

Idaho Beats Webfooters In Close Tilt

Ten Innings Necessary For Vandals to Win Hectic Game

MacDonald, Judy Pitch for Teams

Two Teams Will Meet for Return Match Today; Columbia Next

By ART SCHOENI

MOSCOW, May 22.—(Special)—It took Oregon ten innings to do it, but they finally managed to lose another baseball game today. This time Idaho hung it on the Webfooters 6-5 after trouncing them for seven innings.

Halliday, Vandal second sacker, was the bad boy in today's sleepy game, getting three hits in four tries, including a homerun with two on in the seventh to tie the score and the winning sock in the tenth. MacDonald pitched his seventh conference defeat of the season on the chin today and his fourth in row. He had easy sailing in the first part of the tilt, leading four to nothing at the end of the fourth, but weakened enough to let the plugging Vandals knot the count and win in the tenth.

Roma Whisnant Is Awarded Key Officers for Next Year Elected at Meeting

Phi Chi Theta, women's professional commerce honorary, awarded the Phi Chi Theta key to Roma Whisnant as the most outstanding upperclass woman in the business administration school. She is the president of Phi Chi Theta, and secretary of the business administration student body and has been very active in school of business affairs. This award has previously been a monetary one, and fifty dollars was awarded two years ago to Glennia Fisher, who is now secretary to the dean of the college.

Officers were also elected at this meeting. The new officers for next year are: Lucile Cornutt, president; Iva Curtis, vice-president; Ethel Conway, secretary; Jo Koberstein, treasurer; Olga Sadlock, historian; and Ruth Holmes, parliamentarian.

Nine Selected For Emerald Business Staff

William Hammond Lists Students to Fill Positions

Weber, Peterson Get Leading Jobs

Brockman and Jackson Chosen to Handle Problems

The business staff of the Emerald was announced last evening by William Hammond, manager, and includes nine students for positions for next year.

George Weber was named associate manager. He was at one time the financial administrator of the paper, foreign advertising manager this year, and is president of Alpha Delta Sigma.

Tony Peterson will act as advertising manager. He has been active in this line of journalistic work and is at present in charge of the advertising for Old Oregon, alumni publication. He was publication manager of the Oregonian this year, and has for nine years been connected with the Astoria Budget, taking the advertising manager's place in the summer.

New Senior Prexy Wires From Idaho Nelson Outlines Plans From Ball Camp

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, May 22.—(Special)—Soon after being notified by numerous telegrams of his election to senior class president, Carl Nelson, Webfoot first sacker, forgot his baseball worries for a time to outline a few plans for next year. "We've got one of the best classes in school. In its ranks are some of the outstanding students of the university, those who will help make next year more successful than this year has been," he said.

Nelson has been playing first base on the Webfoot baseball team in errorless fashion and on account of being on the present week's road trip, could not superintend his campaign.

Things that Nelson hopes to accomplish next year include bigger turnouts to class meetings, preserving of worthwhile traditions, cooperation from all seniors in all class activities, and creation of some new activities for the class throughout the year.

Tennis Team May Vie With U. of Texas

National Title Will be At Stake if Trip Is Approved

Athletic, Finance Boards To Meet

Jaunt to East for National And State Tournaments Included in Plans

If the university athlete and finance committees give their consent at a joint meeting to be held this morning, the Oregon tennis team, Pacific coast champions, will meet the University of Texas team on May 31st or June 1st for the national intercollegiate championship.

Texas, Stanford and Oregon are contending to have the three best university tennis teams in the country this year and after Oregon won the Pacific coast championship by defeating Stanford at Palo Alto last Monday, negotiations have at once begun for a meet between Oregon and Texas for the national championship.

D. A. Penick, tennis coach at Texas, in his correspondence with Edward Abercrombie, the Oregon coach, suggested that the matches be played on the university courts in Austin, but Abercrombie thinks that arrangements could be made to hold the meet at San Antonio, where the Texas state tournament will begin June 3.

This arrangement would save the Oregon team 250 miles of extra traveling and would also allow them and the Texas players to be on hand ready to begin play in the Texas state tournament after playing their school matches.

