

O.S.C., Oregon To Stage Joint Homecoming

Penland Selected Head Of Group in Charge
Directorate Will Be Named Next Week; Fray To Be Real Drawing Card

For the first time in the history of the two schools, the University of Oregon and Oregon State college will unite forces, and will hold a joint homecoming celebration in Eugene, November 14, the date of the annual Oregon-Oregon State football clash.

Brian Minnaugh, A. S. U. O. president, announced last night. He John Penland, Pendleton, has been appointed as chairman of the week-end event. The decision of the Oregon State officials to join the University in the week-end festivities is due to the fact that the Beavers have no important game scheduled on their home field for the rest of the year to draw the grads back, Minnaugh revealed.

"This will doubtless be the greatest homecoming celebration in the history of the University of Oregon," he said. "With the student bodies and grads of both schools in attendance, as well as the horde of football enthusiasts connected with neither school that make the annual pilgrimage to the 'big' intrastate game, Eugene should entertain one of the largest crowds within memory."

Minnaugh said that while the joint celebration was a settled fact, full arrangements and particulars have not been entirely settled upon, but will be forthcoming next week.

Speaking of the appointment of Penland as chairman, the student body president said: "Chairman of the Homecoming committee is one of the most responsible appointments of the year and demands a man with a large amount of organizing ability and one who can handle a large group. In the many important posts which he has held in the past, John has shown himself fully qualified to handle this position, and upon his shoulders will rest the success of this year's celebration."

Penland was chairman of Junior Shine day last year and has served on numerous class and student body committees during the past three years.

Penland stated that the directorate appointments would be announced some time early next week.

Sophomore Class Meets 7:30 Tonight in Villard

Committee To Be Appointed for Sophomore Informal

A meeting of the sophomore class will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the assembly room upstairs in Villard hall.

The main business of the evening will concern the approaching Sophomore Informal. Al McKeligion, president of the class, announced that committees for the dance will be appointed at the meeting, in preparation for the work which will be started as soon as possible. He urges that all members of the class make it a special point to be there.

Dr. N. L. Bossing Speaks At Teachers' Institute

As one of the principal speakers at the Teachers' Institute meeting held in Tillamook last week, Dr. Nelson L. Bossing of the education department spoke to the two general assemblies on "Teaching as a Profession" and "Education—Whither Bound?"

Dr. Bossing also discussed with the high school teachers division, of which he had charge, the purpose of supervision in Oregon schools and the practical program of supervision for the smaller schools.

All Women Asked To Attend Formal Tea on Thursday

IT has been necessary to correct the impression created in yesterday's Emerald that only freshman women are invited to the A. W. S. formal tea Thursday afternoon in honor of Nella Roster.

Ann Baum, A. W. S. president, wishes to urge every woman student to attend the affair, since it is the first social function of the year in women's activities and affords an opportunity for students to meet personally Miss Roster, the foreign scholar from Florence, Italy.

Jette Announces Committees for Dad's Day Plans

Speakers Urge Students To Invite Fathers for Annual Meeting

A campaign among all of the living organizations to urge students to write home to their fathers and invite them to Dad's day is being launched today. A list of the working committees for the advertising of the annual affair, which will be held October 24, was released last night by Kenneth Jette, general chairman, and Edward Schweiker, advertising chairman.

Speakers Named

The A. S. U. O. speakers of 15 girls will speak today at noon at the different living organizations. This committee consists of Esther Hayden, Helen Shingle, Helen Binford, Madeleine Gilbert, Marjory Swafford, Phoebe Greenman, Edith Peterson, Nancy Suomela, Elizabeth Scruggs, Jean Failing, Margaret Roberts, Maxine Reed, Betsy Steiwer, Margaret Hunt, and Caroline Card.

The decoration committee, consisting of Tom Tongue, chairman, Roland Larson, Harold Olson, Harold Birkenshaw, Chuck Clay, George Chamberlain, Glen Hieber, and John Kendall, will have charge of decorating the campus and of placing Dad's day banners on the Administration building.

