Philometele Groups To Give Annual Party

Members of the ten Philometele groups on the campus are entertaining this afternoon from 3 to 5 at the Craftsman club with their annual party. All Philometele members, big sisters, mortar board members and women on the campus who are interested in the groups are invited.

Miss Janet Osborne, vice-president and social chairman of Phi Theta Upsilon, upperclass honorary, is general chairman. Miss Lorene Christenson is general announcer for the afternoon's program, and Miss Gwendolyn Caverhill is chairman of decorations.

Each of the groups will give a stunt or is in charge of some part of the entertainment. The Arts and Crafts, Folklore, Drama, Prose and Poetry, and Travel groups are giving stunts. The International Relations group is in charge of patronesses, the Music group is in charge of music for dancing and singing, the Woman in Her Sphere group is planning the refreshments, the Charming School group will act as hostesses, and Nature Study group is in charge of decoration of the rooms.

Chi Psi To Give Pledge Dance Tonight

The pledges of Chi Psi will be honored with the annual fall dance to be given at the chapter house tonight. Decorations will be a secret, according to Bob O'Melveny and George Hibbard, in charge of the dance, who plan the motif to be a surprise.

Patrons and patronesses will be Prof. and Mrs. Dan D. Gage, Prof. and Mrs. John Rae, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Neighbor, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Austin.

Pledges of Phi Sigma Kappa Honored by Dance

Phi Sigma Kappa will hold a dance tonight in honor of their pledges at the chapter house. Palms will be placed about the rooms and candlelight also will be used in decorating.

Patrons and patronesses are Dr. and Mrs. Schwering, Madam Rose McGrew, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Ager, Prof. Louis Artau, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Robnett.

Dick Givens is head of the affair.

Alpha Tau Omega To Honor Pledges Tonight

Alpha Tau Omega is carrying out a Persian motif in the decorations for the pledge dance being held at the chapter house tonight. Palms, balloons, and colored lights are being used in decorating.

The patrons and patronesses are Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hewitt, and Mr. and Mrs. George Hopkins. George Vaughn is chairman of the dance.

Miss Kneeland Guest At Luncheon Wednesday

Miss Katharine Kneeland, former secretary of the research bureau in the school of education, who has been visiting on the campus this week, was honored at a luncheon given by Miss DeEtta Robnett at McMorran and Washburne's tea room last Wednesday.

Miss Kneeland was entertained at several other functions last week given by her former associates and friends in the education department.

Luncheon Given in Honor of Herr Fischer

An informal luncheon was given last Thursday noon in honor of Herr M. Fischer, of Budapest, Hungary, by the International Relations club. The luncheon was held at the Anchorage and was attended by student and faculty members of the club.

Miss Margaret Hammerbacher, president of the club, was in charge.

Features Arabian Idea

An Arabian nights motif will be carried out in decorating the Zeta Tau Alpha house tonight for the dance to be given in honor of the pledges. The rooms will be transformed into Arabian tents, with colored lights reflected on the walls. Scimitars, crescent moons, and sparkling stars will add to the effectiveness of the scene. Programs in the shape of Arab tents will carry out the idea.

The patrons and patronesses for the dance include Mrs. Elizabeth Scalfefe, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Huntington, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Mather, and Mr. and Mrs. John Stehn.

Miss Ruth Dickey has charge of the dance.

Kappa Delta Holds Dance For Its Pledges

Members of Kappa Delta honored their pledges with an informal dance at the chapter house last night.

The motif carried out was that of a Chinese laundry, with wash-tubs, ironing boards, and lines of clothes about the rooms. The programs carried out the idea in the shape of a Chinaman carrying a laundry bag.

The patrons and patronesses for the dance were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Caswell, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pallette, and Mrs. Alberta Powell. Miss Freda Stadter was in charge of the dance.

Sigma Pi Tau To Give Pledge Dance

Wooden soldiers will decorate the Sigma Pi Tau house tonight at the dance being given in honor of their pledges. The programs will carry out the same idea, with each dance named for a famous battle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Charles, Dean and Mrs. Eric W. Allen, and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lenwright will be patrons and patronesses for the dance.

The chairman of the dance is Cleland Wallsinger.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon To Give Circus Dance

The annual Sigma Alpha Epsilon circus dance will be held tonight at Coconut Grove. Stuffed animals and circus decorations will be used about the rooms. The programs will be made in the shape of a drum.

Dr. and Mrs. Sante Caniparoli, Dr. and Mrs. Robert D. Horn, Dr. and Mrs. John P. MacKinnon, and Mr. and Mrs. Sigfrid Seashore will be patrons and patronesses. Baun Jordan is in charge.

