Swim Stars Will Compete By Telegraph

Hawaii Sponsors Unique Competition

Webfoot Mermen To Take Part In National Meet May 4

A telegraphic swimming meet by correspondence, the first of its kind in the annals of the aquatic sport, will be run off during the week of May 2-7, with any and all American colleges having water squads participating in the event. The University of Hawaii is sponsoring the competition, and the Oregon mermen are to be among the participants in the novel struggle, according to Jack Hewitt, coach of swimming.

The list of events numbers nine—50-yard free style, 100-yard free style, 220-yard free style, 440-yard free style, 150-yard back stroke, 200-yard breast stroke, 300-yard medley relay, 400-yard relay, and 200-yard relay.

Meet Set for May

The contestants may enter not more than four entries for each race, according to a ruling of the officials of the island school, which is undertaking the sponsorship of the meet to get an idea of how the times made by the Hawaiian natators compare with the American marks.

Hewitt plans to have the Web-foot aggregation take part in the meet on Wednesday, May 4. The squad will be divided into two teams for the purpose of instilling the competitive spirit into the local water fiends. Several mermen have been training for the event the last few days, among them being Bob Needham, Francis Oglesby, Charlie Foster, Paul Laferty, Jim Brooke, Fred Fletcher, Wally Hug, Fred Anderson, Don Stevenson, Jean Privat, John Zehnbauer, Bill Catlow, and Leo Laurin, with several other aquatic aces slated to begin turning out in the near future. Several plan to enter various outdoor swimming events during the summer.

Triangular Meet Slated for 30th

WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE, Pullman, April 7.—Track and field experts of Washington State college will hear the first gun of 1932 competition April 30 when they hook up with the University of Idaho and University of Montana in a triangular meet at Spokane. The three-way classic will be held under the auspices of the Spokane Chamber of Commerce sports bureau.

News was received this week of the possibility of holding an Olympic games sectional tryout in conjunction with the meet. A dispatch from New York said that such preliminary trials would be permitted and the Spokane group is attempting to obtain official sanction.

Among the Cougar aces who would be bidders in Olympic sectional tryouts are Paul Swift, sprinter; Kenneth Wills, miler; Al Crosetto, two-miler; George Martin, jumper; and the freshman weight stars, George Theodoratus and Hal Dunker.

SCHMELING TO ARRIVE
NEW YORK, April 7.—(AP)—Max Schmeling will train for his heavyweight title defense against Jack Sharkey June 16 at Greenville lodge, two miles from Kingston, N. Y., his manager, Joe Jacobs, announced today.

Schmeling, who arrives here tomorrow, will start training May 10. After a brief exhibition this month he plans a week's rest at French Lick Springs, Ind., and a glimpse of the Kentucky derby May 7 before settling down into training.

DONUT CHATS

by JOSEPH SASLAVSKY

The apathetic languor characteristic of spring fever seems to have hit the men's organizations on the campus as far as getting the entry slips for the various donut tournaments to be run off this term into the hands of Earl Boushey is concerned. The genial director of intramural athletics is "gripped," to say the least, at the lackadaisical attitude of the male longs about turning in the blanks which will enable them to participate in the tourneys. To Alpha Upsilon and Kappa Sigma goes the honor of being the first and only houses so far to make known their intention of aspiring for the sundry donut titles.

The entry blanks must be in by today so that the schedules may be drawn up. The intramural tennis and golf battles are to get underway next Monday, April 11, with the soft ball event slated to commence on April 18. The date set for the relay team track meet seemingly is an unknown quantity.

Latest reports credit Francis Oglesby, varsity mermen, with being the sole entrant for the all-campus horseshoe crown. Nary another entry has placed his cognomen on the entrance blank for the barnyard golf struggle.

Things look bad for any of the dubs who have signed up to play in the all-campus tennis singles tourney. A galaxy of star netmen are after the scepter, with the result that the racketeers who cannot display a fairly good game will be out of the running. Perhaps a division of the event into sections in which players of similar calibre would vie would be a more satisfactory arrangement, but since this is not to be, the less gifted racket wielders will have to make the best of the matter and console themselves with gaining valuable tournament experience and practice.

The ping pong tables in the men's gym have become so popular that it is difficult now to capture one long enough to play for any decent length of time. One of the stellar attractions is the fact that the gym furnishes both paddles and balls for the smashers of the celluloid spheroid.

