

Homecoming Dances Are Scheduled For Tonight In Two Halls

The Social Sphere

Phyllis Van Kimmell, Editor

Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, patroness of Phi Beta, women's national professional music and drama society, was honor guest for a buffet luncheon given Friday at the home of Mrs. Bryant DeBar for active and associate members of the group. Mrs. DeBar and Mrs. Earl M. Pallett were in charge. Norma Jacobs gave a reading between courses.

About forty attended the event.

Journalism Jamboree Starts Social Events Of Homecoming

This is Homecoming, with all its welcoming of the old grads, and social functions on the campus are at their height. The Journalism Jamboree, held last night at the Eugene Armory, drew its usual crowd as it has in years before. Faculty members of the School of Journalism acted as patrons and patronesses: Dean and Mrs. Eric W. Allen, Professor and Mrs. George Turnbull, Professor and Mrs. Ralph D. Casey, Professor and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. George Godfrey, and Professor and Mrs. Arne G. Rae.

Breakfast for Student Body Presidents Held

An annual event which is being held this morning at the Osburn

Basis of Fancy Dishes

Consists of Plain Stew

One of Oregon's returning grads who is bringing honor to the university's name is Henry Foster, who received his degree in physical education in 1923. He later went to Columbia, where he earned his master's degree, and then accepted the position of director of physical education for men at the University of Washington.

While at Oregon Foster was prominent in athletics and student activities. He was a star in the 100 and the 220 yard sprints, and was pitcher for the baseball team for three years.

Until 1927 Washington had no physical education department and Foster is doing a splendid job of building it up, having to start, as he did, from the ground floor, according to John F. Bovard, dean of the school of physical education. There are sixty majors in the teacher's training course which he has established.

Movies

Evelyn Shaner, Editor

AT THE McDONALD—

In "The Saturday Night Kid," at the McDonald, flaming Clara forgets to be naughty and assumes the role of a hard "working girl" in Ginsberg's department store. As the fair demonstrator of ladies' reducing apparatus she has plenty of chance to show just the proper curves for the fashionable miss. Jean Arthur, playing the bad little sister, runs the star a heavy race for honors, both in looks and acting and promises to become a real actress. James Hall, the leading man, plays his usual automatic love making role. As a Don Juan he makes a good piano mover.

AT THE STATE—

"Broadway Babies" at the State is a red hot revue show. Did anybody say chorus girls? They come in bunches—take your pick.

AT THE NEW HEILIG—

"Wonder of Women" sounds as though there might be something wonderful about the fair sex after all. Lewis Stone and Peggy Woods show you just what it is in this romantic love tale.

AT THE COLONIAL—

"Show People" at the Colonial is a slam bang comedy that will make the tears come, but not from weeping. Marion Davies is a good prancer, and William Haines always did have a sense of humor.

AT THE REX—

"Sailor's Holiday," at the Rex, is a typical sea dog show, not a Marine in it. Which reminds us it is nice to have a few gobs in town during Homecoming.

hotel is the breakfast banquet for all past student body presidents who are able to come. Thomas Stoddard, present leader of the associated students, is acting as host. Dean John Straub is the only guest of honor.

Many Other Events Planned for Alumni

Several alumni meetings are scheduled for this morning and the annual Homecoming luncheon will be held, of course, at McArthur court. The game with Oregon State will, of course, constitute the greatest thrill of today's events. This will be followed by the Order of the "O" banquet at the Campa Shoppe at 6:30, the reception at Alumni hall, and finally the two Homecoming dances at Gerlinger hall and McArthur court. Many living organizations on the campus are planning special entertainment for their visiting alumni, making the round of social events fuller than ever.

Campus Movie Shown

The evening was a late one, with the showing of the campus moving picture at the McDonald theater, which started at 11 o'clock. A varied number of stage acts by campus talent accompanied the showing of the picture.

