managers and awards remain the same as in the permanent resolutions of the executive council which were junked when the new constitution was voted in. The above cited changes will govern the student body until such time as they are changed by amendment by the council.

Yesterday's meeting was the final one in which the outgoing student officers served.

The council also accepted the recommendation from the publications committee which provided that the council should have one person holding more than one major position on the A. S. U. O. publications. This move was made in the case of Robert Allen, who was appointed manager of the Oregonian and was also offered the position of managing editor on the Emerald. Allen will have to make the decision as to which position he wishes to fill this coming school year.
