OREGON SPORTS

FRESH TURNOUT TODAY Jack O'Brien, new yearling baseball coach, has issued a call for all candidates at McArthur court this afternoon.

By DICK NEUBERGER FOOTBALL seems to be the topic of the hour right now, so here's a little dope on the spring practice game at Oregon State college Saturday night. As you probably know already, the Beaver varsity whipped Buck Hammer's all-stars, 15 to 0.

The losing team was composed of men who have Buck Hammer finished their three years of varsity competition and also of those Oregon State coaches who still are nimble enough to do something besides sit on a bench.

The all-stars held off the varsity for the first quarter, but after that superior condition began to tell. Ted Hermann crashed over for one touchdown in the second period and shortly after the half Russell Acheson, quarterback transfer from Pacific university, thumped a 35-yard field goal.

Insofar as football games go, the encounter was nothing to brag about. It was played on a loose field in a drizzling rain and the all-stars hadn't had enough practice to stand the gaff. As a matter of fact, Buck Hammer's lads didn't even know their own signals.

The youth who looked best of all was slippery Norm Franklin, left halfback who returned two kickoff for touchdowns against the Oregon freshmen last autumn. He was as hard to get hold of as a chunk of ice.

Moe, the best blocker in the Pacific coast conference now that Ernie Pinckert has graduated.

Prink Callison, Oregon's new head coach, was at the game to watch the Aggies in action. So were O'Brien, Johnny Kitzmiller and Gene Shields, other members of Prink's staff.

George Richard (Dick) Eckman, the jovial sports writer for the Hearst newspapers, is no longer on the Oregon campus. He left here last night for San Francisco where he will be engaged in newspaper work there.

Vines Named To Head Davis Cup Choices

Shields, Van Ryn, Allison Get Berths on Team

National Racquet Wielders To Face Canadians in First Match

NEW YORK, April 5.—(AP)—H. Ellsworth Vines, Jr., the national champion, Francis X. Shields, John Van Ryn and Wilmer Allison today were named by the Davis Cup committee to carry the United States standard against Canada in the first round of international tennis play.

The team originally selected by the committee included George M. Lott, Jr., of Chicago, runner-up to Vines in the national singles last year, with Allison as alternate, but Lott yesterday announced his retirement from Davis cup play "for business reasons."

All but Vines, the lanky California youngster, played for America in Davis cup matches last year. Van Ryn and Allison also were in the American doubles combination in 1929 and 1930. Allison played only against Mexico last year, Lott taking his place as Van Ryn's doubles partner in the interzone final against England.

The team includes three of the first four ranking players in singles—Vines, Shields and Van Ryn—and the No. 1 doubles combination—Van Ryn and Allison. Allison was ranked ninth in singles.

O'Brien Calls For Yearling Baseball Candidates Today

JACK O'BRIEN, installed yesterday as freshmen baseball coach, issued a call yesterday for all candidates for the yearling nine. He wants all available men at McArthur court this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Although regular practice may start today, the opening workouts surely will be held by tomorrow. O'Brien has not yet met with the candidates, so has no line on prospects.

Fox Airs Vandal Baseball Hopes

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, April 5.—With a nucleus of eight lettermen, several sophomores and promising newcomers, Coach Rich Fox expects to put a strong baseball team on the field this spring.

Idaho's chances received a bad setback when two of the first string pitching trio of last year's freshman team failed to make the required scholastic average for eligibility. Neil Speirs, Talent, Ore., the other sophomore, is showing up well and Fox expects him to bolster the Idaho pitching staff quite a bit.

Occidental, Bruins To Vie in Meet Saturday

LOS ANGELES, April 5.—(AP)—Occidental college and the U. C. L. A. Bruins will renew their annual track and field rivalry Saturday at Westwood.

With first place points fairly well distributed, second and third places are doped to decide the meet. The feature events of the day will take place between Jim Meeks, Occidental star, and Bernie Miller in the high and low hurdles, and between Ivan Belman and Bill Lockett, Bruin captain, in the dashes.

