

Women Hurry!
Enter Emerald Golf
Tournament Now!

THE WEATHER
Oregon today: Winds, north.
Wednesday's temperatures:
Maximum ..... 56
Minimum ..... 43
Stage of river ..... .2
Precipitation ..... .05

JOHNSON OUT; CHERRY TAKES HELM

Five To Seek Editorship Of Campus Daily

Hall, Tussing, Van Dine, And Taylor Named by Emerald Staff

PETITION NAMES FIFTH

List Signed by 740 Enters Tonkon Among Those After Post

Four candidates for editor of the 1930-31 Emerald were nominated by members of the Emerald staff at a meeting held yesterday afternoon, and a fifth has been nominated by means of a popular petition circulated on the campus during the evening.

Four nominees, Vinton Hall, Lakeview; Rex Tussing, Nels Taylor; Harry Van Dine and T. Neil Taylor, both of Portland, are juniors in journalism. Harry Tonkon, Portland, is a junior in business administration.

Staff Nominates Four

Under the provisions of the present student body constitution regarding nominations for the editorship, the staff is entitled to nominate a maximum of four candidates. Provision is also made for nomination of a candidate by a petition of not less than 100 students.

When the staff's votes were tallied, it was found that Tonkon was the fifth man by a margin of one vote, having 25 to Taylor's 24 and Van Dine's 23. Hall polled 35 votes, and Tussing was given 33.

Petition Circulated

Friends of Tonkon immediately began the circulation of a petition for his nomination which carried 750 signatures by 10 o'clock.

Tonkon's name will thus be turned over to the publications committee with those of the other four candidates. The constitution provides that the publications committee shall recommend one candidate for the position to the executive council not later than the second week in May. The final decision is up to the executive council.

At the meeting of the staff, Hall was nominated by Bob Allen, Tonkon by Willis Duniway, Van Dine by Jack Burke, Tussing by Wilfred Brown, and Taylor by Merlin Blais.

Students Delay In Paying Fees

Eleanor Houghton Is First At Cashier's Window

To Eleanor Houghton goes the honor of being the first to pay her fees. Who will be the last. Resolve today that it shall not be you—today for remember, a fine of $3 for the first day and 25 cents for each subsequent day late will be imposed on those poky students who don't visit the cashier's office before April 26.

"At the rate that fees came in yesterday, which was very much too slow, the students will have to step to get all their assessments paid before April 26," said E. P. Lyon, cashier.

Information Received Here on New Device

Information regarding a new invention in the form of a book conveyor or distributor has been received by M. H. Douglass, librarian. The conveyor is designed to take books from any stack level to the delivery desk where they are automatically discharged and then sent back again to any stack level where they are again automatically discharged.

Yale, the University of Rochester, and the University of Cincinnati have purchased these new book conveyors. There is a possibility that the University of Oregon may purchase a similar book distributor when a new library is built.

Heroic Frosh Murders Fowl To End Insomnia

BEING wakened around 5 o'clock every morning isn't a pleasant experience, particularly when the cause is the monotonous and insistent tapping of a woodpecker.

The whole Kappa Sigma house has been suffering from early morning insomnia for more than a week. Far too long, thought Harlow Davis, freshman. Yesterday morning he stole out of the palatial woodshed and in the modern "Robin Hood" manner cut loose at the unfortunate marauder, with both barrels of a 12-gauge shotgun.

Fluttering slowly to the ground, the bird breathed its last, while the brethren of Kappa Sig breathed a sigh of relief.

Russia Asks Aid Of Dr. Crosland On Printed Matter

Soviets Want Assistance On Type To Be Used In New Plant

Professor's Wide Study Makes Him Authority

The government psychologist of Russia has requested the aid of Dr. H. R. Crosland, associated professor of psychology, in a letter received from A. R. Luria, who holds that position under the Soviet regime.

The Russian government, which has taken over most of the publishing activities in that country, is now making an extensive study of the relative merits of different printing type, and various page sizes used in books and magazines to determine which kinds will afford the greatest legibility. In a new government printing plant the Soviets are attempting to find the best possible methods of publishing reading matter from the standpoint of the readers.

Dr. Crosland has been asked to contribute to this study, because of his extensive work already carried on in this field. He has probably a wider knowledge on the subject than any other psychologist, because of his years of work on the general problem of visual perception in determining legibility of characters, and the relation of visual perception to the attention paid by the individual.

Results on a study of the effectiveness of letters in words from left to right, by Dr. Crosland, will also be contributed to the Russian study. He will give a paper on the subject at the annual meeting of the Western Psychologists association, at Los Angeles, this June.

College Students' Intelligence Is Research Subject

Egypt Students Compared With Americans by Giffin

The average intelligence of college students in Egypt, as compared with that of students in American institutions, is the subject of a research being conducted by Robert Giffin, an Oregon graduate with the class of 1927, and now an instructor in English at Assiut college, in Assiut, Egypt.

