

WHAT SHOW TONIGHT?

LILLIAN GISH and ROD LAROCQUE At McDonald

Great War Drama at State

"Journey's End," the war drama that had played around the world on the 'legit' before it was a year old, and that raised an obscure author to fame, being the biggest dramatic convention by not having a woman in it or a love story—and yet it is crammed with a vital love interest.

The first is the hero-worship shown by the schoolboy, Raleigh, for his idol, Stanhope. The second is the love of Stanhope for Raleigh's sister.

Third is the love for home and the nice things of life to which every man has a right—that all these men had before the hysteria of nations sent them to war—before they were herded in dark, damp, rat-infested, vile-smelling holes underground—and then sent out to be blown to destruction for love of their country and patriotism!

The cast includes Colin Clive, Ian MacLaren, and David Manners.

Gish Talks at McDonald

Lillian Gish's first talking picture, "One Romantic Night," comes to the Fox McDonald theater Sunday for a two day run. She is supported by an excellent cast consisting of Rod La Rocque, Conrad Nagel, Marie Dressler, and O. P. Heggie.

The story is an adaptation of Ferenc Molnar's famous stage play, and tells of a maiden who is forced to choose between a poor tutor and an aristocrat upon whom she is foisted by her scheming mother.

Miss Gish in "One Romantic Night," comes back to the screen after an absence of several years, and her welcome has been great.

Floradora Chorus To Be Seen
The old family album will be brought to life in "The Floradora Girl," Marion Davies' picture of the Gay Nineties which will be the attraction at the Heilig starting Sunday.

The period when the bustle was flaunted on milady's hips, when horse cars and hansom cabs were the chief means of transportation, and when beer sold for five cents a schooner will be revived in this story of romance of a member of the famous Floradora sextette. A large supporting cast includes Lawrence Gray, Walter Catlett, Louis Bartels, and Claude Allister.

Rogers Sings Again

Today only at the McDonald, Buddy Rogers, and Helen Kane make a gallant attempt to portray a gay salt water ballad. It is not up to the McDonald's usual standard, but there are a few excellent spots in the celluloid. Rogers warbles in conjunction with little Helen, and the plot is welded around a song and dance theme.

FAY WRAY At Colonial

McDonald—Saturday, "Heads Up," with Charles Rogers and Helen Kane. Sunday and Monday, "One Romantic Night," with Lillian Gish, Rod LaRocque and Conrad Nagel.

Heilig — Saturday, Norma Shearer in "Let Us Be Gay," Sunday and Monday, Marion Davies in "The Floradora Girl."

State—Saturday, Ken Maynard in "Mountain Justice," Sunday, "Journey's End."

Colonial — Saturday, Arlen and Wray in "The Border Legion," Sunday and Monday, Helen Kane in "Dangerous Nan McGrew."

Rex—Saturday and Sunday, Nils Asther in "The Sea Bat."

fine and unusual western, closes its run at the Colonial tonight. Fay Wray and Richard Arlen have the leads, with Eugene Pallette and Jack Holt in character parts. It is the story of a band of outlaws who terrorized the Idaho country in the first days of its settlement.

Kane at Colonial, Too

Helen Kane appears almost as often in Eugene theatres as Norma Shearer when she appears at the Colonial Sunday in "Dangerous Nan McGrew." It is the story of a red-hot boop-boop-a-doop girl who comes to the wild west and knocks all the bad, bold cow-hands for a goal. Plenty of song, laughter, and "drummer."

Sea Story Continues

"The Sea Bat," a South sea romance telling of a siren dancing her way into the hearts of men, a passion flower of the southern isles, plays today and Sunday at the Rex theatre. There are scenes of underwater combats between men and sea monsters, and romance on the high seas.

Intramural Sports Are Popular at Ohio College

Intramural sports at Ohio State have aroused great interest. One thousand members of the 1934 class have participated in different departments during freshman recreational week program which started Sept. 24. The autumn quarter schedule includes: indoor baseball, speedball, golf, horse-hoes, cross country, bowling, and basketball.

Award of $1,200 Is Offered Graduate Women Students

Oregon Residents Eligible To Work for A.A.U.W. Fellowship

Graduate women students of the University, who are residents of Oregon, will be eligible to apply for the $1200 fellowship of the Oregon division of the American Association of University Women to be awarded next spring, according to announcement made by Mrs. Virgil D. Earl, president of the local A. A. U. W.