To Take Pictures

Provisions are being made for group pictures of the Dads at the banquet and pictures of the officers elected for the coming year. The committee which will have charge of the pictures is made up of George Turner, chairman, Dunham Howard, Ed Schlessler, and Roy McMullen.

Other committees for publicity, special features, banquet, and registration will be announced at a later date.

Listed on Dad's day events are entertainments at each of the houses, an afternoon smoker with a broadcast of the North Dakota football game, a banquet on the evening of the 24th, and a night football game between the Oregon freshmen and the O. S. C. Rocks.

Student's Work Appears In Oct. Dance Magazine

Francis Mullins, senior in journalism, is the author of "Six Reasons for Failure," an article appearing in the October number of "The Dance."

Mullins secured his material from his work as manager of the Merrick Dance Studios here. His work with University students, especially beginners, brought out the six reasons for failure for which dance schools and instructors must be on the look-out.

Using information gained by his analysis, Mullins intends to specialize in ballroom classes. A new class for beginners starts Thursday evening.

Physical Education Club To Hold Party Thursday

On Thursday evening at 8 o'clock the Physical Education club is holding a get-together party for the incoming freshmen and the old members of the department, in the women's lounge of Gerlinger hall.

This year, the P. E. club has instituted the Sponsor Plan, assigning the new freshmen to members of the club, who will acquaint them with activities on the campus.

Coast Gridiron Body To Probe Eligibility Rule

Semi-Pro Baseball Men To Be Discussed

Conference of All Faculty Members Is Slated for Portland Tomorrow

BY WALT BAKER

As a climax to last week's reported investigation of the eligibility of Joe Lillard, Oregon halfback star, Conference Czar Jonathan A. Butler's findings will bring about a meeting of the Pacific Coast conference faculty representatives in Portland tomorrow. This fact was divulged last night, when Prof. H. C. Howe, Oregon representative, received a telephone call from Prof. W. B. Owens of Stanford, president of the conference, stating that communications had been sent to all the representatives on the coast. Replies from the schools confirmed the meeting.

The eligibility of coast conference athletes who have participated in semi-professional baseball games will be a paramount issue of the meeting, although the report is out that other business will be discussed. Such a case is thought highly improbable due to the fact that the board never convenes until the end of the current season, and only a matter of great importance could bring them together.

Butler Oversteps Authority

Butler seems to have overstepped his authority in permitting his findings to become public at this early date. He was brought to the coast for one year to observe, and then submit his findings, with or without recommendations to the faculty representatives at the end of the year. This bombshell into the ranks of intercollegiate football comes entirely unwarranted and will cause no little havoc in the schools affected.

The question of semi-professional eligibility receiving so much publicity is entirely liable to come under the eyes of the national A. A. U. and the question under consideration, "the gentleman's agreement" between conference schools to overlook semi-pro baseball playing, is entirely contrary to the rulings of this body.

Oregon Men To Attend

At the present time it is impossible to foresee the outcome of tomorrow's meeting, although it is of such importance that Professor Howe and Ronald Robnett, assistant graduate manager, will leave for Portland tonight, but it is safe to point out that some definite action must be taken.

Although the eligibility of Joe Lillard is receiving most of the attention, he is the only one out of many attending schools on the coast and participating in athletics who would be affected by any possible decision at the meeting.

Prose and Poetry Group Will Entertain at Meeting

Faculty Women To Be Guests of Philomelete Girls

Mrs. Alice Ernst, instructor in English, Mrs. Hazel P. Schwering, dean of women, and Mrs. Alice B. Macduff, assistant dean of women, will be guests of Prose and Poetry group of Philomelete at a short social meeting to be held this evening from 9 to 10 at the Kappa Delta house.