Dr. Howard R. Taylor, director of the personnel bureau, recently mailed to Mr. Giffin copies of two standard intelligence examinations, to be used in testing Egyptian students.

One, the Peterson rational learning test, will be the basis of an extensive survey of ability to memorize by rote, which is believed to be unusually high among the Egyptians. The other form to be used is the Peterson uniform test of mental performance. Both consist entirely of calculations, and therefore involve no language difficulties.

Revised Plan Of Vodvil Is Twice Vetted

Decision Will Not Affect Performance To Be Put On Next Year

TO USE SHOW TALENT

Heilig Theatre Offer Does Not Meet Requirements Of Committee

When proposed plans of a Junior Vodvil poppe gain yesterday at the offer Heilig theatre to supervise rehearsals of the annual show, a rumble was again silenced by student affairs committee a negative vote on the ground that the newly submitted plan did not conform closely enough to the agreement made by the Junior vodvil revision committee.

It was made clear yesterday by the members of the student affairs committee that, although there had been restrictions placed on the performance this year, vodvils of the future years were not to be affected. All that will be required of next year's directors, according to Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, dean of women, will be a report on the style of show being planned. It will be necessary that this be passed on by officials.

In their reply to the proposed plan offered by the Junior class and the Heilig theatre, the committee stated that in the time allowed for preparation was short and that the new plan was not in accordance with the rules previously stated, it was deemed advisable to vote negatively.

Much of the vodvil talent which has already been prepared for the show will be featured at various occasions during Junior Week-end, according to an announcement made yesterday by members of the directorate.

Alumni Roll Will Be Released Soon

May Issue of Old Oregon To List Grads

The 1930 edition of the University of Oregon Alumni directory, listing the names, addresses, degrees, and occupations of more than 7000 graduates, will be released about the middle of next month, in the May number of Old Oregon, official alumni magazine, it was announced yesterday by Miss Jeanette Calkins, alumni secretary and editor of the publication.

In her own absence at an alumni conference in Amherst, Massachusetts, Miss Calkins stated, Miss Margaret Boyer, managing editor, will act as editor of the special issue. The directory will be the first publication of its kind at the University since 1925, according to its sponsors, and will include members of graduating classes from 1878 to January 1930.

The April number of Old Oregon will be off the press some time this week, Miss Calkins announced.

W. F. G. Thacher Writes Stories for Blue Book

W. F. G. Thacher, professor of English, is at present engaged in writing two stories of football for the Blue Book magazine. They will be sent in time to be published during next fall's gridiron season. Prof. Thacher has written football stories for Blue Book for a number of years.

Club Weilders Polish Outfits To Crack First Ball Monday

Match play of the Emerald's spring handicap golf tournament will begin Monday, Faulkner Short, manager of the club wielding contest, announced yesterday. Drawings are to be held Saturday afternoon and the pairings and handicaps will be published in the Emerald Tuesday. Four more women entered yesterday.

Largest Man Hunt of the Year Now in Full Swing; Men Flee

Senior Women Plan Full Week of Entertainment As Lure to Willy Males; Men Despair of Quiet

THE divine right of men, that of asking the maid of their choosing to all campus functions, goes by the board next week. No longer is the male the aggressive! Woman will step to the fore as the pursuer of the elusive man in the festivities of Senior Leap week to be held April 24 to 26.

The men will have a splendid chance to get even with the gals for making them wait; and while the women are fuming helplessly on some fraternity porch waiting for their man, he can calmly brush that moustache, fuss with his tie, and then trip down 20 minutes later and sweetly say, "Oh, I haven't kept you waiting, have I?"

But, oh, boy! will the girls get even! Dunt esk. For, remember, the gals do all the asking and escorting, even paying the bills; the men can twiddle their thumbs and pray for some girl to give them a break and ask them to dance, if the women do not deign, they are wallflowers.

The Kappa Koffee is the opening affair of Senior Leap week. It will be held next Thursday at the Kappa house from 4 to 6. It will be a date affair, announces Naomi Hohman, in charge of the party. Woe to any man who attempts to make a date for that, as the "wimmin" have that privilege, and can step to the fore and ask their secret sorrow.

Thursday evening the "Co-ed's Revenge," positively a NO-DATE affair, will come off at the Delta Gamma house. The women will tag it, and so will the men, but the way they pair off will be entirely up to the wishes of the feminine portion. It will last from 8:30 to 10:30 and campus togs are in order, says Maria Wilson, who is in charge.

Dress Rehearsal Of April Frolic To Come Tonight

Kwamas To Sell Tickets, Thespians Popcorn At Co-ed Party

Joan Patterson Requests Stunt Finance Report

April Frolic directorate met yesterday at the home of Joan Patterson to discuss the final plans for the April Frolic party to be given this Saturday from 8 to 11 p. m. in the Gerlinger building.