Kappa Sigma Gives Hunting Lodge Dance

An informal dance, carrying out the decorations of a hunting lodge, was given at the Kappa Sigma house last night. The rooms were decorated with fir boughs, and stuffed animals, deer heads and hunting equipment were about the rooms.

The patrons and patronesses for the dance were Mrs. L. W. Pitman, Mrs. J. D. S. Wade, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Myers, and Dr. and Mrs. Del Stanard. Harvey Welch was chairman.

Westminster Guild Gives Thanksgiving Tea

The annual Thanksgiving silver tea was given by the members of Westminster guild at the Westminster house yesterday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. Women students on the campus were the invited guests.

Miss Lenore Lage was in charge of the program; Miss Zona Malkasian, decorations; Miss Florence Nombalals, food and serving; and Miss Alice Sturgin, publicity.

Misses Elaine Moore and Marian Clark gave piano solos, and Miss Ruth Breitmayer entertained with a violin solo.

Phi Gamma Delta To Give Cannibal Dance

Another dance complimenting pledges will be that given tonight by Phi Gamma Delta. Decorations typifying South Sea island cannibals will be placed about the rooms and the ticket for admission will require each guest to wear a grass skirt.

Skulls, bones, drawings of monkeys and coconuts by Mac Miller will also be used to carry out the idea. A grass hut with a cannibal king inside is to be placed on the porch and the fireplace will hold a cannibal cauldron.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Betts, Prof. and Mrs. C. G. Howard, Dr. and Mrs. Donald Erb, Prof. Edward Lesch, John Hartong and Miss Florence Thompson are patrons and patronesses.

Bill Crow is planning the affair.

Men's Dormitory To Give Dance Tonight

The men's dormitory units will hold their annual fall informal tonight, using a skyscraper idea. Chandeliers will be turned into the tall buildings and airplanes will be placed around the hall.

Patrons and patronesses are Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Schwering, Mrs. Genevieve Turnipseed, Miss Genevieve Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Russel Cutler, and Charles E. Rothwell.

Charles Stryker is chairman of the committee in charge, with the social chairman of each dormitory unit helping.

Barn Dance To Be Given By Delta Delta Delta

The chapter house of Delta Delta Delta will be turned into a barn at a dance tonight, entertaining pledges of the sorority. The farm motif will be carried out by hay, cornstalks, milk pails and garden tools about the house.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Betts, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Swan, and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Prouty, and Mr. and Mrs. John J. Rogers are patrons and patronesses.

Helen Darby and Esther Beard are in charge of the affair.

Miss Garetson Is Zeta Tau Alpha Guest

Miss Virginia Garetson of Oakland, California, is spending the week at the Zeta Tau Alpha house, with which she is affiliated. Miss Garetson was a student on the campus last year.

The STUDENT CHURCH

By GENEVIEVE DUNLOP
The question of war and peace is prominent among the choice of topics of the young people's religious groups for this Sunday. Some of the meetings for this week are being arranged in observance of the Thanksgiving season.

Congregational
"Is Conscience to be Respected in Time of War?" is one of the questions to be considered by the Student forum which meets at 6. The group will also endeavor to answer the question, "Why do Students Find It Difficult to be Religious?"

Methodist
"Luke, the Physician" will be the Biblical impersonation given by Frederick K. Davis before the University class, at their 9:45 session.

The Wesley foundation will hold a social hour from 5:30 to 6:30 at which time games will be enjoyed and refreshments will be served. The devotional meeting, which follows the social time, will be led by Verne Adams. The topic to be discussed is "Why Not Disarm?" This is the first of a series of subjects on the disarmament question to be considered by the group.

Episcopal
The Episcopal student group will discuss "The Practical Value of a Doctrine of the Trinity" at their meeting in the men's lounge of Gerlinger hall at 7 o'clock.

Baptist
The University Sunday school class is meeting with the Marie Fletcher class. Hal Young, choir director, will give a vocal solo. The teacher is Theodore Maynard.

The Senior B. Y. P. U. will hold a Thanksgiving service in the chapel of the church at 6:15. Roland Blanton will lead the discussion of "God's Gifts and My Obligations."

United Lutheran
The meeting of the Luther league is scheduled for 6, with both a social and a devotional hour on the program. The discussion will be on "God's Gifts and My Obligations," with Ruth Martin as leader.

Christian
The topic for the Loyal Berean class is "Paul in Rome." The group meets at 9:45 with Mrs. R. M. Day as teacher.

"Pilgrim's Wife," a one act play, will be given by the members of the Young People's Christian Endeavor in observance of Thanksgiving. The meeting begins at 6:15.

