Word Received of Jewell Ellis's Marriage

Of special interest to the campus is the announcement which has just been received at the Delta Gamma house telling of the marriage of Miss Jewell Ellis to John Hancock Keatley, ensign, U. S. N.

The wedding took place in Los Angeles on May 1, but the young couple plan to make their home at Annapolis, Maryland, after May 21.

Jewell Ellis

Mrs. Keatley will be remembered for her exceptionally fine work in the drama department, especially for her performance of Lady Joan in "The Last of Mrs. Cheyne."

Betty Schmeer and Lloyd Byerly Marry

The marriage of Miss Betty Schmeer to Lloyd A. Byerly took place Thursday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude F. Schmeer, in Medford.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Byerly are graduates of the University. He was a member of Kappa Sigma, and she of Alpha Phi. Mrs. Byerly is also a member of Mortar Board. They plan to make their home in Portland, where Mr. Byerly is in business.

A wedding trip to British Columbia followed the wedding service.

Helen Katenbrink Wed to Richard Kinsey

Of much interest to their many friends is the marriage of Miss Helen Katenbrink to Richard Kinsey, which took place in Los Angeles the early part of this month.

Mrs. Kinsey was a freshman on the campus two years ago and was affiliated with Delta Gamma. Mr. Kinsey, who is a member of Sigma Nu, was graduated in the same year.

The young couple plan to make their home in California.

Sigma Nus Have Arctic Atmosphere

Glistening, glittering, white snow icicles will turn the Sigma Nu dance, which is being given at the chapter house this evening, into an arctic affair. The lighting effects are to be played on the walls as if they were from the aurora borealis.

The long back yard which reaches down to the mill-race will be lighted and will be furnished with chairs and hammock swings.

Patrons and patronesses will be: Dean and Mrs. Hugh L. Biggs, Mr. and Mrs. George Godfrey, and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Goodrich. Bob Goodrich is in charge of the dance.

Mary Quite Contrary Visits Alpha Phi Dance

The garden of "Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary" has been confiscated by Alpha Phi for the dance which they are giving this evening.

Colored flowers will scramble on the walls; a goldfish pond has been put in the fireplace; there will be the "green fence that ran all around, all around"; and, too, there will be a silhouette of Mary, herself, on the wall.

Jane Carter is in charge of the event. The guests of honor will be: Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Mr. and Mrs. George Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gage, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Leslie Schwering, and Mrs. A. H. Wahl.

Profusion of Flowers for Betas

"So start the loving cup around Nor pass a brother by; We all drink from the same canteen In Beta Theta Pi."

Beta Theta Pi is entertaining tonight with its annual spring formal which is given in the house down on the mill-race. Colored lights will be strung under the water, and the house itself is to be turned into a perfumed garden of flowers.

The Biltmore trio of San Francisco will be the evening's feature.

The guests of honor will include: Dr. and Mrs. Charles Leslie Schwering, Mr. and Mrs. Beldon Babbs, and Mr. and Mrs. Nich Chapman. Bill Barendrick is in charge of the arrangements.

Juniors Honor Seniors at Breakfast

The seniors will be guests of the juniors tomorrow morning at the annual Junior-Senior breakfast, which is sponsored by the Y. W. C. A.

The affair will be held in Gerlinger hall at 8:30 o'clock. A "dawn idea" is to be carried out in the program and by the speeches.

Helen Chaney is toastmistress. Other speakers will be: Dean Charles Leslie Schwering, Mrs. John Maxwell Adams, Margaret Cummings, and Ann Baum.

Louise Webber is general chairman.

Phi Mu Gives Formal Dance

Colored floodlights, palms, and flowers will formally decorate the formal dance which Phi Mu is giving tonight at the Eugene hotel. Beulah Gore is in charge.

The patrons and patronesses will be: Mrs. Nelson Macduff, Miss Sue L. Badollet, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Baker, and Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Tiffany.

Pi Phi Has Modern Chinese Tea Garden

The house of Pi Beta Phi will be turned into a modern Chinese tea garden for the spring dance which is to be given this evening.

A huge Chinese dragon of black and gold will glare from the fireplace. Japanese lanterns, with black and gold dragons crawling over them, will be hung on the porch and in the yard. The windows will be painted with lacquer red and gold Chinese characters, and wisteria will hang in graceful clusters from the walls.