CALVIN HORN, '27, ARRIVES FRIDAY

Among the early arrivals for Homecoming week-end was Calvin Horn, '27, brother of Dick Horn, vice-president of the A. S. U. O., who appeared early Friday afternoon. Horn was advertising manager of the Emerald and Old Oregon during his last year on the campus and was also chairman of the publications committee. He is a member of Alpha Delta Sigma, journalism honorary, of which he was president and which he represented at the national convention. He also won the Portland Ad club scholarship of $150 while here. He is now manager of the teletype sales department of the Pacific Telephone company in Portland.

DUCKS ALL SET TO MANGLE BEAVERS

(Continued from Page One) ing to be ready to descend on the field like starving falcons when Captain McEwan hollers: "Get in there and go!"

Enforcements Listed

Re-enforcements for the all-important guard positions are Hank Heyden, Gilbert French, Sy West, and Ted Park. These men are all plenty good enough to knock the average lineman for a row any time, and the Aggies will have to sport a pretty classy bunch to cope with them.

Bill Anater and Shirley Carter will be on hand to spell Eric Forsta at center. McEwan's system requires a center with a lot of speed, and that is why these boys have been picked for the job.

McArthur Court and Women's Gym Pressed Into Service

Alumni and Seniors Will Dance Together in Igloo; Juniors and Underclassmen To Cavort In Gerlinger Hall

THE annual Oregon Homecoming dances, famed as the places where returning alumni mingle with their companions of by-gone years, and current undergraduates cavort together to properly observe the overwhelming of an ancient rival—or to banish the remorse of defeat in the wilderness of dissipation—will open tonight at 9:30 o'clock in McArthur Court and Gerlinger Hall.

There are two dances this year, to avoid the crowding and confusion that has too frequently been characteristic of past Homecoming dances. The Oregon underclassmen and juniors will collect at McArthur court, where they will dance to the strains of Johnny Robinson's popular Varsity Vagabonds. The Oregon alumni and the seniors, who are soon to become alumni, will congregate at Gerlinger hall and spend their evening there. An orchestra imported from the Oregon Aggie campus will furnish the music at the senior-alumni dance. This orchestra is said to be the hottest in Benton county, according to Howard Page, chairman of the music for the dance.

Floor Prepared

During years past there has been much adverse criticism concerning Gerlinger hall because of the stickiness the floor there has assumed after the dance was in progress for a short time. This year, however, that difficulty will not be encountered, it is announced by Bill Hedlund, who is in charge of the floor.

The features for tonight's dances, which are being worked out by George Webber, are unique and appropriate to the spirit of the occasion. They will depict a family of very talented Homecomers, back on the campus for the big doings. One member of the family is a very capable blues singer, another specializes in tap dancing, and so on down the line from the father to the youngest of the youngsters.

Seals Decorations

The decorations for the dances tonight will consist of immense Oregon seals, each 18 feet in diameter, arranged with the light shining through them. It is stated that there will be sufficient illumination at the two buildings tonight, enough light so that a returning alumnus of the class of 1903 will be able to recognize his one-time roommate, if he is at the dance.

Previous to the dances will be a reception staged in honor of the alumni and seniors at Alumni hall at 8:30 o'clock. This will furnish the returning graduates with an opportunity of renewing old acquaintances and of meeting the present faculty members. Alumni and senior representatives from each women's house of the campus will assist in sponsoring the reception. Dance tickets will admit the alumni and seniors to the reception. Or, if they prefer not to attend the dance, they may obtain an admittance ticket by applying to Miss Jeanette Calkins, alumni secretary.

The directorate in charge of the Homecoming dances is: William East, chairman; Bill Pittman, decorations; Howard Page, music; Bill Hedlund, floor; Jim Dezen-dorf, tickets.

She (receiving hubby's pay envelope): you're a dear.

Hubby: You mean a goat.—Awgwan.

He: Bill Stock was drunk last night.

She: I heard that stocks took a drop.—Lemon Punch.

She: Are late hours good for one?

He: No, but they are fine for two.—Jester.

