

Don't Fail to lock tomorrow night at sharp the Oregon Emera. Air will take possession station KORE for the second musical hours. Don't fail to 1.

Oregon Emerald

The Weather
 Maximum 58
 Minimum 39
 Precipitation a
 Winds, southwest.

VOLUME XXXII UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1930 NUMBER 8

Frosh Choose John Kendall As President

Billie Eastman, Joan Cox And Bob DeGraff Given Other Offices

Class Shows Big Interest; 643 Ballots Are Cast By Yearlings

John Kendall, of Portland, was elected president of the freshman class yesterday, along with a split ticket. Again campus political powers were broken, this time with two from each of the two leading parties getting into power. Kendall defeated Dick DePittard and Ray Clapp.

Billie Eastman, of Silverton, was elected vice-president, winning over Irene Waltz and Kenneth McKenzie. Older students on the campus know her brother, Norman (Tubby) as the comedian of the campus movie given last year.

Joan Cox, also of Portland, was chosen secretary of the class. She defeated her opponent, Louise Barclay, by 50 votes.

DeGraff Elected

Bob DeGraff, of Portland, was elected treasurer of the frosh for the coming year. He won by a margin of 17 votes from Jim Ferguson, the closest margin of any of the candidates.

Approximately 643 votes were cast by the freshmen, showing the lively interest which the frosh took in the proceedings.

"I was surprised that I got it," said the president of Oregon's newest class to the Emerald reporter last night. He had just heard, a few minutes before, that he had been elected. "I'm going to try to make it the best class in history," he said when asked for his policy of administration as the first president of the class of '34.

Three From Grant

Kendall is from Grant high school in Portland, and while there was yell leader, and his last term was leading man in the class play. He has held other positions in high school.

Billie Eastman was serving tea for Delta Gamma alums when the reporter called, and she said she was thrilled when she heard that she had been elected.

Joan Cox was quite excited about being elected, and said that three of the four winners were from Grant high in Portland, adding, "I'm sure we'll have a wonderful year, because we all know each other—we'll get along fine."

Bob DeGraff, who is also from Grant high, was both excited and pleased by the way the elections turned out.

Girls Must Have Permits To Attend Portland Game

Permission to attend the Oregon-Washington game in Portland next Saturday must be obtained by girls whose homes are not in that city, Hazel Prutsman Scherwing, dean of women, has announced. Co-eds planning to stay in hotels over the week-end will be required to have chaperones approved by the dean of women.

Here Today, Gone Tomorrow And Back, Maybe Next Year

Keats wouldn't like this. But when he thought up that line about "Joy whose hand is ever at her lips, bidding adieu," he had the score on college life. Because there's something fleeting about everything down here. Profs come, and after a few years they go and you know you may never see them again. The people that seem one year to be just as necessary to the "flavor" of the campus as the "libe", the "Side" and the Oregon mists—are suddenly gone. It's all something brief, set off from the rest of the living—and, if you want to get sentimental about—rather glorious.

When you stop to think about it, there are a lot of "good guys" among the missing this fall.

For example, "Babe" Chase, with her million-dollar grin will be seen

Managers of Grid On Doughnut Diet

FOOTBALL managers are training on coffee, doughnuts, and butterhorns, according to statistics released by Tommy Williams, senior manager, at a late hour last night. After late practice it is necessary for Williams and his assistants to work overtime caring for equipment, and quite naturally they get pretty hungry. So, a collection of a dime a man is taken up and a bakery visited for a load of gastric delicacies. Add a gallon of coffee from the men's dormitory, and the meal is ready to serve in a dressing room under the grandstand.

Midnite Matinee Added in Plans of Journalism Jam

Sub-directorate Members Announced by Burke, David, Chairman

Tentative plans for the Journalism Jamboree include dancing from 10 to 1 following the Frosh-Washington Babe football game, after which all holders of Jamboree tickets are invited to a mid-night matinee by George Godfrey, it was announced yesterday by T. Neil Taylor, president of Sigma Delta Chi.

