

What Are 'Birds'
Send Your Definition
To Hank de Rat

Oregon Emerald

THE WEATHER
Oregon: Wind, southeast.
Maximum temperature 64
Minimum temperature 54
Stage of river -2
Precipitation23

VOLUME XXXI UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 23, 1930 NUMBER 110

CAL BRYAN WITHDRAWS FROM RACE

Final List of Work Group Now Released

Miller Is Named Assistant Chairman of Greater Oregon Work

J. FRECK APPOINTS 48

Qualifications of Directors Basis of Choice, Says General Head

Robert Miller, sophomore from Pendleton, was yesterday announced as assistant chairman for the 1930 Greater Oregon committee. In announcing his selection, Chairman Joe Freck said that Miller would have charge of the work in the eastern part of the state during the summer.

At the same time Freck released the names of 48 town chairmen and seven assistants for the Portland district. In announcing the list, Freck said, "We have made the selection of Greater Oregon chairmen without regard to class standing, choosing the students whom we believe best qualified to handle the work, regardless of whether they are freshmen, sophomores, or juniors."

Committeemen Named

The town chairmen are as follows:
Bandon, Howard Page; Burns, Fred Reed; Clatskanie, Dorothy Campbell; Coquille, Jean Young; Dallas, Dorothy Page; Heppner, Patricia Mahoney; Hermiston, Frances Sale; Independence, Alta Kingsbury; Myrtle Point, Elbert Schroeder; Prineville, Paul Huston; Sandy, Ken Scates; Seaside, Avis Selnes; Toledo, William Brumbaugh; Union, Gracia Haggerty; Wallowa, Virginia Hunter; Cottage Grove, Harold Bede; Lebanon, Donna Gill; McMinnville, Fred Hollister.

North Bend, Kathryn Langenberg; Ontario, Theresa Young; Rainier, Jack Sammons; St. Helens, Claire Thomen; Tillamook, Chet Knowlton; Woodburn, Winston Hunt; Ashland, Barney Miller; Forest Grove, Janice Strickland; Grants Pass, Jack Blanchard; Gresham, Bill Ott; Klamath Falls, Mary Ellen Bradford; Marshfield, Dan McGinnis; Milton, John King; Milwaukie, Curtis Whiting.

Miller at Pendleton
Pendleton, Bob Miller; Silverton, Eleanor Ballantyne; Oregon City and West Linn, Phil Hammond; Bend, Mary Ellen Foley; Hillsboro, Dorothy Tongue; Hood River, Kelsey Slocum; La Grande, Lawrence Bay; Roseburg, John Long; Albany, Art Potwin; Astoria, Tony Peterson; Corvallis, Gladys Mack; Eugene, Reba Brogdon; Medford, Dorothy Eads; Salem, Don Siegmund; Lakeview, Bob Clark.
Portland schools: Lincoln, Willis

(Continued on Page Two)

Campus Man Now Hunted by Eager Femmes

HEAVEN help the campus men at a time like this. Determined women, with glint in their eyes; bashful men, struggling with various complexes are abroad. "Your man, but be sure he's live one," is the cry set up the man hunt begins. It's on season and the only license required is a ticket to the annual Mortar Board Ball, to be given this coming Friday evening at the Men's Dorm, says Florence McNeerney. The quota is limited to one catch, but if some husky lass thinks she can manage more, all's fair. This right to shoot is not limited to senior women, but the frosh, soph, and junior girls can polish up their "shootin' irons" and join the party in search for a likely male.

Master Dancing Group Will Hold Practice Tryout

Two Terms of Rhythmic Dancing Necessary for Eligibility

Candidates Are Urged To Sign Bulletin Board

The Master Dancing group, national dancing honorary, will hold membership tryouts this week, it was announced yesterday by Miss Marjorie Forchener, dancing instructor and adviser to the dancing group.

In preliminary meetings instructions as to the requirements and date for the final try-outs were given. Today all who are interested will be given the opportunity of entering dances with the master group.

Any who have completed two terms of rhythmic dancing in the department are eligible to compete, and at least ten will be selected from the group of candidates. The winners will probably not be announced for several days after the final tryouts, so that each candidate may be fully considered.

