Actual Events For Mothers Begin Today

Registration Will Close at 1 o'clock; Tea Planned For 2 to 4 P. M.

FEATURES ARE SLATED

Annual Mass Meeting To Take Place at 4 P. M. In Guild Hall

Although official registration of mothers started yesterday afternoon at the Administration building, the actual events of Mother's day will all be held today and tomorrow. Registration, which is being held under the direction of Alberta Rives, will close at 1 o'clock today.

A tea to be given from 2 to 4 o'clock this afternoon in Hendricks hall, will be the first event in honor of the mothers. A musical program featuring songs by the A. T. O. trio, composed of Ermin Harper, Harlan Stevenson, and Thorsten Shell, a harp solo by Doris Helen Patterson, and vocal solos by Sally Addleman, and Constance Baker, will furnish the afternoon's entertainment.

Reports Will Be Given

The annual mass meeting of the mothers takes place at 4 o'clock at Guild hall. Here reports of the work of the past year will be given, and officers will be elected for the coming year. Retiring officers of the Mothers' association are: Mrs. Walter Cook, Portland, president; Mrs. John Runyan, Roseburg, vice-president; Mrs. Wilson H. Jewett, Eugene, secretary; and Miss Marian Phyllis, Eugene, executive secretary.

The culminating event in honor of the mothers will be the banquet to be given at Gerlinger hall this evening at 5:30 o'clock. Dr. Arnold Bennett Hall will be the principal speaker of the evening, and there will be three very short talks by Governor A. W. Norblad, Paul T. Shaw, president of the Oregon Dads, and Tom Stoddard. Mrs. Walter Cook will preside at the banquet.

Awards To Be Presented

As part of the banquet program, awards will be presented to the men's and women's living organizations having the largest percentage of mothers registered for the week-end. A silver vase, presented by Mrs. F. A. Heitkemper of Portland, will go to the victor women's house. The winning men's organization will receive a silver loving cup from Mrs. Charles Hall, of Marshfield.

Tau Delta Delta, musical honorary, will hold a special Mother's day vesper service Sunday.

Infirmary Left Bare For Week-end Events

A "housecleaning" at the infirmary yesterday, as one of the nurses expressed it, has left only four patients: Frances Rupert and Louise Candeaux, with the grip, Leah Harrington, the measles case, and Paul Biggs, convalescing from appendicitis.

Seven Roses Handed Out by Mortar Board

At the same time that the Friars were choosing members yesterday from among the Campus Day throngs, members of Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, filed out of Johnson hall, across Thirteenth street, and wended their way through the crowd, picking out seven pledges to the organization.

Margaret Cummings, Dorothy Eberhard, Daphne Hughes, Kathryn Langenberg, Mildred McGee, Bess Templeton, and Phyllis Van Kimmell were the seniors chosen for active membership, while Consuelo McMillan and Wilmoth Osborne were selected for honorary membership.

Mrs. Alice Baker Macduff of Eugene, a member of Mortar Board at the University of Michigan, was also chosen for membership in the Oregon chapter.

Luncheon Crowd Consumes 6,000 Buns and 3,000 Dixies

Six thousand buns, three thousand Dixies, three thousand candy bars, one hundred and twenty-five gallons of fruit salad, one hundred gallons of punch and three thousand packages of potato chips, besides several rolls of meat loaf were dispensed in quick order yesterday by Gladys Clausen and her staff of assistants at the annual Campus Luncheon.

The crowd of campus picnickers scattered themselves to all parts of the campus and there ate in contentment—all except those who were so unfortunate as to be chosen for a cold ducking in the fountain by husky Oregon lettermen for breaking some time honored tradition.

Freshmen, seniors, and prof-

sors were treated alike with a ducking and one three-year football letterman was seen to go in with the rest.

Music by Johnny Robinson's Varsity Vagabonds lent atmosphere to the occasion and several vocal and dancing features were enjoyed.

The overcast skies of the last week cleared to permit a warm Oregon sun to beat down upon the scene. It was a perfect day for the luncheon.

One of the most impressive events of the day was the pledging ceremonies held by two senior honoraries, Mortar Board and Friars, with members of both organizations marching through the campus to pick out their pledges.

Frosh Will Dance All Afternoon and Evening at Picnic

Music To Be Furnished From 4 to 11; Dance Contest Planned

Buses Will Transport Class To Swimmer's Delight

Dance music will be provided all afternoon and evening for those attending the annual frosh picnic to be held Friday, May 16, at Swimmers' Delight, it was announced last night by Andy Brown, dance chairman for the event.