His vivid green basketball suit always added a lot of color to the practice sessions at McArthur court, regardless of the fact that he didn't always sink his shots.

You missed something if you didn't see Colonel Bill Hayward in his 28-stripe sweater yesterday. The colonel had more stripes on him than a top-sergeant. Bill says he will save the sweater for state occasions, such as football games, track meets, etc.

able for the Prom Saturday night because of the huge banquet which is to be held honoring Oregon's mothers and the number of Northwest pioneers who will be on the campus for the unveiling of the statue, "The Pioneer Mother."

Short declared that he would retain the portfolio of finance manager for the event himself, and would handle this task in addition to the general work of managing the entire Canoe Fete.

Short has long been prominent in campus affairs, and acted as chairman of Junior Shine day recently. He says that many important changes are planned for the Canoe Fete, but that the program will remain essentially as in former years.

40 Aspirants Out for Spring Grid Practice

Spring football practice yesterday consisted of a short talk by Prink Callison, new head coach. Callison outlined the plans for the remainder of the six weeks practice sessions.

More than 40 men have turned out this term and the squad is expected to number more than 50 at the end of the week. Johnny Kitzmiller, newly appointed assistant coach, will help drill backfield men, Callison announced.

SPEARS HONORED BY SQUAD AT PI KAP DINNER

In his speech Callison said he was proud to have had the chance to work under Doc Spears and wishes his predecessor the best of luck and success in his new post.

Spears lauds Callison, Bill Hayward and Bill Reinhart for the manner in which they worked with him and thanked the boys for their loyalty to him. "I hope all you fellows stay here and show Prink the same cooperation you have accorded me. He is a fine young coach and I know you will enjoy working under him. I also appreciate the wonderful way in which Bill Hayward and Bill Reinhart worked with me in the two years I was at Oregon.

Johnny Kitzmiller also is a wonderful boy and if he only instills into the backfield men that admirable spirit and the will to win that he showed on the football field himself, his work will have been a success. I am going to follow every game you boys play in, and the morning after the Oregon State game I'll look for what Oregon did as quickly as anyone here. It has been a pleasure to have worked with you boys, and I wish you and Prink all the luck in the world."

Doc also received a gift from the boys as a token of their admiration. Following the banquet the football men were the guests of George H. Godfrey at the Colonial theatre.

Those who were at the banquet as the guests of Pi Kappa Alpha were the following:

Dr. Clarence W. Spears, Prink Callison, Jack O'Brien, Colonel William L. Los Angeles Beats Portland In Terrific Hitting Spree

Pacific Coast League Standings table with columns for Team, W, L, Pct.

LOS ANGELES, April 5.—(AP)—Los Angeles and Portland put on an old time sand lot slugging exhibition today to open the Coast league season. It so happened that Los Angeles won 18 to 14, but the way things went, it seemed largely accidental and unimportant.

The Angels had five pitchers in the fray at various times. Portland amassed a lead of 11 to 4 as early as the third inning, but the Angels came back in the fourth to score six runs. This was not the record, however. Portland had scored seven in the third. It was in this riotous frame that Leroy Herrmann, recent Cub castoff, who opened for the Angels, was

Clark Will Give Views On Oregon Lakes Suit

Dr. R. C. Clark, head of the history department went to Portland yesterday morning to be interviewed by Randolph Collins, U. S. attorney, regarding the old Harney and Malheur lakes civil suit between the United States and the state of Oregon.

During the trials at Burns last fall, Dr. Clark was summoned by the United States supreme court to testify as an expert witness concerning the early history of the disputed lakes and their navigability.

The federal government claims the lakes as a reservation for fowls. Decision will be given sometime in June after the master in chancery at San Francisco makes his recommendations to the U. S. supreme court, according to Dr. Clark.
