

Pacific Co-ed Chosen State AWSE Executive

Officers To Be Elected From Hostess College

Miss Webber, Prexy-Elect, Presides in Absence Of Ann Baum

Kathleen Caldwell, from Pacific university which will act as hostess for the Oregon State A. W. S. association next year, was chosen by conference delegates at the new state president at the executive meeting held here yesterday afternoon.

The morning session was concerned with a forum discussion of general topics of women's activities such as the Big Sister movement, vocational guidance programs, social functions, money making projects, mass meetings, and membership drives.

Rules Are Amended

At the afternoon meeting the state constitution was amended to provide for choosing all officers of the organization from the hostess college. The duties of each of the officials of the group were clarified. The president was delegated the function of presiding at all conference sessions, making personal speaking trips to the different campuses, and installing newly organized A. W. S. groups.

The secretary of the state league will have the special function of recording detailed accounts of conference business and providing members with copies of the constitution. The editing and organization of exchange material will be the single task of the vice-president. The treasurer will receive dues from the member schools payable before November 1.

Many Delegates Here

Delegates from the visiting schools were: Betty Steel and Margaret Zimmerman, Oregon State; Winabeth McDowell and Elizabeth Huff, Monmouth normal; Helen Stiles and Mildred Kester, Willamette university; Suzanne Johnson, Martha Giltner, Norma Sears, and Kathleen Caldwell, Pacific university; and Sara Snyder, Albany college.

In the absence of Ann Baum, retiring president of the state association, Louise Webber, president-elect of the Oregon A. W. S., presided over conference activities.

Saturday Deadline For Course Fees

Slightly more than one-third of the students have paid their course fees for spring term, it was reported yesterday by E. P. Lyon, University cashier. Only three and a half days remain in which to pay fees without penalty.

"With such a large percentage of the students yet to pay fees, there will likely be considerable congestion at the cashier's office," Mr. Lyon commented. "Because of banking hours it is necessary that the office close promptly at 12 on Saturday morning. Other days it closes at 3 o'clock."

A penalty of $2 is charged for payment on Monday, with an additional 25 cents charged each day thereafter for the remainder of the week. Students who have not paid fees by the end of next week automatically suspend themselves, it was explained by Mr. Lyon.

Foreigners Believe Movies Depict True American Life

By RUTH McCLAIN

That the over-stuffed American home scene and rah-rah college life pictured by the Hollywood movies are accepted by foreign audiences as true conditions here was frankly admitted yesterday by Miss Eirian Morgan-Owen, English student movement executive who was a Y. W. C. A. guest for several days.

American movies are religiously accepted by the English as portraying true standards in the United States, she said. It is impossible to remove from the British mind the role given the West by the cowboy pictures. When Miss Morgan-Owen went to Chicago her family and friends were scandalized, but the worst blow came when they found that she was going on

Fijis Get Mascot, Goat Milk Found Good for Dieters

REPORTS from the Fijis bear out the reason for the unsuccessful diet campaign being staged by diet members of the living organization. Cabbage and goat's milk are prescribed by the dieters as the best menu available for a guaranteed success.

Have the Fijis acquired a mascot—or sumpin'?

Aloysis was sent the local fraternity from San Francisco, the purchase price being actually the sum total of 15 cents. Gus Elbow was the purchaser. It was explained that this particular goat was purchased for its black and white color with a splendid pair of gilded horns.

Plans are now formulating to have Aloysis's partner, Aloysis, sent to Eugene.

Water Spectacle Made Ready for Tonight's Showing

Amphibians Will Present Colorful Pageant at Women's Pool

Last night's dress rehearsal added the finishing touches to "The Frog Dance," water pageant to be given this evening at 8 o'clock in the women's pool at Gerlinger hall by the Amphibian club, local women's swimming honorary.

It will be a colorful and attractive spectacle, according to Harriette Saelzler, who is in charge. The theme is a fairy tale. A king offers as reward his lovely daughter's hand to the suitor who successfully recovers her bracelet from the bottom of the garden pool. This story forms the background for a finished demonstration of form swimming, diving, and stunts, all cleverly worked in as part of the suitor's attempts to win the princess's hand.

The plot and its related demonstration is further carried out by an effective setting of colored lights and brilliant costumes.

The carefully selected cast to appear in the demonstration consist of the following: Mary MacMahon, the princess; Ella Redkey, the king; Jerry McGillicuddy, the frog prince; Agnes Morgan, Eleanor Thurston, Helene Ferris, Mae Schnellbacher, maidens attending the princess; Dorothy Lou MacMillan, the jester; Madeleine Gilbert, Helen Dunshee, Harriette Saelzler, Dorothy Goff, Joy Cottingham, Elaine Untermann, Elizabeth Robertson, Margaret Reynolds, Helen Lawrence, Joyce Bunsenbank, and Marjorie Thayer, the suitors.