"We are making the dance facilities the main feature of the picnic entertainment," Brown reported. "From 4 o'clock until the evening lunch is served, a group of excellent musicians recruited from the class will supply the harmony. From 7:30 to 11, a first-class dance band will perform.

"Although swimming, boating, baseball and other entertainment have been arranged, many of those who can not remain after the dinner hour will naturally prefer to dance, so the dance hall will be in use all afternoon.

"In the evening, a dance contest will be held, with prizes offered by McMorran and Washburne, Fulops Clothing store, and other Eugene merchants."

Ken Lawson, transportation chairman, reported last night that he had made arrangements for chartering a fleet of busses to leave the campus at 4 o'clock for Swimmers' Delight, which is located about four miles east of Goshen.

Mimeographed maps, showing the location of Swimmers' Delight, and indicating the roads to be taken, will be posted in all living organizations soon.

Senior Elections Tuesday; Brogdon Names Officials

Counting Board Is Picked Presidential Aspirants Freck, Pittman

Poll tenders and counting board for the election of next year's senior class officers were announced yesterday by Reba Brogdon, who as vice-president of the class, is in charge of the arrangements for the balloting. The election is to be held from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. Tuesday, May 13, in Villard hall.

Poll tenders will work in relays of one hour duration. Officers from 9 to 10 o'clock will be Jean Eberhart and Helen Ashliman; from 10 to 11, Harriet Kibbee and Ted Park; from 11 to 12, Mary Agnes Hunt and Alta Bennett; from 1 to 2, Rina Eggersdorf and Elizabeth Plummer; from 2 to 3, Hal Paddock and Bobbie Reid.

The counting board, as named by Miss Brogdon, will consist of Bobbie Reid, Cal Bryan, Chuck Laird, Harriet Kibbee, and Bill Whitely.

Candidates for offices, as named at the nominating assembly Thursday, May 8, are as follows: president, Joe Freck and Bill Pittman; vice-president, Orpha Ager and Dorothy Eberhard; secretary, Kathryn Langenberg; treasurer, Gordon Gardner and Ken Moore.

Y. W. To Sponsor Breakfast May 18

Janet Osborne in Charge Junior-Senior Feed

The annual Junior-Senior breakfast, sponsored by the Y. W. C. A., will be given this year in Gerlinger hall on Sunday morning, May 18, at 8:30, Janet Osborne, chairman of the affair, announced yesterday.

This breakfast is given in honor of the women of the graduating class, so every junior is expected to attend and bring a senior guest, according to Miss Osborne.

Final arrangements have not been decided upon, as yet, but the committee working under Miss Osborne is: Bess Templeton, chairman of the tickets and invitations; Margaret Hunt, properties and dining room; and Louise Weber, programs and decorations.

Dr. F. J. Kelly, Idaho Head, Doubts University Ability To Accomplish Deferred Pledging

Editor's Note: This is the fourth of a series of interviews run in connection with the Emerald on deferred pledging.

By RALPH DAVID and OLIVER POLITICUS

Objections of fraternities to deferred pledging can be met in most local situations, Dr. Frederick J. Kelly, president of the University of Idaho, declared as his belief in an interview yesterday. But Dr. Kelly doubts the ability of most universities to give in dormitories the training to freshmen now performed by fraternities.

"I believe that statistics will show that the average length of

Dad Chief Visits

Rufus H. Kimball, president of the recently formed California-Oregon Dads and Mothers association, who arrived here yesterday from Palo Alto, California, in order to spend Junior Week-end on the campus. Mr. Kimball will confer with President Arnold Bennett Hall on matters concerning University of Oregon parents who live in California. He is a guest of Sigma Pi Tau.

Swimming Races Slated for Today On the Mill-race

Races, Diving Acts To Be On This Morning's Water Sports

Aquatics To Take Place At the Anchorage

An hour and a half of rapid-fire aquatic entertainment commencing at 10:30 this morning will take place on the mill-race at the Anchorage. A series of races interspersed with features will comprise the program, Hal Fraundorf, water carnival chairman, said.

The University band will play several numbers, followed by the women's swimming race, in which six women will be entered. Myrtle Gorst, Barbara Mann, Jane Manion, Martha Nikirk, Louise Marvin, and Frances Keene are the entrants.