Late permission has not yet been granted but a special meeting of the student affairs committee will be called Monday by Dean Scherwing, at which time it will be discussed.

Members of the directorate were announced by Ralph David and Jack Burke, general chairmen.

Bob Allen and Willis Duniway were appointed members of the ticket sale committee, and the decorations will be made under the direction of Mack Hall and Barney Miller. The patrons and patronesses will be secured by Lester MacDonald; the music by Ralph David; concessions by Neil Taylor; and all publicity details by Vinton Hall and Rex Tussing.

Six New Patients Enter Infirmary Colds Commonest Ailment Of Fall Term

It seems that the infirmary just can't empty itself of patients. Those in charge of that institution were complimenting themselves yesterday on releasing six students when six more moved in. The nurse in charge, however, doesn't expect much patronage today and tomorrow. She claims that the infirmary is a very unpopular place over week-ends.

Those students now confined at the infirmary are: Myrtle Kerns, Marion Merrill, Robert Patterson, Lauren Buel, Robert Chatterton, and Charles Jacobs. Colds are the predominant cause of illness and, except in the case of one patient, are responsible for the present confinements at the infirmary. The exception is that of Robert Patterson, who is recovering from injuries received in football practice.

Megaphones To Be Issued U.of O. Rooters

Local Clothier Promises 1500 Horns To Swell Yell Volume

Rally Committee Planning Giant Serpentine Before Game

Every member of the Oregon rooting section at the Washington game in Portland will be supplied with a paper megaphone to help swell the volume of the yells, according to an announcement made Friday night by Harry Van Dine, assistant chairman of the rally directorate. The feature is one of several worked out for the football classic by the committee.

The megaphones will be furnished to the students by Paul D. Green, local clothing dealer, and will be distributed just before game time in Portland.

Final plans of the rally committee for the Husky game are being worked out, and it is expected that there will be more Oregon spirit shown in Portland than ever before. A giant serpentine from down-town Portland to the Multnomah civic stadium, where the game will be played, has been planned for Saturday noon. Police permission for the affair along with an escort of motorcycle policemen has been obtained from the Portland civic authorities. Jim Gilbaugh will have charge of the serpentine.

While the details of the between halves stunt have not yet been perfected, Mac Miller, in charge of the feature, has declared that they will be novel and entertaining.

The co-ed singing section, under the direction of Marge Clark, will be another new feature at the game. The women will sing two Oregon songs between halves and they have already started practice on the idea.

"Portland is more football-minded over this game than it has ever been in the history of the game," Brian Minnaugh, chairman of the rally committee, declared. "The Oregon students who attend the game should co-operate with the rally committee at all times while in Portland to make the city realize that we are out to win over the Huskies."

Idaho Will Play Hawaii In Christmas Holidays

After completing their tough schedule of ten games the Idaho Vandals will journey to the Hawaiian islands, where they will play the University of Hawaii, and the Honolulu All-Stars, during the Christmas holidays.

Incidentally, this trip, the longest ever made by an Idaho team, will mark their first appearance on the islands, and candidates for positions on the team are anticipating the prospect of spending their Christmas vacation in Honolulu.

Extension Division Holds Psych Class In Roseburg

Celia Hager, member of the University of Oregon extension faculty, is the instructor for abnormal psychology classes in Roseburg and Marshfield.

Thirty students are enrolled in the Marshfield group which meets for two hours every Thursday evening; in the Roseburg section, meeting on Wednesday evenings, 25 teachers and townspeople are registered.

The lectures are open to anyone interested, but to receive credit for the work, students must have studied beginning psychology.

Helen Crosby on Campus
 Miss Helen Louise Crosby, former University of Oregon student who is now an attorney in Salem, was a Eugene visitor Thursday and Friday, looking after legal business. Miss Crosby was a guest at the Delta Zeta house, of which she is a member.