Fifteen cents admission will be charged for the program which will begin promptly at 8.

Col. Pillow To Conduct Annual Inspection Here

Col. Jerome C. Pillow of the 9th corps area with headquarters in San Francisco will conduct the annual administrative inspection at the University R. O. T. C. barracks this week.

He was to arrive this morning to begin the inspection. These inspections are directed by the staff in charge of all reserve officer training corps in this area. The 9th area includes all the states on the Pacific coast.

Ethan Newman Named To Head ASUO Banquet

International Week Is Made New Event

Tuesday, May 10, Date of Dinner for Promoting Better Relations

Ethan Newman, junior in economics, last night was named general chairman of this year's International banquet by Brian Minnaugh, A. S. U. O. president.

Plans for the celebration, which has been made a new A. S. U. O. function promoting world fellowship and friendlier international relations, are as yet incomplete. Representing the International Relations club, conferred with Louise Barclay and Aimee Sten, of the Y. W. C. A.; Carroll Pawson and Wu Tang, International house; Helen Evans, representing Philomatele groups, and Eleanor Jane Ballantyne, Cosmopolitan club, last night. These groups in past years have sponsored International week, but this spring the event has been turned over to the A. S. U. O. and concentrated into one International banquet.

Tuesday, May 10, has been set as the date for the banquet to be held at Hendricks hall or the men's new dormitory. An out-of-town speaker prominent in the work for better international relations, will be obtained, and American and foreign students on the campus will also speak.

Ethan Newman Named To Head ASUO Banquet

International Week Is Made New Event

Tuesday, May 10, Date of Dinner for Promoting Better Relations

Ethan Newman, junior in economics, last night was named general chairman of this year's International banquet by Brian Minnaugh, A. S. U. O. president.

Plans for the celebration, which has been made a new A. S. U. O. function promoting world fellowship and friendlier international relations, are as yet incomplete. Representing the International Relations club, conferred with Louise Barclay and Aimee Sten, of the Y. W. C. A.; Carroll Pawson and Wu Tang, International house; Helen Evans, representing Philomatele groups, and Eleanor Jane Ballantyne, Cosmopolitan club, last night. These groups in past years have sponsored International week, but this spring the event has been turned over to the A. S. U. O. and concentrated into one International banquet.

First of Jewett Speech Contests Slated April 28

Hempstead Lists Rules for Annual Public Speaking Competition

The annual W. F. Jewett contests in public speaking were announced yesterday by Walter E. Hempstead Jr., instructor in English, the first taking place on April 28.

There will be four distinct contests; the advanced contest for men, the advanced contest for women, the contest for underclass men, and the contest for underclass women.

In the first two contests the following general rules will be followed: (1) contests will be conducted as after-dinner speaking occasions, (2) time limit for each speaker seven minutes, (3) elimination contests to be held if necessary, (4) number of speakers in final contest limited to eight.

The third and fourth contests will be extempore speaking contests, i. e., each contestant will prepare himself by reading in general the field to be covered; one hour before speaking, the contestant draws three sub-topics from a list of 30 previously posted; he chooses one from these three. The speaker may use the intervening hour to plan his speech, but must stay in a room assigned for the purpose. The contestant may use notes up to 100 words including quotations, but must hand them to the chairman following speech.

The following are eligible in the advanced contest for men: (1) members of debate and oratory squads who have or are now receiving credit for squad work or have participated in any intercollegiate contest, excluding members of the freshman debate squads. (2) Students who have won first prize in any previous Jewett contests, except those who won first prize in the advanced contest of the previous year. (3) Any upperclassman who wishes to compete, and is not competing in any other Jewett contest.

The subject of this contest will be "Bunk." One phase of the subject.

(Continued on Page Two)

Auto Tire Tread Brings Tangible Baum Case Clue

Model 'A' Ford Sought by Police as Hit-Run Accident Car

Tire-tread marks on a piece of notebook paper dropped by Ann Baum proved the first tangible clue yesterday to the hit-and-run car which sent the A. W. S. president to Pacific Christian hospital late Monday night suffering from undetermined injuries. The treads have definitely identified the car as a model 'A' Ford, city police said last night.

A smashed head-lamp brought the first trace of the hit-and-run driver. State police received reports yesterday of a car seen traveling north from 6th avenue. The car was reported to tally with the tentative description of eye-witnesses to the accident, but police found no trace of the auto.

Dr. Irvin R. Fox, who is attending Miss Baum, reported last night that all X-rays taken showed that

(Continued on Page Two)

Campus To See Prom Queen Candidates in Noon Parade

Ten Fair Co-eds in Race For Junior Week-End Royal Sceptre

Ten fair co-eds, selected by general vote as the most popular and beautiful aspirants for the sceptre of Junior Prom queen, will be introduced to the entire campus today in a parade, each enthroned in an individual roadster.

