

Thrilling Trojan-Notre Dame Game To Be Seen Here In Talking Pictures Soon

Football Men To Be Guests At Big Show

Coaching Staff Also Gets Invitation

Vital Plays Shown With Slow Motion; Noted Stars Appear

Complete action pictures of America's greatest football epic, the game in which Southern California vanquished Notre Dame, will be shown at the Colonial theatre for three days this week, starting Thursday. Definite announcement that this long-awaited feature would be brought to Eugene was made yesterday by Russell Brown, manager of the Colonial.

At the first presentation of the grid-iron classic, all football men who earned letters last fall will be guests of the management. Doc Spears, Jack O'Brien, Bill Reinhart, Colonel William L. Hayward, Prink Callison, Gene Shields and Bobby Robinson of the coaching staff also have been invited to attend this picture.

Football critics and experts who have seen the six-reel motion picture of the conflict say it is as thrilling as watching the game itself. Gaius Shaver's terrific rushes into the Notre Dame line in those last frantic minutes in which the Trojans fought back from the brink of defeat to the crest of victory are shown as realistically as if the game were played again.

All the crucial plays are shown in slow motion. This includes the field goal Johnny Baker kicked with only one minute to go and the score favoring Notre Dame, 14 to 13. His thump passed between the uprights and with the sailing ball went the Irish' last hope of national supremacy. The final score was 16 to 14 for the Trojans.

Before the actual action of the encounter starts, each player is introduced to the audience as he runs onto the field. Such nationally known figures as Howard Jones, coach of the Trojans; Hartley Anderson, the late Knute Rockne's successor at Notre Dame; Gaius Shaver, Erny Pinckert, Ray Sparling, Stanley Williamson, Garrett Arbelbide, Bob Hall, Marchmont Schwartz, Tommy Yarr, Steve Banas and George Joseph Melinkovitch flicker across the celluloid before the showing of the picture.

The picture is synchronized with a detailed description of each play. The name of the ball-carrier is given and also that of the tackler who stops him.

Don't be startled if you see a bunch of men at the Colonial watching the slow motion plays with binoculars. They'll merely be Oregon's football lads and coaches. They have a game coming up with those Trojans this autumn, you know.

field goals and one conversion for 11 points. Captain Calkins with two goals and five free throws was next with nine. Calkins' foul shooting was one of the features of the contest. Out of seven attempts he missed only once, when he was bothered by an Idaho substitution. Gib "Prexy" Olinger, who was put in for Robertson, at forward, played a nice defensive game. Robertson hurt his knee in practice last Saturday and Reinhart evidently plans to save him for tonight's game.

Herman, Idaho forward, led the Vandals with eight points. Lacey, guard, was the outstanding floor man for the losers.

The second game of the series will be played tonight at 7:30.

The Beta and Kappa Sigma handballists emerged victorious yesterday in the intramural handball tourney. The Betas captured two out of three matches from the Chi Psi aggregation, while Kappa Sigma trounced the Omega hall squad, three matches to none.

In the Beta-Chi Psi matches, the former took both the singles tilts while losing the doubles. Dave Epps beat Bill Preble of Chi Psi, 21-10, 3-21, 21-13. Bill Barendrick had no difficulty in disposing of Jean Grady by a tally of 21-7, 21-11. The Chi Psi doubles artists, Ken Case and Jim Travis, succeeded in taking the sole victory for their squad when they defeated Ken Seales and Mervin Eward, 21-4, 21-17.

In the Kappa Sig-Omega hall contests, Warren Cress, Kappa Sigma phenom, continues his winning ways by showering Art Clarkson under a barrage of fancy shots to win, 21-1, 21-6. Bob Deaver of the victors conquered Roy Sheedy of the hall team, 21-16, 21-13. Jack Edlisen and George Kotchik, the winners' tandem team, won from Les Duntun and Bob Coen of the dormitory handballists with a score of 16-21, 21-17, 21-10.

Frosh Win From Salem 18 to 10; Game Is Slow

Oregon Yearlings Win Second Game in as Many Starts

"Prink" Callison's frosh hoop squad scored its second win of the season Saturday night when it triumphed over the Salem high five on the latter's floor. The game was featured by the close checking of the two teams, and few scores were made. The final count was 18 to 10.

Sylvan Campf, captain and forward of the yearling squad was the outstanding player of the contest, displaying some good floor-work and registering 12 of his team's 18 points. Ralph Terjeson of the frosh and Sanford, Salem guard, also starred.

The tilt was slow throughout. The first half ended with the frosh having a 9 to 4 advantage. The second period was merely a repetition of the first with neither team being able to work the ball in for a score.

