce was given by Pan Xenia, national foreign trade honorary at the Multnomah hotel in Portland at 6:30 last Saturday evening.

Alfred L. Lomax, professor of foreign trade of the Portland extension division, who was one of the founders of the U. S. Epsilon chapter on this campus, spoke on "Factors Confronting the Foreign Trade Graduate Looking for a Job." Mr. Farmer spoke on a similar subject. Both talks were based on contacts made with Portland exporters, and personal experiences.

After the banquet Mr. Farmer was initiated into associate membership. Six active members from this chapter and three Portland alumni members were present.

Two Oregon Women Hold Temenid Offices

Helen Webster, senior in history and member of Kappa Kappa Gamma was elected national vice-president and Renee Grayce Nelson, junior in the school of journalism, national editor-historian of Temenids, women's Masonic honorary, at a convention of the national organization in Eugene May 17 to 19.

Miss Webster retired from the office of guardian of the gates which position she has held in the national council for the past two years. Miss Nelson has been an officer in the local chapter and has also represented the group as a national convention delegate in 1927.

Seniors Will Select Albert Prize Winner

Helen Webster, Hubbs, McKenna Named by Committee

Class Secretary Will Be Elected

Class Meeting Tonight Will Decide Questions of Business

Selection of the winner of the Albert prize, election of a permanent secretary of the class of 1929, report of the committee on the class memorial, and a discussion of the class picnic are among the matters of business to come up before the last senior class meeting of the year, which is scheduled for 7:30 tonight at Guild hall. Francis McKenna, president, urges that all members attend as it is imperative that these subjects be decided immediately.

The Albert prize is awarded each year to the member of the class who has progressed most in character, service and wholesome influence. The cup is donated by Joseph Albert of Salem. Helen Webster, Ronald Hubbs and Francis McKenna were named as candidates by the faculty committee on awards, and the entire class will vote on these names.

Secretary To Be Chosen

"The woman chosen for the permanent secretary should be likeable, well-known and very conscientious," according to those making arrangements. "It is essential that the permanent secretary be interested in the class as a whole and the individuals in it."

Frank Hall has been acting as chairman of the committee on the class memorial. Elsie Goddard, Rose Roberts, Al Cousins and Scott Milligan are the other members. A report will be submitted and the choice of the class secured in the matter.

Action will be taken in regard to the class picnic, the date, place and those to take charge of the affair. It has been suggested that it be held on May 30, and a vote will be taken on it.

Jeanette Calkins To Talk

The alumni organization and procedure incidental to commencement exercises will be explained by Jeanette Calkins, alumni secretary. Details of the graduation affairs will be announced and explained. The announcements for the commencement exercises may be ordered at the Co-op, according to Paul Wagner, chairman of the committee, and still be received in time to mail out to friends if the orders are placed immediately.

Noel Thomas will be in charge of the elections at this evening's meeting.

Soph Picnic Now Attracts Attention Of Entire Campus

Day Full of Entertainment Is Promise of Committee Heads for Affair

Now that the freshman picnic is a matter of history, all the campus has focused its attention upon the outdoor affair of the sophomore class to be held at Swimmer's Delight on Thursday, May 30.

James Dezendorf announced yesterday that the committee had checked over the financial allowances for the affair, and felt assured that the class picnic next week will be complete in every detail.

John Kitzmiller, chairman of the entertainment committee, promised that there will be something for everyone to do from the time that they arrive at the grounds until the time the class boards the busses homeward bound in the evening. Bill Whitely and Kathryn Langenburg are on Kitzmiller's committee.

The open-air floor dance will begin at about 6 p. m. and end near the 10 o'clock hour, according to Joe Freck, who has lined up a snappy orchestra for the social event. Ken Curry and June Cullers are serving under Freck on the music committee.

Women Play Final Game

In the last game of the women's intramural baseball season, the first all-star team won easily from the second all-stars by a score of 7 to 1. Jeanette Hermance and Hilda Top furnished the battery for the winning team.

Editors Listed for Big Emerald Issue

Paper Will Give Resume Of University Activities

Editors for the six sections of the last Emerald of the year which will be issued Saturday morning, May 25, have been chosen by Carl Gregory, acting managing editor. They are Neil Taylor, activities section; Carl Gregory, faculty section; Dorothy Kirk, women's section; Mary Klemm, commencement and seniors' section; Delbert Addison, sports section; Mary Frances Dilday, regular news section.

The paper will have 24 pages, four pages in each section, and is intended to carry a resume of all university activities during the year, and to serve as a souvenir for students. A banquet will be given at the Osburn hotel for all staff members, Saturday, the day of the last edition of the Emerald. Such a large issue has never before been attempted, according to journalism professors, and all reporters will contribute to one or more of these sections.

Oregon Golf Team To Meet Harvard In Telegraph Tilt

Moe Devises Method to Play Matches By Wire

Contest Will be First of Kind Ever Held

The University of Oregon four man golf team will meet Harvard university golfers in the first telegraphic intercollegiate match in the history of the sport Wednesday and Thursday, it was announced here Monday by J. W. Benefield, graduate manager.

Players will use the system devised by D. K. Moe, captain of the Oregon team, whereby team members play against par on respective courses, scoring one point for each hole in par, two points for birdies and three points for eagles. Team members will be ranked, and scores of number one man compared with number one of the other team. Victory will then be determined by individual matches between players of equal ranking.