Those who intend to try out should sign the list on the bulletin board in the dancing room in Gerlinger hall, Miss Forchener said.

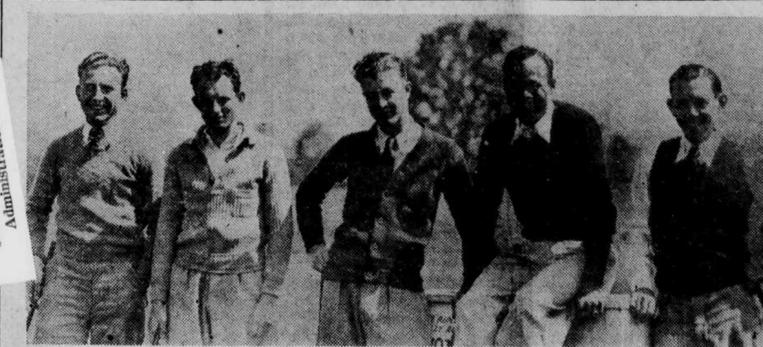

Rubenstein, Milligan Win Ping-Pong Match

Max Rubenstein and Scott Milligan won hard-fought victories over Jean Eberhart and Pat Pasqua, respectively, in the annual Y. M. C. A. ping-pong tournament.

The score of the Rubenstein-Eberhart match was 6-2, 4-6, 15-13, while that between Milligan and Pasqua was 4-6, 6-3, 6-1.

The last match will be held today at 3 o'clock in the Y hut, when Rubenstein will defend his last year's championship against Milligan for possession of the Co-op trophy.

Four Emerald Golfers and the Manager

Someone said the biggest handicap about the Emerald's spring golf tournament was the weather. The above picture was taken in one of those moments when Old Sol crowded through an opening between two clouds. Here's what he saw: Wally Boyle, Wally Giles, Art Schoeni, Bob Robinson, and Faulkner Short, manager of the tourney, standing by the first tee at the Eugene Country club course. Opening rounds of match play commence today for the silver cups and other valuable prizes offered by the Emerald.

"Yellow Jacket" Cast Selected

Contestants for Vice-President Prize To Speak

Subjects To Be Chosen Four Hours Before Tonight's Meet

Burt Brown Barker Donor Of $25 in Prizes

The Vice-president extempore speaking contest for freshmen will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in 105 Commerce building, and the entire campus is invited, Wallace Campbell, chairman of the event, announced yesterday.

Burt Brown Barker, vice-president of the University is the donor of a sum of $25, which will be given in nine prizes. The Congress club is sponsor of the contest.

The list of entries in the order of speaking is as follows: Leslie Dunlap, Ethan Newman, John King, Sterling Green, Roy Craft, Charles Dolloff, George Bateman, Tim Booth, Kenneth Campbell, Robert Gamer, and Don Saunders. The contestants will draw subjects four hours before the time they are listed to speak. They will choose from the following: "Independence for India," "The American Penal System," "Social Race Equality," "The Tariff," "Socialism versus Capitalism," "Recognition of Russia," "Suppression of Birth Control Literature," "Instalment Buying," "Compulsory Military Training," "Dollar Diplomacy," "The Immigration Problem," and "America's Crime Situation."

Mr. Barker will act as chairman at the contest, and the judges will be Easton Rothwell, of the University high school faculty; Eugene V. Slatery, assistant district attorney of Lane county; and Donald Husband, Eugene attorney.

Beta President Is Visitor on Campus

Dr. Shepardson Speaks Before Council

Dr. Francis W. Shepardson, national president of Beta Theta Pi, and former national vice-president of Phi Beta Kappa, was a visitor on the Oregon campus yesterday, as a part of a tour which he is making on behalf of the National Interfraternity conference, of which he is a member. He addressed the University of Oregon Interfraternity council at a special luncheon meeting, speaking on the subject of fraternity ideals and standards.

This morning Doctor Shepardson will go to Corvallis, in order to continue his work at Oregon State college, before returning to Chicago. He is compiling data for a book on national fraternities.

Doctor Shepardson was the overnight guest of Beta Theta Pi. A formal banquet was given at the chapter house last night in his honor.

