William Haines and Dorothy Jordan in "The Tailor Made Man," at the McDonald.

Charlie Chaplin Arrives
Eugene finally gets a chance to see the most talked of picture of recent months, the only picture of the year that has made front page news all over the world, the only important silent picture for two years: "City Lights." The Colonial shows it for an entire week, beginning Sunday, with a special preview at 11, Saturday night.

Charles Chaplin, the star, is widely acclaimed as having made his best contribution to the screen in this film, proving against all wagers that the art of pantomime still has a good deal of power in the motion picture world.

"Little Caesar" at Heilig
Another film that has won acclaim of critics, mostly the discriminative and newspaper varieties, is "Little Caesar," film version of the W. R. Burnett novel, opening at the Heilig Sunday.

Edward G. Robinson is in the title role of this powerful drama of the notorious underworld of a certain great American city, with all the actual trimmings and miscellaneous killings which play a large part in those circles of society.

Haines at McDonald
William Haines comes to the McDonald in his latest laugh riot, "The Tailor-Made Man," on Sunday. There is to be a special preview of the film tonight at 11, with a special stage feature including the Ten Commanders and a large cast of college talent.

Dorothy Jordan provides the feminine appeal in Haines' new comedy.

Norma Shearer at State
One of the most delightful and sophisticated comedies of the screen is "Let Us Be Gay," at the State theater starting Sunday, and the head of the cast is Norma Shearer. Any who have missed this excellent film should forego all else until the pleasant duty is accomplished.

The Greeks would have loved this Wrap-Around*

A flat stomach and smooth hips meant a lot to the Ancient Greeks—but they had to grow that way to achieve the effect. They had no Redfern to guide them.

We have! It's made of pink brocade in two tones. It has cleverly shaped elastic panels, and boning that hinges at the waistline to avoid untimely prods in the ribs. And it fits like your cherished dreams of a corset.

Yet you'll find me at the crossroads store"

When Jack's ashore he's liable to be going several places at once! But there's one thing Navy men can get together on—whether in Hong Kong, Seattle, or Newtown Center: Taste is what they want in their cigarettes—the taste that comes from milder and better tobaccos, and from nothing else! They know their cigarettes, these men of the fleet. That's why Chesterfield is the Navy's choice!

They Satisfy —that's Why!

FOR NINETEEN years, our Research Department has kept intimate touch with every new development of Science that could be applied to the manufacture of cigarettes. During this period there has been no development of tested value or importance to the smoker which we have not incorporated into the making of Chesterfield cigarettes.