From this group the student body will tomorrow elect the queen and her four attendants. Voting will start at 9 a. m. and last until 4 p. m. The voting place will be in front of the old library.

The parade today will start shortly after 12:40 from 19th and Alder streets, where pictures will be taken of all the candidates, and proceed down Alder to 13th street, east on Alder to University, to the men's dormitory, and then make a general tour of the campus.

In order that students may judge

AWS Ballyhoos Hold Huge Auction At Commerce Hall

Hear ye! Hear ye! Auction! Auction! Step right up folks and take a good look at this handsome French book—absolutely never been opened—get the right kind of a fountain pen, one that writes—positively your last chance to bid on the radium dial wrist watch equipped with the latest model second hand. Going, going—gone!

The little lady on my left wins the beautiful enameled compact.

Now what am I offered for this handsome man's trenchcoat—what! no response? Then I'll throw in the tall silk top hat. Who's the highest bidder for the white pigskin gloves? It's spring in Oregon—time to lay in your supply of umbrellas and goloshes. The surprise of the day follows!

This is station A. W. S. broadcasting all day from our auction sale station on the steps of Commerce building.

Senate To Vote on Beer This Session

WASHINGTON, April 19—(AP)—A senate opportunity to vote on beer this session was virtually assured today despite disapproval of the Bingham bill to legalize four per cent brew by the manufacturers committee.

In reporting the measure adversely 7 to 4, committee members agreed to let it go to the senate floor.

Meantime, an official of the American Federation of Labor warned of a "revolution" unless the employing power of the beer industry is revived but before another senate sub-committee Bishop James Cannon, Jr., said: "we are never going to surrender."

'Give 'em Booze And Milk 'em Dry', Whoops Charley

No Beer—No Bonus

Every moron 21 years old can vote. And if you doubt my word just glance at the bills Congress is debating.

Beer and the bonus vie for favor as vote-catchers. A dollar in the pocket and a bottle on the hip is a congressman's best campaign slogan. Give 'em beer and give 'em hell. Good old Senator Bingham loudly yells for beer for the boys and quietly helps the big shots boost the tariff. Talk about rolling drunks.

Fiery LaGuardia—New York's lone Republican congressman—tips over the apple cart by rapping the bonus. To take fellows who yelp for a bonus "to help unemployment" he retorts, if you want to help the jobless, let's have unemployment insurance.

But the boys have industrialists for constituents as well as veterans. And it takes cash to get elected.

Me and Plato are losing faith in democracy. Gloomily. WEEFOOT CHARLEY.

Europe Must Settle Affairs, Borah Argues

Idaho Senator Opposes Debt Cancellation

Omission of Payment Item In Britain's Budget Draws Criticism

By NATHAN ROBERTSON WASHINGTON, April 19—(AP)—A sharp warning sounded in the Senate by Chairman Borah of the foreign relations committee that Europe must settle her own problems before coming to the United States for debt relief roared across the Atlantic tonight.

Borah led a chorus of opposition to debt cancellation in the Senate as the news spread that Great Britain's budget announced today does not include provision for payment of the American debt.

For the first time since the campaign of 1928, Borah turned his oratorical fire on former Governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York, characterizing as "cancellation" the Democratic candidate's plan for a 20-year moratorium on debts.

Unheralded, Borah's speech was made before sparsely occupied galleries, but the Senate floor filled as he demanded revision of the Versailles treaty, disarmament and settlement of the reparations problem.

He told the Senate the war did not end in 1918, but "has been carried on as remorselessly and to some extent more destructively since that time."

"The economic war, the financial war, has never ceased," he shouted. "It is a continuance of the war upon the battlefield."

"To cancel the debts on the theory that it would help economic conditions, without a change in these treaties and spirit, is in my opinion a perfectly futile proposition."

Before Borah started, Senator Reed, of Pennsylvania, administration spokesman, served notice in the face of the British budget development that this country expects to collect its debts.

Dr. Hall Returns From Portland; Condition Better

Advised To Take Complete Rest by Dillehunt; Overwork Blamed

Dr. Arnold Bennett Hall, president of the University, returned home from Portland yesterday afternoon.

Dr. Hall said last night that his condition was greatly improved since his collapse Monday after the noon adjournment of the state board of higher education. Although doctor's orders have been to get a good rest, he will continue to work part time on the huge program placed before him by the state board under the careful eye of a physician, he said.

His collapse was described by Dr. Richard B. Dillehunt, dean of the University medical school in Portland, as being caused as the result of overwork. He prescribed a good rest for Dr. Hall before resuming his duties.

