

Eight Remaining Houses To Enter Final Week of KORE Broadcasts

Women's Hall Will Entertain Tuesday at 8

Cross Section of Campus To Be Represented In Programs

Awards To Be Displayed In Downtown Store

Into the final week of the Emerald-KORE radio contest, starting Tuesday night with the musical presentation of Susan Campbell hall, will be crowded all eight of the houses who have not yet confronted the microphone in competition for the Majestic cabinet radio donated as first prize by McMorran and Washburne.

A true cross section of campus life will be represented over the air next week, when practically every type of living organization in the University will be represented. Three sororities, one fraternity, one women's hall, an independent women's organization, an international group, and a group of unaffiliated students make up the closing series of broadcasts.

Three Programs In order to complete the schedule within the prescribed time limit, three half-hour programs will be given on both Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. The student performers will go on the air at 8 o'clock and will sign off at 9:30. On Thursday night only two competitors, Alpha Omicron Pi and International house, will be heard.

Tuesday's and Wednesday's programs, as given out by Fred Norton, contest director, are as follows: Tuesday at 8, Susan Campbell hall; at 8:30, Kappa Alpha Theta; at 9, Kappa Delta. Wednesday at 8, Girls' Oregon club; at 8:30, Independents; at 9, Phi Psi.

To Display Prizes The two beautiful 20-inch trophy cups offered by Paul D. Green and the Buster Brown Shoe store as awards for the best men's and women's house, respectively, were removed from the window of the Co-op yesterday and have been placed in the show windows of the stores of their donors.

Students Urged To Attend Dinner

Charles D. Hurrey Will Be Main Speaker

All students are urged to attend the International banquet Tuesday evening by Brian Minnaugh, chairman of the affair. Dean Straub will act as toastmaster, introducing Charles D. Hurrey, speaker for the occasion.

"This is one chance for a student to get contact with the foreign students on the campus. It is an opportunity to talk over problems, and to get ideas on international relations, and in fact, on everything."

"Most of these foreign students will go back to their own countries after finishing their education here. It is up to us to show these boys the hospitality we would expect of them if we went to their country."

"I sincerely hope that the American students will take this matter seriously enough to turn out." Speeches will be given by four students representing different nationalities. Henry Kaahua will sing several solos.

Tickets for the banquet are now on sale in all the men's houses.

A.A.U.W. To Hear Talk On Modern Wise Men

"Three Modern Wise Men" is the subject of a speech which S. Stephenson Smith, of the English department, will give to a meeting of the American Association of University Women at their meeting Saturday noon at the Osburn hotel.

The "wise men" whom Mr. Smith will talk about are Prince Kropotkin, AE (George Russell), and Havelock Ellis. He will explain and criticize the ethical tone of each one, and deal with their religious attitudes.

Many Events Mark Reception Today Will Be Busy One for Spears

Grippe Afflicts Many Students on Oregon Campus

'Obtain Medical Advice,' Recommends Campus Physician

At the present time there is considerable grippe in the University. The infirmary has been filled practically all the time for the last few weeks, and many others for whom there was no accommodation were taken care of in their homes, according to Dr. Fred Miller, of the health service. The severest cases, he says, have been those students who either would not go to bed soon enough or stay there long enough.

Because of the severity of the illness now prevalent, he urges students to report early and often, either to the University health service or to their own private doctors and to keep under medical supervision until they are pronounced well.

Dr. Miller further states that whenever necessary the health service may be secured by calling the dispensary or infirmary. Students are asked to make calls during the day or as early in the evening as possible. Late calls disturb the patients at the infirmary and call upon the same nurses and doctors who are busy all day.

"On the other hand," continues Dr. Miller, "we do want to emphasize the fact that, although the infirmary may be filled, students may receive care from the health service and that the doctors are ready to make calls at any time they are necessary."

Lockwood Heads Tennis Ladder

Tournament Leaders Will Make Up Varsity Team

The varsity tennis team will be chosen from the ladder tournament being held this term, according to S. Stephenson Smith, coach of tennis. The tournament started at the beginning of the term, and is being played on McArthur court. One match a week is required for the players in order to stay in the running, and players can challenge the person above to a match.

Sherman Lockwood, varsity player of last year and who is well-known in tennis circles throughout the country, leads the list. Bob Hoogs is second, followed by Jack Kaplan and Don Ragen, Portland star. Jack Rhine, also a prominent Portland player, is fifth. The rest of the players follow in order: Boone Hendricks, Chet Anderson, Clinton Mitchell, Wallace Shearer, Bob Guild, Tom White, Joe Kaliski, Verne Elliot, Bill Adams.

Kaplan has upset the previous dope by coming up to third place from a point far down in the list. He seems to be a good candidate for varsity material this year.

Pres. Hall Will Entertain Dr. C. W. Spears

WHILE Dr. C. W. Spears is getting settled in Eugene he will be the guest of President and Mrs. A. B. Hall and will reside at the president's home. When the new coach has found a home in Eugene Mrs. Spears and their three children will come West to join him.

Women Debaters Chosen for Team

To Discuss Home Question With Utah Squad

Mary Klemm and Margaret Edmunson have been definitely chosen to represent the University in a debate here, Wednesday, February 26, against the University of Utah affirmative team. They will uphold the negative of the question: Resolved, That the modern diversion of women from the home to business and industrial occupations is detrimental to society.

Gene Laird and William Cutts will debate against the men's debate squad the same day. They will also uphold the negative but on a different question: Resolved, That world peace demands the demobilization of all forces except those necessary for police protection.

Books on Herbs Put On Library Display

A selection of old and valuable herbals has been put on exhibition on the first floor of the main library, replacing books from the Homer Potter collection. A herbal is a book on herbs and plant describing their medicinal and other uses.

