Rally Committee Endorses Dance After Oregon Washington Game

Prominent Students From Both Schools Handle Annual Affair

Plans for the annual Oregon-Washington football dance, given in order that the students of the two institutions may be brought more closely together in spirit and friendship, have been completed, according to an announcement made Wednesday night by Jim Travis, chairman of the Oregon committee. The affair will be held Saturday night, October 18, in the Masonic Temple auditorium in Portland, to music furnished by George Weber and his orchestra.

Official sanction was given the dance by the University rally committee, and it is expected to be the largest social event of the week-end of the Oregon-Washington game.

"The Oregon-Washington dance deserves our whole-hearted support," George Cherry, president of the Associated Students stated. "It is an ideal occasion for closer relations between the two universities and will lead to a high type of cooperation in attaining our common interest—that of making the annual Oregon-Washington football game the outstanding fall event in the Northwest."

The first of the Oregon-Washington dances was held in Portland in 1926, and it proved to be such a great success that student leaders of both schools decided to continue the practice each year the two teams met in Portland. Another affair was held in 1928, with about a thousand Washington students in attendance. The dances give students an opportunity to meet after the big football battle is over, and the affairs have always been marked by a fine spirit of good-fellowship.

A committee composed of prominent Oregon and Washington students has been named to handle the affair. Those on the Oregon committee include: George Cherry, Reba Brogdon, John Kitzmiller, Margaret Cummings, John Anderson, Carolyn Haberlach, Omar Palmer, Harriet Kibbee, Constance Baker, Ted Jensen, Bess Templeton, George Weber, Irma Logan, Anton Peterson, Sally Addleman, Ted Parks, and Mary Lou Munsey.

Decorations Planned

Plans are being arranged by the advertising committee to get downtown business houses to decorate their windows in accordance with the Dads' Day festivities. Over 4,000 copies of a special edition of the Emerald, reporting the celebration, will be sent out to Oregon Dads following the celebration. The entire campus will be decorated with banners and placards in spirit with the occasion, according to Miller.

Kneeland Is Secretary

Katherine Kneeland, who for the past two years was secretary of the research bureau, is now the secretary to Rev. Mr. Nugent, of the Austin Presbyterian church in Chicago.

WHAT SHOW TONIGHT?

Colonial—Jack Oakie in "The Social Lion."
McDonald—"Monte Carlo," with Jeannette MacDonald.
State—Norma Shearer in "Their Own Desire."
Hellig—Norma Shearer and Marie Dressler in "Let Us Be Gay."

Marie Dressler Triumphs

Marie Dressler steals the show again! In one of the finest comedies of smart chatter since "The Last of Mrs. Cheyney," she rises even above her former efforts and becomes a Utopian May Robson. And the rest of the cast of "Let Us Be Gay," which is closing today at the Hellig, reads like a directory of Hollywood's best talent. Norma Shearer has the lead, supported by Rod LaRocque, Hedda Hopper, and the uncontrollable Marie.

If the type of smart comedy that has a lot of double-barreled lines pleases, then you should not miss it.

Cohen Play Scores

"The Social Lion," Jack Oakie's comedy now playing at the Colonial, is adapted from the story "Marco Himself," by Roy Octavus Cohen, known to every reader of the Saturday Evening Post for his stories about the Midnight Pictures corporation. The picture tells of a poor but pure young man and his experiences brought on by his excess of intestinal fortitude.

A. W. S. Entertains

For Mr. and Mrs. Dorris—
Honoring Mr. and Mrs. George Dorris of Springfield, the Associated Women Students will entertain at a dinner party tonight at Peters Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorris were the donors of the land upon which the lodge stands.

Other guests will be Mrs. C. L. Schwering, dean of women; Margaret Cummins, A. W. S. president; Bess Templeton, Barbara Mann, Betty Cook, Betty Jones, and Carol Werschul, who is in charge of the arrangements.

Last Sunday night Miss Mildred Conklin, Pi Beta Phi, became the bride of Leland N. Fryer. The wedding was solemnized at Junction City. Both Miss Conklin and Mr. Fryer were students on the campus last year. They have not yet decided where they will make their home, but are at present taking a trip in the East.

This afternoon the freshmen of Alpha Xi Delta will be at home from 3 until 5 to the freshman women on the campus. Marjorie Painton is in charge of the arrangements.

Tonight Chi Omega will entertain for Phi Delta Theta at dinner, Gamma Phi Beta for Phi Sigma Kappa, Sigma Nu for Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Sigma for Kappa Kappa Gamma, Sigma Phi Epsilon for Phi Mu, Alpha Chi Omega for Phi Gamma Delta, Phi Kappa Psi for Alpha Phi.

On Thursday Kappa Kappa Gamma will have as their guests Beta Theta Pi; Alpha Tau Omega will entertain Kappa Alpha Theta, and Sigma Kappa will be hostess to Sigma Nu.

Pledges of men's houses who were invited to women's houses to dance with the freshmen this week were Phi Delta Theta to Delta Delta Delta, Chi Psi to Alpha Gamma Delta, Delta Tau Delta to Chi Omega, Sigma Alpha Epsilon to Sigma Kappa.

Members of Delta Gamma will entertain their Eugene mothers and alumnae at a tea to be given at the chapter house Friday at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. Frank W. Benson, Pi Beta Phi house mother, was hostess Monday afternoon from 2 until 4 at an informal tea to which all of the other house mothers on the campus were invited.

Edith Quamme, national officer of Kappa Delta, who comes from Minnesota, is visiting the chapter house here. She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, and several other honoraries. En route to Oregon she stopped at the Banff Springs hotel in Canada. She has been working at Minnesota for her advanced degree.