Miss Patterson announced that dress rehearsal would be held tonight at 7 o'clock in Gerlinger hall. She also requested that the chairman of each stunt bring to her before 6 o'clock Saturday a detailed report of everything done by her committee and of all money spent.

It was further announced that the Thespians would handle the selling of popcorn balls, and the Kwamas would sell tickets at the entrances to the building. Those Kwamas who will sell tickets are: Katherine Perigo, Caroline Haberlach, Carol Hurlburt, Lois Nelson, Constance McKenzie, Ann Baum.

Commerce Group Elects Delegate

Johanna Koberstein To Go To Convention

Phi Chi Theta, women's commerce honorary, yesterday elected Johanna Koberstein, senior in the school of business administration, as delegate to the national convention of the organization in Boston, Massachusetts, from June 19 to 24.

Miss Koberstein will be accompanied from Portland to Boston by Miss Idabelle Tremayne, '25, who is now national secretary for Phi Chi Theta. After the convention, Miss Tremayne will set out from Boston on a year's trip to Europe.

Schmidt, Lomax Will Be Judges in Contest

Dr. E. P. Schmidt of the economics department and Alfred L. Lomax of the business administration department will be in Heppner on Saturday, April 19, to judge an inter-county declamatory contest with high schools of Umatilla, Gilliam, and Morrow counties competing.

This is at the request of Lucy E. Rodgers, Morrow county superintendent of schools.

Ad Men Plan Conference For May 3,4

Meet To Be Sponsored by Alpha Delta Sigma Members

COMMITTEE SELECTED

Ex-prexy of San Francisco Advertising Club To Speak

More than 200 advertising men and women from various parts of the state have signified their intentions to attend the first Oregon Advertising conference to be held on the University of Oregon campus, on May 3 and 4, under the auspices of Alpha Delta Sigma, national honorary advertising fraternity.

John Cuddy, managing director of Californians, Inc., has been selected as the main speaker and honor guest during the conference. Mr. Cuddy, who has been president of the San Francisco Advertising club and has taken an active part in advertising circles of the Pacific coast, will speak at the large banquet to be held on Saturday evening, May 3.

Golf on Program

The conference will get under way on the Saturday afternoon of the week-end, when the visitors will witness the Oregon-Washington State baseball game at Hayward field. Women guests will be entertained at a tea to be given by Gamma Alpha Chi, national honorary advertising fraternity for women. Golf will also be on the schedule for the ad men.

What promises to be one of the best meetings ever held for Oregon advertising men will be the large banquet to be held at the new men's dormitory on Saturday evening.

Thacher Heads Work

Sunday morning, active, alumni, and associate members of Alpha Delta Sigma will hold a reunion breakfast at a local hotel. Robert W. Jones, of University of Washington, grand president of the national fraternity, will be the main speaker at this affair.

Sunday morning will be featured by golfing, touring of the University campus and the city of Eugene.

Working with Weber on the committee in charge of the conference are Anton Peterson, Astoria; Harry Tonkon, Portland; Richard Bissell, Portland, and Edward Horn, Falls City.

University Prof Returning to U. S.

Dan E. Clark Completing Work in Europe

Dan E. Clark, professor of history, who has been doing research work in London, will sail for the United States May 22 and will return to the campus next fall, it was learned yesterday from Veronica G. Sorrell, professor of economics, who recently received a letter from him.

Professor Clark, who is assistant director both of the University extension service and of the summer school, did research in Washington, D. C., on the "Westward Movement in American History" prior to his present work in the British museum at London.

He leaves soon for the continent, where he plans to spend about a month visiting Paris, Switzerland, Belgium, Germany, and Holland before his return to America this spring.

Club Weilders Polish Outfits To Crack First Ball Monday

Qualifying rounds are to close Saturday noon and the scores must be placed in the box in the Emerald copy room before that time.

The list for men was closed with 48 entries or three full flights. Entry lists for women will be open until Saturday noon and it will be possible for them to register for the contest at the same time their qualifying score is turned in.

Cups and prizes will be displayed next week. The Co-op is donating the cup for the men's championship, flight, Hender-shot's will furnish the runner-up with a new golf bag, Paul D. Green gives a cup to the winner of the first flight, and DeNeff's is donating a sweater to the men's second flight winner. The Buster Brown shoe store is giving a cup to winner of women's matches.

Robert Bishop was the last man to place his name on the entry list. Women entering included Ione Wedemeyer, Grace Vath, Ethel Linklater, and Lucille Murphy.

Yellow Signs Stress Parking Rules on Campus

WHAT'S the idea here, can't you read plain English? Those yellow signs mean NO PARKING.