From San Antonio the Oregon team would go east with the Texas team to enter the Maryland state tournament, which begins on June 10th, and the Delaware state meet, which will be held a week later. This trip would place them near Haverford, Penn., where the intercollegiate tournament will begin on June 24.

Oregon has a good chance to win the national doubles championship in this meet, and also to show up well in the singles, believes Abercrombie. He points out that Oregon.

Bill Hayward Talks At Emerald Hour Vocal Trio Completes Radio Program

A talk by Bill Hayward, varsity track coach, and several vocal selections by three students of the university school of music, John Heltzel, Amy Hughes and Herbert Tate, made up the regular Extension Division-Emerald broadcast program over KORE last night from 8 to 9 o'clock.

Hayward told of the plans for the Pacific Coast Conference track and field meet that is to be held here on May 31 and June 1. The coach discussed each of his track men separately, giving a review of their records so far this season, and making predictions of what he expects them to do in the conference meet. Records made by stars at other schools compare favorably with the records of the Oregon men, Hayward pointed out. This will make

New Officers To Take Over Duties Today

Tom Stoddard Succeeds Joe McKeown at Assembly

Council Sanctions Scandal Emerald

Russell Baker New Senior Athletic Manager; Gray Football Head

Today at the 11 o'clock assembly Joe McKeown will surrender his gavel to Tom Stoddard, thus officially ending his career as president of the associated students of the university of Oregon. The occasion marks the ending of the old regime and the beginning of the new. It has been a traditional and annual event on the Oregon campus for more than 30 years.

McKeown to Bid Farwell

At the beginning of the assembly McKeown will make a short address, a retrospection of the past year, with its successes and failures, if any. He will then officially install the officers who are to serve the students next year, and then formally surrender his gavel to Stoddard. The new president will make a short speech, looking forward to next year and outlining his policies.

The old and the new officers of the executive council met together for the final meeting of the year yesterday afternoon. Russell Baker at that time was elected senior manager of athletics for next year, and Mike Gray was chosen football manager.

Tom Stoddard

"Green Goose" Approved

The council voted to sanction the publication of the "Green Goose," Sigma Delta Chi scandal edition of the Emerald, on condition that the sheet contain some news and that the scandal published be less on the personal and cutting order than has been the case in years past. The sheet is to be partly composed of bona fide news in order that the student purchasers receive more nearly full value for their money. The scandal edition of the Emerald will be issued Wednesday, May 29, and will be sold on the campus at ten cents a copy.

A. S. U. O. Banquet

The old and new student body officers were entertained at a banquet at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house last night by Helen Webster, the retiring secretary, Joe McKeown presented with a silver mounted gavel in recognition of his work for the year and Helen Webster with a gold fountain pen by Tom Stoddard on behalf of the Oregon student body. The banquet is a traditional affair. Dancing was held between courses.

Present System Good

"The managerial staff this year has functioned very smoothly," states Newbegin, "the elimination of freshman assistants and the use of sophomores has proven very satisfactory as the sophomore managers are more efficient and have more initiative." This change was made last year and under the present system candidates for the managerial office are taken from the junior class instead of the sophomore class as previously done.

The retiring manager expresses faith in the ability of the new staff as both men have been well-grounded in the fundamentals of the managerial system. The six sport managers who have aided in successfully carrying out this year's undertakings were George Schade, football; Fred Stanley, basketball; Mark Woods, swimming; Gordon Miller, baseball; Burr Abner, track; Austin Shepherd, tennis.

Red Cross Swim Examinations Due Within Next Week

Miss Troemel Announces Candidates and Girls To Give Quizzes

Members of the women's Red Cross swimming class must take their senior examinations by the end of next week, according to Ernest Troemel, instructor for the class. Arrangements will be made individually with the student examiners, and the tank can be used only at irregular intervals because of the "swim" week, which will keep it occupied this week.

Eunice Daniels will examine Jeanne Belle, Dorothy Sawyer, and Dorothy Goff; May Moore will give the examination to Helen Carlson, Lotus Gesney, and Elizabeth Owens; Margaret Douly will examine Bernadette Carrio, Henriette LaMerche, and Amy Porter; Edna Hill will take Dorothy Eberhard, Edna Kerns, and Sigrid Riddell.

