Closed Week-end Brings Social Events to Halt

The approach of final examinations will bring campus social affairs to a virtual standstill this week-end, when University regulations prohibiting dances and other fraternal and sorority functions are put in force.

The only affair of importance for the first closed week-end of the term will be the Gamma Alpha Chi fashion dance Saturday night. Living groups, however, are planning more than the usual number of exchange dinners, dessert dances, and faculty dinners during the week, as a final gesture before all activities are cancelled.

Spring Togs to Hold Interest at Fashion Dance

Spring raiment in all its newest cuts and colors will be paraded Saturday night before the crowd at the Gamma Alpha Chi fashion dance, final major social event of the term and the only all-campus event scheduled for the week-end. Eight prominent students have been selected to show everything in modish toggery from sports outfits to evening wear. Women's costumes will be modeled by Elizabeth Wright, Dorothy Cunningham, Margaret Ann Howland, and Janet Thacher. Men's apparel will be shown by Jack Gregg, Leighton Gee, Joe Hughes, and Bob Hart.

Reservations for the affair will be limited to 200. Ticket sales are being handled by Caroline Hahn, Gamma Phi Beta.

New Tonqued Council To Be Installed at Banquet

New members of the Tonqued council will be installed at a formal banquet to be held at the Eugene hotel this evening at 8 o'clock. Miss Jessie Steele is in charge of the affair, which will be attended by old and new officers and council members.

The newly appointed officials are Bernice Ingalls, dance chairman; Catherine Coleman, tea chairman; Margaret Bean, calling chairman; and Genevieve Dunlop, reporter. Mrs. Hazel P. Schwering and Mrs. Alice Macduff have been invited.

Alpha Phi Entertains Faculty Guests at Dinner

Faculty friends of Alpha Phi were entertained at dinner Sunday at the chapter house. Among the guests invited were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stetson, Dean John Straub, Mrs. Maude I. Kerns, Mrs. Ottilie Seybolt, Mr. Eric A. Pollard, Dr. and Mrs. George Rebec, and Dr. Edmund P. Kremer.

C. E. Roberts, Oakland, Is Visitor to University

A visitor to the campus over the week-end was Mr. C. E. Roberts of Oakland, Cal., father of Charles (Cap) Roberts, varsity center and leading scorer of the Oregon basketball team. Mr. Roberts made the trip in order to see his son in action. He was a guest at the S. A. E. house.

Zeta Tau Alpha Mothers and Alumnae to Sponsor Party

Zeta Tau Alpha mothers' and alumnae club will hold a benefit bridge party at the Osburn hotel Saturday afternoon. Members of the active chapter will serve and assist as hostesses. Mrs. D. F. Skene is in charge.

Eugene alumnae of Zeta Tau Alpha will meet tonight at the home of Juanita Kilborn, ex-'31, for one of a series of social meetings they are holding this winter.

Fredrick Martin to Wed Miss Genevieve Rathbone

News reached here this week of the engagement of Miss Genevieve Rathbone to Mr. Fredrick J. Martin in New York last Saturday. Miss Rathbone is the daughter of R. Bleeker Rathbone of New York City.

Mr. Martin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Martin of Portland, and is a graduate of the University of Oregon. He is now with American Airways, Inc., in New York. The wedding will be held early in the spring.

Wedding of Lois Elliott, Ben Johnson, Is Made Known

The wedding of Miss Lois Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Elliott, and Bennie Johnson, former student at the University, was made known here last week. The ceremony took place in Vancouver, Washington, a week previous.

Mrs. Johnson is an alumna of Oregon State college.

"Jungle" Motif Used For Pi Beta Phi Formal

The Pi Beta Phi formal dance at the chapter house Saturday, February 27, was featured by a "Jungle" motif, with green boughs, potted palms, monkeys and coconuts silhouetted against the walls by colored flood lights. Tall flower baskets, center pieces of flowers, and tapers completed the decorations.

General chairman was Doris Stamps, assisted by Glory Herzog and Dorothy Edlefsen. Abbie Green's orchestra played, with special features by the Delt trio. Special guests were Mrs. J. A. Russell, province president, and three representatives of the Portland Mothers' club, Mrs. Goodsell, Mrs. John Kaufman, and Mrs. Charles Hopping.

Patrons and patronesses were Dr. and Mrs. Harold J. Noble, Dr. and Mrs. Robert D. Horn, and Mrs. F. W. Benson.

Delta Zeta Holds Beautiful Formal Dance

The Delta Zeta chapter house was beautifully decorated with palms, floodlights, flowers and tapers for the formal dance held Saturday evening. Features of the evening were piano selections by George Hopkins and violin numbers by Howard Halbert.

Acting as patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. George Hopkins, Mrs. M. N. Goodwin of Corvallis, and Mrs. Lettie Mowry.