Professor A. R. Sweetser, head of the department of plant biology, arranged the exhibit.

One of the books printed in 1814 contains one of the first drawings of the Oregon grape. It was probably sketched from plants grown from seeds taken back to Philadelphia by the Lewis and Clarke expedition.

Give Hearty Approval To Choice of Spears As Webfoot Gridman

To watch a team in action that has been coached by a man with the reputation of Dr. Spears should be an even greater thrill than it has been to watch Oregon teams play in the past. With Oregon teams performing in a new style of play Oregon co-eds will undoubtedly turn out in larger numbers for the games.

Oregon football has been advancing steadily in the last few years. With the selection of Spears as the new coach, there is no reason to believe that the game here will not reach a still higher peak.

With a host of good material bequeathed to its new coach, Dr. Clarence Spears, the University of Oregon need only to feel confident that its representatives on the gridiron will perform in a most admirable fashion not only in the next year, but for the many seasons that will follow. Aside from actual football development, Dr. Spears will be able to inculcate more activity on the campus, more Oregon spirit, and he will to a certain extent have an influence upon the moral development of the athletes and students.

After the splendid reception Dr. Spears is getting from University of Oregon students and alumni, and the state of Oregon in general—and the many forecasts of a sudden rise in Oregon's athletic status—it's going to be rather hard on the new coach if next year's football season isn't a success. I would certainly hate to be in his place!

With more material than any coach at Oregon has ever had, Dr. Spears should build a team that will go a long way in the 1930-1931 football season. Besides being a wonderful asset to Oregon's athletic status, Dr. Spears will come as a much needed addition to the University medical staff. The Doctor and Oregon should get along admirably.

A new fraternity and a new sorority house are to be built this coming summer on the W. S. C. campus, with a total investment of about $100,000 represented.

ly different from that of his predecessor at Oregon. The change that will come when he takes charge of the athletic destiny of the University will most likely be for the better. In any case, I am solidly for Dr. Spears, and am convinced that Oregon will take a new and better place on the football map of the United States.

If all the glamor and glory of a reception to the University of Oregon can inspire Dr. Spears to the performing of great deeds with the football material he has on hand, next fall Oregon should experience one of its greatest years in the gridiron sport. Even if he isn't particularly inspired by the reception, all reports indicate that the new coach has enough ability to keep Oregon near the top in Coast conference football percentages.

Questions About Emerald Quickly Answered, Report

Lists Coming in Quickly Says Edwin Puhols, Survey Manager

Attitude of Student Body Is Sought by Officials

Results of the statistical survey being conducted by the Emerald are coming in heavily at present and show that the students are taking an active interest in the campaign. According to Edwin Puhols, student in business administration and manager of the statistical department, who is conducting the survey.

The questionnaire is being circulated to discover just how students feel about the advertising in the Emerald, and their opinion about the paper in general. The results will be used to convince prospective advertisers of the value of their space in the Emerald, as well as to explain to the editorial staff how they may make the paper of more interest to the students.

Students are asked to fill the questionnaire out carefully so that the results may be of the highest possible value. A survey may not be taken again for several years, and it is important that this one be successful in obtaining student opinion, states Puhols.

Spears and Squad To Attend Theater

First Public Entertainment Set for McDonald

Scheduled as the first public entertainment in honor of the arrival of Oregon's new head coach, Dr. Clarence W. Spears and his newly acquired Webfoot gridiron squad will be guests of honor at the first Monday night performance of "The Time, The Place, and The Girl," at the Fox McDonald theatre, it was announced.

The picture, "The Time, The Place, and The Girl," being an all talking drama of college life, particularly regarding football, was deemed ideal entertainment to serve to introduce Dr. Spears to local atmosphere.

Several members of the athletic board are expected to attend the Monday night performance with Coach Spears and the lemon-yellow squad.

Sumner Will Give Sunday Vespers Service Address

Polyphonic Choir To Sing As Special Feature; Crowd Expected

Stringed Instrument Trio To Play Numbers

With Bishop Walter Taylor Sumner, head of the Episcopal church in Oregon, as the speaker, and the University of Oregon polyphonic choir as music, tomorrow's vesper program is anticipated as one of the most interesting afternoon services ever held.

School of music officials expect one of the largest audiences of the year and they have pointed out again that the programs now begin promptly at 4 o'clock.

Is Annual Visitor

Bishop Sumner, who is a popular speaker on this campus, has been an annual visitor here for the past 16 years and has come to be a highly respected figure. His subject will be "Music in the Church." Bishop Sumner has had an interesting life in church work which began in 1903 when he became secretary to the Bishop of Chicago. He has honorary degrees of doctor of divinity from Dartmouth, Northwestern university and Western Theological seminary.

Appearing for the first time since its premier program, December 15, the polyphonic choir, directed by Arthur Boardman, will sing a program representing polyphonic music from a number of different schools.

One interesting number will be a gloria arranged especially for the choir from a Bach fugue by George Hopkins, head of the piano department.

A trio made up of Martha Paterson, violinist, Doris Helen Paterson, harpist, and Roberta Spicer, cellist, will play two arrangements and there will be violin solos by Beulah Wynd.

The choir program follows: Choral from "Sleepers Wake"..... J. S. Bach Gloria..... Bach-Hopkins (Arranged from piano fugue by Mr. George Hopkins) Cherubim Song..... Borntniansky Praise Ye God..... Tschalkowsky Two Negro Spirituals in eight parts..... R. N. Dett A Ballad of the Trees and Master..... Matthews Sevenfold Amen..... Stainer
