

YW Plans Campus Waffle Feed To Be Given on April 30

Evelyn Kennedy Heads New Affair To Be Held At Five Houses

A new idea in waffle-feeds has been planned for April 30 by the upper-class commission of Y. W. C. A. under the leadership of Evelyn Kennedy, general chairman.

Waffle feeds, which have formerly been held only in the afternoon at the Craftsman club, will this year be held at the men's dorm, and at four sororities, Delta Chi Omega, Delta Gamma, Alpha Chi Omega, and Alpha Phi.

On this date luncheons will not be served in living organizations in the campus; instead tickets enabling students to obtain waffles at any of the above-mentioned houses will be given. To make the affair more enticing, dancing and featured entertainment will be offered at each house.

The proceeds secured from this novel luncheon idea will go towards the Seabeck conference fund sponsored by the upper-class commission of Y. W. C. A. It will also serve as a reserve fund for future delegates.

The committees which are working on the waffle luncheon are: Evelyn Kennedy, general chairman; secretary, Lois Greenwood; food, Emma Belle Stadden, Lucille Kraas, and Willametta Logsdon; tickets, Margaret Hunt, Marian Henderson, Mary Lu Dodds, and Marguerite Tarbell.

Publicity, Caroline Hahn, and Esther Hayden; entertainment, Marian Camp, Evangeline Miller, and Helen Raitanen; arrangements, Marjorie Swafford, Joyce Eusenbark, and Frances Johnston; serving, Frances Keene, Pat McKenna, and Helen Burns; decoration, Marvin Jane Hawkins, Ann Kelly, Dorothy Haberlach; and clean-up, Anne-Marie Frederick, Mary Ellen Bradford, Mary Teresi, and Mary Snider.

Lecture By Mott Put Off Because Assembly Conflict

BECAUSE of conflict with the student body assembly at 10 o'clock this morning, James W. Mott, state corporation commissioner, will not speak as previously announced.

Mott was scheduled to address business administration students on "Financial Racketeering." The speech will be postponed to some later date, as yet unannounced to suit Mr. Mott's convenience.

Club Announces Vocation Series

A series of meetings on Christian aspects of vocations will be sponsored by the Wesley foundation beginning Sunday evening and continuing each Sunday evening for the first half of spring term, it was announced yesterday by Philip Dale, vice-president.

Dr. George P. Winchell will lead the first of this series Sunday evening at 6:30 at the First Methodist Episcopal church. His topic will be "Serving Humanity as a Doctor."

Prof. John L. Casteel, director of the speech division, will begin a series of meetings on "Various Ways of Finding God" Sunday morning at 9:45 at the regular meeting of the University class of the Methodist church.

Fireside hour will be held Sunday evening at the home of Francisco Tubban, 1820 Olive street, according to Howard Ohmart, fire-side chairman.

DEBUSK TO SPEAK

Professor B. W. DeBusk of the education department will speak to the teachers of Providence academy in Vancouver, Washington, on his clinical work.

Early Passage of Revenue Measure Hope of Senators

Both Parties Back of Bill; Surtax Raise Proposed Sales Levy Ignored

WASHINGTON, April 7.—(AP)—Enactment of the billion-dollar tax bill with a minimum of delay was declared the common objective today of both Republicans and Democratic Senate leaders.

The Democrats held a party conference and decided to support the measure. Soon afterward, Chairman Smoot of the finance committee, speaking for the Republicans, joined them.

The Democrats reached no agreement on the raging controversy over inclusion of new tariff duties in the tax bill, but one obstacle was removed when the sales levy, rejected by the House, was ignored.

Senator Connally (D., Tex.) opened a move at the Democratic conference for increasing the surtax rates applying on the incomes over $100,000. The House bill provides a maximum of 40 per cent on all incomes in excess of $100,000.