"Zeta Week-end" to be Celebrated by Oregon O. S. C. Chapters

The University of Oregon chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha was entertained by the Corvallis chapter February 27 and 28 at the annual "Zeta Week-end."

An informal dance at the chapter house was held Saturday evening, decorations being in blue and gray, the fraternity colors. The programs in the same color scheme bore the Greek letters of each chapter.

Among the alumnae guests of the Oregon chapter were Eleanor Jane Ballantyne, '32, of Silverton, and Ruth Bryant, '31, of Moro. Forrest Bales, president of the Corvallis chapter, was general chairman.

Floral Decorations Feature Tri-Delt Dance

Beautiful floral creations proved the outstanding feature of Tri-Delt's "Stars and Crescent" formal dance motif Saturday evening. The Tri-Delt badge, formed of acacias and yellow Chinese lilies, was the principal decorative piece. Esther Baur was in charge.

Entry Lists For Intramural Meet To Close Today

ALL ENTRY lists for the intramural track and field meet, to be held next Saturday at Hayward field, close today. The deadline for signing up in the events was set for yesterday, but Bill Hayward, track coach, stated last night that a large number of those who had been working out had not as yet entered. The lists will, therefore, be held open another day, and all those intending to enter the competition are requested to sign up with Hayward today as early as possible. To be eligible for competition in the meet the athletes must have worked out at least three times a week since the beginning of the season.

FROSH TO HOLD CLASS MEETING THURSDAY AT 5

The general chairman for the Frosh Glee, annual yearling dance, will be named at the meeting. Subcommittee appointments are to be announced early next week.

Treasurer to be Chosen
Nominations for a class treasurer to succeed Edward Thomas of Montana, who was forced to drop out of school because of financial difficulties, will be taken up. Unless the nominations reach an unanimous decision, a committee will be named to conduct the elections.

Action will be taken to provide for a means of assessment for a freshman picnic. The budget for the class this year makes no provision for the yearling picnic, hitherto an annual affair. Motions will be forwarded to provide for a small head tax to be added to the spring term fees in order that the picnic plans may go into effect.

The elections Friday will be held in line with one of the provisions of the National Student Federation of America plans. No time will be allowed for electioneering, the balloting taking place the day after the nominations. The success of the proposed amendment will in a large measure be determined by the forthcoming special election.

W.S.C. WOMEN DEBATERS WIN OVER OREGON

(Continued from Page Four) line of reasoning that they were immaterial because a law could not be condemned for the factors employed in its passage.

Secondly he maintained that the affirmative in its second argument was too inclined to stress the factors that may have occurred after the decree had been granted. The negative's statement that, with very few exceptions, the parties contracting divorce were satisfied was conceded as of more importance.

The affirmative was awarded the one point, in addition that it had showed that investigation into the causes of the divorce was lacking in Nevada's statutes as practiced.

The negative was given the two points that children were as well taken care of in Nevada in separation cases as in other states, and that Nevada provided an outlet for other states in the occasions of justified divorce.

The contest was held in 110 Johnson hall with Dr. John H. Mueller, professor of sociology, as chairman.

SCHOOL HEADS MEET IN SALEM ON CURRICULUM

(Continued from Page One) Emerald went to press last night. The preliminary report of the curriculum committee of the state board was received here Monday for study. Dr. Hall, Dean James H. Gilbert, of the college of literature, science and the arts; Paul W. Ager, comptroller; and Earl M. Pallett, executive secretary and registrar, spent the entire day, most of the night, and until noon yesterday framing the University's 80-page answer to the committee's recommendations.

The University's brief was not ready when Dr. Hall left for Salem, but was sent after by messenger in a fast automobile.

CALLISTER'S TERM EXPIRES; SALEM, MARCH 1.—(Special).—

The term of F. E. Callister, Albany, serving on the state board of higher education's committee on courses, will expire tomorrow. Governor Julius L. Meier would give no word today as to his action in reappointing or replacing Callister. "He is a good man," was the governor's only comment.

House Managers Must Appear For Oregana Picture

AN URGENT call was issued yesterday by Florence Nombalais, who is in charge of the sorority section of the Oregana, that all women house managers be on hand in front of Condon hall today at 12:40 for Oregana pictures.

Efforts have been made in the past to get these pictures, but because of lack of cooperation they have been without success. It is essential that all women house managers be present, according to Miss Nombalais.

Murray Warner Contest Closing Date To Be April 1

Conditions in Far East Subject For Peace Themes

There remains but one month until the close of the Murray Warner essay contest, according to John R. Mez, professor of economics who is in charge.