Mrs. Clara M. Smertenko, of the Greek and Latin department, honorary member of the group, has just returned from California, where she has been ill. Miss Margaret Pollitt, president, expressed the hope that Mrs. Smertenko would return in time for this first meeting of the hobby group. However, Mrs. Smertenko wishes to take up her class-room work some time during the year, according to Dean James H. Gilbert, of the school of literature, science, and the arts, relieving George Belknap, graduate assistant, who has taken over her Greek class, and Mrs. Edna Landros, who is teaching Latin in her place, and she will probably make no evening engagements for a time.

Mrs. Ernst will give a short, informal talk on some phase of poetry, and will aid the group in the preparation of a program for future meetings.

Frosh Show Lively Interest In 'Inside' Political Affairs

Nominees Plan Platforms As Two Campaigns Get Under Way

This is freshman politics week. Placarded telephone posts today gave the first outward appearance of the deeper "inside stuff" going on; while knots of eager, green-lidded talkers denoted something more than merely campus gossip in the air.

Now that the football game is over, the thread can be taken up after being temporarily dropped at last Friday's nominations. Campaigning by the two party leaders, Joe Renner and Howard Steib, began in earnest today when houses and halls were canvassed and party platforms explained.

Meetings were held by both factions last night, the Renner party meeting at the Kappa Sigma house, while the Steib group met at the Pi Beta Phi house. Representatives from supporting houses and halls attended and plans for further campaigning discussed. It is rumored that Steib and his followers have some surprise moves ready to be announced soon.

No changes in party lineups have been made, and when the polls open Friday the class will probably vote for the same candidates they saw nominated last Friday. These are, in the Steib party, Howard Steib, for president; Kay Saunders, for vice-president; Kay Dunbar, for secretary; Ed Thomas, for treasurer. In the Renner party, Joe Renner, for president; Althea Peterson, for vice-president; Mary Gould Parsons, for secretary; Bob Zurcher, for treasurer.

Y.W.C.A. Seabeck Division To Meet October 15 to 18

Former Oregon Student Is Chairman; Baum and Chaney To Attend

The annual meeting of the Y. W. C. A. Seabeck division will be held from Thursday to Sunday, October 15 to 18, at Rock Creek, Oregon. This executive group for the intercollegiate organization of the Y. W. C. A. is composed of students from Oregon, Washington, Idaho, and Montana.

Oregon will be represented at the conference by Mary Klemm, former Oregon student, who is chairman of the organization and of this meeting, and also by Elizabeth Scruggs, elected by the division to carry the industrial interests throughout the region.

Mrs. Hazel P. Schwering, dean of women; Mrs. Alice B. Macduff, assistant dean; Margaret Edmundson, secretary of the Y. W. C. A.; Ann Baum, president of the Associated Women Students; and Helen Chaney, president of the Y. W. C. A., will also attend the meeting.

The program for the conference is as follows: Friday morning—discussion of the place of the Y. W. C. A. on the University campus; Friday afternoon—discussion of division projects; Saturday—Discussion of the possible reorganization of the Y. W. C. A. in relation to other Christian organizations and other women's associations. Sunday—Discussion of disarmament as a national project, looking forward to the world conference in February at Geneva. All students as represented through the World Student Christian Federation, of which the Y. W. C. A. is a part, are taking a special interest in this question of disarmament.

National 'Y' Secretary Talks to Student Group

Finance Employment Will Be Discussed Today

Dr. Raymond B. Culver, northwest secretary of the national student Y. M. C. A., spoke to a group of men at a supper meeting last night at the home of Mrs. Charlotte Donnelly, secretary of housing and employment.

He outlined the practices followed by various organizations in working out financial campaigns and employment surveys. A cabinet meeting of the University Y. M. C. A. is scheduled for this afternoon at 4 o'clock to consider definite plans for these two activities.