The Texan is considering a proposal to scale this 40 per cent maximum up to about 50 per cent with the latter figure to apply on incomes of $3,000,000 or $5,000,000. There are signs of favorable consideration for the proposal on both sides of the aisle.

An amendment to be proposed to the revenue bill for import levies on saved lumber and timber not specially provided for in existing tariff schedules was introduced today by Senator Steiwer (R., Ore.)

In a bill he introduced today, the Oregonian asked that the secretary of the interior be authorized to enter into cooperative agreements with the state land owners or grazing districts for grazing or range development on public lands.

Benjamin J. Marsh, speaking for the people's lobby, advocated a 75 per cent maximum tax on inheritances. He also urged higher income rates and proposed to eliminate tax exempt securities.

All Junior Women May Vote On List For Mortar Board

ALL junior women are asked by Mortar Board, women's senior honorary, to indicate their choice for members into the honorary today from 1 to 5 in room 3 Johnson hall. A complete list of names will be given each junior, and it will be her privilege to select fifteen from this list.

Mortar Board will select its members Junior week-end at the campus luncheon. The honorary requests the cooperation of every junior woman in making her list of those qualified for membership.

Chinese and Japanese Literature on Display

The literature of Japan and China is receiving the attention of those people interested in the display shelf of the library, for the group of books placed there this week is composed entirely of the works of Japanese and Chinese authors.

In this collection is included a volume of modern plays by Iwasaiki and Hughes, "170 Japanese Poems" which have been translated by Arthur Waley, well-known translator of Oriental literature, and the Chinese Lyrics of Pih Yuh Shee Shoo.

APPLICANTS FOR EDITOR POSTS TO FILE MONDAY

Group To Meet

At the conclusion of the series of meetings the committee recommends to the executive council for final approval one person for each of the four positions.

In case the executive council should reject the recommendation, the publications committee reconsiders the original group of candidates and recommends another person for the position.

Members of the publications committee are Brian Mimaugh, chairman, Thornton Gale, George Godfrey, Jeannette Calkins, Willis Duniway, Orlando Hollis, Walter Evans, Ronald Robnett, and Hugh Rossan (non-voting).

CIVIL UPRISING IN CHINA LOOMS AS POSSIBILITY

To the west in central China are several communistic governments, the most menacing of which appears to be that of General Ho Lung, former confidant of Chiang Kai-Shek.

General Ho, long one of the most feared commanders in China, has 60,000 troops concentrated in Hupeh province with plenty of ammunition, with the avowed intention of overthrowing the Nanking government.

Commission Shows Interest The League of Nations commission examining Sino-Japanese affairs appeared greatly interested in the Communist threat while they were at Hankow recently.

The commissioners looked into the position of Ho Lung, and were curious about the "Soviet government" for the borders of Honan, Anhui and Hupei. This group has set up a provisional government with Chipping as its capital, and is the same one which has been holding Bert Nelson, an American missionary, for more than a year.

'WHISKERINO SHUFFLE' TO END SOPH'S WAITING

(Continued from Page One) ages and the awarding of prizes for the longest beard, the blackest beard, reddest beard, curliest beard, least beard, and the beard of the most unique design. Local merchants are offering the prizes for the contest.

Big sergeant-of-arms, Mike Mikulak will be there with his trusty crew of vigilant assistants to see that all claimants show the evidence of a delayed jaw scraping.

Committees for the sophomore social event as announced by Stauffer and Adams are as follows: beard judging, Helen Burns, chairman; Helen Lee Stanton, Adrienne Sabin, Rosemary Berthois, Marion Vinson, Betty Zentner; publicity, Ed Schweiker, chairman; Maxine Reid, Nancy Suomela; refreshments, Esther Lofstedt, chairman, Glory Herzog, Herbert Simmons; patrons, Betsy Steiwer, chairman, Charleen Purcell.

Committee chairmen are asked to get in touch with Stauffer and Adams at the earliest date possible.

