for a closely-contested meet, he said. Those Oregon alumni who may have listened in on last night's program were probably pleased and surprised to hear Hayward introduced as "long may she wave" Hayward. They will no doubt recall the famous battle cry used years ago in Hayward's honor at the end of each yell.

John Heltzel sang "The Sea," and "Alone." Amy Hughes sang "May the Maiden," "An Old Song," and "I Wonder." The three numbers sung by Pate were "Sittin' Thinkin'," "Sea Chair," and "Viking Song." Gladys Foster played the piano accompaniments for all the songs.

Friday night Professor L. O. Wright, professor of romance languages, will talk on "Whither Mexico." Spanish musical numbers will complete the broadcast.

Jack Hempstead, associate editor of the Emerald, is in charge of all the programs over the local station.

Hayward to Coach Women

Women in the senior education class will receive a little expert instruction in the tricks of track Thursday, when Bill Hayward, varsity track coach, will take the class over. This is the first time that he has ever coached a group of women.

Phi Psis Ahead In Donut Water Polo Competition

Play Changed Temporarily For Swim Week; May Swim Before 3 P. M.

Team	Wins	Losses	Points
Phi Psi	5	0	1,000
Kappa Sigma	3	2	.600
Independents	3	2	.600
Phi Sigma Kappa	2	3	.400
Betas	1	3	.250
Fijis	1	3	.250
A. T. O.	1	3	.250

"Everybody Swim Week" has temporarily halted progress in intramural water polo. Two hardball league games, Phi Psi vs. Phi Sigma Kappa and Kappa Sigma vs. Independents are waiting for a suitable time to play. Coach Abercrombie has issued a call for teams to notify him in case they are able to play before three any afternoon this week, as the grade school students occupy the pool after that hour.

The winner of the Kappa Sig-Independent tilt will get a crack at the league-leading Phi Psis in a two-game series. Should the leaders lose both games, a tie would result and ultimately a play-off for the championship.

Schroeder of the Phi Psis is ahead in points scored with eight to his credit. McKim, A. T. O., and Hadfield, Independent, are tied for second place in individual honors with seven each, while Jean Eberhart, Kappa Sig, has caged six.

Tennis Team May Vie With U. of Texas

gon is fortunate in having two unusually good doubles combinations, Neer and Almqvist making up a duo very nearly as good as the first team, which is composed of Harrison and Lockwood.

Both of these teams won their matches with the track Stanford team early this week, and it was their work which enabled Oregon to defeat Stanford by a 4 to 2 score, since the same players only succeeded in getting an even break out of the four singles matches.

INTRAMURAL BASEBALL TODAY

Sigma Pi Tau vs. Chi Psi at 3:30; Phi Delta Theta vs. Gamma hall, 3:30; Phi Sigma Kappa vs. Alpha Upsilon, 4:30; Sigma Alpha Epsilon vs. Kappa Sigma, 4:30.

In the intercollegiate tournament held at Los Angeles last Friday and Saturday, Harrison and Lockwood won coast doubles championship for Oregon by defeating Doeg and Wheatley of Stanford in the finals.

The proposed meet with the Texan team offers Oregon a real opportunity to gain national recognition through the ability of its tennis players, believes Abercrombie.

"Oregon has just eliminated Stanford from any claim to the national title," he commented, "and I believe that we have the balance and the power to defeat Texas also.

"Our chances in the national tournament are equally bright. I expect to see both of our doubles teams seeded, and they should both stay in the running into the semifinals. There is even a strong possibility that there will be an all-Oregon final in the doubles—Harrison and Lockwood pitted against Neer and Almqvist."

WESTERNERS WIN

Western schools have a habit of winning the national doubles championships, according to Abercrombie. In the past six years, Princeton has been the only eastern school to win the doubles. Texas won twice, California twice, and Stanford once.

"This year is Oregon's turn," says the coach.

Members of the athletic committee and the finance committee, which are to consider the proposed trip this morning are: Athletic, Joe McKeown, John Anderson, Prof. H. C. Howe, Dr. D. Stannard, Virgil D. Earl, and Jack W. Benefiel.

Finance: John Anderson, Arthur Anderson, Helen Webster, Karl W. Onthank, and Jack W. Benefiel.

Library Wants Books

The library administration is requesting all members of the faculty and all students to bring in library books which they no longer need as soon as possible so as to reduce the congestion which always occurs at the end of the term.

According to university regulations, it will be necessary for all members of the senior class to account for all books charged to them and to pay all bills incurred before their diplomas will be issued.

Senior Class Women To Hold Track Meet

A track meet will be staged by the women of the senior class in physical education at 8 a. m., Wednesday, May 29, according to Ernestine Troemel, instructor of the class. There is a strong chance that several Oregon records may be broken, as several new marks have already been set this year. Ruth Burcham is in charge of the meet.

Twenty Women Enter Tennis Tournament

Twenty members of the women's sophomore physical education class have entered the class elimination tennis tournament. Marjorie Kelly, Virginia Maynard, and Nellie McDonald have reached the third round; but there are a number of matches still to be played for that round. A consolation tournament will be run for the losers.

Who wants to live on blubber?

One of the scientific results of Stefansson's explorations in the "liveable Arctic" was establishment of the fact that it is quite possible to live in health upon an exclusive diet of blubber.

The blubber seems to acquire a creamy, nutty flavor. Very agreeable, according to this intrepid investigator! After living upon it for some time the craving for a varied diet passes completely away. To this astonishing simplicity may all your tastes be reduced. But it would be retrogression of a most serious sort for humanity to revert to such simplicity.

In the Arctic, where Eskimos live in a vast wasteland, there is no progress. Progress depends upon ideas—fresh impulses—the stimulus of changing desires. Our modern progress has been stimulated to the greatest degree by means of advertisements. Daily advertisements awake new desires; and desires, capable of fulfilment, tend to diversify life, enrich it, and add considerably to its joyousness.

Advertisements tell you of the varied things that enrich life