Lewis Throws Kaplan After Torrid Mat Battle

PORTLAND, Ore., April 7.—(AP)—After 32 minutes, 20 seconds, of wrestling, during which Abe Kaplan tossed Ed Strangler Lewis about the ring and held him helpless on two occasions with short arm scissors, Lewis suddenly reversed the proceedings, clamped on a Boston crab, and Kaplan had to be carried from the ring. Kaplan was unable to return, thus adding another unsatisfactory ending to their third engagement here. Both wrestlers resorted to rough tactics.

Lewis weighed 235 pounds, Kaplan 220.

Arsenic Salts Suspected In Racing Case

Specialist Traces Death To Poison Grass

Phar Lap To Be Mounted, Shipped Back to Australia

MENLO PARK, Calif., April 7.—(AP)—While two separate inquiries into the death of Phar Lap were begun today, a San Francisco taxidermist prepared to preserve the great Australian thoroughbred in a mounting that will be shipped back across the Pacific to the land "down under."

One examination was being conducted by F. N. Chisholm, local director of the U. S. department of agriculture, to determine whether the valuable animal was poisoned by grass sprayed with lead arsenate.

"After learning that many of the trees on the Ed Perry ranch, where the horse died last Tuesday, were covered with lead arsenate spray, I can say it is possible he was accidentally poisoned," Chisholm said.

"Some of the spray might have landed on the grass or weeds which the horse was eating. A steady diet of such poisoned grass would certainly cause death."

The department of agriculture representative also is making an analysis of Australian grain brought here for Phar Lap's feeding.

Analysis of the stomach contents of the horse was being made by Dr. Karl F. Meyer of the Hooper medical foundation of the University of California. Dr. Meyer said he had "very little to work with" and expressed belief his analysis would take five or six weeks.

David J. Davis, owner of the horse, had previously accepted the findings of two veterinarians that colic induced by eating green feed or dampened barley had caused death. He said he was permitting the present investigations "to save himself from worrying the rest of his life." "I cannot conceive of anyone fiendish enough to poison the horse," he said, "but Phar Lap had many visitors, one of whom easily could have put poison in his nose bag."

Plans Being Made For Seabeck Meet

Plans for the Northwest Student conference to be held at Seabeck, Washington, June 18 to 28, are now being drawn up by the Y. W. C. A. A delegation headed by Elizabeth Bendstrup, chairman, will be chosen soon.

David G. Hill, pastor of the African Methodist church of Portland, and Dr. Norman F. Coleman, acting president of Reed college, are to be Seabeck leaders. The purpose of the conference is to offer opportunity for the consideration of some of the possibilities of a full and creative life in a complex civilization.

Addresses and discussion will present the student, his choice of vocation, membership in political groups, his influence on the interracial situation. Recreation plans include "stunt nights," boat excursions, hiking, swimming, informal competitive sports, and appreciation hours for poetry and music.

Robert Murray To Talk On 'Adult Play' Today

"Adult Play" will be the topic of Robert Murray's lecture to be presented at 3:45 p. m. today in Gerlinger hall.

The lecturer who is on the campus under the auspices of the National Recreation association, will end his series of recreation gatherings this evening at 7 p. m. with an "Adult Play" program in Gerlinger. Everyone is invited to attend.

Kjosness Steps Into Final Rounds of Ping Pong Meet

INGRAM KJOSNESS, University of Oregon ping-pong champion, advanced into the final stages of the first annual Pacific coast tournament in Portland when he defeated Emil Piuoso, well-known basketball referee, and Charlie Wirth, Eugene star.

The favorites of the tourney, Harry Packard, 17-year-old Seattle youth, and Lowell Fagot, Portland star, battled for four hours Wednesday night and the match had to be called off at 1:40 a. m. with Packard leading 9 to 6. Statistical experts estimated the two whacked the ball some 3600 times during the four hours.

Columbia University Editor Stays Expelled

NEW YORK, April 7.—(AP)—Despite Columbia university's strike riot, Reed Harris, militant student editor, stayed expelled today.

One question seemed to be settled, though, as Alma Mater, giant gilt statue on the library steps, gazed serenely over a litter of tattered placards, broken glass and shattered vegetables. That was: 1.—The strikers made better speeches.

2.—The athletes aimed better with added eggs.

The one-day strike, called to protest Harris' expulsion after he had criticized dining hall food and finances, developed into a day long series of fights. That was because athletes, attacked as professionals by the editor, objected to the strike.

BIG BOY WINS

LONDON, April 7.—(AP)—Primo Carnera, Italian heavyweight, outpointed Dan McCorkindale of South Africa in a 10-round bout at Albert hall tonight. Carnera gained a wide lead in the early rounds, floored McCorkindale twice but the South African finished strong and seemed to have the better of the going in the final round.