DEB PREFERS TO SMOKE PIPE; MALES 'GET BIRD'

"When I came to America I found most all the ladies I met smoking cigarettes.

"Then I thought of my little pipe. I had it made because I wanted to smoke between the acts at the theatre and at dinner parties, yet an ordinary pipe ruins the pocket of a dinner coat.

"This one solved my problem—enough tobacco for a good little smoke, but never a nuisance to carry around.

"I decided it would be just the thing for your American women, so I had a few made for my friends. Now everywhere I go I see beautiful ladies puffing on pipes."

Lord Gosford warns feminine pipe-smokers not to use ordinary masculine tobacco, which he calls "fine for the out-of-doors but horrible in a parlor." He recommends very mild, very fragrant blends.

GRADUATE DIES

Ralph K. Black, '31, died in Portland on March 26. While on the campus he was a major in education, a member of Phi Beta Kappa, and Phi Delta Kappa, national education honorary for men. Before his death he was principal of an elementary school in Oswego. He is survived by his wife, M. Lorraine Black.

Interment took place Wednesday in the Odd Fellows cemetery here.

TALKIE TOPICS

McDonald — Clark Gable and Marion Davies in "Polly of the Circus." First night.

Colonial — Charles Farrell and Janet Gaynor in "Merely Mary Ann." First night.

Rex — "Over the Hill" with Mae Marsh, Sally Eilers, and Jimmy Dunn. Last showing.

State — Mary Nolan in "Enemies of the Law" and vaudeville. Heilig — Douglas Fairbanks Jr. in "It's Tough To Be Famous." Last showing.

Minister Gable

Clark Gable, the man the ladies, including the co-eds, like, and the man the men like, a combination heretofore unheard of, now steps forth in the guise of a minister in "Polly of the Circus" with Marion Davies.

After being the hard, mean gangster in "Dance Fools Dance," the gun-toting menace in a few "horse-oprys," and the New York business man in "Possessed," he now comes forth as a small-town minister. Can you take it? A good actor should be able to handle any kind of a role, and we are convinced that Gable is a good actor.

It seems that Marion Davies, as Polly, the aerialist, falls from the trapeze during the act, and there being no hospitals in the town, he is taken to the minister's house. Which leads to interesting happenings.

The aerial troupe known as "The Codonas" provide numerous thrills by their spectacular stunts. They appeared before in Emil Jennings' "Variety" some time ago.

Farrell and Gaynor

That favorite romantic love-

team of Charles Farrell and Janet Gaynor may be seen today and tomorrow at the Colonial in "Merely Mary Ann," a show which is bound to please your sweet tooth.

Farrell plays the part of a young man of wealth who rejects his chance in business in order to pursue his calling as a composer of songs. Hence he hires a garret in true artistic style (a rather attractive garret at that) and Janet Gaynor plays the part of the little scrub and dust girl who keeps the garret clean.

Last Walk Home

"Over the Hill," with Mae Marsh will close its two-day showing today at the Rex. Sally Eilers and Jimmy Dunn of "Dance Team" fame are also in this film. The story deals with a mother who is unwelcome in the home of her children.

Gang Show at State

Mary Nolan, the girl who's always getting sued for something or other, has the lead in "Enemies of the Law" now showing at the State.

A number of vaudeville acts complete the bill. They have an athletic act, comic singing and others. One has Sunny Daye of Portland, who has appeared in Fanchon and Marco shows. "Hotel Continental" with Peggy Shannon will be previewed at a midnight show Saturday night.

Doug's Show Closing

Douglas Fairbanks Jr. in "It's Tough To Be Famous" will be seen for the last times tonight at the Heilig.

Library Shelves Have New Books

A number of rent and seven day books have been added to the circulating lists of the library since the end of last quarter.

