

WHAT SHOW TONIGHT?

McDonald—"Feet First," with Harold Lloyd. Comedy.

Heilig—"The Office Wife," with Dorothy Mackaill and Lewis Stone. Problem drama.

Colonial—Everett Edward Horton in "The Aviator." Farce.

when he is forced to fly a plane.

Heilig Has Problem Drama

The Heilig is showing for the last time today a drama of the modern business man, his domestic wife, and his office wife (the stenographer) in a picturization of the popular story by Faith Baldwin, "The Office Wife."

Lewis Stone, Dorothy Mackaill, and a cast of well-known screen players make this picture one of the finest shown at this theatre for some time.

Aviator at Colonial

"The Aviator," Edward Everett Horton's latest comedy sensation, is opening today for a three-day run at the Colonial. The story is about a young man who writes a book about aviation, in reality never having been off the ground, and the subsequent complications

Harold Lloyd at McDonald. Harold Lloyd's latest talkie, "Feet First," comes to the McDonald theatre today for a three-day run. The film is a comedy farce, all about a young man who fell in love with a social superior, and who discovers her to be only a maid after a number of social climbing humiliations. It is a comedy farce with all the thrills of "Safety Last."

For shows over the Thanksgiving holidays, this column will run a complete list in Wednesday's Emerald. . . . All the theatres are running feature attractions. . . . For immediate showing following the holiday.

The McDonald announces "The Big Trail," acclaimed universally and without one dissenting opinion, as the greatest epic of the old West. . . . The Colonial has booked the "greatest" war picture in bringing "Hell's Angels" to this city soon. . . . Wally Wales, popular Western star, is bringing a series of his rodeo films to the Rex every week-end.

Second Dramatic Production Set For December 3

Three One-Act Plays To Be Next Attempt of the Drama Department

Not content to rest on the laurels of "Holiday," the drama department has already chosen the date of December 3 for the second dramatic production of the year. This program includes three one-act plays, and is being put on by members of the beginning class in technique of acting. Matinee and evening performances will be given on this date. The evening hour will be 8:15 as usual. The matinee time will be announced later.

Mrs. Otilie Seybolt, director of the drama department, will coach "The Dear Departed," and "The Breaking of the Calm." Cecil Matson, assistant director, will coach "The Devil Comes to Alcaraz."

Complete casts for all three plays have been announced as follows. In cases where two names appear for one character, the first will play the part in the matinee and the second in the evening performance.

"THE DEAR DEPARTED"
By STANLEY HOUGHTON

Mrs. Slater . . . . . Eleanor Lewis
Mrs. Jordan (her sister) . . . . .
Dorothy Barthel, Zora Beaman

Henry Slater . . . . . Hobart Wilson
Ben Jordan . . . . . Miles Shaw
Victoria Slater . . . . . Neva Lois Thompson

Abel Vryssowader . . . . . Gene Lowe
"THE DEVIL COMES TO ALCARAZ"
By WILLIAM H. FULHAM

Castilla . . . . . Gwen Foll, Katherine Langensberg
Dona Josefa (her mother) . . . . . Grace Burnett
Dona Maria . . . . . Eleanor Wood

Isabella . . . . . Marian Camp
Carmelita . . . . . Rose Simons
Don Ricardo, Mayor of Alcaraz . . . . . Harvey Welch

Don Julio (his son) . . . . . Jack Koelzel
Don Mario (friend to Don Julio) . . . . . Ethan Newman

Benito (secretary to Don Ricardo) . . . . . Harry Eide
Don Nicholas . . . . . Jack Stipe
"THE BREAKING OF THE CALM"
By DAN TOTHOROH

The Captain of the "Mary Ann" . . . . . Gene Love
The Captain's Wife . . . . . Inez Anderson

The First Mate . . . . . Hobart Wilson
The Second Mate . . . . . Ethan Newman
The Lascar Boy . . . . . Harvey Welch

The Chinaman . . . . . Sanford Platt
Mrs. Otilie Seybolt, director of the drama department, leaves today for San Francisco to attend the meeting of the Western Association of Teachers of Speech, which is being held on November 27, 28 and 29. This is a meeting of the representatives in the field of speech and dramatics from all colleges and universities west of the Rockies.

PLEDGING ANNOUNCEMENT

Phi Mu Alpha, men's national musical honorary, announces the pledging of Ray Hardman and Douglas Crane, both of Eugene.

Phi Mu Alpha, men's national musical honorary, announces the pledging of Ray Hardman and Douglas Crane, both of Eugene.

THANKSGIVING DANCE

U. of O. Nite
Thursday, Nov. 27
INVERNESS GRILLE

Make reservations now for fraternity and sorority parties. Dancing on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights during the Thanksgiving holiday. Phone Garfield 1047.

SOCIETY

By CAROL HURLBURT

Mrs. Murray Warner Pledged as Patroness

Yesterday Alpha Delta Pi formally pledged Mrs. Murray Warner as patroness of the Eugene chapter.