Edith Jessop is in charge of the plans. The patrons and patronesses will be: Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Scharf, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Dodds, Mrs. Ann Landsbury Beck, and Mrs. Harriet Benson.

Blue and Blue Used by Kappas

Kappa Kappa Gamma is planning to bed the walls of the chapter house with flowers of dark blue, light blue, and pink at the formal dinner dance which the members are giving tonight.

Lighting effects will be obtained from floodlights on the outside of the house.

The Kappa trio, composed of Janet Thacher, Lois Conover, and Betty Hudson, will feature during the evening. The programs are smartly designed and are of blue and blue.

The patrons and patronesses include Dr. and Mrs. Charles Leslie Schwering, Dr. and Mrs. James D. Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Manerud, Mr. and Mrs. Franz Wagner, and Mrs. Walter Doane.

Bachelordom Has Spring "Fun-Fest"

Coburg's dance hall, near Co-burg bridge, has been chosen as the scene for the Bachelordom "spring fun-fest," which is to be held tonight.

It will be a rustic affair with an old-fashioned barbecue, southern style, as the main feature of the evening.

Hal McNeil is in charge. Patrons and patronesses will include: Prof. and Mrs. F. S. Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morris, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Weber.

Susan Campbell Gives Informal at Osburn Hotel

Using a central idea of pink, the candles and flower centerpieces will be attractively arranged for the spring informal with which the residents of Susan Campbell are entertaining at the Osburn hotel this evening.

Dorothy Johnson is general chairman.

The guests of honor will include: Mrs. Prince L. Campbell, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Leslie Schwering, Miss Fanny McCamant, Miss Eula Duke, and Louis Artau.

Mahogany Programs Used for Sig Ep Dance

Programs of mahogany wood, carved in the shape of a shield and embossed with the fraternity crest, will be an outstanding feature of the formal dance which is being given tonight by Sigma Phi Epsilon.

The fraternity colors, crimson and purple, will be used for the color scheme and will be carried out in the flowers and lighting effects. Sing Harper's trio will feature.

Bill Doak is in charge. The patrons and patronesses will be: Dr. and Mrs. John R. Mez, Capt. and Mrs. C. H. Bragg, and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Morris.

Theta Omega Entertains at Craftsmen's Club

The annual spring dance of Theta Omega will be given this evening at the Craftsmen's club.

A garden idea is to be carried out. Punch will be served from an old-fashioned well. Rustic scenery and garden benches will carry out the general theme.

The patrons and patronesses will be: Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Pallett, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Leslie Schwering, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hawkins, and Mrs. John Herschner. Helen Parrish is in charge.

Barnyard Togs in Order for S. P. T. Dance

The Cloverleaf Dairy barn, where all the farmyard paraphernalia of cows, sheep, and hay are handy, will be the scene of a barn dance which the members of Sigma Pi Tau are giving tonight.

Overalls, coveralls, and milkmaid's garb, will be appropriate for the occasion.

Roger Biswell is general chairman, assisted by Phil Cogswell.

The chaperons will be: Mr. and Mrs. Irving Mather, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Marlatt, and Wendell Van Loan.

Delta Delta Delta Entertains at Eugene

Delta Delta Delta entertained last night with a formal dance at the Eugene hotel. The ballroom was unusually decorated by the use of a spring motif worked out in a modernistic way.

Bernice Congleton and Alberta Reeves were in charge of arrangements.

The patrons and patronesses included: Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Rogers, Dean and Mrs. James Gilbert, Mrs. Walter Socolofsky, and Mrs. N. P. Barbour.

Deltas Give Picnic and Breakfast Dance

One of the most delightful affairs which has been planned for today is the breakfast dance and picnic of Delta Tau Delta.

The breakfast dance begins at 10:30 o'clock and will last until noon. The decorations will carry out a spring motif, using flowers and a lattice work fence as if it were a garden.

The picnic, which will begin at 1 o'clock, is to be held at Dilley's picnic ground.

Treber Shawcross is in charge of the breakfast and Ed Robinson of the picnic.

The patrons and patronesses will be Mr. and Mrs. Gar Madden, Mr. and Mrs. E. Madden, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. DeNeffe, Mr. and Mrs. K. Branstetter, and George Robins.