Pre-Law Students Elect Tom Tongue

Tom Tongue, sophomore registered from Hillsboro, was elected president of the newly instituted pre-law association, when that group met last night. Al McKelligon, Portland, was selected as vice-president of the group, and Otto Vonderheit, Portland, was named secretary-treasurer.

Bertram Schotz was appointed to head a committee designated to tender. Members of the faculty of sociology for the remainder of the year. Schotz will have as his assistants Robert Hunter and Glenn Hieber.

With the election of officers last night, definite formation of future plans for the association will be forthcoming. The purpose of organization is to bring all pre-law students into closer contact. Freshmen and sophomores taking pre-law courses are automatically affiliated with the body.

Speaker Tonight

Burt Brown Barker, vice president of the University and donor of the statue, "The Pioneer Mother," who will address a group of student leaders at a banquet at the new men's dormitory tonight on the subject of the statue, and how he came to choose it.

Barker To Speak To Student Heads On Pioneer Statue

Address To Precede Actual Unveiling of Monument On May 7th

The main event preceding the unveiling of the statue of "The Pioneer Mother" will take place at the men's new dormitory tonight at 6:30, when Burt Brown Barker, vice president of the University and donor of the statue, will address a group of student leaders on ideas that led up to the presentation of the statue to the University.

Mr. Barker will tell student officers, editors of student publications and other campus leaders who will be present at the banquet how he first obtained the idea of presenting the statue to the University, the historical background represented, and the plans for the unveiling.

The statue of "The Pioneer Mother," done by A. Phimister Proctor, will be unveiled Saturday, May 7, in connection with the Junior Week-end and Mother's Day activities. It is to be placed in the women's quadrangle, near Gerlinger hall and the women's dormitories.

Pioneers and mothers will be honored at the ceremony Saturday afternoon, and will be special guests at all week-end activities.

Eugene Lions To Hear Sweetser Talk Today

Albert R. Sweetser, emeritus professor of plant biology, is to be the principal speaker of the weekly luncheon meeting of the Eugene Lions club Wednesday noon at the Eugene hotel.

Prof. Sweetser will address the service club on "Flora of Oregon," illustrating his talk with colored slides.

Mortar Board Ball Affords Campus Co-eds Date Initiative

Gather ye invites while ye may, men. Following the suggestion of the green frogs of last week and the serenade by the Mortar Board last night, co-eds are ready to take the grand leap towards the Mortar Board ball Saturday.

The whole idea is based on the leap night idea. Women will buy tickets to the ball, and escort their partners to the dance in whatever style they believe fitting for the formality of the occasion. The ball will be of special interest to freshmen because of the choice at that time of Kwama pledges from their number.

A novel amplifying system is being installed at the Eugene hotel, by which the music of Abbie Green's Midnite Sons will be heard in the ballrooms from the lobby, where they will play. Use of the entire lobby and three dining rooms is planned to provide plenty of space for dancing.

On Thursday the Co-op will display five fine prints of old masterpieces, from which the house reporting the largest sale of tickets

Student Forum To Be Formed Tonight at 7:30

3 Members Called From Each House, Hall

Idea Originates in NSFA Assembly Held Last Term

Embarking on a new departure in student government, three men and women from each fraternity, sorority, and dormitory unit on the campus will meet tonight in Villard hall to organize a student forum, Brian Minnaugh, president of the associated students, said last night.

The forum, planned as an open discussion group to provide each student with a more complete understanding of campus problems and to develop student leaders, is an outgrowth of the N. S. F. A. assembly held last term at which campus politics were discussed.

One sophomore, junior, and senior from each living organization, preferably those men and women most interested in campus politics and affairs, will be asked to attend the first meeting of the forum tonight, according to Minnaugh.

Irma Logan, A. S. U. O. secretary, will call all houses and halls today to ask presidents to choose their representatives.

Minnaugh will preside temporarily at the formation meeting tonight, but the group will be free to choose its own chairman and proceed with plans of organization as it sees fit, it is reported. A parliamentary system, copied from student unions in Australian universities, has been proposed for the Oregon student forum, according to Minnaugh. Other organization plans are also said to be ready for presentation tonight.

Attack Launched On Bonus Payment

WASHINGTON, April 19—(AP)—Three veterans of political and world war battles today launched the counter attack which administration leaders hope will block the two billion dollar bonus payment.

Representatives Laguardia of New York and Simmons of Nebraska, formerly of the air service, and Representative Johnson of South Dakota, once an infantryman, assailed the currency expansion plan to cash the bonus certificates.

All three Republicans favored changes in the existing law, a point immediately stressed by Representative Patman (D., Tex.), who is leading the bonus fight. But none favored the $2,400,000,000 cash payment.

"If a secret vote were taken on this bonus plan in the house, there would not be 30 votes for it," Laguardia said.