Men present at the meeting included R. B. Porter, secretary of the campus "Y," Rolla Reedy, Jay Wilson, Willard Arant, Merlin Blais, Don Saunders, Lloyd Brown, Ray Woodruff, Wallace Campbell, and Carroll Pawson.

Oregon Graduate To Talk At Westminster Tonight

Miss Helen Whitaker, who for the past five years has been stationed in Changsha, China, under the direction of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, will address the Westminster Guild tonight at 9 o'clock at Westminster house.

Miss Whitaker is a University of Oregon graduate, in Eugene on a year's furlough, and is enrolled in the graduate school this year.

Oregon Debaters Triumph Abroad Against Filipinos

Orations on Imperialism Excite Near Riots In Manila

Oregon's Pacific Basin Debate team won a signal victory at Manila yesterday against a team from the University of the Philippines on the question, "Resolved, That imperialism is a benefit," wire dispatches from the Associated Press reported last night.

Taking the affirmative of the question, Roger Pfaff, Robert T. Miller, and Dave Wilson won a three to two judges' decision before a crowd of more than 1000 people. Other thousands heard the debate by radio.

Anti-imperialistic oratory of the Philippine speakers was reported to have aroused radio listeners in the streets, and brought scattered riot calls.

Speakers Chosen By Ann Baum To Visit All Houses

Special Committee to Make Announcements During Entire Year

Under the authority of Brian Minnaugh, A. S. U. O. president, a new speaker's committee has been created to make all announcements pertaining to matters of campus-wide interest in the various living organizations.

The women appointed to handle the work were chosen by Ann Baum, A. W. S. president, on a basis of their active participation in extra-curricular activities, their speaking ability, and capacity for assuming responsibility.

The committee this year has handled the publicity for the Idaho-Oregon game in Portland, the Y. W. C. A. drive, and Dad's day. The group will act as a standing committee and will have sole authority to make announcements concerning University functions.

Those acting as speakers under the chairmanship of Marguerite Tarbell are: Helen Binford, Helen Shingle, Elizabeth Scruggs, Madeleine Gilbert, Margaret Roberts, Phoebe Greenman, Caroline Card, Betsy Steiwer, Esther Hayden, Jean Failing, Edith Peterson, Nancy Suomela, and Marjorie Swafford. Margaret Hunt is acting as secretary for the group.

Washke Named Official In Oregon P. E. Society

At a meeting of the Oregon Physical Education association at Reed college in Portland last Saturday, Paul R. Washke, director of the men's gymnasium at the University, was elected vice-president of that group for the coming year.

Mr. Washke and other members of the physical education department attended the convocation, which is an annual affair of the society.

Oregon Spirit Will Prevail at U.S.C. Contest

Banquet Is Feature of Pre-Game Preparations

Yell Leader, 80-Piece Band And Rooting Section To Promote Pep

A special 80-piece band, 4000 Oregon song and yell programs, rooters' megaphones, a yell leader, and a get-together banquet on the night before the game are only part of the preparations made by the Oregon alumni of Los Angeles, through cooperation with the campus alumni association, in order to transport Oregon pep and enthusiasm to the scene of scrimmage with U. S. C. at Los Angeles this coming week-end.

Jeannette Calkins, secretary of the alumni association, announced at her office yesterday afternoon that a veritable barrage of letters and telegrams have come from Don Belding, president of the Los Angeles alumni chapter, making arrangements for the special rooting section to be set aside and the various other features. Already more than 250 tickets have been sold to Oregon alumni in Los Angeles alone.

Will Honor Spears

The alumni banquet, to be held the night before the game at the Los Angeles Athletic club, will honor "Doc" Spears and Bill Hayward and other members of the coaching staff. The entertainment includes "plenty of movie and radio talent," according to one letter received by Miss Calkins. The committee planning the banquet is: Don Belding, Mrs. D. K. Park, Dan Orput, "Skinney" Newton, Dan Park, Frank Allen, and Milton Stoddard, all Oregon alums living in and around Los Angeles.

