Oregon Now Third in Conference... Hatton and Londahl Play Well Webfoots Play Straight Football.

By Harry Van Dine

COACH JOHN J. McEWAN'S varsity football team moved up into a tie for third place in the Coast Conference standings by its win over the Uclas Saturday. The Webfoots are now deadlocked with Pop Warner's Stanford eleven, with California and Southern California out in front of the pack.

OREGON will have a rest this Saturday, and McEwan has almost two weeks in which to whip his team into shape to meet the Oregon Aggies in the traditional Homecoming game. The Orangemen were eliminated from the Northwest title race by the Cougars, but are expected to furnish plenty of opposition for the Webfoots.

TWO of Oregon's reserve backs deserve a lot of praise for the game they played against the Bruins. Johnny Londahl was the big gun of the Webfoot attack and Hal Hatton showed some classy line bucking.

THERE is one other back on McEwan's reserve list who should develop into a first class player soon. Chuck Spear broke into the lineup Saturday and showed well on the offensive. He plays like a natural ball carrier, but he is very weak on the defensive.

OREGON'S line attack looked better against the Bruins than at any time this year. The Webfoots played nothing but straight football, as Bill Reinhart, who directed the team while Coach McEwan was in Portland, didn't feel like revealing any of Oregon's trick plays as long as the scouts from Oregon State were on hand.

WITH the champions of several of the various donut basketball leagues already determined, the play-off round is expected to start next week. The intramural contests have been better than ever this year, with hard, clean, and interesting play marking the games.

The varsity basketball men who have been serving as officials for the donut leagues have handled the games very well, and all contests have been played close to the scheduled time. Attendance at the tilts has been larger than ever before, and the intramural program has been a big success.

The life of Dr. Charles R. MacInness, professor of mathematics at Princeton university, was saved recently when several of his students gave blood transfusions.

To Oregon coaches the 27 to 0 win over U. C. L. A. Saturday was more than just a conference victory that put Oregon into a tie with Stanford for third place.

Because the game was practically all played and won by Webfoot reserves, it functioned as somewhat of an inventory of potential Webfoot strength.

Material Wise With the all-important O. S. C. game but two weeks away, Captain McEwan and his staff know just where they stand in regard to material.

At the start of the season, a well balanced team of veterans was on hand, but the Oregon coaches were somewhat dubious of their reserve strength.

Alpha Tau Omega also entertained for the chapter house Saturday night. Large vari-colored paddles were the appropriate decorations. Those invited as patrons and patronesses were Lieutenant and Mrs. Herbert, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Mr. John Roe, and Dean Hugh Biggs.

Alpha Gamma Delta Gives Dance Another dance given in the autumn mood was that of Alpha Gamma Delta, which was held at the chapter house Saturday night. The decorations consisted of many autumn leaves and autumn colors, and long candles on the tables.

Tennis Matches Must Be Played

Due to the fact that there has been much delay in the playing of second round matches in the annual free-lance tennis tournament, Mr. Hewitt, who is in charge of the tournament, has ruled that all second round matches must be played by Wednesday evening, Nov. 6.

The list of matches that must be played by Wednesday evening is as follows:

Varsity section: Robert Hoogs versus Gordon Jason; Stan Alquist versus Don Ragen; winner of the Hoogs-Jason match versus Sherm Lockwood.

Experienced players section: Tom Mountain versus Bob Gile; Vern Elliott versus A. McLaren; Pat Beal versus Clinton Mitchell; R. Adams versus J. Woodruff; Carl Buecke versus Ray De Lap; Paul Wagner versus R. Rebe.

Inexperienced players section: Freeman Young versus Winston Barrett; L. Winetroun versus Howard Bennett; and Schaefer versus Wolke.

Dad's Day celebration, the U. C. L. A. game, and seven house dances, made Saturday, November the second, a busy day. Not only did such a full week-end bring many Oregon Dads to the campus, but it also brought a great number of alumni.

Pirates Hold Sway at Zeta Tau Alpha Dance Friday

The Zeta Tau Alpha chapter house was the scene last Friday night of a Pirate dance. The girls were all in costume and masked. Miss Ursula Mattheck, of McMinnville, Miss Valene Goodrich, of Dayton, and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Campbell of Clatskanie, were guests at the affair.

Pledge Dance Is Given By Chi Delta's

Chi Delta entertained with a "garden party" dance for its pledges. The dance floor was decorated with small white picket fences, bright-colored hollyhocks, and Japanese lanterns. Patrons and patronesses invited were Miss Margaret L. Daigh, Dr. and Mrs. Warren D. Smith, Dr. L. S. Kent, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Morse.

