LEMON PALOOKA

We notice in our favorite paper that the Kappa Deltas were victorious over the Phi Deltas in a swim meet. Here is the headline to prove it—

Kappa Delta and S. A. E. Victorious In Swim Tourney

We hand a pat on the back to Little Irvin who yesterday told us that they were quite athletic. What won't they try next?

GIRLS ATTENTION!—A local footwear merchant is offering shoes for nothing. For further information look at the advertisement at the bottom of the fourth column of the back page of yesterday's Emerald.

We see that somebody found a ladies' wrist watch on the Beta lawn and are advertising for its owner. We didn't know that the Beta's had gone in for White Slavery.

What's Dr. Schumacher hobbling around for? It looks like he got in one of Russ Cutler's Sigma Delta Psi classes.

Speaking of youthful prodigies: Nursing Professor Will Speak Before Alpha Tau

The above may be found in yesterday's paper.

And now Little Irvin comes forward to give the lowdown on the I Felta Deta.

CAMPUS CALENDAR

Sigma Delta Chi will hold an important meeting at 4 o'clock today in 104 Journalism.

Very important meeting of all office girls at Y. W. C. A. this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

All men wishing to turn out for the all-campus boxing tournament to be held in the near future are to report to Holbrook Watts in the men's gym today at 4 p. m.

The Heart Bomb Of Aunt Eppie

Dear Aunt Eppie:

I am a big he-man student in a prominent University. I go out for all the sports (and girls). Up until last week I rated ace high with all of the girls. Since then I have been kicked out of four sorority house living rooms. What have I done to deserve such treatment?

Expectantly,
Joe Blow.

Dear Joe Blow:

From reading your letter I decipher that you are an athlete. You might have "Athlete's Foot," but that wouldn't make the girls so drastic.

I hate to say this Joe, but I believe that the real reason for your sudden dispossession is that you have violated a "Gentleman's Agreement."

With all my love,
Aunt Eppie.
P. S.—My phone number is 5550, Joey boy.

PROFESSOR'S OPINION ON SINO-JAPANESE AFFAIR

Word announcing the birth of a daughter, Ernest Johnstone, to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Johnstone of Geneva, Switzerland, was recently received by Dr. George Rebec of the graduate school.

Mr. Johnstone, who was formerly assistant professor of Greek here, is now in charge of the labor bureau in the League of Nations.

of home. Con Fury, who lives in Sandpoint, Idaho, hoped that the train would stop at that station and came near falling off the train as he tried to follow the mail bag that was thrown out as the train tore through the little town.

After 5 p. m. everything is coming along fine and the train is expected to be in Grand Fork tomorrow night. As a reminder to the student body, all telegrams or messages, sent to North Dakota will be received by addressing them in care of Ryan hotel, Grand Forks, North Dakota.

DR. SCHMIDT SPEAKS

Dr. F. G. Schmidt, head of the department of German, talked on "Conditions in Europe" at a recent meeting of the Rotary club in Portland. Dr. Schmidt visited many European countries during the spring and summer.

Third Edition Out on Text Written by Oregon Profs

In order to meet the demand for a third edition of "History of Oregon," a text book now used in the sixth grade in Oregon public schools, some 30,000 copies will be published soon, according to an announcement given by Dr. Robert C. Clark, head of the history department of the University.

Dr. Clark is one of the three authors of the textbook. The other two are Robert Horace Down and George Verne Blue. The latter is former assistant professor of Oriental history and is now doing research work for the government at Washington, D. C.

What Is News?

AS the members of Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism honorary, are endeavoring to bring Stephane Lauzanne, editor of the Paris newspaper, Le Matin, here for the annual Matrix Table this winter, we note that M. Lauzanne is one of the party accompanying the French premier, Pierre Laval, on his good-will visit to discuss problems of international relations with President Hoover. Laval and his staff landed in New York yesterday.

M. Lauzanne, well known in Europe as editor of one of Paris's largest papers, is expected to return to France with M. Laval after the conferences with President Hoover, and then again visit the United States during February and March, when he will make a lecture tour. It is at that time that Theta Sigma Phi hopes to secure him as the speaker for the Matrix Table.

The possibility of having such a noted and remarkable man on the campus reminds us that the usual lecture series of past years has been cut off the budget this year on account of the enforced economy program. In past years many unusual men in the realm of science and letters have been brought to the campus by the free intellectual activities committee of the faculty, and it is very regrettable that it is impossible to continue this phase of our educational system at Oregon this year.

Since it is impossible to bring noted men from the outside world to the campus this year, the free intellectual activities committee proposes to carry on their program in another manner. A series of public lectures in several of the major fields of learning are being planned for the coming season, with members of the various schools and departments as the speakers.

The series will be called "The What Is New" series, and will present critically recent developments in numerous fields of learning. The committee plans to make this lecture series a "combination of sound scholarship and skill as public exposition."

In the words of the committee, "no mere popularization will do." We often fail to realize that there are many members of the University faculty who are experts in their own fields and well known throughout the country. Many of them are as noted as the lecturers and scholars brought here in former years. We welcome the opportunity which the budget reduction has indirectly given us to learn and see our own professors in a clearer light, away from the classroom. We feel that we, the campus and the community, will have a real opportunity to appreciate the members of the University staff which has never been given before in such an evident manner.

That's where the campus' part comes in, by sending the team wires today before the game. The Webfoots arrive in Grand Forks this afternoon, and good-will messages sent today will be delivered in plenty of time before the game to show the team its backers who stood behind them so nobly in the Idaho and Washington games have not forgotten them.

Bad weather and lack of advance announcement no doubt accounted for the pitiful rally showing at McArthur court Wednesday. The Igloo was virtually empty. That handful of loyal students who did turn out with the ever-faithful band could not hope to make the send-off an impressive one for a team so much in need of encouragement on its invasion of foreign territory.

That's why we say—send the team a wire today or tomorrow to make up for Wednesday's poor showing.

I'm afraid there's no charter which could be devised by the wit of man which would prevent a fool and his money being parted.—Stanley Baldwin.