Alpha Gam Uses Blue and Silver Sky Scene

A sky scene, using dark blue hangings on which stars, moons, and constellations shone, was used by Alpha Gamma Delta for their spring dance last night. The programs, done in blue and silver, carried out the same idea.

Constance McKenzie was general chairman, assisted by Phyllis Stokes, who had charge of decorations.

The patrons and patronesses included Mrs. Jeannette Lange, Miss Maud Kerns, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wheeler, and Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Fletcher.

Delta Gammas Turn Sport Enthusiasts

The Delta Gammas turned into sport fans yesterday evening (if they weren't already) when they were hostesses at a sport dance.

The walls were hung with canoe paddles, pennants, tennis racquets, and golf clubs. A ping pong table was set up on the porch and covered hammock swings were set on the lawns.

The chaperons were Dr. and Mrs. Charles Leslie Schwering, Mrs. George Russell, Mrs. Katherine Yerex, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Banks.

The freshmen, under the direction of Jane Holt, were in charge of the dance.

Chi Omega Decorates With Lavender and Yellow

Charming decorations, carrying out a yellow and lavender color scheme with lupin and iris, characterized the spring informal with which Chi Omega entertained last night.

The guests of honor were: Miss Mabel B. Potts, Mrs. Clifford Conly, Lieutenant and Mrs. Edward R. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn McCready, and Mr. and Mrs. Marian F. McClain.

Oregon Yeomen Have "Shirt Sleeve" Dance

Using a hunting lodge idea with guns, bows and arrows, and stuffed animal heads, the Oregon Yeomen entertained last night with an all-campus "shirt sleeve" dance at Gerlinger hall.

A delightful air of informality prevailed, and the Yeomen have decided to make this dance an annual one.

Clifton Culp was general chairman. The patrons and patronesses were: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Washke, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Shumaker, and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald H. Robnett.

Scotch Broom, Lupin Decorate for Hendricks

Hendricks hall used the wild Scotch broom and blue lupin for an effective decorative scheme which was carried out at the dance given by the residents at the hall last night, Laura Parcells was in charge.

The guests of honor were: Miss Consuello McMillan, George Robbins, the Rev. and Mrs. John Maxwell Adams, Miss Margaret Clarke, and Alfred Korn.

Over Fifty-Five Couples Attend Men's Dormitory Dance

Over 55 couples attended the dance which was given by the residents of the men's halls last night at the new dormitory.

Decorations were carried out with a Japanese motif. The lighting came from Japanese lanterns. The programs were of Japanese cloth of a soft greenish grey and a subtle, but still darker shade of green, mottled with gold. Purple lupin was used to bank the fireplace and in huge bowls. Lavender tapers, surrounded at the base with flowers, burned on the tables.

Beta Phi Alpha Swims In Green Marine Garden

As if it were under the sea in a marine garden, the Beta Phi Alpha house swam in a pool of green light at the upperclass dance which was held yesterday evening.

The walls were plastered with green paper on which long-armed octopus, sturgeon, star-fish, and anemones floated. The lighting came from outside of the house from green floodlights.

The patrons and patronesses included: Mrs. May F. Burkhart, Miss Grace Ash, Mrs. Jennie Burrows, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Knapp.

New BEAUTY...in a wrist watch already famous for accuracy

Official observatory tests—actual service on the wrists of thousands of men—have won for the Gruen Quadrant the distinction of being—"the nearest approach to pocket watch accuracy ever put on the wrist." IN congratulating the winners in the great Camel contest we want at the same time to thank most cordially the approximately million men and women who displayed their friendly interest by sending in an entry.

We wish also to thank the millions of smokers throughout the country for the appreciation they are showing for our new Humidor Pack as is evidenced by the notable increase in the sale of Camel cigarettes.

By means of this dust-proof, germ-proof, moisture-proof Cellophane wrapping the rich aroma and full flavor of choice Turkish and mellow Domestic tobaccos have been air-sealed in Camels for your enjoyment.

If you have not tried Camels in the Humidor Pack all we ask is that you switch over to this brand for one day.

After you have learned how much milder, how much cooler, how much more enjoyable it is to smoke a perfectly conditioned fresh cigarette, go back to the harsh hotness of stale cigarettes if you can.
