Coach Decides on Line-up For Second Practice Clash of Season

Oregon grid fans are likely to get so used to seeing thrilling football games if today's practice game is anything like last Friday's that they will be unable to stir up enthusiasm for next fall's conference contests.

Prink Callison noon at 4 o'clock on the practice field below McArthur court.

Because of heated outbursts and dire threats of opposing linemen after last week's game, Callison has decided to change the lineups of the two teams.

More than 1600 students turned out to witness the first contest and an even larger crowd is expected this afternoon.

No admission will be charged for the simple reason that there are no seats. No peanut vendors will be allowed, Doc Robnett, assistant graduate manager, announced.

The contest will be a full length tussle and Shy Huntington will again referee. Rush Hughes, manager of radio station KORE announced this week that he was

Hayward Is Back To Direct Track Squad in Person

COLONEL WILLIAM L. HAYWARD rolled up in his big Willys-Knight yesterday afternoon on Hayward field, and for the first time in nearly two weeks personally directed his track and field athletes in their daily workout.

Despite the rain that beat down on the oval for the better part of the afternoon, Bill put his men through a stiff workout in preparation for the annual relay carnival with Oregon State here tomorrow.

Night events are scheduled for the meet this year. They are all relays—the 440, the 880, the mile, the two-mile, the four-mile, the sprint medley, the distance medley, and the shuttle events.

Bob Johnson smashed out a home run in the 11th inning here today to give Portland another victory over the Missions. The score was 6 to 5.

The Missions, trailing 2 to 5 in the seventh, tied the score with a three-run rally off Jack Prudhomme in the eighth.

SEATTLE, April 21.—(AP)—

A three-run rally in the fourth inning of a Pacific Coast league baseball game here today gave the Hollywood Stars a 3-to-2 victory over the Seattle Indians.

Brannan, Star second baseman, started the fireworks with a home run as the fourth inning opened. Three successive hits brought the other two counters.

Dutch Holland, Seattle outfielder, got his second homer of the series, in the eighth inning after a double killing had cleaned the bags of the Indians. Holland hit a homer in the first game here Tuesday.

with his mysterious death from a pistol shot.

Mrs. Keith-Miller was held incommunicado in the county jail after the shooting, as was her flying partner for several years, Captain W. N. Lancaster, former British aviator.

Investigators said notes left by Clarke pointed conclusively to suicide. Mrs. Ida Clyde Clarke, his mother, a University of Miami professor, agreed on this point and said her son had had worries.

A Great Football Player; Spring Game Again Today

By DICK NEUBERGER

HIS NAME is Lemon Holt. His teammates called him "Rusty." He played left halfback for the University of Hawaii football eleven that met the University of Oregon in an inter-territorial game at Portland three years ago, Cap McEwan's last season here.

His team did not win, nor did he reach the scoring goal he tried so valiantly to gain all afternoon, but 20,000 Portlanders and the two-score men who played on the Oregon eleven never will forget the dashing little brown-skinned boy, who, single-handed, tried to win a football game and almost succeeded in doing so.

The Webfoots played against Merle Hufford of Washington, Buster Crabtree of Florida, and Frankie Wilton of Stanford that year, but they never saw the equal of the performance Rusty Holt gave on Multnomah field in an attempt to avert an inevitable defeat.

Oregon was by far the heavier team. It outweighed the Hawaiians almost 20 pounds to the man. The ratio of the reserve strength was almost proportionate, the Islanders having brought a small squad of only 28 players.

Yet, the score was only 7 to 0. Oregon got its lone touchdown just before the half ended when Bobby Robinson grabbed one of Holt's twisting spirals and returned it 55 yards to scoring territory. The goal-kick made it 7 to 0. Up till that time Hawaii had not been able to move out of its tracks, but Robinson's run marked the turning point in the Islanders' offensive.

Throughout the entire third quarter Holt circled the ends, pounded the center and cut back over the tackles as he gradually worked the ball into Oregon territory.