Don Orput, graduate of the University in '16, and once Oregon's yell leader, has promised to lead the rooting section in all the songs and yells throughout the game and has issued special instructions to the alums to sit in the chosen section. Through his efforts an 80-piece band has been secured to represent Oregon. Last week four complete orchestras of "Mighty Oregon" were sent down for the band to use. Several capes from the campus band's uniforms, and probably rooters' caps for the bunch, will be forwarded by Doc Robnett, who had secured the use of the garments.

Yell Program Printed

"Lend us a lung!" is the catchline of the 4,000 green and yellow song and yell programs printed by the alumni association to be distributed in the rooting section to encourage everyone within the section to yell for Oregon. On the programs are included four Oregon yells, and the words to "Mighty Oregon" and "On Oregon." "You're on the Oregon side! You're in the Oregon rooting section! Root for Oregon!" is the command on the programs. Green and yellow megaphones for the rooters are being supplied by a California gasoline company.

"We are the only northwest college giving a team rooting section support," writes Orput in a recent telegram to the campus.

In order to keep the committee in Los Angeles in touch with the preparations made here on the campus, the Daily Emerald has been forwarded to the chairman for the past two weeks.

Men Will Organize Group To Study Foreign Creeds

"The Religions of the World," is the interest around which a new group for men is being organized at Westminster house at 9 o'clock on Wednesday evening.

For several years the Westminster Guild has given the girls of the campus an opportunity to learn of the life and religion of other races and nations. There has been such an enthusiastic desire among certain men of the campus for similar opportunities that this new group is now being organized. Otto Vonderheit, chairman of study groups for the Westminster association, will preside at the first meeting and effect the permanent organization. It is expected that the group will develop a wide range of interests and activities besides the study of the various religions of the world.

Non-Resident and Course Fees for Term Due Today

BEGINNING today, students are asked to report to the cashier's window to pay non-resident fees, class fees, and course fees, or to inquire whether or not they owe anything.

The "dead line" is October 24. After that date a late-payment fee of $2.00 for the first day, with an additional 25 cents for each additional day, will be added to the amount of the unpaid fees.

Squad To Leave For U. S. C. Fray Amid Giant Rally

Mathews Will Direct Big Pre-Game Pep Display At S. P. Station

Oregon students will meet today at 12:40 at the Southern Pacific depot to stage a mammoth rally send-off for the Oregon football team when it leaves for Los Angeles, according to Carson Mathews, head of the rally committee.

Houses are asked to cooperate with the committee in every manner possible in sending representatives to the station. The send-off is scheduled in time to permit students' returning to their 1-o'clock classes.

In addition to student yells, the band will be in attendance to play Oregon songs. Members of the band are requested to be at the depot by 12:30. They will not be in uniform.

As this game with the University of Southern California is considered the crucial game at present in the conference season, all backing the team receives from the students will buoy up the morale of the players, and increase chances of winning, stated Mathews. Consequently, everyone is urged to turn out and show the team that it has the enthusiastic support of the entire student body.

The California reception has been guaranteed by the southern alumni association, which has made plans for a true Oregon demonstration to welcome the team. With a rallying send-off from Eugene and a whole-hearted southern reception, the psychology effected should result in another Oregon victory.

With this belief in mind, the rally committee, composed of 14 students, including Mathews, will lead this noon's rally. The committee is composed of Hal Short, Ferd Fletcher, Jack Wood, Gordon Day, Ethan Newman, Hugh Chapman, Marjorie Swafford, Lucille Webber, Marguerite Tarbell, Marie Meyers, Louise Krause, Ellen Sersanous, and Esther Hayden.

All announcements and introductions and two addresses were given in Spanish. One address was given by Maximo M. Pulido on "Cultural Influence of Spain in the Philippines." The other was given by Anita A. Knotts, who described how her father was held for ransom by Pancho Villa. Everett Jones played several Spanish harmonica selections.

