Delt vs. Gamma hall

Phi Sigma Kappa and Sigma Pi Tau eliminated two more teams yesterday in the intramural handball tournament when they turned back Friendly hall and Alpha Upsilon, respectively. The Phi Sig handballists took two out of three matches from the hall aggregation, while the SPT's trounced the Alpha Upsilon squad, three matches to none.

In the Phi Sig-Friendly hall contests, Sheldon Laurance of the victors took a three-set victory from Louis Yturri of the hall team by a tally of 21-8, 14-21, 21-6. Karl Landstrom of the Phi Sigs gave Antonio Yturri a sound thrashing to win, 21-2, 21-2. The Friendly hall doubles team, Walt Johnson and Meredith Sheets, succeeded in capturing the only win for their squad when they disposed of Frank Harrow and Vint Hall, 21-15, 21-5.

In the SPT-Alpha Upsilon matches, Phil Cogswell of Sigma Pi Tau conquered Wilbur Sohm easily by a count of 21-3, 21-6. Another SPT handballist, Faulkner Short, defeated F. Overmeyer, 21-12, 21-13. Louis Pista and Otto Frohmayer, SPT duo, jolted Boyd Overhulse and J. Laird of the Alpha Upsilon combination, to record a conquest in the form of a 21-8, 21-14 beating.

GAMES THIS WEEK

Friday, Washington at Oregon State.
Saturday, Washington at Oregon State, Idaho at Washington State.

"It was a good game to forget and yet remember." With this remark, Coach Bill Reinhart dismissed the trouncing at the hands of Idaho Tuesday night, as a vigorous workout yesterday afternoon at McArthur court opened the practice sessions for the coming series here with the University of Washington next Monday and Tuesday nights.

During the workout Reinhart called the team together and told them in no uncertain terms of the mistakes they made in the last Idaho game. Indication that there may be a shift-up of players was given when several reserves took first string places in the practice.

Hank Lovoff, Captain Calkins and Cap Roberts seem to have their positions cinched, but Cliff Potter and Spook Robertson have not played up to par and may have to fight to keep regular berths. Reinhart is especially anxious to win in the coming series with Washington. The Huskies seem to have a jinx in regard to games played at McArthur court for the Webfeet never have won on the Igloo floor. This season, however, Washington has been a disappointment in the race and the Webfeet for the first time in years, are given an excellent chance to cop the series.

Aspirants Are Training for Varsity Swim

About Thirty Candidates Practicing Daily

Webfoot Swimming Squad Hit Hard by Loss of Star Mermen

By JOSEPH SASLAVSKY
About thirty natators are struggling daily in the men's pool in the attempt to make the Oregon varsity swimming team. Jack Hewitt, the swimming mentor, is satisfied with the quantity of the material, but the quality is the detail which is giving him considerable trouble.

When an aquatic squad loses swimming stars like Mac Miller, Steve Fletcher, Gordon Corson, George Reischmuller, Howard Dirks, Morris Pease, Al Edwards, Harrison Spain, and a few others of similar ability, its coach is bound to have a severe headache in attempting to replace them. Miller and Fletcher delighted in breaking records last year and were good for many points in any meet. Corson was the scintillating luminary of the freshman team last year and was a whole swimming team in himself. The others all came through consistently in the pinch.

The only lettermen from the great varsity team of 1931 who are back are Charlie Foster, Paul Lafferty, Francis Oglesby, Bob Needham, and Sam Nigh. They will form the nucleus of the aggregation this year, and Hewitt expects much of them.

The following mermen are laboring fast and furiously each day to get in condition for the home-and-home meets with the Oregon State human fish next month. Hewitt has hopes of arranging additional competition for the team.

Sprints—Bob Needham, Mark Thomas, Francis Oglesby, Wally Hug, Bob Anderson.
Back stroke—Paul Lafferty, Jim Brooke, George Pratt, Fred Anderson, Louis Stevens, Dick Moorehouse.