"Barnyard Bust" Held By Sigma Chi

Sigma Chi entertained with its annual Barnyard Bust at the Eugene Country club. Professor George Verne Blue, Professor S. Stevenson Smith, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Smith, and Dr. and Mrs. John R. Mez, were invited as patrons and patronesses.

Paddles Are Feature at A. T. O. Dance

Alpha Tau Omega also entertained for the chapter house Saturday night. Large vari-colored paddles were the appropriate decorations. Those invited as patrons and patronesses were Lieutenant and Mrs. Herbert, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Mr. John Roe, and Dean Hugh Biggs.

Alpha Gamma Delta Gives Dance

Another dance given in the autumn mood was that of Alpha Gamma Delta, which was held at the chapter house Saturday night.

Gamma Delta in honor of the pledges. Bright-colored leaves and soft lights decorated the dancing rooms. Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. George Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. John Maxwell Adams, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Holt, Miss Maud Kerns, Mrs. R. H. Garland.

Pledges Are Honored By Sigma Nu

Sigma Nu, too, found paddies to be a fitting decoration for their pledge dance, which was held at the chapter house. At one end of the dance floor was a huge pledge pin. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Norblad, Mr. and Mrs. David Bauman, and Professor George Robbins, acted as patrons and patronesses.

Psi Kappa Dance

The Anchorage was the scene of the Psi Kappa pledge dance. The decorations consisted of many autumn leaves and autumn colors, and long candles on the tables. Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Morris, Captain and Mrs. J. J. McEwan, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bangs, and Dr. Titus.

Gamma Phi Dance

Autumn and Hallow'en time furnished the motif for the decorations of the Gamma Phi Beta house Saturday night at their pledge dance. Autumn leaves, cornstalks, and jack-o-lanterns adorned the walls.

Theta Sigma Phi, national journalism honorary for women, announces the pledging of:

- Lavina Hicks, Portland.
- Margaret Reid, Eugene.
- Dorothy Kirk, Oregon City.
- Dorothy Thomas, Portland.
- Phyllis Van Kimmell, Salem.
- Ruth Newman, Grants Pass.

Championship of League F at Stake In Donut Contest

Sphinx To Tackle Phi Deltas; Psi Kappa Five Takes Laurels

Bowling over the Gamma boys with a 36 to 12 victory, the Sphinx squad yesterday unfurled a matchless offensive that bodes ill for the Phi Deltas when they tangle at the Igloo today.

Spectacular shooting by Frank Minny kept the losers within hailing distance till the half, but they lost ground rapidly in the last periods when the Sphinx got down to business.

After playing listless basketball for two periods, the Psi Kappa quintet finally shook off their lethargy to trounce the Friendly Hall boys by a score of 24 to 12.

The Hall five found no difficulty in penetrating the weak Psi Kappa defense, particularly during the first half, but spoiled their chances with hurried shots while Johnson and Anderson were vying for Psi Kappa honors with some splendid shooting.

The Phi Sigs won the only close contest of the afternoon, a 2 to 0 win over the Zeta Hall quintet, who forgot to appear for the scheduled tilt.

At 4 this afternoon the first playoff game in League F will be put on between the Phi Deltas and Sphinx at McArthur court. The Phi Deltas previously defeated Sphinx but lost to the Kappa Sigs, who were in turn nosed out by Sphinx.

AT THE McDONALD—The Hollywood Revue, M-G-M's big musical extravaganza has come to town and ought to draw record crowds for the McDonald theatre. Designed on the order of a sumptuous Broadway revue, it contains the pick of song and dance talent, as well as the longest list of "stars" ever assembled in one picture.

AT THE REX—"Frozen Justice" at the Fox Rex is a stirring tale of the Eskimo country where men are hunters and women don't coax to buy a fur coat.

AT THE NEW HEILIG—"Goldiggers of Broadway" has Winnie Lightner in its caste. That alone is enough to make it popular, but it is also in color and Ann Pennington is featured, to make it an assured success.

AT THE COLONIAL—"The Michigan Kid" is the current attraction at the Colonial. Adapted from Rex Beach's best seller, it has been made into a sensational motion picture by Universal, with Conrad Nagel and Renee Adoree in the stellar roles.

AT THE STATE—"The Lion and the Mouse" is based on the age-old fable that persistence on the part of a helpless mouse often wins over the loud roar of a mighty lion. The title itself stresses contrast and the choice of the featured players carries out this idea.