The freshman line-up included Siegmund and Campf at forwards; Miller at center; and Terjeson and Rourke at guards; substitute, Lindgren.

Course in Tap Dancing Offered for P. E. Majors

Francis Mullins Will Direct and Instruct Evening Classes

Announcement has been made by the physical education department of the addition of a course in tap dancing, which will be added to the list of classes offered by this department.

This class in professional tap dancing, a course which has never been offered on the campus before, will be held in Gerlinger hall Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 7 o'clock, under the supervision and instruction of Francis Mullins, manager of the Merrick Dance studios here.

Although the course is primarily for physical education majors, it will be open to all students enrolled in the University. A charge of $8 for a series of 20 lessons is required, and those students who wish to enroll in the class are asked to sign up at the department office in Gerlinger hall.

Eugene Gleemen Sing at McArthur Sunday Afternoon

Faculty, Students Enrolled As Members of Male Choral Group

The Eugene Gleemen, 5-voice male chorus, and Hal Young, tenor soloist, will be heard next Sunday afternoon at McArthur court in the second concert of the 1932 A. S. U. O. series. John Stark Evans will direct the gleemen. Admission to students will be free on presentation of student body cards.

The gleemen are an organization of Eugene business and professional men, with a sprinkling of University faculty members and students. Engagement on the A. S. U. O. series amounts to formal recognition by the University of the professional standing of the chorus. Their reputation has traveled throughout the state as the result of their appearances before conventions in Eugene and radio and concert appearances in Portland.

Hal Young, well-known tenor, will assist the gleemen with two groups of solos. Young is director of music at the Eugene Baptist church, and is under radio contract in Portland. He was soloist with the Portland Choral society and the Portland Symphony orchestra in this season's presentation of Handel's "Messiah" in Portland, which many University students heard. Roy Bryson, assistant in the voice department of the University school of music, was bass soloist at the same performance, under the direction of Willem van Hoogstraten.

Girls vote for PIPES (for men!)

ASK any girl you know to name her favorite smoke—for men! Ten to one she'll say a pipe!

She's discovered—trust her bright little eyes—that it's the BIG men, on the campus and off, who welcome the mental stimulation and relaxation they get from this real man's smoke.

And if she's very wise in the ways of smokers, she'll go one better than that. She'll tell you the men who know, smoke Edgeworth!

No two ways about it, you do get a doubly satisfying smoke when you fill your pipe with this famous old blend. It's a happy combination of choice burleys—cut long to give you a cool, slow-burning smoke. And its mellow flavor and rich aromahavemade Edgeworth the favorite pipe tobacco on 42 out of 50 campuses.

EDGEWORTH SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys, with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive eleven-step process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes, 15¢ pocket package to $1.50 pound humidior tin.

DONUT CHATS

by JOSEPH SASLAVSKY

Interest in the approaching all-campus fencing tournament, which will start festivities about the middle of February, is at a much higher pitch than it was last year, according to Warren Powell, coach of the bladesman.

The mentor expects about twice as many entrants as the 1931 total of 22. Several are already in training for the event, and they are taking hard and fast workouts to get into condition.

Powell expects to divide the tourney into three sections, each with a different weapon—the foil, the epee, and the saber. It is possible for one bladesman to capture all three crowns. The foil was the only destructive agent used last year.

Powell stated that the affair would not be so cut-and-dried as it was last winter, when the scepter was bound to fall on the head of one of three experts, Lee Wine-trout, Dave Killion, and Dick Waggoner. Wine-trout defeated all comers but, together with the other two, is not now in school, so that the scramble for the championship will be more lively, there being eight or ten men each showing enough stuff now to acquire one of the titles, according to Powell.

A new record was made in the handstand event in the Sigma Delta Psi trials by Philip Dale last week, when he looked at the world around him from an upside-down view for the amazing total of 61 seconds. The feat is an unofficial record so far because Dale has not passed all the tests necessary to gain entrance in the physical education honorary for men. It will, of course, become official when he overcomes all the hurdles, only two of which remain for him to conquer.

Four "rasslin'" champs of last year's all-campus tourney have signified their intention of defending their crowns in the approaching competition, according to Clair Meisel, coach of the hair-pullers. They are Dave Doran, 118 pounds; John Sieverkropp, 128 pounds; Tom Mountain, 158; and Francis Keltner, 178. Meisel indicates that several aspirants for the various championships are getting in their licks and taking their turns daily in ear-chewing, grunting, groaning, et al. A bit of interesting news, something of a novelty in this so-called column, comes from him. The winners of the events in the different poundages may possibly be able to show their wares against matmen of the Multnomah club of Portland and Willamette university. So get busy, ye heathen!