The fellowship, which will be the second of its kind made by the association, will be awarded to the most worthy graduate woman in the state as judged by the state fellowship board. The state board recommends that applicants should have had at least one year of graduate work.

SOCIETY

Sky-scrapers Loom On Alpha Omicron Pi Walls

A futuristic dance with tall, thin sky-scrapers reaching toward the ceiling will be given by Alpha Omicron Pi, honoring its pledges tonight.

Reba Brogdon is in charge of the arrangements.

Patrons and patronesses will be: Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Zane, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Robnett, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reinhart, and Mrs. Lucy Abrams.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon Upholds Its Violets

"Violets, violets . . . With your perfume memories come Of Sigma Alpha Epsilon . . ."

The pledge dance which Sigma Alpha Epsilon gave last night carried out this idea. The drawing room was suffused with violet and gold lights, and bouquets of violets graced every table.

The feature was a trio number by Don Eva, Dave Gilman, and Bob Betts.

Ed Reems was chairman for the dance. Patrons and patronesses were: Mr. and Mrs. John Gale, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kerns, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Shumaker.

Beta Theta Pi Will Honor Pledges Tonight

Beta Theta Pi will honor its new members tonight with an informal pledge dance at the chapter house. A fall idea will be carried out in the decorations.

Bill Barendrick is chairman of the committee in charge. Patrons and patronesses will be: Mr. and Mrs. Belden Babb, Mr. and Mrs. Hal White, and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Rosson.

"Freshman" Idea Carried Out at Theta Chi Dance

A "freshman" idea will be carried out at the Theta Chi pledge dance tonight, when cartoons depicting a grossly exaggerated pledge life will be hung on the walls.

Wilbur Thibault, a pledge, is responsible for the drawings. He and Dale Brown will give the feature.

Order a 'mum for the game next Saturday.—Adv.

Application should be made to the state fellowship board through Mrs. George Rebec, chairman of the local committee. Other members of the Eugene A. A. U. W. fellowship committee are Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall, Dr. Ethel Sanborn, and Miss Jeannette Calkins.

The Eugene group yearly gives $100 to the fellowship fund of the state association. "Therefore," Mrs. Earl stated, "we should like very much to see University of Oregon graduates make application for the fellowship."

The first A. A. U. W. fellowship in this state was awarded in 1928 to Miss Laura Garnjobst of Oregon State college. Miss Garnjobst is using the money to complete her work for a doctor's degree in biology at the University of Berlin.

Thibault playing on the violin and Brown at the piano.

Rod Lamont is in charge of the arrangements. Patrons and patronesses will be: Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Crosland, Mr. and Mrs. George Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Nelson, and Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Proctor.

Alpha Chi Omega Gives Autumn Dance

An old-fashioned autumn, where crimson and tawny leaves hang from the walls, will be the decorative motif for the Alpha Chi Omega pledge dance which will be given tonight.

Margaret Drescher is in charge of the arrangements. The patrons and patronesses will be: Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Douglass, Mr. and Mrs. John Bushman, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Manerud, Mr. and Mrs. George Wilhelm, and Mrs. Anna Hart.

Miss Ethel Lou Crane Announces Her Engagement

Yesterday afternoon the engagement of Miss Ethel Lou Crane, graduated from the University in 1929, to Malcom Bittner, was formally announced at the Kappa Alpha Theta house.

Mr. Bittner resides in Los Angeles. The wedding will be an event of January.

Minerva Mothers' Club Entertained at S. A. E. Tea

The Minerva Mothers' club of Sigma Alpha Epsilon held its monthly meeting yesterday afternoon in the campus chapter house. Tea was served at 4 o'clock to the 12 mothers who attended. The mothers were: Mesdames C. I. Collins, P. J. Bartle, Thomas Wells, A. R. Gray, H. K. Adams, E. L. Keeney, H. R. Gould, Robert Betts, Dalton, Doris, F. M. Carter, Hugh Ford, Mrs. Keeney and Mrs. Gray acted as hostesses.

Delts Keep Moonshiners Ball a Deep, Dark Secret

A moonshiners ball, where all the arrangements are being kept a "still" secret, will be given by Delta Tau Delta tonight, honoring its pledges.

