The STUDENT CHURCH

By GENEVIEVE DUNLOP
Alumni are invited to attend the morning and evening meetings of the various denominational groups this Sunday. In a few instances special programs have been arranged for them.

Methodist
Frederick K. Davis will continue his interpretations of Biblical characters with Judas at the class meeting at 9:45. Many of the alumni will remember these as the same series that Mr. Davis gave three years ago.

A vesper service will be held at the Wesley foundation meeting at 6:30 p. m. The league room is being used. Eleanor Wharton is the leader. The pre-social will be at 5:30 p. m., in the regular meeting room for the Wesley foundation meeting.

Baptist
The University Sunday school class meets at 9:45 a. m., with Mr. Theodore Maynard as teacher. "What is the Purpose of Life?" will be the topic for the senior B. Y. P. U. which meets in the chapel of the church at 6:15. Myrtle Rasmussen is the leader for the evening.

Congregational
The student forum will discuss two questions—(1) "Jesus in the Light of Emergent Evolution" and (2) "What Some Thinkers Think About War." A social will follow the meeting.

United Lutheran
The Luther league will meet at 6:30 for a discussion of "What is the Purpose of Life," with Alice Sellon as the leader. A social at 6 p. m., at which alumni will be especially welcome is the program for the evening.

Central Lutheran
The social fireside hour at 6:15 p. m. will be followed by the weekly Bible study at 7. Rev. P. J. Luvaas will lead a discussion of "Journeys With Paul."

Presbyterian
The freshman group will continue a discussion of "Campus Friendships." Charles Martin, class president, is in charge of the meeting, which is at 9:45 a. m.

The upperclass group will meet at 9:45 a. m., Jim Dinsmore being in charge of the meeting.

The Westminster forum is considering the topic, "Why Men

Drink," with Theodore Pursley as leader. Dr. Edmund S. Conklin, of the psychology department, will give a short talk on "Mental Effect of Alcohol." Helen Reynolds will be in charge of the devotional services. The group meets at 6:15.

Episcopal
Miss Leila Anderson, of St. Margaret's church in Berkeley, California, will give a short talk before the student council at their meeting at 7 p. m., in the men's lounge in Gerlinger hall. Miss Anderson is a student social worker.

Community Liberal (Unitarian)
The young people who are members of the church will attend the quarterly meeting of the congregation Sunday evening, thus the regular meeting of the young people will not be held.

Christian
The Loyal Bereans class is to meet at 9:45, the topic being "Paul in Jerusalem." A special devotional is being arranged for the alumni. Mrs. R. M. Day is the teacher.

The Young People's Christian Endeavor society is holding a joint meeting with the Corvallis Endeavor. The local group will leave from the First Christian church at 3:45.

Pass to Colonial Theatre

Is Awarded to Patterson

In conjunction with the new weekly award, started recently, for the best copyreader on the Emerald, the Colonial theatre pass for the last week was given to Bob Patterson.

This prize, which is for both quality and quantity, was given to Parks Hitchcock the previous week. Hitchcock ran a close second in last week's contest.

All previous records for the Emerald desk staff were broken when the winners turned in an average of 12 heads per day.

"HOME TO HONOR OREGON"

Welcome Grads! Today's the Day!

We have waited all year for this opportunity to welcome you and now that you're here we would like to reassure you that the same heartfelt spirit of cooperation still exists among the merchants of Eugene. We've mortgaged the town on the Webfeet. Our stores will be closed during the game, and we are going out in a body to see "Doc" Spears and his charges beat the Orangemen. We'd like to have you drop in either before or after the game and talk over old times. . . . After all, in the spirit of Auld Lang Syne . . . should old acquaintance be forgot?