Breast stroke—Mervin Rodda, Paul Lafferty, Ferd Fletcher.
220-yard—Leo Laurin, Francis Oglesby, Bob Needham.

440-yard—Charlie Foster, Don Stevenson.

Divers—Sam Nigh, Ladd Sherman, Bill Sievers, Bill Douthit.
Water polo—Cliff Culp, Homer Goulet, Stan Kidder, Charlie Foster, Francis Oglesby, Bob Needham, Paul Lafferty, Ferd Fletcher, Wally Hug, Don Stevenson.

Spanish Club Will Meet At Westminster House

La Corrida de Todos, campus Spanish club, will meet tonight at 7:30 at Westminster house for the first meeting this term.

A varied and interesting program is promised. Marie Saccoman will sing a group of songs, and Betty Wilson will give several piano selections. Miss Anna M. Thompson, assistant professor in Romance languages, will give a discussion of the furor created by the presentation in Madrid of Ramon Perez de Ayala's play, "A. M. D. G.," a near riot being the result.

Everyone interested in Spanish is urged to attend.

Freshmen to Play Salem Five Friday

Many Injuries Hit Frosh In Last Week

Campf, Miller, Rourke, Clay, McClain Now on Invalid List

With two wins to its credit the frosh hoop squad will go into its second week of competition next Friday when it entertains Salem at McArthur court. The yearlings scored an 18-to-10 win over the Capital city aggregation last Saturday on the latter's floor.

A number of injuries, which have occurred in the last few practice sessions, dim the hopes of the Ducklings for a second victory, however. Campf, captain and stellar forward, has been forced to take things easy because of a wrenched ankle. Campf scored 12 points in the game with Salem Saturday, and has been the backbone of the freshmen's offense throughout the early part of the season.

Others Are Out
Chuck Clay, reserve forward, and Bob Miller, regular center, are also on the invalid list with injured knees. Both are expected to be in shape by Friday, however. McClain, reserve guard, has been out of practice during the last few sessions with a weak side.

The latest addition to the list of the injured was last night when Roland Rourke, regular guard and a star defensive player, was forced to leave the floor because of an injured foot. Rourke is on crutches, and it is doubtful if he will be able to start in the Friday night contest.

In order to fill in the vacancies left by the above mentioned men, Coach "Prink" Callison has been experimenting with a number of different combinations. Up to this time he has not found one to equal the smooth machine that rolled up the 43-to-13 score over Jefferson in the opening game of the season.

Reserves Show Promise
Ralph Terjeson and Arne Lindgren are the only two regulars without injuries. Siegmund, Goldsmith, Jette, and Reeder are forwards who might be used to fill in the holes left by Clay and Campf. The center position has been a hard one to fill all year, but Wayne Jamison has been doing some good work in the pivot position, and might see action if Miller's knee shows no more improvement. The guards who are available to take the place of Rourke are Kotska, Thomas, and Berg.

New Groups of Books Added to Library Lists

Among the books to be recently added to the stock at the University library are to be found some by well-known authors.

The volumes and their authors are: "John Jacob Astor" by Kenneth W. Porter, "Mustapha Kemal of Turkey" by H. E. Wortham, "The York Road" by Lizette Woodworth Reese, "Sun Yat Sen" by Henry Bond Restarick, "Chinese Garden Architecture" by Edwin L. Howard, and "The Literary Mind, Its Place in an Age of Science," by Max Eastman.

Forensic Tryouts Are Planned for Tonight at Villard

Competition To Be Keen as Students Vie for Chance To Win Prize Money

Tryouts for the selection of entrants in all of the remaining individual speaking contests to be entered by the University of Oregon this season will be held tonight at Villard hall, it was announced by Walter Hempstead, of the speech department.

This contest is important in that the speakers are chosen at this time for the entire year. The prizes, which range from $25 to $60, should, at this time of depression, be sufficient inducement for students to try their luck in order to reach the final contests, he said.

Oregon's entrants to compete in the State Old Line contest, the State Extempore Speaking contest, the State Peace contest, the Pacific Forensic League contest, and the contest commemorating the celebration of the two hundredth anniversary of George Washington's birthday, will be chosen tonight.

