

Coach Hewitt Names Men To Meet OSC

Odds Favor Webfoots To Repeat Former Victory

Corson Expected To Star For Freshmen in Polo Game

The varsity and frosh swimming line-ups for the meet with Oregon State on Saturday were announced yesterday by Jack Hewitt, varsity swimming coach. The varsity line-up is only tentative as it is uncertain whether McGowan Miller, star dash man, will be able to swim with his injured finger. Spain is out of the infirmary, but the doctor will not allow him to swim until Saturday at least. As this does not allow any time for practice before the meet, he may not swim at all.

Both frosh and varsity meets with the Staters will be very close, but the odds, if any, should favor the Webfoots as they dropped the Beavers here a few weeks ago. Ed Ralston, Oregon State, one of the greatest backstroke swimmers they have ever had, is favored to win that event from Oregon. Ralston has beaten Anderson, Multnomah club of Portland, twice this season in the backstroke, and Anderson is considered one of the best in the Pacific Northwest.

Dashes Feature
Herb Eisenschmidt, star dash man for the Beavers, is one of the strongest swimmers the Oregon natators have encountered, and will provide a hot race in any of the dash events. Much depends on Miller, Oregon, as to the outcome of the meet. In normal condition he would be expected to take first places in two, and perhaps three, dash events.

The victory of the Multnomah Athletic club over the State college, 49 to 35, this week heartens the Oregon swimmers in their coming meet, although the club has added four strong men to its team. The Staters had previously beaten the Multnomah mermen 45 to 39. These new Multnomah swimmers are Oliver Doble, Bruce Campbell, Ed Miller, and Howard Dirks. Two weeks ago Dirks was a University student and on the Oregon swimming team, but has since withdrawn from school and is now swimming for the club.

Polo To Be Tough
Both frosh and varsity polo games are expected to be extremely close and hard fought. Oregon won both games by a very small score from the Beavers here several weeks ago, but reports from Corvallis indicate added strength to their teams. Corson, Oregon freshman, is expected to star, but will probably be closely checked by the rooks as he was in the last game.

The Oregon swimming team will leave for Corvallis by bus at 12:15 Saturday afternoon. Coach Hewitt is very optimistic concerning the outcome of the meet, although he is likely to be faced with a sick and injured squad. He believes that more than one record will go by the boards Saturday.

Following is the tentative varsity line-up:
400-foot relay—Miller, Edwards, Oglesby, and Needham.
100-yard breast stroke—Lafferty and Fletcher.
50-yard free style—Miller, Needham or Edwards.
440-yard free style—Foster and McKim.

100-yard backstroke—Spain or Sears, and Allen.
100-yard free style—Miller, Edwards or Needham.
Diving—Nigh.
220-yard free style—Oglesby, Foster or Needham.
300-yard medley relay—Allen or Spain, Fletcher, Needham or Edwards.

Frosh Line-up
400-foot relay—Cross or Corson, Ingram, Goulet, Sherman or Hug.
100-yard breast stroke—Rodd and Blew.
50-yard dash—Corson, Hug or Ingram.

440-yard free style—Stevenson and Laurin.
100-yard backstroke—Corson and Brooks.
100-yard dash—Hug and Stevenson.

Diving—Sherman and Wilson.
220-yard free style—Corson and Laurin.
300-yard medley relay—Rodd, Brooks, and Hug.
Anderson, Gantenbein, and Kilpatrick for the frosh, and Bishop, Culp, and Travis for the varsity will be taken along for the polo games.

DEBATE TEAMS DIVIDE HONORS IN DUAL MEET

consumer—to the manufacturer, because he can produce on a larger scale; to the retailer, because through the medium of the chain store he can carry on mass buying at reduced prices; and to the consumer, because of the lower prices.

Competition Exists
Monopoly would be prevented by the competition among the chains themselves. The Oregon men attacked the idea of the co-operative independents as identical to the chain store system itself, and presenting all the evils which the affirmative speakers accredited to the chain store system.

Judges for the debate here were D. A. Emerson, superintendent of the Cottage Grove city schools; Sheldon Sackett, managing editor of the Salem Statesman, and R. B. Swenson, editor of the Mouth Herald.