Carnera floored McCorkindale for short counts in the second. McCorkindale opened a cut over the Italian's eye in the fifth round.

MAPLE LEAFS WIN

BOSTON, April 7.—(AP)—The Toronto Maple Leafs tonight strengthened their claim on the Stanley cup, emblematic of the world's professional hockey championship, by blinding the New York Rangers with speed to gain a 6-4 victory on the neutral Boston garden ice.

O'Brien Gives Freshman An Opening Drill

First Frosh Workout Is Snappy

Material Looks Good for Duckling Baseball Aggregation

Frosh baseball practice got underway yesterday afternoon when some 30 yearlings answered the call of Coach Jack O'Brien on the practice field back of Hayward field.

Working out for the first time in a week and for the initial time under O'Brien, the new appointed frosh mentor, the Ducklings went to work in earnest and fairly knocked the horsehide off every ball offered them until dusk. A two-lap jog around the playing field topped off the workout.

Batting Strong

A number of good hitters took their turn at bat yesterday, and it looks as if the outfield would be well fortified. Among those who looked best at the plate were Wesley Clausen, midget slugger from Jefferson high in Portland, and Fred Fowler, another former prep star from the Rose City.

Several infielders gave stellar performances in the first trials. Of these Ernest Garbarino at third and Ivan Elliot at shortstop show the most promise. A host of other first-year men looked good snaring ground ball and line drives.

Pitchers Scarce

Battery men are scarce, however. Of the more than a dozen pitchers which signed up at the start of the term, only three made their appearance last night, and very few men were present to work behind the bat. Hartley Kneeland and Dick Prouty, both left-handers, look to be the best of the moundsmen who have stated their intention of turning out. This leaves a good opening for a hurler who throws with the right arm and can hit the center of the plate at least one out of four times.

Coach O'Brien stated that workouts will be held for the remainder of the season promptly at 3:15 every afternoon. Due to the short training period left he announced that drills would begin in earnest at once. No definite schedule has as yet been made out for the yearling nine, but competitive play should begin within the next two weeks.

Beavers Whip Angels In 8th Inning Rally

Johnson Raps Out Home Run With Bases Full

Eight Pitchers See Service On Mound in Hectic Batting Struggle

LOS ANGELES, April 7.—(AP)—Bob Johnson's home run with the bases loaded in the eighth inning today gave Portland a 12 to 9 victory over Los Angeles and a two to one lead in the current series.

Johnson's home run was only one of six gathered evenly by both clubs. Jacobs and Reeves collected four-base swats for the Ducks and Campbell, Blair and Dittmar were the circuit hitters for the Angels.

Eight pitchers went to the post during the afternoon, Portland starting out with Bill Shores, followed by Art Jacobs, and winding up with Hank McDonald.

Los Angeles started off with Southpaw Lester Sweetland and followed with Buzz Wetzel, Malcolm Moss, Hal Stitzel and LeRoy Herrmann.

MISSIONS FINALLY WIN
SACRAMENTO, April 7.—(AP)—The Missions broke into the win column for the first time this season when Dutch Lieber hurled a 6 to 2 victory over Tom Flynn. Lieber had the Solons in check all through the game. Flynn was touched freely in four innings. Sherlock, with a single, double and triple, led the attack on Flynn.

Former Giant Star Back in Big Time After Five Years

NEW YORK, April 7.—(AP)—"Long George" Kelly, once the idol of the polo grounds, is coming back to the major leagues to plug a hole at first base.

The Brooklyn dodgers, worried over an operation on Del Bissonette's ankle that will incapacitate the club's regular first baseman during the early season, announced today Kelly had been purchased from Minneapolis and would be on hand for the opening game with Boston Tuesday.

Kelly, 36 year old, and a star with the Giants from 1919 to 1927, was the best first baseman available when the dodgers failed to induce the Cardinals, Giants or Washington to Release a man capable of filling Bissonette's shoes. Brooklyn will deliver a pitcher and an unannounced cash sum within two weeks for Kelly, who had refused to sign with Minneapolis because of contract differences.

Philadelphia Nationals Win Annual City Series

PHILADELPHIA, April 7.—(AP)—The Philadelphia Nationals put the city series championship in the bag today for the third straight year by defeating the Athletics 3 to 2 in a 10-inning game. With one game to be played, the series stands at three victories for the Phils and one for the A's.

Jimmy Fox had a homer for the A's and Leslie Mallon duplicated the trick for the Phils. With the score 2 to 2 in the 10th, Rube Walberg was nicked for the deciding tally by Bartell when he singled and advanced to third on a sacrifice. He scored on Mallon's hit to left field.