Jean Tompkins will examine Anne Berg, Irene Buckley, and Hilda Top; Grace Caldwell will give the exam to Mildred Lowden; and Beth Ager will have Ella Redkey, Florence Ward, and Margaret Kerns.

Commencement Play Properties Being Designed

Platform to be Built on Steps in Front of McClure Hall

Setting Will Suggest Color Of Old French Scenes

By building a platform equal to the height of several steps, the front of McClure hall will be turned into the stage for the commencement play, "If I Were King," which will be presented Friday night, June 7, under the direction of Mrs. Ottilie Seybold, head of the department of drama.

Nowland B. Zane, associate professor of design, is designing the scenery and setting. Dick Oddie transfer from Stanford, assisted by Perry Douglas, will have charge of the construction.

The stage, according to plans given out by Mr. Zane yesterday, will jut out from the steps on both the front and the sides.

The play, which occurs in the time of Louis the Eleventh of France, requires both outdoor and indoor scenes. The perch with its columns can be well adapted to this change, says Mr. Zane.

The setting will not try to attain realism, but will merely suggest the scenes. The essential properties will remain the same, but by the change of smaller ones from set to set, tavern scenes and garden scenes, as well as others, will be portrayed.

The regular windows will be covered with heavy board flats and so turned into high French casements. Gorgeous colored costumes will be used in the play, making the scenes particularly vivid.

Miss Maud Kerns, assistant professor of art, will have charge of enriching the costumes by designing block print and stencil embroidery.

Grace Gardner, who, as Katherine de Vanelles, has the lead, will wear a cerise colored dress embroidered with erulean blue. The dress is so full that in order to cut it round, it has to be spread out on the stage and drawn with a piece of chalk.

There will be a dress of brilliant yellow, one of purple, one of flowered stuff, and one of green. Under these dresses the women will wear contrasting colored petticoates. On their heads will be cornucopia-shaped hats with trailing veils.

The men will be dressed in vivid jerkins and black tights.

The class in stage craft is working with Miss Kerns in designing the costumes and taking care of the make-up. Members of the class who are doing special work are: Leleta Jaeger, make-up; Roberta Wilcox, dance and music; Nedra Vernon, Lois Tuttle, and Inez Simons, costumes; Margaret Turner, properties.

Catherine Westra Made Pi Sigma President

Catherine Westra, sophomore in romance languages, was elected president of Pi Sigma, Latin honorary, for the coming year, at the initiation and business meeting which was held Thursday in Alumni hall. Other officers chosen were Ethel Mackey, sophomore in education, vice-president; and Margaret Turner, also a sophomore in education, secretary-treasurer.

Following the meeting, a Roman banquet was given the initiates and members at the Osburn hotel. Decorations and features were carried out to represent Roman customs. Lucy Norton, freshman in English gave two vocal solos, "Hark, Hark, the Lark" by Schubert; and "Melisande in the Wood" by Goetz. She was accompanied by Helen Williams, senior in music.

Sixteen Houses, Donors for Arts Building Honored

Committee of 1000 to Have Names Written In Alumni Hall

Enthusiasm is Praised by Mrs. G. T. Gerlinger

Sixteen out of the 22 women's living organizations on the campus have pledged one hundred dollars to the Fine Arts building and are now entitled to become members of the committee of one thousand, according to word received from Mrs. G. T. Gerlinger, regent of the university. This committee will be of a thousand people who have contributed one hundred dollars to the building fund. The organizations are Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Delta Pi, Alpha Omicron Pi, Alpha Phi, Alpha Xi Delta, Chi Omega, Delta Gamma, Gamma Phi Beta, Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Pi Beta Phi, Sigma Kappa, Iota Phi Eta, Zeta Tau Alpha. The names of this group will also be placed in the book of remembrances in Alumni hall.

"We are deeply appreciative," says Mrs. Gerlinger, "that those who have their problems and expenses to pay have shown interest enough to help in the financing of the Fine Arts building. Their enthusiasm means more than the actual money." Mrs. Gerlinger is now in Berkeley, California, attending a reunion of the class of 1904, of which she is a member.

Miss Pauline Banderant, Mrs. Gerlinger's secretary and graduate of the school of journalism, has been in Eugene for the past few days doing work for the Fine Arts building.