Bob Wilson, president of the club, outlined the significance of "El Dia de la Raza," and explained that this is the same day in Spain as Columbus day is in the United States, and that its origin was the discovery of America by Columbus, under the auspices of Queen Isabella.

The Spanish club concluded the celebration by singing popular Spanish songs.

Manager of San Francisco Paper Visitor on Campus

Clarence Lindner, general manager of the San Francisco Examiner, was a visitor on the campus last week. Mr. Lindner stopped here en route to Portland on a business trip, with his wife.

Mr. Lindner visited the school of journalism and the University press while here, showing particular interest in the fine arts printing projects executed by members of the class in typography. He is a friend of John Henry Nash, of San Francisco, who is a leading sponsor of this type of work. Mr. Nash is well known on the campus, having made several visits here in recent years.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindner were dinner guests of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, of which their son Dudley, a freshman in journalism, is a pledge.

Tabard Inn Holds First Meeting Thursday Night

Tabard Inn, men's honorary writing fraternity, will hold its first meeting of the year when the group gathers Thursday evening at the home of Kenneth Shumaker, 1369 Emerald street. The election of a president and discussion of plans for the year will take up part of the evening. The meeting has been called for 7:45.

100 Per Cent Goal For 1932 Oregana Drive

Representatives Work On Subscriptions

Pep Meeting Starts Three-Day Circulation Drive, Ending October 15

Houses started to work hard for a 100 per cent Oregana subscription and first prize last night after the peppy meeting at the Kappa house which started the three-day circulation drive to end on October 15. The gathering of the staff and house representatives agreed with Roger Bailey that this will be the biggest and most successful drive that the Oregana has ever witnessed.

Workers will meet again at the Phi Delta Theta house on Thursday evening at 7:30 as the drive progresses.

Maxine Reed, assistant circulation manager, showed that the drive was organized down to the minutest detail. Extensive advertising, the offering of prizes, and careful organization are expected to aid materially in the success of this huge campaign.

The entire method of the circulation drive was explained by Eddie Wells, circulation manager. The men's living organizations have been divided into several groups, with one man in charge of a group of houses. This system will make the checking of circulation much more systematic. The men heading these sections are: Sheldon Dunning, Rudolph Crommelin, John King, Roy McMullen, and Charles Webber.

Frances Johnston and Gordon Day, assistant managers of the business staff, after being introduced to their fellow workers and the representatives gave pep talks on what was to be expected of the business department.

Representatives are urged to work for the complimentary copy of the yearbook which they will receive when their organization pledges themselves 100 per cent.

Club Honors Columbus On 'El Dia de la Raza'

Spanish Students Celebrate Day of Discovery

El Dia de la Raza, The Day of the Race, was celebrated by La Corrida de Todas, the campus Spanish club, Monday night at Westminster house.

All announcements and introductions and two addresses were given in Spanish. One address was given by Maximo M. Pulido on "Cultural Influence of Spain in the Philippines." The other was given by Anita A. Knotts, who described how her father was held for ransom by Pancho Villa. Everett Jones played several Spanish harmonica selections.

Bob Wilson, president of the club, outlined the significance of "El Dia de la Raza," and explained that this is the same day in Spain as Columbus day is in the United States, and that its origin was the discovery of America by Columbus, under the auspices of Queen Isabella.

The Spanish club concluded the celebration by singing popular Spanish songs.

Michigan Education Man Oregon Alumnus Visitor

One of the distinguished visitors who visited the campus last week was Dr. Francis Curtis, dean of the school of education at the University of Michigan. Dr. Curtis, according to Dr. Nelson A. Bossing, of the school of education, is considered the foremost authority of today on the pedagogy of science teaching. He graduated from Oregon, receiving his bachelor's degree in 1912 and his master's degree in 1920.

While he was here, Dr. Curtis spoke before the Education club on the value of formal corrections.
