

Dormitories See Largest Enrollment

Greater Population Due to Fraternity House Limitation

NEW DIRECTOR ACTS

The largest number of students in the history of the university to enroll as residents of the dormitories have listed the various halls as their place of residence for the coming year, it was announced Monday by Hugh L. Biggs, dean of men, when he revealed that 304 students had entered the men's dormitories up to Monday noon. Two hundred and forty women chose the women's halls as their places of residence.

The large dormitory population is due principally to the limitation which has been placed upon the fraternity accommodations during the past year in order to avoid overcrowding, and to the fact that many upperclassmen and graduate students prefer to live in the halls rather than in their respective fraternities.

Alpha Hall, in the new dormitory, and Friendly Hall head the men's halls with a registration of 52 each. Registration in the other halls is as follows: Sherry Ross, 46; Zeta, 43; Omega, 40; Gamma, 36; and Sigma, 35. Friendly now has 15 more men than it had at this time last year.

This year the university is represented in each hall by a student known as a sponsor. Sponsors chosen for the coming year are: Vawter Parker, Heppner; Lester Johnson, Portland; Roy Herndon, Milton-Freewater; Harold Hildreth, Portland; Clifford Powers, Portland; Roland Davis, Portland, and Fred Hauger, Bend. Mrs. Maude McDonald has taken up her duties as new director of the halls of residence. Hendricks Hall girls, who for a time last year ate their meals at the new men's dormitory, now board in their own hall, but Susan Campbell Hall girls will continue to dine at the men's dormitory.

Foster Elected To Head Student Store Directors

Harrison Also Chosen to Board for Completion of Membership

Day Foster, senior in the school of journalism, was elected president of the Board of Directors of the University

Co-op store last Wednesday to fill the vacancy which occurred when Hal Anderson, president-elect, failed to return to school. Bradshaw Harrison, business administration senior, was elected to the board to complete the membership.

This group will meet from time to time throughout the year with Marion F. McClain, manager of the store, to determine the policies of the Co-op and to cope with any emergencies which may arise. The board and Mr. McClain will welcome any suggestions by university students which will benefit them in handling the store, Day Foster stated yesterday.

New Men Named For Positions on Physical Ed Staff

Knollin, McCormick and Hewitt Experienced In Duties

Three new instructors have been added to the roster of the men's physical education department this term, to take the places left vacant at the end of spring term. E. R. Knollin, Hubert J. McCormick, and Jack E. Hewitt are the newcomers to Oregon and are already busily engaged in their new positions.

Knollin has had extensive experience in physical education work since receiving his masters degree in education at Stanford. He served as an instructor at Stanford and at the University of Illinois. He comes to Oregon from San Jose Teachers College in California, where he was head of the department of physical education.

McCormick will have the position of activities instructor and will handle intramural athletics this year. He received his degree at the University of California institution he was an assistant instructor in basketball and swimming. He also coached basketball at Heald's College, in Oakland, during the 1928-29 season and turned in a successful season.

Hewitt also graduated from California where he, too, served as an instructor. He assisted in basketball, baseball, and swimming and served as manager for the University of California 130 pound basketball team.

Both McCormick and Hewitt are doing graduate work at Oregon, in addition to their duties in the physical education department.

Geyer With Bedell. Ralph Geyer, graduate from the school of business administration, and president of Alpha Kappa Psi and of the Business Administration Student body last year, has a position with Bedell's in Portland.
