

SOCIETY

By LAVINA HICKS

Social events of the college year were brought to a close this past week-end by a great many informal dances and picnics. The engagements of Miss Helen Wood to John P. Robins and of Miss Frances Murphy to John Wadman were of special interest to their many friends at the university. The remaining week-ends are closed to social events on the campus.

Robins-Woods Engagement Told At Luncheon

At a lovely spring luncheon, Saturday noon, given by Miss Sada Marie Chambers and Miss Mildred Dobbins at the Anchorage, the engagement of Miss Helen Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Wood of Bend, to John P. Robins, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Robins of Salem, was announced.

Miss Wood will graduate from the university in June and is at present acting as secretary for Phi Theta Upsilon, women's upperclass social honorary, and is president of Westminster Guild. Mr. Robins, who graduated from Willamette with his B. A. degree, is at present studying for his master's degree at Stanford.

Wadman-Murphy Engagement Told

At the Eugene hotel on Saturday afternoon a luncheon party was given by Miss Rose Roberts, at which the announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Frances Murphy to Lieutenant John Wadman of Vancouver Barracks.

Miss Murphy, who attended the university, is a member of Chi Omega. Lieutenant Wadman is a graduate of West Point.

At the Eugene hotel Saturday evening, Sigma Phi Epsilon gave a formal dance carrying out the fraternity colors of purple and red in the decorations.

Out of town alumni present at the dance were George Freek, Robert Stoltze, James Morgan, Merle Lindley and Graham West, all of Portland.

Serving as patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Horner, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hermance, Mr. John M. Rae.

An informal breakfast dance was given by members of Delta Tau Delta at their chapter house on Saturday morning, at 9 o'clock. In the afternoon members and their guests enjoyed a picnic at Riverside park. Mark Gill had charge of the breakfast dance and the picnic.

Those invited to be patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Carlton E. Spencer, Mr. George V. Blue, and Captain and Mrs. John J. McEwan.

At the Osburn hotel on Saturday evening, members of the Oregon chapter of Intercollegiate Knights entertained with an informal dancing party. Walter Norblad had charge of arrangements for the affair, which was given for the delegates from nine chapters of the service honorary.

The delegates were Ambrose Adams and Kenneth O'Leary University of Idaho; Douglas McCoy, Percy Lucas, and Walter Hendricks, University of Washington; Ed Keltner and Harold Boone, Oregon State college; Harold Griener, Montana State college; Carl Sheffield, Utah Agricultural college; George Star-land and Carl Kringle, Washington State college; and Ira Curry, Seattle business man, national advisor of the order.

Miss Inez Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Jones, was married to Wayne Loveless of Lakeview, Oregon, on May 4. The marriage was solemnized in Eugene after which Mr. and Mrs. Loveless made their home in Lakeview. The bride graduated from the university in 1928 and has since been teaching in the Lakeview high school.

Members of Phi Sigma Kappa and their guests enjoyed a picnic at Coburg bridge on Sunday afternoon. Gregg Millett had charge of arrangements for the picnic. Acting as patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Reiter and Mr. Murray Fowler.

A garden effect was carried out at the Kappa Sigma chapter house on Saturday evening when all the doorways were turned into lattice arches covered with moss, ferns and flowers. Colored lights were placed in the shrubbery and trees about the lawn and under the millrace.

Serving as patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Earl, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Earl, Captain and Mrs. F. M. Moore, Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Stannard, Mr. and Mrs. Gavin Dyott, and Mr. and Mrs. David M. Graham.

Girls of Susan Campbell hall gave an informal dance on Saturday evening at Hendricks hall, inviting Miss Ernestine Trommel, Miss Fanny McCamant, and Mr. Lawrence De Rycke as patron and patronesses. Miss Jean Greenway had charge of the dance.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson H. Jewett on Saturday evening, members of Beta Theta P. were honored at an informal dancing party which was held out of doors on the tennis court. Special guests at the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Thurmond of Omaha, Nebraska, who were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jewett.

An informal tea dance was given by members of Alpha Delta Pi on Saturday afternoon at the chapter house. Patronesses for the affair were Mrs. Lucy Perkins, Miss Maude Kerns, Mrs. E. L. Packard, and Mrs. Louis Dodge of Ashland.

On Sunday afternoon members of Theta Chi fraternity sponsored their annual picnic at Coburg bridge. Acting as patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Crosland, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Turnbull, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Nelson.

A haunted house idea was used as the decorative scheme at the Chi Psi chapter house on Saturday evening.

Acting as patrons and patronesses were Captain and Mrs. John J. Me-

Ewan, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Dale, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Hardy.

Mrs. Andrew Fish entertained all the girls in her home economics courses at her home on Fairmount boulevard with an informal tea between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock, Saturday afternoon. A few of the girls assisted in serving.

At Robinson's grove on Saturday afternoon and evening, members of Bachelordom and their guests enjoyed a picnic at which Professor and Mrs. F. S. Dunne and Dr. George Guldager served as patrons and patronesses. Keith Maguire and Merwin Simpson had charge of the affair.

Many spring flowers and indirect lighting effects about the lawn underneath the millrace were used to carry out the decorative idea at the Phi Kappa Psi informal dance at the chapter house on Saturday evening.

Patrons and patronesses were Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Harding, and Mr. and Mrs. Wade Newbegin.

