

First Football Session Held Despite Rain

43 Players Greet Spears At Opening Spring Practice Drill

Coach Says Team Will Be Green But Tough; Schulz Out

While rain flooded the practice field yesterday, 43 football men reported to Doc Spears for the first turnout of the spring season. So much water in the air made it hard to see the ball, according to the players, but they enjoyed a light, fast, if splashy, workout by going through blocking fundamentals, punting, and chasing passes.

Coach Spears says that he will have an inexperienced team this year, but that it will also be a fighting team. He intends, according to a statement made yesterday, to put "a bunch of tough boys on the field who will be willing to give and take."

Backfield Problem

A good backfield will be the difficult thing to develop from the material in sight, Doc says, and "I have never seen a winning team with more than five green men on it."

However, those who know Spears' methods realize that a completely seasoned team will jump into action when the first game starts next fall.

The following men from the last

The FAVORITE tobacco of the Dartmouth man is . . .

If you want to know the Dartmouth man's favorite tobacco, watch him as he loads his pipe between classes in front of Dartmouth Row. Watch him as he strolls along Wheelock Street and pulls the familiar blue tin of Edgeworth out of his pocket.

A pipe and Edgeworth—this is the smoking combination that has won the college man. Harvard, Cornell, Michigan, Stanford, Illinois . . . all agree with Dartmouth. Natural merit has made Edgeworth the favorite smoking tobacco in America's leading colleges and universities.

College men everywhere respond to the appeal of pipes packed with cool, slow-burning Edgeworth. Be guided by their choice; try Edgeworth yourself. Taste its rich natural savor that is enhanced immeasurably by Edgeworth's distinctive "eleventh process." You will find Edgeworth at your nearest tobacco shop—15¢ the tin. Or, for generous free sample, address: Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va.

EDGEWORTH SMOKING TOBACCO

All The Newest Styles Oregon City Woolen Mills

TWO-PANTS SUITS

WITH GUARANTEED CELLANESE SILK LININGS

"The best suit values in America . . . drop in and I'll gladly show you"

Ball Tossers Seek Shelter During Rain

Varsity Candidates Move Into Igloo; Coach Shapes Team

Outfielders Chosen After Vacation; Infield Berths Open

Old Man Weather continued to frown on the prospects of Oregon's varsity baseball squad getting its chance to work out on the outside diamond and practice continued under the roof of the Igloo. A majority of the first string stayed on the campus over spring vacation to get into shape while lots of rain greeted the remainder when they showed up for practice yesterday.

During the inter-term interval, Coach Bill Reinhart has been busy getting together a tentative outfield and so far has uncovered a few boys who look to be candidates for the berths. Bill McLaren, Slug Palmer, and Ted Jensen have been looking like the best material to date, with Roy Shaneman cutting in when he isn't behind the bat. Shaneman, who hits from the right side of the plate, is the heaviest hitter of the four, but all are good on the fielding end of things.

No change in the infield lineup has broken out. Kremer Barnes seems to be the best bet for the first bag, with Potter held in reserve. Zack Wheat, last year's frosh first-sacker, returned to school this term to give the game a try from a varsity angle and ought to do well for himself at the plate. Minnaugh and Chapman are the principal candidates for second base at present. Minnaugh, an outfield letterman, was moved in to fill up the vacancy left by Ken Robie, while Chapman comes up from the freshmen. Stevens, regular at shortstop last year, appears to be having things his own way for the time being.

At third, Londahl and Arnett are at the top of the heap and furnish the competition for each other.

Dave Bloom on the mound is perhaps going to be the best game-winner for the Webfoots when he gets his speed under control. Along with Dave are Ken Scales and Jack Hughes, who makes the pitching prospects a little brighter by his return to school.

PLEDGING ANNOUNCEMENT

Sigma Nu announces the pledging of Mayville S. Kelliher Jr., of Santa Barbara, California.

Haircut Time Is Important

Come in and . . .

CAMPUS BARBER SHOP

SINCE 1920

Gilkey Elected Head Of Commerce Session

Plans for next year's Oregon chamber of commerce secretarial short course and conference are already under way, Dean David E. Faville, of the business ad school, which sponsors the annual event, said yesterday. One of the leading subjects to be discussed next year will be the lumber situation in Oregon.

Leonard Gilkey, of Albany, was elected next year's president at the session which was held on the campus during spring vacation, March 23, 24, and 25. John Brewer, of the East Side commercial club of Portland, will act as vice-president, and E. G. Harlan, of the state chamber of commerce, Portland, will serve as secretary-treasurer. Elected to the secretarial board were Earl Reynolds, of Klamath Falls; Andy Davis, of Marshfield; and Harold Bloome, of La Grande.

The Christy Thomas cup for the best essay on chamber organization, went to L. K. Cramb, of the Bend chamber, for the second time in the two years the cup has been offered. Ted Baker, of the Medford chamber, took honorable mention with the second best paper. Permanent possession of the cup will go to Mr. Cramb, if he wins once more, as it goes to the first three-time winner.