"Yes, I know, but really I just meant to park a minute." Almost every campus crate or "cad" has had the experience of having a little white ticket tied to its steering wheel. No longer will it be impossible for the owner to beg off from the penalty on the grounds that the little messages on the trees and telephone posts were not seen. Brand new, bright yellow signs have been erected at close intervals on both sides of 13th street through the campus.

Thirteen Frosh Enter Extempore Speech Contest

Vice-president Award Will Be Divided on April 23

Donor To Be Chairman; Judges Named

Thirteen freshmen have entered the vice-president extempore speaking contest to be held on Wednesday, April 23, according to Wallace Campbell, chairman of the contest. The names were submitted at the meeting of the Congress club held last night.

George Bateman, Jack Bellingier, Tim Booth, Kenneth Campbell, Roy Craft, Charles Dofflof, Leslie Dunlap, Robert Gamer, Sterling Green, John King, Marl Lyle, Ethan Newman, and Don Saunders are the men who will compete for the vice-president award comprising a total of $25.

The order of the speakers and their subjects will be determined by lot, and the speakers will be given three hours in which to prepare their speeches, which are to be not more than eight minutes in length.

The subjects will be chosen from those discussed this year at sessions of the Congress club, including the following: "Independence of India," "American Penal System," "Social Race Equality," "The Tariff," "Socialism vs. Capitalism," "Recognition of Russia," "Suppression of Birth Control Literature," "Military Training," "Compulsory Instaltment Buying," "Dollar Diplomacy," "The Immigration Problem," and "America's Crime Situation."

Burt Brown Barker, vice-president of the University and donor of the award, will preside at the contest. Easton Rothwell, of the University high school faculty; Eugene V. Slatery, assistant district attorney of Lane county; and Donald Husband, Eugene attorney, will act as judges.

Two Prominent Men To Address Students

Two nationally known men will be on the campus Friday to speak to student groups at the Y hut. Charles Corbett, an officer of the student Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. of the United States, will be here, along with Roy McCullough, of the Intercollegiate Prohibition association.

Mr. McCullough is from Washington, D. C., and will meet with men interested in forming a group to study the liquor question.

Freshman Dean Will Speak at Conference

The Western Section conference of the National Association of Deans for Women, convening Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of this week in Laramie, Wyoming, is to hear an address by Mrs. Hazel Schwering, assistant dean of women at the University of Oregon, explaining the Philomelite hobby groups established on this campus last year. Mrs. Schwering left for the conference Sunday.

Stronger Man Available Is Reason Given

Large Crowd Gathers for Announcement of Party Heads

TICKET GAINS POWER

Surprise Reigns in Ranks Of Johnson Group At Meeting

Hal Johnson retired from his candidacy for the presidency of the student body last night, and George Cherry took his place.

Effected with startling rapidity and daring precision, this change of candidates on the part of the backers of the Johnson ticket was a complete surprise to the student body.

Raymors that a shake-up was pending began to filter down from the dinner-hour, but it was not until 9:45 that public announcement of the change was made.

At that hour a crowd which packed the Kappa Gamma Gamma house to capacity heard Johnson and Cherry explain their reasons for the big change.

"Not Quitter," Johnson said in part. "I feel that there is a better man in the field and for that reason I wish to withdraw from the race in favor of George Cherry. I don't want you to think I am a quitter. I can accept defeat as gracefully as anyone, but I don't want to see the rest of the ticket beaten because of me, and for that reason I am retiring."

Cherry then spoke, expressing confidence in the ability of his ticket to win at the polls, and stating that two more houses had joined his party since the announcement of the change in leaders.

Cherry Prominent

Cherry is a junior in business administration. During his freshman and sophomore years he was one of the prominent independents on the campus. Since last fall he has been a member of Phi Kappa Psi.

In entering the race Cherry is making a strong bid for the large independent vote. The problem of his party is now to preserve the equality of fraternity and sorority backing which they had with the party of Chuck Laird Tuesday, when statistics compiled by the writer showed 13 houses claimed definitely by each side, with 14 "on the fence."

Much water will flow down the (Continued on Page Two)

Eugene Anti-Noise Bill Not To Include University Rallies

Mayor Says Proposed Law Not Aimed at Student Activities

Reassurance that the "anti-noise" ordinance now before the Eugene city council does not include the banning of student rallies from downtown streets was given the Emerald yesterday by Mayor H. E. Wilder.

The ordinance, which was tabled until next Monday, requires that owners of loud-speakers, noise makers, and musical instruments must have permits from the city recorder before they can turn them on full blast on the city streets.

"That is not aimed at student rallies or noise parades at all. The students are welcomed to parade on the streets. The bill before the council was aimed to curb the radio and other noisy equipment which downtown merchants turn on in the morning and which blare all day and disturb office workers. Besides, I don't know whether that ordinance will even pass. It was tabled until next council meeting," Mayor Wilder said.