Miss Dorothy Jean Murphy, house president, presided at the ceremony, officially presenting Mrs. Warner with the patroness pin.

At the close of the meeting Miss Edith Lofstedt sang "I Love You Truly."

Senator and Mrs. E. W. Miller Entertained by Sigma Pi Tau

Senator and Mrs. E. W. Miller of Grants Pass were entertained at dinner Sunday by Sigma Pi Tau. Senator Miller is representing Josephine county in the state legislature. He and Mrs. Miller are making a tour of the state and passing through Eugene on their way from the coast to Eastern Oregon.

With the whole campus gone "dance mad" last week-end, the Emerald was unable to print the write-ups for all of the dances in Saturday's issue. Following are the accounts that were left out.

Football Squad Places Covers for 72

Seventy-two covers were set for the dinner-dance which was given by the football squad Friday evening at the men's dormitory.

Dr. and Mrs. Spears were patron and patroness for the dance, which lasted from 7:30 until 9:30.

Alpha Phi Uses Chinese Setting

In a Chinese setting, with palms and colored lights lending atmosphere, the Alpha Phis last night entertained their pledges at a dance.

Refreshments were served at small tables placed on the second floor.

Patrons and patronesses were: Mr. and Mrs. James Harding, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gage.

Dorothy Hall was in charge of the affair.

Friendly Hall Gives Barn Dance

Continuing a tradition of Friendly hall, each freshman was required to make a cartoon to be hung on the walls at the dance last night. The hall was turned into a barn; the windows covered over; bales of hay reposing on the floor; and the light from kerosene lanterns.

Clair Meisel was chairman. Patrons and patronesses were: Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Cutler, Dean David E. Faville, and Michael Mueller.

Phi Mu Decorates With Chrysanthemums

Using a chrysanthemum idea, in which huge baskets of yellow, heavy-headed flowers were set off against black walls, Phi Mu honored its pledges with an informal dance at the chapter house.

Mardell Herman was the chairman in charge. Patrons and patronesses were: Mrs. Alice B. Macduff, Mr. and Mrs. Alton F. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Tiffany, and Miss Sue Badollett.

Mrs. Rogers Entertains For Phi Beta President

Honoring Mrs. Grace Mattern, national president of Phi Beta, who is from Chicago, Mrs. John J. Rogers of Eugene, president of the associated members of Phi Beta, entertained the officers of the local chapter at 4:30 Saturday afternoon at her home.

Albert Tuch Chosen For National Convention

Sigma Alpha Mu has elected Albert Tuch to be their representative at the national convention of Sigma Alpha Mu which will be held in New York during the holidays.

"Alice" Inspires Sigma Kappa Dance

After having mysteriously refused to give out information regarding their dance decorations for Saturday night, the Sigma Kappas extended a personal invitation to the society editor to come to investigate.

They carried out an Alice in Wonderland idea. The walls were hung with huge free-hand pictures, done in colors, of Alice grown tall, of the Rabbit looking for his gloves and looking at his watch, of Tweedle-Dee and Tweedle-Dum, of the Rose Tree, of the Cheshire cat with his disappearing face and his ungodly grin.

The tables were laid out with chess boards, taken from "Through the Looking Glass," and the shelves in the dining-room were lined with jars and jars of jam pots. . . . If you remember your "Alice," you remember how Alice fell down the hole, past jars on jars of jam, which she wanted to investigate but couldn't, because she was falling so fast.

Mrs. Yerex Honored At Delta Gamma Reception

The Delta Gammas entertained with a formal reception in honor of their house mother, Mrs. Katherine Yerex, last night from 8:30 to 11:30. Those in the receiving line were: Mrs. Katherine Yerex, Miss Dorothy Davidson, house president, Mrs. Rose Osburn, Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Underwood.

Those pouring were Mrs. F. W. Ansley, Mrs. Seth Laraway, Mrs. O. R. Gullion, Mrs. O. Laurgaard, Cutting ices were Mrs. Julius Allyn, Mrs. E. H. Streit and Mrs. C. C. Jantzen.

The house was beautifully decorated with palms and baskets of flowers. The color scheme in the dining-room was pastel shades.

Oregana Subscriptions Wins Show for Phi Psi

Because they were the first fraternity to subscribe 100 per cent to the 1931 Oregana, members of Phi Kappa Psi will be entertained at a theatre party at the Colonial theatre Tuesday night, when Edward Everett Horton is being shown in "The Aviator." It is the first Eugene showing of the production.

Members of Kappa Delta, the first sorority to go over the top in the Oregana drive, will be similarly feted after the Thanksgiving vacation, it was announced by Roger Bailey, business manager of the Oregana, last night.

EX-OREGON STUDENT DROWNS IN RIVER

(Continued from Page One)

two years, and though not re-entering this term, had intended to continue his college training later, his friends indicated. He was majoring in architecture and would have been a junior on his return to school. Skirving was a member of the University band and the Oregon Knights, sophomore service honorary society.