He interspersed his ground attack with a series of marvelous forward passes that had the Webfoots running all over the field. Twice Holt threw incomplete passes over the Oregon goal line and three times he worked the ball down to the five-yard ribbon.

He lacked the weight—he tipped the beam at only about 170—to penetrate Oregon's massed-up defense on the goal line. But he treated the Portland crowd to one of the greatest exhibitions it ever saw, and turned what everyone had expected to be a massacre into a surprisingly close football game.

When Rusty finally was carried from the field late in the fourth quarter as the November sun was dipping down behind the hills, the applause that arose from the stadium sounded like the peal of thunder on the heights back of the field.

Another spring football game here today. If it's anything like the last one, it will be well worth seeing. Prink Callison says there will be no captains this afternoon, the two squads having been divided up by the coaching staff.

Notice where the St. Louis Cardinals and the New York Giants are trailing the National league? That's a funny situation. The two teams all the experts confidently predicted to lead the parade are resting together in the cellar.

However, the early-season start doesn't mean much. Teams that bloom in the spring often wilt in the heat of the mid-summer sun. It's the club that can finish in the stretch that comes through. A race is always won in its last half.

Let's hope Colonel Bill Hayward will be well enough to take charge of the Oregon trackmen at tomorrow's meet with Oregon State. It wouldn't be a bona fide contest if Colonel Bill weren't there.

By the way, here's some news that will interest the colonel. It's about Ralph Hill, his star miler of two years ago. However, I'll let Braven Dyer tell the colonel about Ralph. Here's how Braven describes Hill's latest feat in the Los Angeles Times:

"All by himself Ralph Hill won the two-mile event at Patterson field yesterday afternoon. This wasn't surprising inasmuch as the former University of Oregon miler, in doing so, set a new Pacific Coast record of 9m. 23.2-5s. When you run that fast against Far Western competition you're bound to be rather lonesome inasmuch as our most energetic eight-lap lads are fairly looping the loop when they hit around 9m. 40s."

Hill's effort featured the Olympic club-Southern California's meet which the Trojans won as expected, 9 1/2 to 39 1/2, while showing brilliantly in many events where such radiance was rather surprising.

"The old Pacific Coast two-mile record of 9m. 27.3s. was set in 1929 by Sellers of Washington, running against Oregon State at Corvallis. Hill and Sellers are the only coast men to get under 9m. 30s., at least officially. The ex-Oregon star ran the mile in 4m. 12 3-5s. two years ago, but is concentrating on the larger grind now in preparation for the Olympic Games."

In the divot-digging matches yesterday, the Sigma Phi Epsilon quartet knocked over the dope bucket by beating the Betas, who had been picked to take the golf scepter without much trouble, 7-1-2 to 4-1-2. Al Schmidt, the SPE number one man, took Bob Near, the ace of the millrace aggregation, down the line to gain two out of three points. Duane Frisbie, Bob Anderson, and Fred Davis added enough points to the SPE total to gain the upset conquest.

Sigma Chi, in the other match, downed the Kappa Sig bag toters, 7 to 5. Ross Smith and Ken Swan each gained three points for the Sigma Chi cause and were aided by Harry Weimar and Bill Goodwin.

The Yeomen and Alpha hall racket handers resumed their postponed argument yesterday on the tennis courts, in the remaining doubles match which had been interrupted Wednesday by the rain. Ingram Kjosness and Dick Dallas won it for the independents by a score of 6-2, 7-5 and gave their squad a victory in two out of three matches. The complete summary of the Yeoman-Alpha hall contests follows: Norman Winslow, Alpha hall, beat Francis Moon, 6-2, 6-3; Tom Mountain and Del Thom of the independents overcame Wally Baker and Worth Chaney, 6-4, 6-2; and Kjosness and Dallas beat Clark Williams and William Peterson of the dorm racketeers.