Presbyterian
Edgar E. DeCou, University professor, will address the freshmen and upperclass groups at their morning meeting at 9:45 on the topic "The World Disarmament Conference."

"If I Were Hoover," is the subject of the discussion for the Westminster forum at the meeting at 6:15. Helen Scruggs and Bill Gerhart are the leaders.

Community Liberal (Unitarian)
The Young People's group will meet at 7 at the manse for their regular Sunday evening round table discussion.

Campus Red Cross Drive Gets Under Way Monday

Maria Wilson, of the Eugene Red Cross office, and an Oregon graduate, with the assistance of Mary Frances Lowry, is conducting the Red Cross drive on the campus. They are asking each living organization to give $15, more or less as they can afford, and ask each house to vote on the question at Monday night's house meeting.

Subscriptions received will be turned over to the Lane County Relief and Unemployment bureau, which is taking the place this year of the Eugene community chest, and includes the Red Cross, Salvation Army, St. Vincent's De Paul, and other civic charity organizations.

Miss Wilson urges everyone to consider that this year they need money more than ever before, and any contributions will be greatly appreciated.

FAVILLE TO SPEAK

Dean Faville, of the school of business administration, will speak at the noon luncheon of the American Association of University Women today. The luncheon is to be at the Osburn hotel. Dean Faville will discuss his last summer's trip to the Orient.

TALKIE TOPICS

Colonial — "Graft," starring Regis Toomey. Showing for the last time today.

Heilig — "In Old Cheyenne," with Rex Lease. Showing today only. McDonald — "Riders of the Purple Sage," featuring George O'Brien. Showing for the last time today.

State — "Dugan of the Bad Lands," with Bill Cody. Showing today only.

By RALPH MASON
Scenic Western at McDonald
Characterized by unusually beautiful scenery, incredibly fast horseback riding, and unpolished acting and dialogue, Zane Grey's "Riders of the Purple Sage," presents George O'Brien and Marguerite Churchill in a wholesome western depicting Arizona as it was in 1871.

The magnetic O'Brien as the outlaw Lassiter, defends "Jane" (Marguerite Churchill) from the depredations of a band of terrorists who attempt to steal her herd of cattle. The stopping of this mighty stampeding band falls to O'Brien who does the seemingly impossible feat single handed in one of the most thrilling scenes of the picture.

Lassiter is materially aided by his horse which permits him to leap over narrow chasms, through waterfalls and down mountain sides.

Noah Beery as Judge Dyer, crooked leader of the outlaws, plays true to form in his villainous role.

The spirit of adventure is again reflected in Ronald Colman's latest picture, "The Unholy Garden," which comes to the McDonald theatre on Sunday and Monday.

John Barrymore in "Mad Genius," which opens for a three day run Sunday at the Heilig.

"Graft" at Colonial
Quite the most intensely interesting newspaper drama that has come to the local screen this season is "Graft," the Universal picture which is showing at the Colonial for the last time today.

The story deals with crooked politics in an American city and a newspaper's fight against the sinister forces on the eve of an important election.

Regis Toomey and Sue Carol play the leading roles, and supply the love interest as well as forming the center of the major part of the picture's stirring events.

Atmospherically, "Graft" is remarkable, and gives a realistic picture of the inner workings of a great newspaper. There are also interesting scenes aboard a yacht at sea.

The score of the Oregon-U. C. L. A. game will be announced at intervals this afternoon.

Marion Davis will be seen in her first 90 per cent straight dramatic role when her latest picture, "Five and Ten" opens Sunday at the Colonial for a two-day run.

Rex Lease at Heilig

The dyed-in-the-wool western photoplay fan as well as the casual patron of this exciting type of screen entertainment will find thrills and fast action in "In Old Cheyenne," now being presented at the Heilig theatre for today only.

In theme, treatment, and production, this vigorous outdoor comedy packs its punch in compact fashion and moves along quickly to a smashing climax. It has more than the usual share of originality in its well-constructed story.

The latest Warner Bros. picture, starring John Barrymore in "The Mad Genius," opens at the Heilig Sunday for a three-day run. It is a story told against the colorful background of the Russian Imperial ballet and offers a stellar supporting cast including Marian Marsh, Charles Butterworth, and Donald Cook. Cook incidentally, graduated from Oregon in '25.

Bill Cody at State
"Dugan of the Bad Lands," starring Bill Cody and Andy Shufford is showing at the State theatre for the last time today.

"The Man Who Came Back," starring Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell, is coming Sunday and Monday. Another feature of the "Football for the Fan" series is included in the Sunday bill.
