Team Beats Preppers in Practice Contest, 8-1; Rain Handicaps

Five More Games Left on Fresh Schedule, 4 With Rooks

Under the guidance of Prink Callison, who is dividing his time between spring football and baseball, about twenty-five yearling baseball aspirants have been turning out as regularly as present inclement weather conditions will permit.

University high provided the first competition of the season last Friday. The yearlings managed to bunch their hits at the right times and won, 8 to 1. Jean Eberhart, coach of the University nine, filled in for the preppers on the mound and managed to last through the game.

Ike Donin started on the mound for the yearlings and held his opponents to one hit for the three innings he was in the game. Don Weed took his place, and was hit hard and often.

Four Pitchers Out Donin and Al McKelligon seem to be the most promising hurlers at this time of the season. Besides Weed, the only other pitcher out is Carol Hallen. Donin comes from Lincoln high in Portland, where he was the mainstay of the prep outfit.

BASEBALL GAMES TODAY 4:00 Sigma Nu vs. Theta Chi. Soft Ball Sherry Ross vs. Phi Psi. Friendly vs. Sigma. 5:00 Omega vs. S. A. E.

Mike Balkovich appears to have the job of first string catcher cinched. He hits well and has a good throwing arm. Vince Gates is another likely prospect for backstop.

Harry McCall, who is holding down first base, appears to be the class of the infield. He comes from a family of big league ball players and shows the result of fine coaching in the manner in which he handles himself around the bag. Bill Lynds, Mickey Vail, and Dick Goldthwaite are holding down the remainder of the infield berths. Goldthwaite, a former all-star from Lincoln, is dividing his time between frosh tennis and baseball. Vail formerly played for Jefferson high in Portland.

Outfielders Look Good Jack Robertson, an all-star from Lincoln high, is the best bet in the outfield. Formerly a first baseman, Robertson was moved to the pastures to make way for McCall. He hits well and has a good arm. "Swede" Olson, from Klamath Falls, and Bud Van Dine, from Portland, are the other outfielders. Both are dependable hitters and add a punch to the batting list.

Six games have been scheduled for the frosh, according to Hugh Rosson, graduate manager. Two games with Eugene high and four with the Oregon State rooks are listed. The first scheduled game of the season will be Tuesday, April 21, when Eugene high will oppose Callison's nine. Dates for the remaining Eugene tilt and the games with Oregon State have not yet been decided, although May 15 and 16 are tentatively set for two of the frosh.

House Relays To Be Run off On Saturday

Three Cups Are Offered to Winning Quartets; Lettermen Out

Ten Fraternities Expected To Enter; Meet at Hayward Field

The annual intramural relays will be run off next Saturday, April 18, with approximately ten houses entered, according to Fred Reid, senior track manager. Three cups will be up for winners of the 440, half-mile, and distance medley relays.

Last year the Crown Drug company trophy for winners of the 440-yard relay was won by the Omega hall team. The S. A. E. quartet took the Underwood and Elliott cup for the half-mile, the Chi Psi's Eugene Automobile trophy for the distance medley, and the Phi Deltas the DeNeffe cup for the mile relay.

Three of these cups must be won three times before they become the permanent possession of the winning house. They will all be open to competition Saturday.

In order to be eligible for competition, all men participating must have signed up for track. Track and cross-country lettermen are barred. Men that are signed up and turned out regularly for other spring sports, such as baseball or spring football, may participate. Manager Reid stated last night that he wished the fact that only men signed up may enter plainly understood.

All houses planning to enter are requested to turn in their entry lists as soon as possible to Fred Reid, phone 2800, so that the lists may be completed and checked immediately. Complete list of entries and names of judges will be announced the last of this week.

SPRING DRAMA BILL TO BE BARRY BILL

Huskies Practice

Football reports from the camp of the Huskies up North indicate that their spring practice so far hasn't been anything to kick about. They have an impressive squad out, at least as far as numbers are concerned, for more than a hundred signed up. A description of the men says that the most noticeable aspect was the difference in stature of the 1931 squad over those of previous years. Short, squat fellows with powerful builds are going to rule the Washington gridiron. One of these individuals is Ted Isaacson, a mere waif of a sophomore, weighing 275 pounds.

New Track Coach

The latest thing in college track is the new automatic race timer. A simple device, designed and used at Haverford college, times a race accurately within one one-hundredth of a second. The mechanical clock is started by the sound of the starter's gun. It is stopped automatically when the runner intercepts a light beam thrown across the track at the tape. It is estimated that it takes .2 of a second for a human timer to start a watch after the gun is fired, so that the automatic device will increase times of races by that much. Without doubt those who are holding world records by a fifth of a second will hate to see such an errorless timing device in general use.

Footballers Return

Eric Forsta and Don Watts spent the last week in Portland receiving repairs. Forsta has returned and is wearing a cast on his leg which he complains is too heavy for brisk walking. Dr. Dillehunt, dean of the medical school, operated on his troublesome knee. Watts had his collar bone reset. He was to come back last night, and his fraternity brothers were preparing to meet him at the station with noise and music.

The Dough in Donut

From the house manager's point of view the difference between intramural soft-ball and real baseball is the "dough." The houses that entered the hard-ball league had to put up six new baseballs while the pills were furnished free to the soft-ballers. No wonder more houses signed up for the latter game. There are a few Scotchmen in any house. Well, rain is interfering with the donut league as it has ever since the writer can recall. Wonder if there wouldn't be time to get this stuff over yet start a little later in the season?