Among the seven-day books are: "Blue Ghost, a Study of Lofcaclio Hearn," by Jean Temple; "Breakdown," by Robert Briffault; "Comedy of Human Philosophy," by M. Leon; "On Understanding Women," by Mary R. Beard; "Thunder and Dawn," by Glenn Frank; "A Study of All American Markets," by L. M. Barton; "Emotional Discovery of America," by Stuart P. Sherman; "Can These Things Be," by George Seldes, and "United States in World Affairs" by Walter Lippmann and W. O. Scroggs.

Among the rent books are: "The Dance of Youth," by Hermann Sudermann; "Quiz Yourself," by Goldsmith; "Sparks Fly Upward," by Oliver La Farge; "A Gostbury Romance," by John Cowper Powys; "Brave New World," by Aldous Huxley.

"Two Living and One Dead," by Sigurd Christiansen; "The Book of Living Verse," edited by Louis Untermeyer; "White April," by Lizette W. Reese; "Mirthful Raven," by Booth Tarkington; and "The Golden Vase," by Ludwig Lewisohn.

Hay-Fever Skin Tests Will Be Conducted Now

Hay-fever skin tests will be made at the dispensary now, it was announced by Dr. Fred N. Miller, director of health service. These tests are devised to test sensitivity to hay-fever.

Anyone interested in taking the test should report for it immediately, as the tests are being conducted now to be in advance of the hay-fever season.

KOTCHIK ADVANCED

Announcement of the promotion of George C. Kotchik, senior in art from Portland, from the grade of first lieutenant to that of captain in the R. O. T. C., was made yesterday by Major F. A. Barker of the military science department.

SHOPPING COLUMN

SPRING'S HERE—in spite of the rain cloud that threatened this morning. So come with "Sue" to Eugene's shops and do your spring shopping. Lovely frocks for a warm summer evening! A bit of jewelry from here and there! Clever new sport togs!

There Are Times --

When you want just the right gift for a friend—for birthdays, weddings, going away. And of course you want something attractive, different and yet economical. "Sue" has scouted all over Eugene and her favorite place for such gifts is the Oriental Art Shop, handy in the Eugene Hotel building, on Broadway. Come down to see their clever supply. They'll find the appropriate gift for every occasion—and it'll be the smartest of the season.

Kodak As You Go --

Spring term—that desire for golf, picnics—all those things that are so much fun. And what is nicer than having pictures of your good times. A snap of that perfect drive—that place by the river. Oregon Pharmacy is ready to fill all kodaks. Get a box of candy (Whitman's and Vogan's) to take along. Also, they're campus agency for Western Union.

For the Smart Girl's Purse --

Dogs! Elephants! Even golf clubs are becoming aristocratic and are being fashioned of sterling silver in the form of key rings. Just the thing for the smart and efficient girl's purse. The animals also take the shape of adorable clips that simply beg to adorn a college girl's sport dress. For the golf enthusiast, a group of tees in the form of a brooch is a most unique and clever ornament. See them at Laraway's.

Weather's Nice --

And it's time to dress like spring. And to dress our houses and our rooms up, too! At the University Florist, down on Thirteenth, you can get lovely potted plants and cut flowers—they make your room look brighter. When you have guests at the house for dinner, order the centerpiece from them. You'll have better quality flowers—they're fresh from the green house.

They're Smart!

Ear Muffs

WENT OUT OF STYLE YEARS AGO!

WHEN steam-heated houses and closed automobiles came into style, red flannels and ear muffs went out. Time was when people protected themselves against the weather with all sorts of heavy clothing on the outside—and all kinds of hot, heavy foods on the inside.

But no longer! Now, you'll find that winters seem much milder—and most of it is due to modern living conditions. That's why crisp, ready-to-eat flakes at breakfast are such a healthful dish. You feel better, work better, and enjoy your meal more.

Try a bowl of Kellogg's PEP Bran Flakes. You'll love the flavor! And these better bran flakes are made of whole wheat with its rich store of nourishment. Just enough bran, too, to be mildly laxative.

Wonderful for a late bedtime snack. Try it.