A comedy diving number by Al Edwards, Bob Needham, Chuck Foster, and Paul Lafferty will follow. An inner-tube race by the same group will also be put on.

Swim Race Feature

The men's swimming race will be the second main event on the water program. Twelve men have entered this event: Clarence Barton, Ralph Bates, Clifton Culp, Phil Ray, Ralph Hatfield, Virgil Langtry, Palmer McKim, Harold Nock, Ben Orsterling, Maurice Pease, Francis Sturgis, and Homer Wright.

A canoe tilting event will follow, with teams entered by Alpha Hall, Kappa Sig, and Theta Chi. An exhibition race among members of the varsity swimming squad will be added at this point.

The final event will be the canoe race, in which 14 canoes, each representing one men's and one women's living organization, have entered. This race will be run off in heats, and the contestants will

Sigma Pi Tau-Tri Delt Float Placed First by Judges of Canoe Fete

Stronghold of Pirate Will Be Invaded at 9

Junior Prom Opens With Grand March Played by Varsity Vagabonds

Chorus, Trio, Tap Dancers On List of Features

By MERLIN BLAIS

With a setting from some far-off pirate stronghold by the sea, and with the loveliest lady as the queen, the Junior Prom, annual dance, will be held tonight commencing at 9 o'clock at McArthur court.

The formal will open with the grand march played by Johnny Robinson's ten-piece orchestra, the Varsity Vagabonds, and the crowning of Queen Dorothy. Dorothy Teepe, campus-wide choice as the prettiest girl in the junior class, will reign, accompanied by her four maids-of-honor, Janice Strickland, Lorena Wilson, Margarita Hay, and Orpha Ager.

Immediately following will be the awarding of six cups. The Gerlinger cup will be presented by the dean of women to the junior girl reaching the highest achievement in the University; and the Koyl cup will be a similar honor given to a junior man by the dean of men. The Burt Brown Barker cups will next be given, one to each of the men's and women's living organizations placing highest in scholarship during the past year. The Canoe Fete cups will be awarded the living organizations putting on the winning float in last night's water event.

Features Are Prepared

During the intermission will be presented three feature numbers. A singing and dancing chorus of 14 men and 14 women will perform; then the men's chorus will give a dance number, featuring Connie Baker. A tap dancing number will be put on and the Alpha Xi Delta trio, comprised of Virginia Baker, Cecile Coss, and Dorothy Cooper will sing.

Refreshments will be available during the entire dance.

Parents, who are visiting the campus over the week-end, have been invited to attend the prom, and a special seating section has been arranged for them. They will also have the privilege of dancing.

Patrons, Patronesses Named

Patrons and patronesses for the event will be: Governor and Mrs. A. W. Norblad, President and Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall, Vice-president and Mrs. Burt Brown Barker, Dean and Mrs. J. H. Gilbert, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Dean Virginia Judy Esterly, Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Schwering, Dean Hugh L. Biggs, Dean and Mrs. Earl M. Pallett, Dr. and Mrs. C. V. Sea Monster Blazes Way to Glorious Death

Trailokya-Vijayo, flame-breathing, smoke-snorting Oriental sea monster, died a glorious self-inflicted death last night when the fire of his own breath gutted his entire head and reduced him to a smoldering framework of wood and steel.

Two hours later the judges of the Canoe Fete awarded Trailokya first prize.

With tongues of flame mounting hungrily toward three Tri-Delts poised on the monster's back, the swimmers and paddlers of Sigma Pi Tau effected a spectacular rescue. Trailokya, head aflame and eyes spouting forth a thick black smoke, floated gently downstream and nosed into the green underbrush of the bank just opposite the Anchorage.

Within twenty minutes a dripping, shivering group of fire-fighters had extinguished the blaze—in time to save Trailokya's long, snaky body and the general contour of his head, but not in time to save his life.

Speed! Two-block Flivver Race Run In 24 1-2 Minutes

Wintermeier Speed Ace; Tennis Court Dance Draws Crowds

Freshman Will Paint 'O' On Butte at 8 A. M.

Flivvers, some on two cylinders, some on three or four, crawled along thirteenth. The slow flivver classic, feature of Campus day, was on. Long lines of cars, blocked by the crowd that filled the streets, honked impatiently.

Taking 24 minutes and 30 seconds to traverse the distance from Hendricks hall to the Commerce building, Ward Wintermeier, driving a 1923 Maxwell, won first prize, 10 gallons of gas from the Oregon Service station.