PHILOGRAMS

SPOT DOPE ON SPORT NEWS By Phil Cogswell

It Doesn't Catch—

One intramural activity that seems incapable of drawing an increased interest from the fraternities is the track meet which Bill Hayward goes to great efforts to promote every year. The entries for the meet Saturday seem to be if anything, less than usual, only nine houses registering men for the events.

This must be very discouraging to Hayward for the dean of Oregon's coaching staff and famous trainer, has been trying a long time to arouse real enthusiasm for intramural track.

Lost Opportunities—

Hayward's motives for encouraging donut cinder meets are evident and well meant. In no other way would there be more of a chance of finding an unheralded star, or at least, a few good prospects for the varsity.

It would seem that living organizations which never leave a stone unturned when it comes to getting men into activities would realize that the advantage of having a house track team is that it might lead to getting a few more lettermen.

Trouble with track is it requires training. True, it will develop a man physically, but nevertheless it entails a little too much hard work to be inviting to the average student.

The Traditionists—

The Order of the O's belated onslaught on freshman tradition violators Tuesday night has met with criticism that seems to be justified.

One could write a thesis on either side of the college tradition argument and probably change nobody's convictions on the subject, but anyway the present tendency of school traditions is towards extinguishment whether good or evil.

Weighty Matter—

If the lettermen wanted to keep the frosh wearing green lids they should have kept on the boat last fall. Such weighty things as traditions can't be ignored and revived in turn to correspond to the unsettled mood of the Order of the O. And the paddling of the babes at midnight rather rudely interrupted sweet dreams, or perusal perchance of studies.

Getting a dozen of several hundred freshmen out of bed to make examples of them will likely prove to be only another convulsive gesture as the death of the green lid becomes imminent.

Fastest Human—

Ingenious electrical clocking devices on a Swiss skiway recorded the fastest speed a human being has ever traveled on earth, unassisted. On an ice-coated and almost perpendicular runway, Chiogna, crack skiman, reached a maximum of 81.82 miles an hour.

Chiogna's time compares with other rates of travel like this: A sprinter makes a top speed of about 21 miles per hour, a race horse, 36 miles per hour, and a man falling out of an airplane about 118 miles per hour after a drop of 1,200 feet without a parachute.

Speedball Spread Is Scheduled for Tomorrow Night

The first of a series of annual speedball spreads will be held tomorrow night at Gerlinger hall from 4 until 6, consisting of an all-star speedball game from 4 until 4:45 and an all-star basketball game from 5:15 until 6 o'clock.

With a "spread" and entertainment between the two events, according to an announcement made by Dorothy MacLean and Dorothy Goff, student managers of speedball and basketball respectively.

Assisting the two student managers are Mary Wilburn, who has charge of the entertainment, which she declares is especially unusual and different, and Juanita Young, who will have charge of the serving. The spread is open to every girl interested in either speedball or basketball, and the committee urges that everyone turn out for it that possibly can.

The teams that will be playing were announced at the annual W. A. A. banquet last night by Miss Harriet Thomson, assistant professor of physical education. The first and second all-star teams were given for both games. The first all-star team for speedball is: left end, Nellie Schaeffer; left inside, Frances Haberlach; center forward, Dorothy MacLean; right inside, Doris Payne; right end, Gladys Gregory; left half, Virginia Stanton; full, Ella Redkey; right half, Mae Schaeffer; left guard, Marie McDonald; right guard, Juanita Demmer; and goal, Caryl Hollingsworth.

What must be almost a world's record for a water polo score was made when the Navy beat the City College of New York, 71-25.

gherita Hay; 30, Dorothy Harbaugh; 31, Alice Carter; 32, Mildred Collins; 33, Dorothy York; 34, Violet Ackerman; 35, Margaret Rock; 36, Maxine McDonald; 37, Elizabeth Wright; 38, Marguerite Blake; 39, Virginia Sturgis; 40, Louise Stevenson; 41, Mary Helen Corbett; 42, Thelma Chappell; 43, Isabella Davis; 44, Anita Knotts; 45, Ann Kelly; 46, Peggy Sweeney; 47, Myrtle McDaniels; and 48, Margaret Krohn.

Report at 3
Girls who have numbers from 1 to 25 are to report at Coccoan Grove between 3 and 4 o'clock, and the remaining girls report from 4 to 5 o'clock. It will be appreciated if every girl will remember her number in order to avoid confusion. Miss Camp said last night.

