Yearling Tracksters Take But Three Firsts In Meet

Twitchell Breaks Record; Three Meet Marks Equalled

CORVALLIS, May 22.—(Special)—Taking only three firsts against the strong Oregon State track squad, the Webfoot freshmen came out on the short end of a 78.1-6 to 43.5-6 score in the annual yearling meet this afternoon on Bell field.

Three men, Norm Daniels and Irving Huesner, frosh, and Colver, rook, tied the pole-vault mark of 11 feet 6 inches. Running the 440 in 51 flat, Jim Emmett, rook sprinter, tied the best existing mark in that event.

Oregon, OSC Vie Today in Dual Net Meet

Matches To Be Played Here On University Tennis Courts

Varsity Contests Scheduled For 2 P. M.; Frosh To Battle at 10 A. M.

The Oregon varsity and freshman tennis squads meet Oregon State teams in a dual meet here today. The matches will be played on the University tennis courts, with the frosh of both squads slated to start play at 10 a. m. and the varsity aggregations scheduled to begin their battles at 2 p. m. There will be five singles and two doubles matches each in the varsity and freshman meets.

The Webfoot varsity netmen to play the singles tilts are Jack Rhine, Joe Kalsky, Tom Mountain, Ray Adams, and Del Thom. The two doubles teams are the Rhine-Kalsky and Mountain-Adams combinations. The Beaver varsity net squad will probably consist of five men.

The Oregon yearlings who will play the singles contests are Bob Johnson, Don Lewis, Dick Goldthwaite, Jim Edmiston, and Darrell Cornell. The doubles teams to oppose the rook combinations are the Johnson-Lewis and Goldthwaite-Edmiston pairings. The rook squad will probably be made up of five raquet wielders.

The Oregon State squads have yet to taste victory over the Webfoot net teams this year. In a dual meet at Corvallis last month, the Oregon varsity and frosh players won team victories over the Beavers, the varsity winning four matches to three, and the frosh trouncing the rooks, five matches to two. Again in the Northwest playoffs held in Seattle early this month, the O. S. C. raquetees were not very successful against the Duck netmen.

Burt Brown Barker, vice-president of the University, spoke at Weston and Marcola. Victor P. Morris, associate professor of economics, will give addresses at Bay City, Garibaldi, and Nehalem. W. G. Beattie, associate professor of education, will speak at Vida; Eric W. Allen, dean of the school of journalism, at Sutherlin; Howard R. Taylor, associate professor of psychology, at Gardiner and Reedsport; Nowland B. Zane, associate professor of architecture and allied arts, at Vernonia; Walter E. Hempstead, instructor in public speaking, at Blachly; and John M. Rae, associate professor of business administration, at Lorane. Harold S. Tuttle, associate professor of education, will give the baccalaureate sermon at Lorane.

University Symphony To Appear Thursday

The University symphony orchestra will play its first all-companiment program next Thursday night in the music building auditorium at 8:15 o'clock. Five student musicians will appear on the program as soloists. The orchestra will accompany them in a program designed to test the public taste for this type of concert.

Names of the soloists will be announced later, Dr. John J. Landsbury, dean of the school of music, said yesterday.

Two World Beaters

This is Bill Hayward, trainer of many champions, with his present, and probably greatest, protege of them all, Ralph Hill, world's mile champion. This afternoon is the last time Ralph will carry the Webfoot colors on Hayward field.

Ralph Hill Quietly Confident He May Break Mark Again

"I can do it." This was the assertion of Ralph Hill, holder of the world's intercollegiate mile record, when he was asked if he thought he could break the world's all-time record of four minutes, ten and two-thirds seconds, set several years ago by Paavo Nurmi, premier Finnish runner.

Hill was not boasting. He is not the type that would, despite the fact that he has all the reason in the world to do so. Rather, he was just commenting—commenting on his pace and the fact that he has perfected that pace to exact timing—a thing not many distance runners can do.

The great runner was talking to a group of interested men in the Igloo, when someone asked him whether he would try to break his own record, a mark some two seconds slower than Nurmi's.

Coupled with Hill's belief that he has even a faster race "in him" than the one in which he set his record, was Hayward's statement.

Honoraries Slate Big Get-Together Banquet Tuesday

Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Xi Expect 125 Guests for Initiations

The Phi Beta Kappa-Sigma Xi joint banquet to be held Tuesday night at the Osburn hotel will mark the annual pre-initiation get-together of the two honoraries. Sigma Xi, national scientific honorary, will this year be the guests of the scholastic honorary, as Phi Beta Kappa members will arrange the banquet and draw up the program.