Bargains In School Supplies

- 20c Typewriter Pads for 15c
  - 75c Reams of Type Paper for 60c
  - 15c Desk Blotters for 10c
  - $1.00 Canvas Notebooks for 90c
  - $2.00 Laundry Bags for $1.90
- ### UNIVERSITY PHARMACY

Seymour's Cafe

The logical place to eat after the show or a shopping tour. It's handy to the bus—and the food is good.

We Are Serving a Special Dinner 75c

Easter Sunday

Rockne Killed

Notre Dame's famous coach, who was killed yesterday when the plane in which he was riding burst into flames. The genial mentor was on his way to Los Angeles from the Middle West. The accident happened in Kansas.

Physical Ed Staff Will Be Host For O.S.P.E. Meeting

Diversified Entertainment To Be Provided for Group Members

The local school of physical education will host this month the Oregon State Physical Education association meeting with Cascade Resort, 50 miles up the McKenzie river, sharing honors with Eugene as the scene of a diversified program of activities. Paul R. Washke, chairman of the session, has announced that April 18 and 19 are the dates for the convention, which will include a combination of physical education study and social affairs.

Invitations have been sent out to all members of the state association, their relatives and friends, and all will be privileged to enjoy the program. The affair will start at 11:15 o'clock Saturday morning with demonstrations for men and women in the men's and women's gymnasiums. Luncheon will be served in the Green room of the men's dormitory, and the caravan of automobiles will leave at 2:15 for Cascade Resort, where the bulk of the program will be staged. The guests will be privileged Sunday to enjoy the McKenzie country with trips to the snow line and fishing expeditions.

Yeomen To Be Guests Of McDonald Monday

Independent men will be the guests of the Fox-McDonald theatre Monday night at the regular revival night showing, it was announced yesterday by Merlin Blais, president of Oregon Yeomen, independent men's organization.

Admittance slips will be issued Thursday, Friday, and Saturday to independent men who apply for them. Evan Hughes, Ted Montgomery, and Jack Bauer, in addition to the president, will have charge of distribution. Those desiring tickets may procure them by asking these representatives or by calling at the Emerald news office either Thursday or Friday afternoon.

The theatre party was won by the Oregon Yeomen in the Emerald-KORE radio contest held last term.

Phi Chi Theta Has Breakfast

The annual founders' day breakfast of Phi Chi Theta, national women's professional commerce fraternity, was held in Portland, March 21, Alexis Lyle, president, said yesterday. Members of the Oregon and Oregon State chapters, and alumnae in Portland attended the event.

Mrs. G. J. Frankel was the guest speaker, and Isabelle Tremayne, of Portland, acted as toastmistress.

A number of activities are being planned for spring term by the group, but definite plans have not been announced.

PHILOGRAMS

SPOT DOPE ON SPORT NEWS

By Phil Cogswell

Death of Rockne—

The plane tragedy which took the life of Knute Rockne yesterday leaves a nation of sport lovers stunned. The name of the great coach has become symbolic with the spectacularness, the spirit of fight, and the sportsmanship of football wherever it is being played.

His death will be mourned deeply not only by Notre Dame herself but also by her opponents, for the gridiron dominance of the South Bend school has not given rise to bitterness, but rather only to admiration and respect.

Friend of Spears—

"Football has lost its greatest exponent and its greatest friend," said Doc Spears last night. The Oregon coach paused before going out to conduct the opening spring practice session to discuss the passing of the Notre Dame coach.

"I knew Rockne very well. We first became acquainted when he was on one athletic club and I on another in Chicago and we played football against each other. That was before we went to college. Knute's college playing was a little before mine, but teams I have coached have met his three times. The last time I saw him was the night before the Trojan-Notre Dame game. We spent the evening together."

Best of Tributes—

Coach Spears paid Rockne the finest of tributes when he said the Notre Dame leader had more friends among the other football coaches throughout the country than any other man.

This fact shows the finest qualities of Rockne. He made friends with the men his teams whipped year after year. "It was because Rockne always went out of his way to do or say something nice about other coaches," said Spears, "and because Knute was famous he could tell any school it had a good coach and all believed him."

All-American Himself—

Rockne's rise to the heights of greatness reads like a story of fiction. Born near Oslo, Norway, about 43 years ago, he came to this country at the age of 6. It took him four years after finishing high school to save money enough to go to Notre Dame. At that time he had no idea of becoming a great athlete, in fact he worshipped athletes as supermen.

Rockne was an all-American end for the Irish, but his fame as a coach developing so many other all-Americans has placed his own playing prowess in the background.

Maker of Stars—

The names of some of Rockne's players stand among football's greatest. There were the four horsemen who lost only two games in 30 from 1923 to 1925, Harry Stuhldreher, Don Miller, Elmer Layden, and Jimmy Crowley.

Then there was George Gyp, who Rockne says was his greatest player of all, the backfield star that died in his last year at Notre Dame, 1923, and whose name is a legend at the school. The names of the recent stars are still fresh in mind.