Initial Showing of 'Ed's Co-ed' Leaves Audience Pleased

Actors Show Professional Calibre Throughout Performance

Embarking on a series of successes, never before known to an undertaking of its calibre, the campus movie "Ed's Co-ed" was shown last night at the McDonald theater after an elaborate stage performance.

The film came up to the hearty expectations of every anxious spectator, and the actors were highly praised in their work which proved to be of the professional calibre. The humor and wit of Buddy and his affections for his girl friend, the part played by Phyllis Van Kimmell, popular university co-ed.

The leads were played by Verne Elliott and Dorothy Burke. Every member of the cast is a student at the University of Oregon. Norman Eastman played the part of Buddy the laugh maker.

For formal wear or sport a distinctive bit of jewelry will add to the ensemble—perhaps a dainty crystal and silver filigree piece or a flauntingly gay colored wooden string—either will make a charming effect with the correct occasion and frock.

Distinctive costume jewelry of all kinds may be found at The Aladdin.

Aladdin Gift Shop
41 W. 10th

By Today's HEADLINES we see . . .

A REPORT from the department of labor states that the United States is on a fundamentally sound business basis in spite of the recent upheavals of the stock market.

SECRETARY OF WAR GOOD, who underwent a major operation for gangrenous infection recently, is still in a critical condition. Constant touch with the day and night trying to come to agreements and make decisions about the tariff.

ANNOUNCEMENT of the award of the distinguished flying cross to Captain Lowell H.

Dr. Royal Gick
OPTOMETRIST
Eugene's Most Complete Optical Shop
Reasonable charges
921 Willamette St.

Hello, Oregon!

Pete's Pastry Shop

We specialize in French pastry, fancy cakes, and cookies of all kinds for parties.

Phone 3038

We also serve meals from 11 A. M. to 10 P. M.

88 W. 8th

Smith, leader of the round-the-world-flyers in 1924, for his pioneer work in the refueling of planes while in flight, was made yesterday hospital is being kept by President Hoover who is following the case carefully.

THE United States senate today voted not to take a rest between now and the regular session in December. Work is yet to be done, and the body is working day by the war department.

Grille Dance

TONIGHT

CAMPA SHOPPE

Phone Reservations 1849-J

FOX REX

NEW VOICES ON THE TALKING SCREEN!

STARTING SUNDAY

THE LADY LIES!

WITH WALTER HUSTON CLAUDETTE COLBERT!

Compelling Drama of Modern Love . . . Forceful and Intimate.

LAST LAUGHS SATURDAY

SAILOR'S HOLIDAY

with ALAN HALE SALLY EILERS

Continuous—2 to 10:30

Colonial

LAST DAY!

MARION DAVIES and WILLIAM HAINES in "SHOW PEOPLE"

DON'T MISS IT! —and— ON THE STAGE

REYES BROS. Filipino Entertainers

You've heard them on the radio—now see and hear them on the stage in person.

There'll Be A Hot Time

In the old time tonight . . . and the whole week-end, too. You can forget the whole tedious grind of business for a while and be as young and foolish as ever you please. Booth-Kelly Lumber Co., distributors of lumber, laths, shingles and hogged fuel, welcomes you to Eugene. Have a big time!

Booth-Kelly Lumber Co.
507 Willamette St. Phone 452

Big Jazz Revue

CLOSE HARMONY

HOTTER than HOT!

CHARLES (BUDDY) ROGERS NANCY CARROLL Jack Oakie Richard (SKEETS) Gallagher

BEAUTY! YOUTH!

GIRLS! DANCING! SINGING! JAZZ!

THE NEW HEILIG

4 Days—Commencing SUNDAY Continuous Show Every Day

Last Times Today "WONDER OF WOMEN"

WELCOME, OREGON GRADS! HOWDY!

FOX McDONALD

STARTING SUNDAY

NOAH'S ARK

with Scores of Stars 10,000 Players

SEE YOURSELF IN THE MOVIES

Exclusive Pictures of Today's Gridiron Classic and Homecoming Crowds on Our Screen Sunday.

CLARA BOW

The Saturday Night Kid

Last Times Today