Two Announcers and "Mike"

Art Potwin, left, director of the "KORE-Oregon Daily Emerald of the Air," broadcasts, and Chet Knowlton, his assistant.

Pink Tea Pigging Propaganda To Be Feature of Radio Hour

Emerald Sunday Program Will Give the Dope On Society

"The Parlor Propagandists" make their first appearance on the atmosphere Sunday night at 6 o'clock when the Emerald presents its second radio program of the year over station KORE. The continuity for this act, which will be a regular feature every Sunday night, is being prepared by Bob Guild, who was author of the very successful "Guilfin and His Gal," presented on last year's broadcasts. Assisting Guild in these dialogue sketches will be Art Potwin and Chet Knowlton, who are in charge of arrangements for the Emerald presentations. These skits will seek out sorority afternoon teas by means of a television microphone and will report to the campus who's who among the so-called "piggers." The material for all future novelty acts on the programs will also be edited by Guild.

Bob Goodrich, who appeared numerous times on last year's broadcasts, will again be back to sing his blues to the waiting public. A trio of girls from the Theta house, including Beth Ann Johnson, Nancy Taylor, and Georgia Miller, will place the notes together for a brief period. Louise Marvin, who did her bit last Thursday night, will make a return appearance before the "mike." Miss Marvin is a promising tap dancer.

Con Hammond and John Smedberg have several nifty double piano numbers to offer. This duo has been working together for only two weeks, but has produced some unusual arrangements in that time.

Negotiations are under way to secure George Weber's orchestra for the Sunday night entertainment. On following Sundays special music will be furnished by the recently organized Midway orchestra.

Broadcasts consisting of student talent are being sponsored by the Emerald over station KORE on Sunday nights from 6 to 7 o'clock, and on Thursday nights from 8:15 to 9 o'clock.

Bend Holds U. of O. Evening Classes

Dr. Martin Teaches Course In Applied Psychology

An extension course in applied psychology is being conducted at Bend by Dr. Martin, a member of the Reed College faculty who has recently returned from three years' study in Europe.

"We have everything from schools to newspaper reporters, ministers, clerks, and nurses represented in the group," writes Marguerite Glession, member of the Business and Professional Women's club which is sponsoring the class.

The Bend group is quite typical of evening extension classes throughout the state. It meets in the high school building Friday night of each week. Those completing satisfactorily the requirements of the course will receive regular University credits.

Last year the University of Oregon extension division conducted evening classes in 17 Oregon towns.

Don Moe Takes Place as Cadet Golfer To Play With Heads Of Eastern Countries

Donald K. Moe, Oregon's world famous golfer, and more recently a star member of America's Walker cup team, "teed off" from the mainland recently, when the liner President Cleveland, on which he has taken a job as cadet, left Seattle for the East.

Several games of golf with the royalty of other lands are scheduled on Don's itinerary. When the ship touches Guam, he will play Governor Willis Bradley, former Annapolis student, who is supposed a ranking player on the island. And then, to climax the royal road to goldfom, Oregon's golfing law student will dig divots with the crown prince of Japan.

How many other such notables Moe will contest will be ascertained when he returns from Nippon to immediately begin a round-the-world tour.

To Play at Church

Lorin Davidson, who is studying for his master's degree under Arthur Boardman, is to have charge of the music at the First Christian church, beginning this Sunday, it was announced at the church offices yesterday.

Yearling Men Will Don Lids At Gathering

Frosh To Get Instructions About Traditions Of Campus

Rosson Slated as Speaker During the Assembly On Wednesday

The freshman class will take the center of the stage at the second student body assembly of the year, to be held next Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock. This assembly will be the occasion for the formal introduction of the freshmen to Oregon traditions, and along with it the presentation to the men of the class of their official headgear for the year.

