

WHAT SHOW TONIGHT?

Staged right in the great Northwest, where long cold winters and trying days create strange, dramatic situations, "Rough Romance," in which George O'Brien is starred, will come to the Colonial theater for Friday and Saturday.

Co-starring with O'Brien is Helen Chandler, who is fast rising to fame in roles requiring dramatic ability, Antonio Moreno and Noel Francis.

"Rough Romance" is a strong story, in which just enough love element has been interwoven to give spice and dash to the plot. Mostly it is of men and their conflicts, emotionally and physically. It has more than the usual amount of genuine thrills and is well directed, and well photographed.

George O'Brien

Al Jolson, famous singing star, opens today at the Heilig in "Mammy," a picture quite different from any of the star's earlier triumphs. If you like Jolson's singing, this picture will stack aces high with you for it is filled with sentimental ballads of Mammy's in Louisiana.

It is the story of an end man in a minstrel show who falls in love with the owner's daughter. All the color and glitter of the minstrel costumes is caught by technicolor which is used in many sequences. The cast is better than average, with Louise Dresser and Lois Moran offering support. Five new Berlin songs and several old-time numbers furnish the musical background.

"The Sea Wolf," Jack London's famous story of the borders of the beyond, comes photographed and appropriately photographed on the screen of the Fox McDonald theatre today. Milton Sills, hero of many sea dramas, assumes the title role of the wolf.

The atmosphere of the sea is sustained by the singing of the rapidly disappearing sea chanteys. The picture is a thrilling tale of a strange romance aboard a sailing vessel in the North Pacific with the menacing figure of the "Wolf," the master of the schooner, furnishing the powerful drama and gripping situations of the story. The supporting cast includes Raymond Hackett, star of "Madame X," and Jane Keith.

"Roaring Ranch," a roaring western starring Hoot Gibson, makes its initial appearance at the State theatre tonight. Gibson is one of the few rapidly diminishing western stars who is still making pictures. Part of his success is evidently due to the fact that he really can ride and shoot. He has won innumerable roping and riding titles in some of the highest class rodeos of the West.

You write better because Waterman's pen points are smoother, more flexible, longer lasting. A wide selection lets you get just the point that fits your hand. The patented spoon-feed delivers the ink at exactly the proper rate—no skipping or blotting. Size for size, Waterman's hold more ink—won't run dry in a lecture or exam.

There's a Waterman's for every taste and every purse. For the last word in colorful beauty, as well as writing efficiency, ask to see Waterman's Patrician, or Lady Patricia. The Patrician's five jewel colors, its great ink capacity, its extra large gold pen point, and its aristocratic lines, make it the natural choice for the man who wants the best. Ten dollars. A pencil to match, five dollars.

The Lady Patricia is the pen women have wanted for years. A smart feminine clasp locates it securely in belt, pocket or handbag. Choice of three smart colors. Slender and graceful, yet it holds plenty of ink. Five dollars—and three for the matching pencil.

Every Waterman's is guaranteed forever against defects.

Dr. Ganoë Notices Campus Changes

Eugene Is Congratulated On New Bus Service

"I'm glad to get another breath of fresh air and I congratulate Eugene on abolishing streetcars," exclaimed Dr. John T. Ganoë, the new assistant in the history department, who is taking the place of Verne Blue.

Mr. Ganoë is not entirely new to Oregon since he received his B. A. degree here in 1922 and his M. A. degree here in 1923. He then received his Ph.D. in Marshall college, Huntington, West Virginia.

"The first thing that I noticed by way of a change on the campus was this odd square building near Condon that has no windows," smiled Mr. Ganoë. "When I left the campus Condon was under process of construction."

"There has really been more of a noticeable change in the town itself than there has been in the campus," said Dr. Ganoë. The only building in town that seems to bear the same proprietor's name is McMorran and Washburne.

"Verne Blue certainly is working with a fine bunch of men back in Washington, D. C., I know some of them personally," explained Dr. Ganoë. "Mr. Blue is associate in the research department and edits foreign affairs."