Golf Pairings And Handicaps Due Tomorrow

BECAUSE bad weather has prevented entrants in the Emerald's spring handicap golf tournament from qualifying, pairings and handicaps will not be published until Thursday morning.

There are 20 persons on the entry list that have no qualifying score. Players are urged to play their rounds and turn in their scores as soon as possible in order to qualify and be eligible for tourney play.

Scores may be placed in the box in the Emerald copy room or they may be telephoned to Faulkner Short, Sigma Pi Tau, manager.

Student Sleuths Nab Confidence Man In Corvallis

Fake Fraternity Brother Tracked Down by Two Delt Hawkshaws

Shades of Sherlock Holmes! Mark Gill and Ed Bissell, members of Delta Tau Delta, are the latest applicants for membership in the Defective Detectives' club due to their untiring efforts in tracing down and catching Allen Reid, alias Allen Hart, age 26. Hart has been living at the Delt house, posing as a member of the fraternity from California. He recently took French leave, taking with him $150 worth of clothing, after passing $200 worth of bogus checks.

Gill and Bissell, forming the sleuthing team for the frat, finally located their man in Corvallis last night, and captured him, turning him over to Deputy Sheriff Schloman. He was brought to Eugene today and lodged in the county jail.

Tomorrow Hart, who claims to belong to a society family in the East, and hence refuses to give his real name, will plead guilty to the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. He will be taken to Salem tomorrow.

World Peace Advocate Is Visitor on Campus

Farrell Symons who is the field representative for the World Peace foundation was on the campus yesterday conferring with M. H. Douglass, librarian. The organization he represents supplies to the library the official publications of the League of Nations, the World Court, and the International Labor Review.

Mueller Will Address School of Social Work

J. H. Mueller, associate professor in the sociology department, left for Portland yesterday afternoon where he will speak before the school of social work on "Current Trends in Prison Administration." After his lecture, which will be given this afternoon, he will return to Eugene.

James Lyons Will Play Lead Part in Weird Chinese Drama for Commencement

James Lyons, who had the lead in last year's commencement play, "If I were King" will have the lead again in this year's commencement play, "The Yellow Jacket," weird romance of the Middle Kingdom, Wednesday evening, May 21, at the Heilig theatre. He will play the part of Wu Hoo Git.

Katherine Starr has been cast as the feminine lead; she will play the part of Moy Fah Loy. Besides these two, the cast includes Carl Klippell as Wu Sin Yin, the governor; Gordon Stearns as Tai Fah Min, second father-in-law; Helen Allen as Due Jung Fah;

Addison Brockman as Wu Fah Din, the Daffodil (main villain); Loleta Jaeger as Chow Wan; Renee Nelson as Tso; Florence McNeerney as See Noi.

Miles Shaw will be property man; William Cutts, chorus; Lee Sin, Gene Love; Ling Won; Vinton Hall; Yin Suey Gong, Jack Waldron; Tai Char Shoon, George Anderson; Git Hok Gar, Eugene Laird; Loy Gong, Frank Jackson; Kom Loi, Charles Jones; Chee Moo, Margaret Turner;

Suey Sin Fah, Celene Lauterstein; Lee Quoc Fah, Bessie Davie; Mow Dan Fah, Jean Williams; Yung So Kow, Betty Cook; Widow Ching, Dorals May; Maid, Norma Jacobs; first assistant property man, Jack Stipe; second assistant property man, Harvey Welsh; third assistant property man, Ethan Newman; first attendant, Neil Sheeley; second attendant, Edwin Cruikshank.

Y. W. Cabinet To Hear Dr. Smertenko Tonight

Dr. Clara Smertenko, associate professor of Latin and Greek, will speak to the Y. W. cabinet tonight on "Personality and Growth."

In the absence of the president, Daphne Hughes, who left Friday to attend the national Y. W. conference in Detroit, the meeting has been scheduled for the A. W. S. cabin on the Mackenzie. Members of the cabinet will meet at the bungalow at 5:30 o'clock, accompanied by 25 cents and a pillow, and will have their dinner in the open. They plan to return by 8:30.

Art Students Urged To Appreciate Beauty

"Above all things dream, but your dreams will not amount to a row of pins unless you do daily the things you are dreaming about," said Burt Brown Barker, vice-president of the University, yesterday in an address to a class in art appreciation.

