

Boyer, Smith, Wright to Attend Philological Association Meet At Berkley, November 29, 30

English, Romance Language Professors Asked To Prepare and Read Papers Before Group; Officers Are Listed

AT THE 31st annual meeting of the Philological Association of the Pacific Coast, to be held at the University of California, Berkeley, November 29 and 30, three University of Oregon professors, Dr. C. V. Boyer, head of the department of English, S. Stephenson Smith, associate professor of English, and Leavitt O. Wright, associate professor of Romance Languages, will be in attendance.

Mr. Smith and Mr. Wright have been asked to prepare and read papers before the group at that time.

"Rachel Taylor's Keats" is the subject of Mr. Smith's paper. It deals with Rachel Annand Taylor, who has been writing for a quarter of a century without attracting much attention except from erudite poets and a few scholars. Study of her debts to Keats has been verified by reference to her copy of the Buxton Forman edition with extensive annotations in her handwriting, and her critical comments are highly imaginative and suggestive. A copy of this book is in the University of Oregon library.

Pronunciation Subject

Professor Wright will talk on "Teaching the Pronunciation of the Spanish Simple-R." He will explain that the Castilian pronunciation of the simple -r- is rarely acquired by North American teachers of Spanish and is inadequately explained in most United States grammars of Spanish.

This can be taught through O. G. Russell's suggestions (1919) that the Spanish simple -r- equals English -d-; and its correct pronunciation can be much aided through comparison with that of the English intervocalic -l-.

The meetings will be held at the Women's Faculty club, at the University of California. Officers of the group are: president, Aurelio M. Espinosa, of Stanford; vice-presidents, Rudolph Schevill, University of California, and William Diamond, University of California; secretary-treasurer, A. Lionel Stevenson, University of California.

Three Named for Directorate of Christmas Dance

Bess Templeton, Harriet Kibbee, Dorothy Kirk, To Be Chairmen

University Enthusiasts Are Invited to Affair

Bess Templeton, Harriet Kibbee, and Dorothy Kirk have been appointed chairmen of committees for the Christmas College Ball to be given in Portland, December 28. Florence McNeerney, who is in charge of the foreign scholar fund of the Woman's League, will act as general chairman. The appointments were made known yesterday, and work will begin soon on definite plans for the dance.

The Christmas College Ball is an annual affair which is given during the Christmas holidays for college students, alumni, high school students, and Portland residents interested in the university. It is given for the benefit of the fund which finances a student from a foreign country for study at the University of Oregon.

Eleanor Morwood, of Ireland, is the recipient of the scholarship this year. This fund is maintained by the Women's League, and each year three Dime Clubs, informal dances at women's living organizations, and the ball in Portland are given to raise money for it.

Society

Phyllis Van Kimmell, Editor

The game with Hawaii last Saturday, with the usual amount of student emigration to Portland for that event, left very little social activity in Eugene. Although there were several house dances on Friday night, there were none held on Saturday. The approaching Thanksgiving vacation has also caused a cessation of social functions for this week.

Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterley, dean of women, gave a tea for the house mothers and head-residents of the campus at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the alumni hall of the Gerlinger building. About thirty persons attended the affair.

Marriage Ceremony of Galloway-Dresser Held Saturday

The marriage of Miss Margaret Galloway to Marshall Rowan Dresser was solemnized at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon in Cottage Grove, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Galloway.

The Reverend Duncan P. Cameron, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiated, and members of the family were present. Miss Rachel Galloway, the bride's sister, was maid of honor. Mrs. Dresser was a former well-known Oregon student. Immediately after the ceremony, the couple left for a motor trip to San Francisco.

"Newcomers" Section Added to Faculty Women's Club

A "Newcomers" section to the Faculty Women's club is being organized, with Mrs. Wayne Morse as chairman, and Mrs. Daniel Gage as secretary-treasurer.

This group will consist of the wives of new faculty members this year and last, new women faculty members, women graduate students, and women graduate assistants and graduate assistants' wives.

The first meeting is to be held at 2 o'clock, December 4, in the Alumni room of Gerlinger hall. The purpose of the organization is entirely social.

November Luncheon Of A. A. U. W. Held

The American Association of University Women had its November luncheon meeting at the Osburn hotel Saturday. Mrs. James M. Reinhardt spoke on "Life and Education in the Southern Mountains," and there were also several musical numbers, initiation of new members, and a report of the state conference at Corvallis.

Honor Campus Visitor

Mrs. Rex Underwood entertained with a luncheon Saturday honoring Mrs. Laura Ernst, of Los Angeles, who is on the campus visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Hopkins.

Columbia Frosh Win Tug of War; Celebrate

The freshmen won the tug of war at Columbia university in New York City last week. Celebration followed. An innocent street car was wrecked. Police reserves, the fire department and a minister were summoned. One patrolman had to use a pistol to keep from being mobbed, and one of the jubilation yearlings ended up at the station for striking an officer of the law. The minister failed to convince officers that his only connection with the riot was that of peacemaker, and received a summons along with the pugilistic student. All in all, it must have been a great day for the frosh.

Pipes save no midnight oil

IF PIPES made the man, anybody at all could rise in the world just by smoking a few pounds of Edgeworth. But pipes do not make the man.

Men make the pipe—most men do. Somewhat depends on the individual; more on the pipe, and the tobacco is most important of all. Things must be congenial.

Edgeworth is a congenial tobacco; cool, slow-burning, fully flavored. Edgeworth has poise, kindly good nature, real tobacco personality—Edgeworth welcomes new friends. Many a good man has been pledged to pipes by Edgeworth alone.

Like to meet Edgeworth? Just ask with the coupon—and the postman will bring your first few pipefuls of the genuine, three years seasoned if it's a day. Our treat, if you please.

Others have found Edgeworth and quit their discontent.

So may it be with you!

EDGEWORTH

Edgeworth is a careful blend of good tobaccos—selected especially for pipe-smoking. Its quality and flavor never change. Buy it anywhere— "Ready Rubbed" or "Plug Slice"—15¢ packet package to pound humidifier tin.

Larus & Bro. Co., Richmond, Va. I'll try your Edgeworth. And I'll try it in a good pipe. (Witness my seal) (and my seat of learning) (and my postoffice and state) Now let the Edgeworth come!