Players for the University of Oregon will be D. K. Moe, who recently won the Pacific coast conference intercollegiate title; George Will, '31, who with Moe won the coast conference championship at the recent Seattle meet; W. C. Palmberg, '31, and F. J. Heitkemper '31.

Harvard players will be Philip Finlay, W. P. Arnold, Jr., E. B. Murphy and James Baldwin. Team members will be paired in the order named.

The two teams will play 18 holes each day, making a 36 hole match. Scorer for Oregon will be W. F. Tugman, editor of the Eugene Daily Guard and a graduate of Harvard. The Eugene Country club links will be used here, and is regarded as one of the best in the west.

The University of Oregon golf team has not been defeated this year and holds the championship of the Pacific Coast conference.

Margaret Edmundson To Head Student Group

Margaret Edmundson, junior in sociology and former president of the Y. W. C. A., Sunday night was announced head of the university department of the Methodist church, the department including the Wesley club, student organization, and a morning class called the student forum. Miss Edmundson succeeds Miss Mary E. Findley, formerly director of religious education at the church, though her position is not the same.

Wesley club delegates to the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. conferences at Seabeck in June were voted upon at the meeting Sunday. The delegates, a man and a woman, will be named later.

Group of Philometele Gives Sunday Program

Musique, Literature and Poetry group of Philometele, held the last meeting of the term in Alumni hall Sunday afternoon. The afternoon was arranged in honor of the graduating members and members of Phi Theta Upsilon.

Vocal solos were given by Stella Fishburne and Mildred Wharton; Nelda Cooper played several selections on the piano. Margaret Edmundson, president of the group, read several original poems. After the program, tea was served on the sun porch for a social hour.

Oregon Loses Third Game To Cougars

Webfoots Take Small End of 13-11 Score; Ahead at Fifth

Epps Hitting Star Of Entire Game

Oregon Outbats Opponent But Fails to Take Advantage

PULLMAN, Wash., May 20.—(Special)—Washington State college demonstrated the theorem that a ball game is never won until the last out when it defeated the University of Oregon baseball nine here today 13-11 after nine hectic innings of class F ball.

In the fifth the score was 7-2 in Oregon's favor, but the Cougars kept clouting the ball and adding to their total until they overtook the Webfoots and won by scoring three runs in the sixth and three in the seventh.

Student Prexy MacDowell started in the box for Washington State, but retired in favor of Cragin after allowing seven runs. Jones, who relieved Cragin in the fifth held the Webfoots to four runs and won his second victory over Oregon by his relief pitching, the first being a 6-4 win at Eugene earlier in the season.

Bill Baker hurled seven innings and allowed 12 of the Cougars' runs, Fuller turned them back with one for the rest of the game.

Epps was the hitting star of the day with three solid blows, a home run, a triple and a single, in five tries. Edwards also steamed around the bases on a blow that tore past a distant outfielder and rolled into the next county. Although outbatted by Oregon, Washington State took advantage of its chances better. Djulio, Rohwer, Cole, Cragin and Damon of W. S. C. all connected for extra base swats, while Epps and Edwards were the only ones able to amass more than singles for Oregon. MacDonald will probably hurl tomorrow against the Cougars. Wednesday and Thursday Oregon moves over to Moscow to play Idaho.

The score: Oregon.....11 11 7 W. S. C.....13 11 7 Batteries: Baker, Fuller and Ridings; MacDowell, Cragin, Jones and Buzzard, Mitchell.

Van Dine Holds Tryouts for Jobs On Sports Staff

Writers to be Picked at End of Term; New System to be Used

Final tryouts for positions on the sports staff of the Emerald for next year are being held this week by Harry Van Dine, newly appointed sports editor. Several embryo sports scribes are working for places on the staff, but any men desirous of trying out may do so by getting in touch with Van Dine.

Selections for the various sports are expected to be made at the end of this term according to Van Dine. The new sports head will inaugurate a system slightly different than that used during the past year. It is planned to have a writer for each sport, to handle that sport exclusively during the year. An assistant for the major sports will be selected from the incoming freshman journalists during the fall term. Each writer will be allowed to specify the game with which he is most familiar, and in which he is most interested.

"Hard work will win advancements on the staff," Van Dine declared. "Any man who loafs on the job will be succeeded by a more interested worker."

Applications for positions on the staff may be left on the bulletin board in the journalism building.

'Congress' to Elect

"The Congress," public speaking club, will hold its election of next year's officers at a meeting to be held Thursday evening at 7:30 at the College Side.

Collegiate Chaff : : By Ron Hubbs

Editorial Comment on This and That

Chicago's boasting beer baron, responsible for the quite famous phrase, "be nonchalant . . . light a bomb!" is dazedly enjoying an enforced vacation out Prison Way. Scarface Al Capone, of whom we write, has long led the gay social swirl in which machine guns and innocent bystanders participated. Mr. Capone was somewhat chagrined at the personal affront accorded him by the Philadelphia police who were brazen enough to place the king of the beer racket in very uncomfortable confinement. "Bugs" Moran, his arch enemy and of the same elect aristocracy, will no doubt have a quiet jubilee in South Cicero, and the morning papers will conspicuously list the removal of a few more undesirable as well as casual lookers who were not infallible to machine gun bullets. Gang war may yet furnish a justification for teaching military in colleges. Be your own gang!