Mr. Barker also emphasized the fact that one must begin now what he hopes to achieve later, and that appreciation of art cannot be put off until a later time, because the powers of appreciation are lost unless they are used.

Junior Prom Queen To Be Chosen Soon

Popular Vote Will Be Used For Selection of Co-ed, Decides Bryan

CONTEST ENDS MAY 1

Ballots To Be Distributed By Representatives In Houses

Who is the most popular junior woman on the campus?

This question will be settled in the very near future when the lucky woman is chosen as the queen of the 1930 Junior Prom, plans released last night by Cal Bryan, prom chairman, revealed.

Each women's living organization is eligible to propose the name of one junior woman for consideration for the honor, according to Bryan. The names must be submitted to Miriam Swafford, in charge of the contest, before Saturday noon.

Directorate to Tabulate
The plan for the selection of the queen, as outlined by Bryan, will enable the woman to be selected by popular vote. A representative will be appointed in each living organization and sufficient ballots for those living in the house will be distributed through these representatives. They will then turn over the results to the Junior Prom directorate for tabulation. Independent men and women will be enabled to vote by securing ballots from Bryan.

Finalists to Be Attendants
From the original list of candidates four women will be selected through the first ballots and their names will be released next Tuesday. The final ballot for the selection of the queen will be held May 1. The queen will have the three other finalists as her attendants.

While the official duties of the queen have not yet been determined, she will reign at the annual Junior Prom. She and her attendants will also be guests of honor at the Canoe Fete the previous evening.

Pirate Motif Chosen
The pirate motif will be carried out throughout the decorations and the novel features, according to Bryan, and several new feature acts are being arranged from the talent of the proposed Junior Vody.

One addition to the staff of the prom was announced by Bryan last night. Deb Addison was chosen to head the clean-up committee for the affair.

Faville To Speak On Eastern Tour

Will Attend Convention of Business Schools

David E. Faville, dean of the business administration school, who left the campus last evening to attend the annual session of the United States Chamber of Commerce, in Washington, D. C., will spend only three days in Washington before traveling to Iowa City, to take part in the national convention of the American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business, on May 1, 2, and 3.

Dean Faville is scheduled to lead the discussion on "The Functions of a Bureau of Business Research in a State University" at the Iowa City meeting.

Women Journalists Will Convene Sunday

A joint meeting of the active members and alumni of Theta Sigma Phi, women's national honorary journalism fraternity, will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. Lewis Beeson. Beatrice Bennett, junior in journalism, will be formally pledged at the meeting.

Scotchmen To Get Big Chance Today

A.W.S. Auction To Offer Unclaimed Articles

All the necessities and luxuries of modern college youth will be auctioned off today by the Associated Women Students in their annual auction sale on the steps of the old libe from 11 to 12:15, and 12:45 to 2:30. Their stock consists of unclaimed articles turned in to the University depot. Bill Knox will act as chief auctioneer and members of Kwama, sophomore honorary, will assist him. Knox promises all sorts of compacts, umbrellas, fountain pens, books, and even wearing apparel.

Campus Praises 'Oregon Knights' Night' Broadcast

Three Fraternity Trios Receive Encores From Listeners

By THORNTON GALE
Encores and telephone messages of congratulation time after time interrupted the "Oregon Knights' Night" Emerald of the Air radio program, broadcasting over KORE at 8 o'clock last night.

Art Potwin, director, characterized it as "the best radio program to be yet broadcast. Karl Greve, president of Oregon Knights was in charge of arrangements for the musical numbers.

The three fraternity trios, A. T. O., Sigma Nu, and Theta Chi drew a maximum of praise for their vocal work. "Sing" Harper, "Spec" Stevenson, and "Torry" Shell, represented the A. T. O. The Sigma Nu trio was made up of Bill McLaren, Kelly Slocum, and Bob Goodrich. The Theta Chi trio was composed of Mike Griffin, Bill McNabb, and Rod Lamont.

Bob Goodrich, junior vodyl star sang several specialty numbers, accompanied by Vinton Hall on the piano. Wallie Palmer accompanied by Ray Burts on the piano, played a trumpet solo that drew many requests for encores from the radio audience. Bob Guild, sang two solos, that drew much praise from hearers.

