Phi Beta Issues Three Hundred Invitations for Tea
Over 300 invitations have been issued for the formal tea with which Phi Beta, national professional music and drama society, will honor its patronesses.

The tea, which is an annual affair, will be held from three until five o'clock this afternoon in Alumni hall of the Gerlinger building.

A special honor guest will be Miss Grace Mattern, dean of women and head of drama at Albany college and formerly at Northwestern university. Special invitations have been extended to music groups on the campus.

A program of music and drama has been arranged. Estelle Johnson, president of the group, is making the arrangements, assisted by Mrs. John Jay Rogers, president of the Eugene Associate group.

Mrs. Stewart To Be Honored at Reception
Mrs. Josephine Parrish Stewart, chaperon of the sorority, will be honored by Gamma Phi Beta at a formal reception tonight. Lois Johnson is the general chairman. The hours will be from 8 until 11. Five hundred invitations have been extended to prominent Eugene and faculty people and to guests from Salem and other cities.

Alpha Tau Omega Throws Beer Bust
Bottles upon bottles, a bar, beer and pretzels, enlivened the bar room bust which Alpha Tau Omega threw last night. Advertising cards were hung on the walls. The dance was given by the upperclassmen, with Elmer Paul in charge.

Dean Hugh Biggs, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Onthank, John Rae, and George Robbins were the chaperons.

Palms Will Decorate Sigma Kappa Formal
The tall palms, floodlights, and flowers of the formal occasion will decorate the Sigma Kappa dance which will be given at the chapter house tonight.

Dena Lieuallen is in charge. Patrons and patronesses include: Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Beattie, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Mather, Mrs. Louis Bean and Mrs. Jennie Burrows.

Gamma Alpha Chi Honors Women Attending Conference
Honoring the women representatives who are attending the Press conference, Gamma Alpha Chi, women's national advertising honorary, entertained with a tea yesterday afternoon from 3:30 until 5 in the women's lounge of the Gerlinger building.

Beta Upper-Classmen To Give Formal Dinner Dance
A formal dinner dance will be given tonight by the upperclassmen of Beta Theta Pi. Bill Barndrick is general chairman. Patrons and patronesses will be: Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. George Hitchcock, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Jewett.

The house "by the mill-race" will be filled with stately palms, with flowers, and shaded by colored floodlights.

Theta Sigma Phi Entertains at Luncheon
Theta Sigma Phi, women's national journalism honorary, honored the women journalists who are attending the Press conference yesterday with luncheon at the College Side, Lois Nelson, with the assistance of Margaret Reid, took charge.

A. A. U. W. Issues Luncheon Invitation
The American Association of University Women will hold their monthly luncheon this noon at the Osburn hotel at 1:30.

Mrs. C. A. E. Whitten, accompanied by Miss Celeste Campbell, will sing. Dr. John R. Mez, associate professor in economics and political science, will speak on international relations in the Pacific countries.

50 May Enter All-Faculty Golf Tourney in Spring
Plans are under way for an all-faculty golf tournament to be held as early as possible during spring term, R. H. Seashore, of the psychology department, who is in charge of faculty golf competition, announced yesterday. More than 50 have indicated their preference for golf as a major interest in sports, and it is expected that at least this number will take part in the tournament. Faculty and graduate assistants are eligible to enter the play.

Then Stanford, California and the other schools attract the stars because if a swimmer is any good, they send him east for national meets and other attractions.

Hewitt has in mind the forming of a high school swimming league in this end of the valley. It would include the freshman teams from Oregon State, and Oregon, the two Eugene high schools, Salem, and perhaps a Y. M. C. A. team or so.

Frosh Basketeer Skates to Igloo Daily to Practice
The Berlin cops who skate about their beats on roller skates have nothing on one freshman basketball man who lives at the edge of the city with his parents.

Alton McCully arrives at his nightly practices at the Igloo via a pair of roller skates.

"Sure," he grinned, "they are lots easier than walking—save all my energy for practice. Only trouble is on the hills. I get to going pretty fast down them and sometimes—"

Business School Bulletins Found in Great Demand
A far-reaching demand for the research bulletins published by the University bureau of business research makes necessary editions of from 2,500 to 3,500, Dean David E. Faville, of the school of business administration, remarked yesterday.

Libraries, research houses, chambers of commerce, government libraries, and specialized publications furnish the main outlet for distribution, but many requests come from unexpected places, Dean Faville said.