In setting the date for the annual ceremony in honor of the entering class, George Cherry, A. S. U. O. president, last night explained why it has been postponed until a little later in the term this year than previously. "The slower frosh class elections under the new constitution," he said, "have delayed the wearing of the green. There is also a lack of any fitting occasion in the near future for a ceremony of last year's type."

Kendall To Be Crowned
 The crowning of John Kendall, newly elected freshman president, with his brand new green lid, will be one of the high points of the program, and will mark the resumption of the reign of vigilance against frosh caught on the campus bareheaded.

Another feature of the assembly will be the introduction of Hugh Rosson, new graduate manager. Rosson, in view of his close affiliation with the A. S. U. O. and with student affairs, will be the main speaker, Cherry announced.

Ceremony Novel

The practice of holding a general student assembly for the introduction of the freshmen to the University is a novel one at Oregon, being substituted this year for the annual initiation ceremonies at which the first year men formerly donned their lids for the first time.

"The assembly system of presenting the traditions to a freshman class," Cherry said yesterday, "has been the most successful in that it allows a greater degree of versatility. We feel that it is far more in keeping with the dignity and respect of Oregon traditions."

'Pigger's' Guide Lacks 43 Names

Monday Last Time To Get Addresses in Book

Forty-three students have not yet turned in their permanent Eugene addresses to the Associated Students office for the student directory. If these students want their addresses listed in the "Pigger's Guide," they must call at the A. S. U. O. office by next Monday, as the directory will go to press Tuesday.

The following are those who have not yet recorded their Eugene addresses: Reynolds Allen, Sol Beadner, Rafael Benson, Harold Birkinshaw, Joseph Bishop, Frank B. Clark, Harry Carlson, Elbert Bivans, Harry Brown, Edwin Cross, Dorothy Darrow, Isabella Davis, Leslie Dunlap, Anna Evans, David Eyre, Jean Failing, Nellie Franklin.

Robert Getz, Sydney Gevurtz, Barbara Gabriel, Harvey Halonen, Gladys Haskin, Margaret Henderson, Jenny Hondius, Dorothy Jack, William Jieser, Polly Ann Jorgenson, Joe King, Willard Kapphahn, Mary McCormick, Robert McCormick, Louise McMunn, Marjorie Marcus, Edith Pererson, Mildred Shields, Louise Smith, Vada Spath, Jack Stangier, Hohn Thorne, Eleanor Thurston, Richard Wallsinger, Catherin Watson, Marjorie Wood.

Hawkins Studies Trade

Prof. Harry C. Hawkins, instructor in foreign trade in the school of business administration, is in Portland over the week-end conferring with brokers and exporters, and familiarizing himself with their activities.

Football Struggle Called Off to Give Frosh Team Rest

The frosh vs. varsity football game was called off last night because the coaches decided that a rest would do the men more good than practice playing. Prink Callison and Bun Stadelman shoved the yearlings through an hour and a half of fundamentals and signal drill.

Joe Lillard, the big colored lad who joined the squad recently, leaped agilely about the field. He had a little trouble on a play that calls for a change of pace and a triple pass, but he looked like good material.

'Hello' Dance New Event on Campus This Afternoon

AWS To Entertain Campus At Informal Event in Igloo at 3 p. m.

Hundreds of students will be expected to trek to the Igloo this afternoon at 3 o'clock when the Associated Women Students will introduce to the campus an annual event—the "Hello" dance.

Preparations planned to make the afternoon lively include music by George Weber's band, and features by Adelaide "Laddie" and Barbara "Bobby" Laraway, twins, and Ione Anderson, a blues singer. There will be "hello" tags for everyone attending the dance, which is a no-date affair. A 25-cent admission will be charged.

To Be Peppy

The committee, headed by Adele Wedemeyer, issued a last invitation yesterday to the entire campus. "There will be plenty of pep—campus clothes will be in order, and we want everyone to come and enjoy it," said Miss Wedemeyer. Others on the committee are Ellen Sersanous, Irma Logan, Helen Chaney, Lois Nelson, and Mary Ellen Bradford.