Rockne, in moulding football machines, built character into his men first. He said, "I firmly believe that America's future battles in peace and war are being won on the gridiron."

H. Doran Wins Debate At Pacific University

Strange as it may seem Friday the thirteenth was a lucky day for both the University of Oregon and Herbert Doran. While students with the approaching exam week in view were avoiding black cats and walking around ladders, Herbert Doran, senior in sociology, traveled to Forest Grove and won first place in the State Old Line oratorical contest held at Pacific university.

Beside bringing honor to himself and the University, Mr. Doran established a record, this being the third speech contest Oregon has won in three years.

No small item to be considered is the $25 which the orator received for first place. Which all goes to show that Friday the thirteenth isn't such a bad day after all.

9 HIGH SCHOOLS TO COMPETE IN CONTEST

(Continued from Page One) Telegram cup for the best individual actor in the 1930 tournament, will appear this year as Piery, a newspaper reporter, in "Somebody," a play by Richard L. Melville, directed by Mrs. Edna Dean of Condon.

Ruth Howe, of Salem high school, was winner of the Dean Collins cup last year, presented annually to the best individual actress. Salem will not be represented in this year's contest.

Other plays for the tournament, the authors, schools competing, and directors include: "Jazz in Minuet," by Ruth Giorloff, presented by University high school, directed by Helen Allen; "He," by Eugene O'Neill, Milwaukee Union, Margaret Morgan; "The Trysting Place," by Booth Tarkington, Cottage Grove, Eariel Lee Gilbert; "The Mirror," by Katharine Metcalf Roof, Medford, Maurine M. Johnston; "Judge Lynch," by John Williams Rogers, Jr., Eugene, Mrs. Ethel Chase Christie; "Two Crooks and a Lady," by Eugene Pilot, Gardiner, Robert Carrier; and "Submerged" by Cottman and Shaw, Baker, Alice May Oliver.

Three Judges Chosen

Judges for the tournament are Dean Collins, dramatic critic of the Portland Telegram; Mrs. Kathleen Clarke, Oregon author of Grants Pass; and Mary Blaisdell, of the University of Washington drama department. Dan E. Clark, of the extension division, is secretary and Mrs. Ottilie T. Seybolt, head of the drama department, is chairman of the committee in charge of the event.

Entertainment of guests will be provided in various living organizations on the campus and a special luncheon for all participants will be served Saturday noon. Gladys Clausen, senior in education, is in charge of the luncheon plans.

Directors will be entertained at

Summer Session Data Is Revealed In New Catalogue

Week-End Trips Arranged For Scenic Places In Oregon

The preliminary summer session catalogue which has just been issued by the University of Oregon extension division reveals a complete schedule of classes, a staff of prominent educators, and a wide variety of recreational attractions for students.

In addition to the opportunities afforded by an excellent scholastic program, students will be able to visit a number of the most scenic places in Oregon. Week-end trips have been arranged for Crater Lake, the Three Sisters, Newport, Yachats, and Bandon beaches, the Columbia river highway around the Mt. Hood loop, the Cascade lava beds and pine forests, and the Oregon caves.

A special feature of the Portland session will be the platform demonstration school which will be held in the Shattuck school. Regular classes which include grades four to eight will be under the direction of a staff of demonstration teachers in addition to specialists in various fields. On the Eugene campus the University will maintain a clinical school for the problem child.

The summer session faculty will include many prominent professors, such as: Dr. Kiang Kang-Hu, instructor in oriental art; John C. Almack, Ph.D., professor of education; William Trufant Foster, Ph.D., director of the Pollack foundation for economic research at Newton, Mass.; Grace M. Fernald, Ph.D., educator, author and lecturer; and Rachel Stutsman, Ph.D., psychologist in the Merrill-Palmer school in Detroit.

A Beautiful Permanent with Ringlet Ends for Easter $5.00

Including Shampoo and Finger Wave

This is a soft natural wave that will be sure to please.

Contour Haircutting

MODEL Beauty Shoppe

PHONE 2362 Over Lee-Dukes

WHERE THE CAMPUS KNOWS IT SEES GOOD SHOWS

McDONALD

Direction FOX WEST COAST THEATRES.

JOIN THE JOYFUL—Spring Laff Week!

Here's the First Scream of Spring

I'M HERE TO—

WELCOME OREGON

BACK—

Ssssh— It's a secret But—

SALOME

Knew it - -

NAPOLEON

Knew it - -

CLEOPATRA

Knew it - -

SAMSON

Knew it - -

HELEN of TROY

Knew it - -

DELILAH

Knew it - -

Spring Clothing

Must be spotless.

Light colors need laundering often.

Send them to

The Eugene Steam Laundry

She paid $10,000 to find out if her boy friend was as good at business as he was at love. And she found out plenty! Don't miss this cuddling comedy with—

Snappy SKETS GALLAGHER Handsome NORMAN FOSTER Beautiful CAROLE LOMBARD Funny EUGENE PALETTE

25c TILL 2

DATE NOW FOR "COLLEGE NITE"—FRIDAY