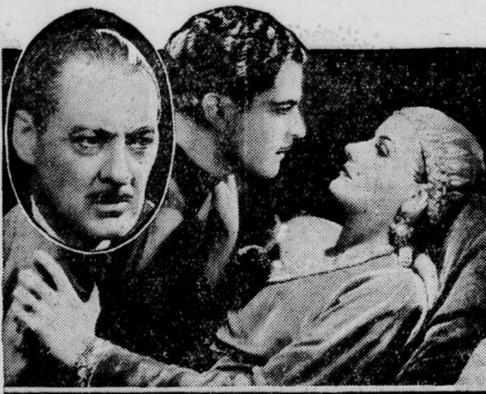

All entries must be in the hands of the museum librarian on or before April 1.

The essays, having any phase of conditions in the Far East as their subject are not to exceed 5000 words in length.

Professors John R. Mez, Harold J. Noble, and George H. Godfrey make up the board of judges deciding the winners of the prizes. The awards consist of a trip to the Orient and three other cash prizes totalling $200.

So far an unusual amount of interest has been shown in the contest and its primary purpose, a promotion of friendly feeling between the United States and the Orient, according to Professor Mez.

TALKIE TOPICS

Greta Garbo, Ramon Novarro and Lionel Barrymore in a scene from "Mata Hari," opening a three nights run on Thursday at the Colonial this week-end.

Rex — "Racing Youth," and "Flying High," with Bert Lahr. Showing for the last time today.

Hellig — "Forbidden," featuring Adolphe Menjou. Showing till Friday.

State — "Platinum Blonde," starring Joan Blondell, and "Headin' for Trouble," showing for the last time today.

Colonial — "The Gay Diplomat," featuring Ivan Lebedeff. Showing tonight only.

McDonald — "Beast of the City," starring Walter Huston and Jean Harlow. Showing today and Thursday.

Harlow at McDonald
The "platinum blonde" is at it again.

Jean Harlow exerts her siren wiles, dances to the tune of a tin-cop radio in a tenement room, and in the end almost upsets the destiny of a great city.

This is the part of the Circe of screen roles in "The Beast of the City," thrilling drama of modern American city life, now playing at the McDonald theatre for two days.

Miss Harlow is seen as an underworld beauty who wins the love of a police detective, and through him establishes a "grapevine" source of information right into the office of the chief of police. Her last role of this particular type was in "The Secret Six."

Others in the cast are Walter Huston, Jean Hersholt, Wallace Ford, Dorothy Peterson and Tully Marshall.

A. W. S. at Colonial

Ivan Lebedeff's first starring picture, "The Gay Diplomat," is the attraction showing at the Colonial for today only, and said to surpass expectation in its presentation of romance set glamorously in a background which alternates the thrill of battle with the intrigues of spies.

Women spies and men spies, hating, loving and perpetually scheming, are the central characters which dominate this entertainment. Although the action is of a necessity vigorous, striking boldly in the realism of melodrama at times, a romance pervades the picture.

Tonight is "All Campus" night at the Colonial, the second edition of Co-ed Capers, presenting the cream of campus co-ed talent in an entirely new stage revue of singing, dancing and "black out" specialties, will be presented between shows, at 8:50 tonight only at the Colonial. Sally Addleman and other co-ed stars are featured.

The dangerous but glamorous life of the notorious World war spy, "Mata Hari," is portrayed in the picture of that name which will open Thursday for three nights and a Saturday matinee at the Colonial with the sensational combination of Great Garbo and Ramon Novarro in the leading roles.

Bert Lahr at Rex

Bert Lahr and Charlotte Greenwood are featured in "Flying High," at the Rex for the last time today. This outrageously funny combination enacts some of the most unbelievably daring stunts in this riotous story of a pilot without a head in an airplane without a tail. "Racing Youth" is also showing as part of the bill. "The Big Gamble," with Bill Boyd in the featured role is coming Thursday and Friday.

Jean Harlow at State

"Platinum Blonde," starring Jean Harlow and "Headin' for Trouble," are showing at the State theatre for the last time today. "Soul of the Slums," a first run picture, will be offered tomorrow for three days with four acts of vaudeville.

"Sure, they Taste Better"

● "I'm sort of restless... always on the lookout for something that hits the old taste spot... and clicks! But I've noticed that I never get tired of Chesterfields. They always taste better to me.

"That can't be an accident. It stands to reason... a cigarette that always tastes better... has got to be made better. You know what I mean... purer materials... more up-to-date ways of working. I'm willing to bet that's why my last Chesterfield of the day is as mild and satisfying as the first!"

LIKE TO HEAR A REALLY GOOD RADIO PROGRAM?

● Tonight... tune in on the Chesterfield broadcast at 7:30 Pacific Standard Time and listen to music by Nat Shilkret's Orchestra and Alex Gray, popular baritone. It's on the Columbia Network every night, except Sunday.