The three girls who will be presented in features are frosh and all new to the campus. The dance will last until 5:30. A group of University officials and faculty members will be patrons and patronesses, and all faculty members have been given a special invitation to attend.

180 Frosh Turn Out for Grid Team at Minnesota

Minnesota started out with 180 freshmen to represent the football material this year. After two days of the most strenuous practice ever given a frosh squad, Coach George Tuttle, divided his men into tentative teams to facilitate picking out two first teams later.

Coach Fritz Crisler called for the varsity to face the stubborn frosh squad, whereupon a stiff workout was given the regulars. Some of the frosh backs were elusive enough at this early stage to give the regular backs plenty of worry.

Two Additions Made to Psychology Department

Two additions have been made to the staff of the psychology department this term. They are Donald Swanson, who has charge of an extra section of laboratory, and Ivan McCollon, a research assistant. Mr. Swanson is from Lincoln, Nebraska, and Mr. McCollon from Ellensburg, Washington.

Landscape Gardening Both Work and Hobby for York

Landscape gardening is not only a business with George York, but also a hobby. Mr. York is the recently appointed superintendent of campus buildings and grounds.

Mr. York will act as the head of the entire physical plant department and will be responsible to the comptroller for all phases of this work. The physical plant department is organized on a service department basis and is prepared to handle almost every request that may come in calling for construction, or maintenance, of special departmental equipment of fixtures. All operation and maintenance of buildings, classroom furniture, grounds, heating system, water

Soph Dance Date Set For November 1st

Ted Jensen Put in Charge Of Class Function By Jim Travis

Informal To Be Free to All Students; Location To Be at Igloo

Ted Jensen, Portland, has been appointed general chairman of the Sophomore Informal, according to an announcement made Friday by Jim Travis, sophomore class president. The annual class function will be staged Saturday, November 1, and will be held in McArthur court.

Travis declared that every effort will be made this year to keep the dance strictly informal, and requested that students cooperate with the sophomore class in their endeavor. The dance, one of the highlights in the Oregon social life, will be free to all students and everyone is urged to attend as the guests of the class of 1933.

"I consider Ted Jensen the best qualified member of the class to assure the campus of one of the finest dances ever held on the campus," Travis declared when he made known his selection.

Orchestra From Portland

While no definite arrangements have yet been made, it is probable that one of the larger Portland orchestras will be imported to furnish music for the affair. The orchestra will be composed of at least nine pieces and perhaps eleven.

A unique decorative scheme is being planned for the informal and the contract for the work will be let to a Portland specialist in decorating. Previous Sophomore Informals have been noted for their beautiful decorations and the committee this year will spare no effort to rival those of past years, according to Travis.

Gamma Alpha Chi Has Open Meeting

Baker Gives Advertising Talk to Group

Gamma Alpha Chi, women's national advertising fraternity, held open forum at 4:30 yesterday in the committee room of McMorran & Washburne. Alton F. Baker, editor of the Eugene Guard, gave a talk on the requirements of a good advertising solicitor.

Members of Gamma Alpha Chi and University women interested in advertising attended, and honored guests were Miss Ruth Street, national secretary of the fraternity; W. F. D. Thacher, professor of the school of journalism; and Miss Eleanor Cannon, advertising manager of Bedell's department store in Portland.

House Mother Honored

Mrs. Frances Doane, house mother of Kappa Kappa Gamma, was honored at a banquet held in her honor Friday evening.

The affair was given at the Eugene hotel by the pledges.

I wish to subscribe to the OREGON DAILY EMERALD for the current school year, ending June, 1931.

Name

Street

City State

(Please check one of the following:)

() Enclosed find check (money order) for $1—One Term.

() Enclosed find check (money order) for $2.50—One Year.

(Mail to Circulation Manager, Oregon Daily Emerald, Eugene, Oregon.)