Visiting members of Sigma Xi are coming from the Oregon State college chapter and from the University of Oregon medical school chapter at Portland. Advance reservations indicate that over 125 guests will come from these two chapters to the meeting here.

Initiations Precede
Initiations for the two honoraries will take place Tuesday afternoon preceding the banquet. Thirty-four pledges to Sigma Xi will receive membership at 5 o'clock in the men's lounge at Gerlinger building, while the 25 Phi Beta Kappa pledges will be initiated at 5:15 in alumni hall. Of the Sigma Xi new members, 11 will be active members and 23 associate members.

The program for the banquet calls for toast speeches from John Mueller, president of Phi Beta Kappa, and A. R. Sweetser, president of Sigma Xi, to be followed by short responses from each of the newly elected members. Dr. Carl Doney, president of Willamette university, will give the main address of the evening.

Address To Be Public
The banquet, for which tickets are selling for $1, is open only to members of the honoraries, and is scheduled to begin at 6:30. Dr. Doney's address is open to the public, and is scheduled for 8 o'clock.

Phi Beta Kappa pledges who will receive membership are Beatrice Bennett, Mary Agnes Hunt, Lillian Allison, Mary Caniparoli,

Cosmopolites of Three Campuses To Frolic Today

University, O.S.C., Albany Clubs Hold Eighth Annual Picnic

A joint picnic and get-together will be held by the University Cosmopolitan club, and the Cosmopolitan clubs from Oregon State college and Albany college at Idlewood park this afternoon, according to Edna Spenser, president of the Oregon group.

This picnic, which is an annual affair, has been held by the clubs of the two state institutions for the past eight years. This is the first year in which the Albany club has participated.

Only those who have signed up may come, Clare Maertens, secretary, announced last night, due to the lack of adequate transportation. Thirty members of the local group have made arrangements to go. Those going will leave the International house at 1:30 this afternoon.

The afternoon will be spent in contests and stunts. Each club presents a stunt, and a baseball game between the groups is the feature of the day. A picnic supper will be served at 5 o'clock.

The members of the committee from the Oregon club are Mildred McGee, stunts; Max Pulido, baseball game; Dorothy Foote, food; and Lois Greenwood, transportation.

The local Cosmopolitan club held a picnic last Tuesday evening at the home of J. A. Cressy on College Crest. At this meeting Dr. Warren D. Smith showed the club his pictures on South America, and served them with Paraguay tea.

Roger Pfaff, member of the club, told of his trip around the Pacific basin, which he will take as a member of the debate squad.

An innovation at this meeting was the singing of songs under the leadership of Francis Jones, newly appointed song chairman. It was announced that Mildred Wharton has been put in charge of a committee to compose songs for the club.

At the last executive council meeting of the club the nominating committee for next year's officers was chosen. This consists of Dorothy Davidson, chairman; Jose Pimental, Mildred McGee, Bobby Robinson, and Dr. L. O. Wright, faculty adviser.

The next meeting of the club, June 2, will have a Hawaiian motif.

Seven Women Chosen

Seven new members have been initiated into Samara, women's botany honorary. They are Elizabeth Hall, Anna Evans, Miriam Stafford, Virginia Stanton, Laverne Stone, Helen Smith, and Florence Woughter.

Miss It at Your Risk—

When you think of all the years, and all the track men that have been competing throughout them since they have been keeping records, it makes you sit up and take notice to think that right out here on Hayward field this afternoon there is a possibility of some Webfoot or Beaver man surpassing an all-time mark. We remember how many people were disappointed last year because they didn't turn out to see the meet in which Ralph Hill crashed the world's intercollegiate record in the mile. There is a possibility that it may be bad weather this afternoon, but anyone who wants to be certain of not missing a great performance had better be in the grandstand.

Last Appearances—

Another thing we have to notice, and with regret, is that today will be the last local appearance on Hayward field of three of the greatest track men Oregon has ever had. Unless you go to the Northwest championship meet next week at Seattle, it will be your last chance to see Ed Moeller put his strength behind the discus throw, the last time to see Bobby Robinson flash down the runway and leap high into the air and over the pole-vault bar, and your last opportunity to see the slim Ralph Hill set that torrid pace of his around the four laps of the mile.

We're Betting on Hayward

Today's meet seems to be all even as far as dope is concerned, but we have a feeling that unless the breaks go haywire, or to the Staters completely, foxy old Bill Hayward will manage somehow to win. What is going to make the meet thrilling will possibly not be the feats of the great stars, but instead, the several races in which the two teams are very closely matched. And then there's the