WHAT SHOW TONIGHT?

Colonial — "City Lights," with Charles Chaplin. Heilig — "The Lightning Flyer," with James Hall, Dorothy Sebastian. McDonald — "Once a Gentleman," with Edward Everett Horton. State — "Case of Sergeant Grischka," "Little Accident," double bill.

Chaplin Draws Capacity House Great crowds that fill the Colonial theatre four times daily are seeing Charles Chaplin defend the potency of silent pictures, the artistry of pantomime, and his past reputation, in his latest film, "City Lights."

All of the old Chaplin is there: waistcoat and baggy pants, cane, derby, and the Steve Smith mustache. There, too, are many faintly reminiscent gags, a goodly amount of hilarious new ones. Chaplin is always worth seeing; he is "rare avis" in the movie world, combining his often eloquent comedy with a touch of the vulgar, the hilarious, the pathetic, the romantic, and the overemphasized.

War Story Filmed The second of the great stories of the war to come from Germany to Hollywood appears on the screen of the State for the last time today, "The Case of Sergeant Grischka." While not the spectacle of "All Quiet on the Western Front," it has a flavor of its own, strong enough to cause thousands of readers to pronounce it the pro-founder of the two novels. It is showing in conjunction with "Little Accident," one of the most delightful ironic comedies of recent years. Douglas Fairbanks Jr., is featured in the latter film.

Heilig Has Melodrama The Heilig is featuring for the last time today, "The Lightning Flyer." It stars James Hall and Dorothy Sebastian. The story: a young man shockingly shows preference for wine, women, song, rather than his duties. His father throws him out. Getting a job under a false name, the prodigal falls in love with a yardmaster's daughter. Complications arise, none to soon, and Jimmie is transplanted to another job. There he prevents a horrible train wreck. Result: tableau of prodigal and youth in a clinch, proud father and father-in-law, amused naive portion of the public.

Edward Everett Horton Back Edward Everett Horton, double star of the rival "Lonely Wives," which was enjoyed so wholeheartedly at the McDonald a short time ago, appears in a new comedy at the same theatre today. "Once a Gentleman" is the story of a butler who, after being given a well earned vacation, gets into all sorts of trouble over a mistake of identity. The ingredients make an extraordinarily hilarious comedy. Horton is supported by Lois Wilson and George Fawcett.

Barn Dance Will Be Given by Order of O

The second annual barn dance of the Order of the O will be held Friday, May 22, in the Igloo, according to plans which were formulated at the bi-weekly meeting of the club held at the Phi Delta house last night.

Intent on making the dance a gala affair and a "big number" of the social season, the "O" named a committee to arrange for the details of the event. Roy Hughes was named chairman of the committee and, with George Christenson and Jack Erdley, will start immediately to organize plans for the dance.

After various committees reported on the activities of their groups, a nominating committee was appointed, consisting of Irv Schultz, Ralph Hill, and Cliff Horner. Elections will be held next Tuesday at a special meeting scheduled to be held at the Sigma Chi house, it was announced.

University To Be Represented at State Swim Meet

Eight Men to Enter Annual Event at Portland; Fletcher Out

Oregon will be represented by at least eight swimmers at the annual state indoor swimming meet to be held at the Multnomah club tank in Portland on April 25, Jack Hewitt, swimming coach, announced.

With the exception of Steve Fletcher, coach conference breast stroke champion, all the outstanding varsity swimmers, are expected to make the trip. Fletcher is out for spring football at the present time and is uncertain about making the trip.

Varsity lettermen who will make the trip to Portland, are Chuck Foster, Francis Oglesby, Bob Needham, Paul Lafferty, and Mac Miller, Harrison Spain, back stroker, may enter.

Among the freshmen who will compete are Gordon Corson and Marvin Rodda. Corson will enter the 50-yard back stroke and 100-yard free style. Rodda will enter the 200-yard breast stroke.

Foster and Oglesby will compete in the 500-yard swim and Foster will also enter the 220-yard swim, as will Needham.

Lafferty and Fletcher are billed for the breast stroke, while Miller will enter the 100 and 220-yard free style and Spain the 100-yard back stroke.

Multnomah club is conceded the best chance to take the meet because it will take many points in the women's events that will be denied Oregon and Oregon State.

What's YOUR favorite pipe tobacco?

Most PRINCETON men smoke—

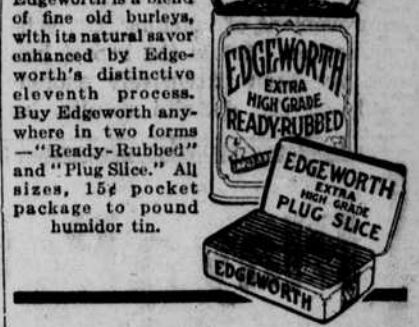

If you walk along Prospect Street in Princeton you'll notice how many men load their pipes from the familiar blue Edgeworth tin. At Senior Singing on the steps of Nassau Hall this spring the pipes will glow with Edgeworth.

A pipe and Edgeworth—this is the smoking combination that has won the college man. Yale, Dartmouth, Cornell, Illinois, Stanford... all agree with Princeton.

College men everywhere respond to the appeal of pipes—packed with cool, slow-burning Edgeworth. Be guided by their choice: Try Edgeworth yourself. Taste its rich natural savor that is enhanced immeasurably by Edgeworth's distinctive eleventh process.

You will find Edgeworth at your nearest tobacco shop—15¢ the tin. Or, for generous free sample, address Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va.