The faculty tea held yesterday in Alumni hall, which was made glowing with autumn flowers, squad were guests at the McDonald theatre last night for the showing of Knute Rockne's exhibition of some of the plays and formations—that have made Notre Dame's fame.

The feature picture, which closes tonight, is the riotous, naughty "Monte Carlo," with Jeannette MacDonald and Jack Buchanan. It tells of the complications that ensue when a countess falls in love with a "barber." All same Monsieur Beaucaire modernized considerably.

Two Great Dramas Coming

This week-end Eugene will see two of the finest dramas of the year. The State is bringing "Journey's End," the famous war play, and the Colonial will show "White Cargo," sensational drama of morals and grand passions.

The Rex theatre is to reopen tomorrow after being dark for some time. The picture is the thriller "Sea Bat," with Charles Bickford and Nils Asther.

Delta Gammas Guests

Members of Delta Gamma sorority saw two of their members "as is" in motion pictures last night at the Colonial theatre, where a special showing of three reels taken during the University of Oregon summer session was held. Oneita Jantzen and Mary Gauntlett, members who were not only in Hawaii but in the pictures, sponsored the event.

Scenes included many interesting parts of the island, the students' trip to the volcano, and several unusual "shots."

marigolds, zinnias, and michaelmas daisies, was the first meeting of the women members of the faculty for the year.

The only program was the presentation of the new women in the department by the wives of department heads. About 250 persons were present.

Those who poured were Mesdames P. L. Campbell, H. D. Sheldon, and Dean C. L. Schwering. Serving were Mesdames Prince Callison, Harold Crosland, J. E. McCammon, George Hopkins, Earl Pallett, Hugh Rosson, Andrew Fish, and Kenneth Shumaker.

Mrs. Carleton Spencer was in charge of the arrangements. She was assisted by the social committee, which was composed of

Tuesday Recital Programs Listed

Opening Program Will Be Faculty Concert

Seven Tuesday evening recital programs, six of them to be given by students, have been announced for the school of music auditorium for the fall term, by George Hopkins, head of the piano department and program director.

The list follows:
Oct. 21. Ensemble concert by members of the faculty.

Oct. 28. Gladys Foster, Portland, and Carolyn Haberlach, Tillamook, two piano ensemble.

Nov. 4. Margaret Sweeney, Portland, violin; and Carolin Baxter, Fresno, voice.

Nov. 18. Esther Wicks, Astoria, violin; and Robert Gould, Medford, organ.

Nov. 25. Beulah Wynd, Eugene, violin; and Eugene Pearson, Eugene, voice.

Dec. 2. Juanita Oskins, Eugene, violin; and Doris Helen Patterson, Eugene, organ.

Dec. 9. Sara Addleman, San Francisco, voice.

Mesdames Richard Bock, Ernest Moll, Robert Seashore, Wayne Morse, and Daniel Gage.

The next meeting will be held on the second Wednesday in November. Mrs. Wayne Morse will act as the chairman.

Gamma Alpha Chi To Have Meeting

Alton F. Baker To Speak At Open Forum

An open forum meeting Friday afternoon at 4:15, at which Alton F. Baker, editor of the Eugene Guard, will speak, is being sponsored by Gamma Alpha Chi, women's advertising honorary. The meeting will be in the committee room of McMorran and Washburne's on the balcony.

Invitations are being sent out to a group of journalism women asking them to attend. A special guest for the affair will be Miss Ruth Street, who graduated from the University in 1929. Miss Street is a national officer of the fraternity, and has been working for Earl Bunting and Associates of Portland until recently. She has just accepted a position with a California concern.

Tea will be served after Mr. Baker's talk in the committee room. Attendance at the affair is by invitation only. Elaine Henderson is president of Gamma Alpha Chi.

Milt George '29 Trying Luck As Globe Trotter; Says Letter

Washing Dishes for Food Only One Incident Of Adventures

Aboard the freighter S. S. Steel Trader in mid-Atlantic, Milton George, Oregon '29, wrote a letter Sunday to W. F. G. Thacher, professor of advertising. The letter arrived yesterday, reading in part as follows:

"I have been sort of 'looking the world over a bit' these last few months,—working my way along on greasy old freighters and nice, big passenger ships. I have been to the Hawaiian islands, Samoa island, Fiji islands and Australia. I have been through the Panama canal, seen a wild, drunk crew put back aboard after a big spree ashore. I've spent three weeks in England,—missed seeing Shakespeare's tomb by but a few hours, and to top it all, I even got stranded in San Francisco. I didn't eat for a day and a half, and in desperation, went into a restaurant,—ate all I could hold and then told 'em I was broke. I washed dishes for two hours, and that was all there was to that!

"We dock in Philadelphia about October 6th, staying there a few days. Then we proceed to Baltimore and finally to New York, where I intend to get off and cast my lot for a job there. I most sincerely hope I may get in with some advertising firm."

George graduated in journalism. He was business manager of the Emerald three years ago.

The first social gathering of the Cosmopolitan club will be held at the home of Mrs. Charlotte R. Donnelly next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Crisper, tastier Better Bran Flakes

A bowl of Kellogg's Pep Bran Flakes with milk or cream makes you "sit up and take notice."

They are so much crisper. And what a flavor! It's the famous flavor of PEP. As you eat each spoonful remember that you are getting the nourishment from the wheat. Ask that Kellogg's Pep Bran Flakes be served at your fraternity or campus restaurant.

The most popular ready-to-eat cereals served in the dining-rooms of American colleges, eating clubs and fraternities are made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. They include ALL-BRAN, Corn Flakes, Rice Krispies, Wheat Krumbles, and Kellogg's Shredded Whole Wheat Biscuit. Also Kaffee Hag Coffee—the coffee that lets you sleep.