Easels, pallets and half finished pictures were used about the rooms of the Alpha Gamma Delta house, Saturday evening, at their informal spring dance, to represent an artist's studio. Members were dressed in gayly colored smocks which lent atmosphere to the affair. Marguerite Spath and Leone Barlow were in charge of the dance.

Invited to be patrons and patronesses were Mrs. R. H. Garland, Miss Harriette Rice, and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Harpham.

Mrs. Leticia Mowry, housemother of Delta Zeta sorority, gave an interesting picnic breakfast on Sunday morning back of Skinner's butte for a group of campus housemothers.

Kappa Alpha Theta members entertained with an informal dance at the chapter house on Saturday evening. The rooms were decorated with Scotch broom and purple iris. A fountain was over the fireplace surrounded by lattice work and covered with flowers. Those invited as patrons and patronesses were Rev. and Mrs. John Maxwell Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Dean H. Walker, Mrs. Katherine Yerex, Mrs. Grace Russell, and Mrs. E. C. Ransom.

Balloons, serpentine, and confetti were used at the Alpha Beta Chi house, Saturday evening, to carry out a carnival idea. Side booths and colored streamers were also used. Neils Nelson had charge of arrangement for the dance.

Those who served as patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Stetson, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fowler, and Dean and Mrs. James H. Gilbert.

An interesting event of last evening was the announcement of the engagement of Miss Ovidia Hammer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hammer to Walter Erickson, son of Mrs. E. I. Erickson, at the Zeta Tau Alpha house.

The announcement was made unique by means of a dictaphone. As the members gathered around and listened to the record, the news of the engagement was disclosed. Tiny find hearts bearing the names of the betrothed were passed.

Miss Hammer, a senior in the university is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority. Mr. Erickson, who graduated with the class of 1928, is affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. Both are from Eugene. No date has been set for the wedding.

Malcolm Medler To Present Organ Recital Tonight

Blind Musician Praised by John Stark Evans For Ability

Malcolm Medler, blind student in the school of music, will present his senior organ recital this evening at 8:00 in the school of music auditorium. He will be assisted by Juanita Oskins, violinist.

The program for the evening will consist of four groups of selections. The first group includes "Fantasia and Fugue in C-minor," by Bach; "Chaconne in F-major," Puccini, and "Dusk and Evening Prayer" (from "Twilight Sketches"), by Lamare. The "Fifth Sonata in C-minor" by Guilmant makes up the second group. This includes the "Allegro Appassionato," "Adagio," "Scherzo," "Recitative," and "Choral and Fugue."

"Reverie" by Vieuxtemps, and

"Polonaise Brillante" by Wioniaski makes up the third group.

In the last group Medler will play "Spring Song" by Hollins, "Carillon in B-flat," by Wolstenholme, and "Etude de Concert" by Bonnet.

Medler has a wonderful faculty for concentration and memory, according to John Stark Evans, associate dean of the school of music, and knows the keyboard and stops of the organ after the first time they are repeated to him.

Pep---

is what any of our cold drinks will give you on these hot spring days. Drop in after class and refresh yourself.

Lemon 'O' Pharmacy

A good breakfast Facilitates learning . . .

Prepare yourself well for these next three weeks by eating regularly at

THE "O" LUNCH

FAREWELL WEEK!

Folks, we are leaving Eugene at the end of this week

If you have enjoyed our previous shows, don't miss this week's program because we have saved

THE BEST FOR THE LAST!

TAYLOR PLAYERS

For the Last Time Today

— WE PRESENT —

"The Old Homestead"

A specially selected production for our closing week. You will like it.

THURSDAY - FRIDAY - SATURDAY

"TEN NIGHTS IN A BARROOM"

NEXT SUNDAY ONLY

"HOLLYWOOD BOUND"

Shows at 7 and 9 p. m. TODAY and WEDNESDAY

EMIL JANNINGS

IN

SINS OF THE FATHERS

RUTH CHATTERTON - BARRY NORTON

The world's finest actor as the ambitious father in a modern American setting. "My Greatest Role," says Jannings, including "The Way of All Flesh."

Comedy—"There It Is"

Kinograms

Usual Prices 25c Children 10c

DR. C. H. DAY

Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon

Special attention to foot troubles

344 Miner Bldg. Tel. 456

The Best Place to Talk it Over--

By the mill race

The ANCHORAGE

"Say it without Whiskers"

CAMPUS BARBER SHOP

Across from Sigma Chi

Children of the Ritz

with Dorothy MACKAIL and Jack MULHALL

A First National Picture

REX

LAST DAY

THE New Service Laundry

is considerate of every garment that comes its way, from the crumpled tux collar to the filmy lace underthings

Phone 825

Bathing Supplies

Swim time is here and we have a complete array of all things necessary to the swimmer.

Bath Caps — Submarine Bath Caps

Bathing Shoes — Belts, etc.

UNIVERSITY PHARMACY

THE STUDENT'S DRUG STORE

11th and Alder

Ask Anyone—

Positively Sensational

Jeanne EAGELS

in

The Letter

AN ALL TALKING SENSATION!

The beautiful star in a compelling drama of love and passion in Singapore. Adapted from the famous stage play by

W. S. MAUGHAM

3 GREAT ACTS

1— EDDIE PEABODY

2— GIERSDORF SISTERS

3— AL HERMAN

MCDONALD

THEATRE