George Bennett, Allen Holsman, John Pennington, Rolla Reedy, Wallace Campbell and Arthur Potwin have already signed for the tryout.

Two hours of regular University credit is given to participants in intercollegiate oratorical competition.

It is requested by Mr. Hempstead that the aspirants for this contest call today at 4 p. m. at room 8 Friendly hall, with their manuscripts to draw sub-topics.

Judges for the tryouts will be the members of the speech division staff.

SIDE... LINES

By BRUCE HAMBY

FUNNY how quickly talk about a conference basketball championship can stop. Especially after a crushing defeat like Tuesday night's at the hands of Idaho. Monday night the talk about the campus dealt entirely with coming series with Washington, Washington State and Oregon State. Now—well, you don't hear much of anything except ridicule. This is not a sermon, merely an observation.

One thing you can rest assured of. Bill Reinhart is one coach who will not take a licking like Tuesday night's and let it pass by. Last night in practice he very plainly and frankly told the members of the team their mistakes. Following the talk he put them through a stiff workout. Bill would give most anything to beat Washington next week, especially on the home floor.

Oregon fans will get a chance to see eight, out of the ten games remaining on the basketball schedule. Six of the contests are at McArthur court and two just 40 miles north at Corvallis. The two games to which Oregon supporters will have to go a long way to see are in Seattle. And all of the remaining home games should be thrillers—with Washington, Washington State and Oregon State.

University of Washington officials seem to be having a little trouble in enforcing all the salary cuts and eliminations they made a week or so ago. Steve Anderson, former member of the United States Olympic team and now assistant track coach at Seattle, notified the finance committee of the board of control that he would not accept the elimination of his position. He claims that he has a contract for the rest of the year and will not accept its cancellation. Such is the life of an assistant athletic coach in the period of retrenchment.

FROM HERE AND THERE... Hec Edmundson, Husky coach, was quite an athlete himself... he was an Olympic games half-miler years ago... Satirical remark in the New York Times... "Britannia rules the waves and

Irish Encounter Coast Champions In Eugene Today

Don't Be Alarmed; It's Only on the Screen; Game Tomorrow, Too

Southern California will battle Notre Dame for the national football championship at the Colonial theatre this afternoon. Kickoff time is 2:30 o'clock. Among the spectators will be Doc Spears and his Oregon varsity eleven. Because of the magnitude of the struggle, it will be replayed both Friday and Saturday.

Coaches Jones and Anderson made no statements last night, but Jones sagaciously predicted his men to win by a score of 16 to 14. This remains to be proved. The Fighting Irish, undefeated since 1927, when this same Southern California eleven vanquished them, 27 to 14, loom as favorites. However, anything can happen out there on the screen, so don't make any rash bets.

Marchmont Schwartz and Steve Banas will lead Notre Dame's attack. Gaius Shaver and Ernie Pinckert are counted upon to show the westerners the way to victory. Johnny Baker's accurate toe may be called upon to help the Trojans if any eleventh hour contingencies arise.

GIRLS Do Not Smoke Pipes

THE GIRLS haven't left us many of our masculine rights. They fly our airplanes, drive our cars, smoke our cigarettes—but they don't smoke our pipes! They've left us this one manly right, anyway.

A man almost has to smoke a pipe nowadays. A pleasant necessity! For a pipe filled with good tobacco is just about the best smoke a man could want.

And if you're troubled about selecting a tobacco, remember that Edgeworth is the popular favorite in 42 out of 54 colleges. It somehow seems to fit the college man's taste. Edgeworth is cut especially for pipes, it burns slowly, it gives a cool smoke. You can buy Edgeworth wherever good tobacco is sold. Or, for a special sample packet, write to Larus & Bro. Co., 100 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va.

EDGEWORTH SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys, with its natural flavor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive eleventh process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—EdgeworthReady-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes, 15¢ pocket package to $1.50 pound humidifier tin.