Nunn-Bush Ankle-Fashioned Oxfords for Men

Most Styles $8.50 $10.00 $12.50

If you can't get home for Thanksgiving with the folks. WE'LL TELEGRAPH FLOWERS FOR YOU!

Let your message of affection bridge the miles between you and the home folks this Thanksgiving. You'll be happy if you know that your flowers are making them happier!

We arrange for distant flower deliveries, and guarantee satisfaction.

UNIVERSITY FLORISTS

598 13th Ave. E. Phone 654
Member Florists Telegraph Delivery Association.

Seven Brave Fog To Eat Breakfast At Peters' Lodge

Braving the icy cold and the fog which chilled to the bones, seven brave souls arose early Sunday morning to have breakfast at Peters lodge, A. W. S. retreat on the Willamette river. Breakfast consisted of canned peaches, coffee, hot butterhorns, doughnuts, and bacon.

Those who went were Frances Carpenter, Helen Gilham, Betty McCracken, Lucille Howell, Marjorie Wheatley, who are all members of a frosh commission group; their leader, Betty Anne Macduff, and Mrs. Alice E. Macduff, assistant dean of women.

Wood Will Attend Meeting in Ohio

Economic Association Has Forty-Third Meeting

The American Economic association, which will hold its 43rd annual meeting December 29-31, at Cleveland, Ohio, will be attended by one Oregon representative, Louis A. Wood, of the economics department.

Mr. Wood, who has done considerable work on labor problems, will take part in the discussion group on industrial changes and unemployment. Labor authorities taking part in this study will include Paul H. Douglas, of the University of Chicago; Francis Perkins, industrial commissioner of New York; and Florence C. Thome, of the American Federation of Labor.

Willamette Makes Plans For Journalism Chair

A series of lectures in the interest of establishing a professorship of journalism at Willamette University will be presented in Portland during January and February. Dr. George Rebec, dean of the graduate school, will deliver one of the addresses.

This chair of journalism is being planned as a memorial to the late Edgar D. Piper, former editor of the Morning Oregonian.

Chemistry Department Plans Research Dinner

The first of a series of research dinners will be given Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock at the men's dormitory. The dinner is to be attended by all graduate students and members of the faculty of the chemistry department.

Reports by some of those present will be given outlining the research in which they are participating. Open discussion will follow the reports.

Speedball Pictures Will Be Shown in Villard at 2

Pictures depicting speedball action and instruction are being shown at 2 o'clock today in Villard assembly for the benefit of students who desire to see the sport played by expert squads. The reels are shown through the courtesy of the physical education department and were exhibited at 10 and 2 o'clock yesterday to students taking field sports for their gym requirement.

THE FUNK & WAGNALLS
COLLEGE STANDARD DICTIONARY
(Also Published as the "Practical Standard")
Answers a Million Questions Within the Range of Human Knowledge

THE latest and largest abridged dictionary, based upon the world-famous Funk & Wagnalls New (Unabridged) Standard which cost more than $1,500,000 to produce.

Spells, pronounces and defines 140,000 terms, including the latest—all in one alphabetical order, the common meaning of a word given first; 1,325 pages; 2,500 illustrations; 12,000 lines of synonymic treatments; 6,000 antonyms; 1,900 foreign phrases.

Most authoritative—being the joint labor of 400 eminent scholars and experts in leading universities and national institutions. This Dictionary is the "court of last resort" wherever the English language is spoken.

Various Bindings in regular and Bible paper editions, all indexed. Prices range, from $5.00 to $17.50.

At all bookstores (including your College) or write for Brochure of Sample Pages, Illustrations, and other information. Be sure to mention this paper.

Funk & Wagnalls Company, 354 Fourth Ave., New York, N.Y.

In This
Last-Minute Rush
Before vacation, you may have overlooked your laundry.
BUT YOU STILL HAVE TIME.
SEND IT TO US TODAY AND IT WILL BE RETURNED TOMORROW.

Eugene Steam Laundry
178 W. 8th Street Phone 123

FARES CUT
Thanksgiving HOLIDAYS
$5.10 Round Trip
Portland SPECIAL TRAIN
Wednesday, November 26

Leave Eugene . . . . . 1:00 p. m.
Arrive Portland . . . . . 4:30 p. m.
— Returning, Nov. 30 —
Leave Portland . . . . . 6:00 p. m.
EQUALLY LOW FARES TO ALL POINTS
In Oregon and Washington on sale November 25, 26, 27.
Return Limit, Dec. 1.
Phone 2200 for Details

Southern Pacific
F. G. LEWIS, Agent

SHREDDED WHEAT

MILDER and BETTER TASTE

...think what that means
★ they Satisfy

Going to the Game?
Take along a box of candy or salted nuts to eat between the halves. They're fine to eat while riding home for vacation, too.

Walora Candies
357 EAST 13TH

PREPARE FOR Thanksgiving

Special Thanksgiving Dinner
and every day during the holidays at the
ANCHORAGE
A homelike atmosphere for those who can't go home.