Tryouts for skit and specialty acts for the vodvil will be held this afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock in the back room of the College Side Inn, Barney Miller, in charge of manuscript and skits, said yesterday. "Even though your acts are not yet worked out, please come to the tryouts," Miller said.

WSC Center Tops Northern Scorers With 171 Markers

Huntley Gordon, the sensational sophomore center of the Washington State Cougars, led the individual scoring for this year in the Northern division of the Coast conference league, with a total of 171 points. This ties the division record set last year by Harold Stowell, Idaho ace.

Another sophomore, Johnny Fuller, Washington forward, was runner-up to Gordon, with 139, four points ahead of Hank Swanson, a teammate. Fuller piled up 25 points in the last two games to jump from fourth place to second. Rod Ballard, Oregon State ace, finished in fourth place with 126 markers.

Jean Eberhard, Webfoot center, finished in a tie for seventh place with Swygard of Washington with 108 points. Vincent Dolp, with 83 markers, was the only other Oregon player among the first 15 scorers.

Personal foul honors went to Claud Holsten of the Cougars with 34 violations. He barely nosed out Howard Merrill, Oregon State's "bad boy."

Haberlach Is Elected New WAA Prexy

Sweaters, Letters, Stripes Awarded to Fourteen Sportswomen

Hollingsworth, Redkey and McLain Fill Other Offices

By ESTHER HAYDEN
Frances Haberlach, junior in art from Clackamas, was elected president of the Women's Athletic Association for next year, according to the announcement made last night at the annual W. A. A. banquet by Jesse Puckett, retiring president. At the same time the other officials for the coming year were named: Caryl Hollingsworth, vice-president; Ella Redkey, secretary; and Dorothy MacLean, treasurer.

Letters Given
Miss Harriet Thomson, who was the honor guest of the banquet, told the history of W. A. A., ever since its origin 17 years ago in 1913, presented sweaters, letters, and stripes, and announced all-star teams in basketball and speedball. Six sweaters were presented, to Catherine Duer, Ella Redkey, Juanita Young, Caryl Hollingsworth, Mary Agnes Hunt, and Dorothy MacMillan, respectively.

Six letters were presented also, Vivian Coss, Nellie Schaeffer, Ora Needham, Ruth Johnson, Virginia Stanton, and Virginia Grone winning them. Only two stripes, representing the achievement of 1000 points beyond those necessary for a letter and sweater, were given; and they were received by Lucille Hill and Mary Wilburn.

New President Speaks
Miss Haberlach, in speaking of her election, said, "I am indeed pleased at the honor shown me, and I, as well as the other officers, shall do the best in my ability to carry on the activities so ably carried out by the retiring officers." Jesse Puckett officiated as toastmistress, introducing Miss Thomson, and Dean Hazel Pruss Thomson, and Dean Hazel Pruss Thomson, who spoke of the benefits that athletics and organizations such as W. A. A. contribute to the modern woman's life.

Dorothy Goff served as general chairman of the banquet and was assisted by Virginia Grone. Vivian Coss handled the entertainment, consisting of a cello solo played by Miriam Safford, and accompanied by Margaret Cummings, and a tap dance by Lucille Hill. Dorothy MacLean handled the sale of tickets, and Vera Snow made the programs, consisting of an "O" leaflet with an archeress upon the cover.

SPORTS SHORTS

In the last seven years the California Bears have won six coast conference basketball championships.

Polo is a rough, tough game. The other day in a game at Del Monte a pony was hit in the head by the chukker and cleanly knocked out.

Alphonso Bobo, star first baseman of the Nashville Colored Giants and known as the "Black Sinner" because his style was similar to the white player of that name, is dead. In a game at San Diego he was hit in the side by a pitched ball. Later he drank some liquor which made him fatally ill.

New Books in Library; Covers Posted on Board

New books have been pouring into the University library during the last week. The covers have been taken from these books and posted on the bulletin boards. Some of the books include: "Sitka," a portal to romance, by Barrett Willoughby; "On the Old West Coast," a story of the further reminiscences of a ranger, by Major Horace Bell; "God Without Thunder," an unorthodox defense of the orthodox, by John Crowe Ransom; "The Ugly Civilization," raising the question whether man is a manufacturing animal or a human being, by Ralph Borsodi; "Elizabeth the Queen," Anderson.