Library Uses Many Magazines During 1928-29

Gifts and Exchange Add to Numbers of Periodicals In Circulation

The university library has ordered 2,173 different magazines during the year 1928, according to statistics compiled at the library office yesterday.

One thousand and nine of these were paid for and 1,164 were gotten through gifts and exchange. In the latter group come such things as college annuals, political propaganda, etc.

The library also subscribed to 170 newspapers during the year.

In addition to the 2,173 magazines ordered during the year, the library has added a considerable number of new publications. Among them are:

"Bibliographie Geographique," "Chemical Society Journal," "Le Construction Moderne," "The Criterion," "Current Magazine Contents," "Debaters Digest," "The Education Index," "English Studies," "Evolution," "The Handicrafter," "Revue Anglo," "Americaine," "School Music," "Abstracts from South African Journal of Science," "Tribunador," "Yale Classical Studies," and "Pacific Airport News."

Women Speakers To Compete for Awards Tonight

Prizes of $30, $15, $10, and $5 Offered In Contest

The women's division of Jewett extemporaneous speaking contests enters its finals tonight to close the 1929 rapid-fire contests, when at 7:30 in Guild hall the first of six young women begins her allotted subtitle on "Foreign Indictment of American Culture." Names of three of the entrants were available last night: Harriet Kibbee, Lou Ann Chase, and Gladys Clausen.

Two hours before the contest starts each finalist will draw her topic and make a hurried revision of that particular branch. Ten minutes will be allowed for each try for the prizes of $30, $15, $10, and $5.

Judges, as announced by A. Holmes Baldrige, will be representative of university and city. G. C. Howard, Carolyn Keeler and Edna Landros, faculty and John Holmes, and Harry Shea, Eugene business men, will officiate.

The men's Jewett contest finals were given last week.

Spanish Club to Hold Final Meeting of Year

The Spanish club will hold the last meeting of spring term tonight at 7:15 in 101 Condon. Miss Anna Thompson, of the romance language department, will give a talk and will show slides of Spanish scenes. Following the lecture, the meeting will go to the Alpha Chi Omega house where election of officers for the coming year will be held.

George Black, graduate in romance languages, will give a piano program there and all students interested in Spanish are invited to attend.

Swimming Instructions Given to 234 Tuesday

Two hundred and thirty-four persons received instructions at the tank in the Gerlinger building on Tuesday, the second day of "Everybody Swim Week," which is being held there in connection with the Red Cross. This was nine more than were cared for the previous day.

Of the total number 72 were adults; 32 high school girls; 64 fifth and sixth graders; 28 third and fourth graders; and 38 seventh and eighth graders students.

Sophs' Picnic is Now Assured by James Dezendorf

Annual Event to be Held At Swimmer's Delight South of Eugene

Definite assurance that the sophomore picnic would be held at Swimmers' Delight, about 12 miles south of Eugene, on Thursday, May 30, was given yesterday by James Dezendorf, general chairman of the affair, following a conference with proprietors of the popular resort. The outdoor party will be a no-date affair.

Under the direction of the food committee, there will be plenty of eats prepared for everybody that attends the outdoor affair, according to Peterson. The picnic dinner will start at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and will be conducted in a cafeteria style.

After the crowd has picnicked the class will adjourn to the high-light of the day, the dance, which begins at 5:30 and ends at 9:30 p. m.

Joe Freek, chairman of the music committee, gave indications yesterday that the social event would be the most cosmopolitan yet. George Weber's orchestra has been secured to play for the frolicers.

That every minute of everyone's time at the picnic would be a minute of enjoyment was the assurance made by John Kitzmiller, chairman of the entertainment, who has been at work lining up a full program for the outdoor party.

Free buses will leave the Sigma Chi corner at 2 o'clock and at regular periods thereafter, according to Winsor Calkins, chairman of transportation. Buses will leave from the picnic grounds at various intervals for Eugene as well, Calkins said.

Dancing Instructor Will Go to New York

After having spent two years as dancing instructor in the women's department of physical education, Martha Hill will leave the university at the end of this year. Her plans for the next year are rather indefinite, just studying and teaching in New York City.

Miss Hill's successor will be Marjorie Forshner, who has received her B. A. and M. A. in physical education. She has studied dancing at the Bird Larsen school in New York City and at the Wigman school in Germany.