Second prize, 5 gallons of gas, went to Bill Griebler, who made the trip in 24 minutes. Rufus Kimball, with a time of 23 minutes, came in third. Bill Donaldson was in charge of the race.

Nelson Big Flop

John Nelson drove the oldest car, a 1902 Ford, and would easily have taken first place except for a misunderstanding about the finish mark. He was so far behind that when someone told him he had completed the distance, he stopped in front of the library and lost the race. The Ford, which belongs to Nelson's grandfather, was the first one to cross the old Oregon trail.

A dance on the polished cement of the tennis courts began at 1:30 and lasted until 3 o'clock. Dave Totten, assisted by Dena Lieualen and Beatrice Bennett, was in charge of this feature.

Wins in Fencing

The final feature of yesterday's campus day events was the fencing match between Lee Winetrot and Dave Killion. This was won by the former with a score of 7-4. Fred Hollenbeck arranged the match.

At 1:30 this afternoon, tryouts for the Washington track meet will be held on Hayward field.

A full time football game between two picked teams of Oregon players, to be played at 3 o'clock on Hayward field, will conclude campus day events.

Second Place Given 'Alice in Wonderland'

Large Crowd Sees Entries Pass in Review as Lights Play

Dragon 'Trailokya-Vijayo' Name of Winning Entry

"Trailokya - Vijayo," dragon float entered by Delta Delta Delta and Sigma Pi Tau, was awarded first honors in the 1930 Canoe Fete, held on the mill-race Friday evening. The float was the first to come down the race and fire burst from the dragon's mouth and big green eyes glittered in the light. The float was designed to represent a dragon just up from the depth of the ocean, and three beautiful women were supported on a platform held up by four men.

Second place went to "Alice in Wonderland," entered by Chi Omega and Gamma hall. First honorable mention was awarded to "In a Temple Garden," the Zeta Tau Alpha and Psi Kappa entry. "The Marriage of Heing O," entered by Kappa Kappa Gamma and Omega hall, and "Thimbleline," with Delta Zeta and Sigma Alpha Epsilon as the sponsors, also received honorable mention.

The winners of first and second places and first honorable mention will receive prizes for their entries. Sigma Pi Tau will have permanent possession of the cup for men's houses as this was the third year that it was won by them.

Judges Named

Judges who awarded the places were Mrs. Ottilie Seybolt, Mrs. Charles L. Schwering, Dean Virginia Esterly, Nowland Zane, John Stark Evans, and Hugh Biggs, acting dean of men.

A capacity crowd was on hand to witness the annual Oregon water carnival and the events went off without a hitch. For the first time in several years none of the floats were wrecked, although the winning entry burned after passing the stands.

Several vivid features from the defunct Junior Vodvil added to this year's fete. Ed Crebs, Bob Goodrich, Elva Baker, Hal Hatton, Vernon Russel, Marion Kemp, Sally Addleman, Faye Fishel, and Bob Knox were included in the list of performers. The Phi Sigma trio of Oscar Wagner, Vinton Hall, and Jack Morrison also appeared on the program.

Original Entry Destroyed

The original entry of Kappa Kappa Gamma and Omega hall was destroyed by vandals sometime Thursday night and the float representing the two organizations in the fete was completely constructed Friday. Their efforts

Robed Friars Pledge Seven Men on Campus

In and out among the thousands of students and parents who were enjoying campus luncheon, members of the Friars, national senior honorary society, marched yesterday, singling out the men who, by virtue of outstanding campus activity, have been pledged to membership in the organization.

Seven men were designated by Tom Stoddard, who led the marchers, and fell in at the end of the impressive, black-robed column. The men thus honored are Vinton Hall, Kenneth Curry, George Cherry, Joe Freck, Tony Peterson, Henry Baldrige, and Jim Dezendorf.

FRIDAY'S RETURNS ON EMERALD PLEDGING POLL. Eighty-six ballots counted on Friday in the Emerald poll on the proposed deferred system brought the totals to: Against 202, For 41. Total 243. Approximately five hundred ballots are expected.

spend in the house would be no less than the present average. "Fraternities can function best by getting men who will stick throughout." With a short rushing period, the houses will quite frequently get men who will drop out of school after a few terms. Dr. Kelly explained. This constant withdrawal and new pledging lowers the average period for each man, and will also work hardship on the fraternity budget. A fraternity man himself, Dr. Kelly declared himself satisfied that most of the organization objections could be answered. The difficulty lies in providing in the length of time each man would