Research Articles Prove Popular; Over 2500 Editions Printed
A Los Angeles real estate broker considering moving his field of interest to Oregon has asked for the bulletin on the flax industry. A Texas oil company is interested in "Why Customers Quit Trading at Retail Stores" in the hope of cleaning sales hints for its service stations. Credit agencies and college debaters are particularly interested in the bulletin on "Installation Plan Buying." The demand for this bulletin has been so great in the current depression that 1,000 extra copies have been printed. Steamship companies and export houses ask for the foreign trade bulletins. One owner of an apple orchard requested a copy of any bulletin that might help him to get into a more profitable business, Dean Faville said.

Will Rogers at Colonial
"So This Is London," currently playing at the Colonial theatre, is Will Rogers' second all-talking picture, and critics are acclaiming it as being even better than "They Had To See Paris," the celebrated wit's first audible. Rogers is surrounded by a cast which includes Irene Rich, Frank Albertson, and Maureen O'Sullivan.

Lupe Velez in Chinese Role
"East Is West" is showing at the Rex today for the last time. This famous old stage play stars Lupe Velez and Lewis Ayres.

Popular Lovers Return
In what is said to be the most powerful story of regeneration ever written, Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell, most popular team in filmdom, will return to the McDonald theatre Sunday.

Farrell interprets the part of a rich man's son who is ruined by wealth and Gaynor plays a little cabaret singer who helps him fight his way back to society and decency. Kenneth MacKenna also has an important place in this dramatic picture.

WHAT SHOW TONIGHT?

Colonial—Saturday, "So This Is London." Sunday, Gloria Swanson in "What a Widow."
Rex — Saturday, "East Is West." Sunday, Harold Murray and Lois Moran in "Under Suspicion."
Heilig — Saturday, "Men Are Like That." Sunday, Winnie Lightner in "The Life of the Party."
McDonald—Saturday, "Charlie's Aunt." Sunday, Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell in "The Man Who Came Back."

Gloria Swanson, starring in "What a Widow," playing at the Colonial Sunday.

Kelly Play at Heilig
"The Show Off," one of the most successful plays from the pen of George Kelly, is being shown at the Heilig theatre today for the last time under the title of "Men Are Like That." In the leading part is Hal Skelly. His acting makes the character of the "show-off" one of the most real and human characters seen at the Heilig this season.

Comedy at McDonald Closes
Today is the last chance to see Charles Ruggles interpret the screamingly funny lead part in "Charlie's Aunt," playing at the McDonald theatre.

Played on the stage for many seasons, and once transcribed to the silent screen, this play has been one of the most perennially popular comedies of the last decade.

Will Rogers at Colonial
"So This Is London," currently playing at the Colonial theatre, is Will Rogers' second all-talking picture, and critics are acclaiming it as being even better than "They Had To See Paris," the celebrated wit's first audible. Eleven Students Are Still Registered at Infirmary

With the approach of the week-end, the infirmary, which was filled to capacity at the beginning of the week, has gradually decreased the number of patients confined to its care. There are still, however, eleven students registered there at the present time. The infirmary, which contains only 13 beds, was forced to turn several students away last Wednesday because of lack of room.

At the present time the following students are there: Florence Woughter, Christine McCullough, Elizabeth Peterson, Pat Merrick, Howard Dietrich, Eugene Mullins, Warren Daniel, Fred McKinney, and Jack Blanchard.

Two other students, as yet unidentified, were admitted late yesterday.

Glee Clubs of University Choose Officers for '31
Both the men's and women's glee clubs of the University re-

as boards of directors for glee club recently elected officers who will act programs and activities during the balance of the school year.

Margaret Simms, Salem, was chosen president of the women's glee club. Marabel Braden, Lebanon, is the new vice-president, and Elizabeth Gilstrap of Eugene is secretary.

Members of the men's club elected John McMullen, Eugene, president; George Bishop, Portland, vice-president; and Lionel Lane, Portland, secretary.

John Stark Evans is the conductor for both clubs.

MUST YOU WEAR YOUR MISTAKES?

Some girls—fortunate creatures!—can afford to give away their clothes mistakes or just leave them hanging in their closets.

But most of us have to wear for two seasons the suit that looked out of style the first week we had it on... or the dress that kept meeting itself everywhere it went!

Vogue can save you from such ghastly plights. Vogue stalks the Paris couturiers in the approved Sherlock Holmes manner. It dashes to the fashionable continental resorts and catches the new mode on the wing. It haunts the great New York shops... and you get the benefit!

Vogue can help you plan every detail of your wardrobe from a jaunty new coat to a pair of street shoes. It will help you look like a million dollars on a midget budget! How much for all this?... just two little runaway dollars pinned to the coupon below.