Sally Addleman accompanied by Josephine Scott on the piano, sang to an appreciative audience, "If You Believe in Me" and "In My Little Hope Chest."

Harold Moulin, marimba artist, played two highly successful numbers on his instrument. The third episode of "Gullfin and His Gal" continuity stunt, written by Bob Guild and acted by him and Jewel Ellis, is receiving a lot of comment both in town and on the campus. The fourth episode broadcasting again tonight will find the two college lovers in the midst of a new dilemma. Five minutes of Emerald news followed the presentation of the program. Potwin and Palmer did the announcing.

Bachelor orchestra will be starred tonight in the fourth Emerald of the Air presentation. The latest campus and political news will also be featured. With elections and nominations so near, Potwin promises that the campus will be informed of the latest alignments and steam rollers.

Musician Distinguishes Self In Last Evening's Recital

Once again Malcolm Medler, blind musician who has distinguished himself on the campus both as a pianist and organist, has given a Eugene audience a memorable evening of music.

Last night was the occasion of Mr. Medler's graduate piano recital and he played before a large audience that was deeply impressed with the technical ability, musical quality and poise with which he played. He is the student of Jane Thacher.

Peggy Sweeney, violinist and pupil of Rex Underwood, was Mr. Medler's assistant.

Ex-Candidate Exponent Of Individuality

Pledges To Support Laird For A.S.U.O. President In Meeting

CAMPAIGNING INTENSE

Executive Senior Man Candidates Remain Big Mystery

By DAVE WILSON

Cal Bryan withdrew his candidacy for the student body presidency last night at a meeting of Laird followers. In an official statement made for publication, Bryan said:

"I wish to announce to the students that I have definitely withdrawn from the race for the presidency of the A. S. U. O., and in so doing I wish to take the opportunity to express my appreciation to those who have been working with me on the new idea of politics on an individual basis. I am retiring from the race in favor of Chuck Laird, to whom I will give my personal support."

Names Not Run
If the parties supporting Chuck Laird and George Cherry in the current presidential campaign have chosen candidates for the new office of executive senior man, they do not choose to run their names in the newspapers as yet.

The leaders of the two parties are apparently counting to use the psychological force of withholding the identity of the new members of their tickets until the nomination assembly to be held at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning at Gerlinger hall.

Election Determines Legality
As explained in yesterday's Emerald, the legality of the office of the candidate elected to be senior executive man will depend upon the passage of the new student body constitution, which is to be voted upon at the regular May election.

The creation of the new office is designed to give student members of the executive council more voting power in comparison to faculty members.

The complete text of the new constitution is to be published in tomorrow's Emerald, in accordance with the provision of the old constitution which requires publication of constitutional changes a week in advance of election day.

Offices May Have New Names
Under the terms of the proposed code the title of the present senior woman would become "executive woman." The junior man would become "junior finance officer," and James Dezendorf, the junior man elected a year ago, would be "senior finance officer" next year.

As the day for nominations nears, campaigning on the campus becomes more and more intense. Laird held meetings for supporters Monday night and last night, and the Cherry party followed an open-air rally held Monday night with a meeting at Friendly hall last evening.

Femme's Interest in Campus Politics at Last Uncovered

By LAVINA HICKS

"Why are women interested in campus politics?"

"Because men are," explained Helen Chaney, one of the many good-looking co-eds who is a staunch politician. "And besides, it's fun to go to a political meeting and meet all the handsome, 'big' men on the campus," she added.

"Mob psychology," seems to be the secret of woman's interest, according to Lois Nelson. "Women don't deserve the right to vote unless they take it more seriously."

of course, there are some girls who are influenced by the dancing and social side of politics," she added rather coyly.

In all in all we wonder how many co-eds actually enter the political field to see the better man win for the benefit of the campus.

Or do they go in because of promises of social prestige by getting certain appointments if they follow certain parties?

Or do they go in with certain parties because a certain fellow who has planted a certain pin on them, is a staunch advocate of that certain party?

Or do they go in because a certain politician with a heavy line has rushed them off their feet? Has called them for dates every night prior to election? (They never wake up till afterward to the fact that those dates terminate the night of elections and they never hear from them again.)

"Why are women interested in politics?"