The guests are expected to carry six-shooters to protect themselves from the wild gamblers. (Or at least that's what the secretive airs of the Delts would lead us to believe.) Bill Graeper is in charge of the plans.

Kappa Kappa Gamma Celebrates Founder's Day

The Oregon chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma will hold a Founder's Day banquet at the Osburn hotel tonight, honoring the founding of their sorority on October 13, 1870.

The Oregon state chapter and alumni of both chapters and Portland will be guests. Mrs. E. S. Conklin is in charge of arrangements.

Alpha Gamma Delta was entertained at dinner by Phi Delta Theta and Sigma Nu by Sigma Kappa Thursday night.

AWS 'Mum Sale Goes Ahead; May Make Deliveries

Portland Florist Gives Part Of Shop for Co-eds On Day of Game

With the possibility that chrysanthemums for the Oregon-Washington game in Portland October 18 will be delivered from Tommy Luke's to Portland addresses in time for the game, the Associated Women Students' traditional sale was going ahead as the week closed, with many orders reported by house representatives.

land will be guests. Mrs. E. S. Conklin is in charge of arrangements.

Alpha Phi celebrated its 58th Founder's day with a formal banquet Friday evening. Alumni from both Portland and Eugene attended. The table was colorfully decorated with bordo and silver ribbons.

Daphne Hughes, Anne Baum, and Mildred Wharton are enjoying the week-end at the Y. W. C. A. camp at Rock Creek, Oregon.

with the Portland florist, and if these are successful the 'mums will be delivered to addresses in Portland without extra charge. Many requests for the delivery service have come in to Ann Baum and Alexis Lyle, in charge of the sale, since it began last Monday. It is expected that delivery service will swell the sales considerably.

Many orders have been taken already by the representatives in the various living organizations for the colorful, traditional Oregon football flower. With the four different prices of 'mums offered, greater interest than ever is being evidenced in the sale. The novelty flowers, large solid chrysanthemums with green "O's" or yarn dolls in the center, are attracting much interest and curiosity, as well as the plain flowers.

green, and 12 co-eds will serve in shifts to take order receipts and deliver 'mums to students Saturday.

Although there is a possibility that orders will not have to reach Tommy Luke until Wednesday, Alexis Lyle late Friday said that the closing date for orders would still be Monday at 6 p. m.

In case it is learned that flowers will be delivered to Portland addresses, the date may be extended 24 hours. Ann Baum is out of the city for the week-end, and no decisions will be made until she returns, according to Miss Lyle.

In the meantime, Oregon Eds and Co-eds, order your 'mums!

Both Pocket and Desk Pen Now in One

Only Parker Duofold SAVES PRICE OF A SECOND PEN

Offers This Combination PEN GUARANTEED FOR LIFE

As a Pocket Pen

Getting the Parker Duofold is now like getting two Pens at the price of one. Attaching a tapered end converts it into a Desk Set Pen. Removing the taper restores it to a pocket Pen.

Either way, you save the price of a second pen. You have only one Pen to fill instead of two. And whether you write at your desk or on the go, you always have your favorite point.

You have a non-breakable Permalite barrel that holds 17.4% more ink than average, size for size—that is jewel-like in lustre, color, and beauty. And most of all—the famous Duofold *bonus, point that writes with Geo. S. Parker's 47th improvement—Pressureless Touch.

Same Pen Converted

Even at higher prices, other makers have been unable to match this classic. Now that it takes the place of a special pen for the pocket and another for the desk, its sales are soaring beyond all previous heights.

Go and ask the nearest dealer to show how the Duofold is changed back and forth from a Pocket to a Desk Set Pen. If you own a Parker, take it with you. If not, go anyway and see this revolutionary invention.

THE PARKER PEN COMPANY, Janesville, Wis. Offices and subsidiaries: New York, Chicago, Atlanta, Buffalo, San Francisco, Dallas, Toronto, Canada; London, Eng.; Berlin, Germany.

* Point-smiths Paid a Bonus
Even merciless inspections are given each Parker Duofold point. Then we pay a bonus to our point-smith who made it. Points are rejected if they fail even one inspection, and the point-smith pays us a forfeit. Yet, 7 out of 8 points earn a bonus, because we limit each man to a given number a day.
