OREGON SPORTS

Admiral Reinhart is drilling the boys for the annual big test this week-end when the Webfeet meet the Orangemen in the first of a four-game baseball series.

As One Red-Head To Another; Cap and Red Political Foes

By DICK NEUBERGER

NOW that the campus political parties have been announced, this seems as good a time as any to recite a little piece about the feats and achievements of the two red-headed athletes running against each other for the post of senior man.

Red Bailey

This is going to be absolutely on the level, so the lads will be dealt with alphabetically. Red Bailey comes first under such an arrangement.

Cap Roberts

For the past two seasons he has been regular right-end on the Oregon football eleven. Not since he started under Doc Spears two years ago has he ever been beaten out of his position.

His most spectacular individual feat was the snaring of the pass that placed Oregon in position to score its first touchdown against Washington last autumn.

Bailey also played a splendid game against Oregon State last fall. He survived practically all of that bitter encounter with a broken nose, having been injured in the opening minutes.

Like Red Bailey, Charles E. (Cap) Roberts is a one-sport man. His specialty is basketball and he is equally as outstanding in the indoor pastime as his political opponent is in football.

And that's all the politics in which this column will indulge. It's too bad Sir Arthur Conan Doyle couldn't say something about it, for he once wrote a Sherlock Holmes' story named the "Red-Headed League," a title that would adapt itself to the situation admirably.

Spirits High for Coming Diamond Struggles With Orangemen

By BOB RIDDLE

All decked out and a joy to behold, the Oregon varsity baseball team, clothed in its natty new uniforms, put on a snappy scrimmage session during yesterday's drill.

The art of pulling a "squeeze play" was another important item on the bill of fare. So perfectly did they work that even "Duke" Shaneman reached home safely a number of times.

Only two more weeks of practice remain this term. Plans for a closing contest, similar to the one staged at Corvallis recently, have not been worked out.

Things looked brighter in the Webfeet camp with the news that the Willamette Bearcats drubbed O. S. C. in the second of their three game series, Tuesday, by a 6-2 score.

Today will be the final day of practice before the season gets under way against Oregon State. A two game win for Admiral Reinhart's crew will doubtlessly start the ball rolling towards a high berth in the Northwest conference.

Callison, accompanied by Hugh E. Rosson, graduate manager, was guest of honor at a University club luncheon yesterday in Portland.

Only two more weeks of practice remain this term. Plans for a closing contest, similar to the one staged at Corvallis recently, have not been worked out.

Babe Says Golf Too Tough On His Pins; Thinks Yanks Will Win

NEW YORK, April 27.—(AP)—Babe Ruth has given up the alternate love—golf—in order to concentrate and conserve his energies for the business of helping to wallop the New York Yanks to the top of the American league.

"I found out last year I couldn't combine the two games and be at my best," he said today.

"I need the rest I can get on these off days, especially since I have a little touch of water on the knee now and have to take care of that."

"The great man, meanwhile sees no reason for changing his prediction on the order of the American league finish—New York, Washington, Philadelphia.

CORVALLIS, Ore., April 27.—(AP)—Oregon State college took the odd game in the three-game baseball series with Willamette university, defeating the Bearcats here today, 20 to 19, in a weird free-hitting exhibition that ran three hours.

Orwell Triumphs In $38,000 Race

NEWMARKET, England, April 27.—(AP)—Orwell, champion two-year-old of the English turf last year, sped on his way to the three-year-old title today, winning the 2000 guineas for Washington M. G. Singer, retired New York business man.

Already the favorite to win the English derby, June 1, Orwell increased his oppularity by trouncing ten of the country's best three-year-olds in the classical mile race, first run in 1809. The only outstanding three-year-old missing was the unbeaten Cock Pen, which was scratched a few hours before post time because he was running a temperature.

Tammanyhall Heyden Stalks Campus in Vain

Through a cold and gloomy campus in the wee small hours of the morning a stock figure, stooped as though worried beyond hope, wandered hopelessly this morning. It was none other than Henry (Tammanyhall) Heyden, politician de luxe, searching, as did Diogenes, for a presidential candidate for his Roustabout party.

"Py golly, it's no use," he muttered. "I look everywhere, py gosh, but I can find nobody. Ah me, ah me."

Frosh Track Squad Faces Initial Meet

Ducklings Meet Rooks In Relays Saturday

Hayward Holds Tryouts; O. S. C. Coach Names Entry List

Colonel William L. Hayward's Duckling track stars go into their first competition of the season next Friday at Corvallis when they tangle with the rooks of O. S. C. in the annual yearling relay meet. Hoping to follow the example of the Webfoot varsity, who romped over the Orange trackers in last week's varsity relay meet, Bill and big Ed Moeller, the frosh track coach, have been grooming their proteges for the opening of hostilities with the Beaver babes.

No definite announcement has yet been made of the Duckling entries, but tryouts early this week have narrowed the field of logical contenders. In the sprints, Art Clarkson, Fred Nowland, Arne Lindgren, and Wayne Jamison will probably get the call. All four are fast men, and should get places on the five teams to be chosen.

For the longer distances, candidates are not so numerous. Talent Gremouth, Don Thompson, Wilson Siegmund, and Merle Sleeper have been looking good in the 440. Greenough has been running consistently under 55 seconds for the distance, and should cut down on this if pressed.

Two stellar distance men will be on hand for the baby Ducks. Bob Wagner and Tom Lee, both able to run a 4:35 mile, have been neck-and-neck in every tryout to date. Lee has been specializing in the half mile lately.

Roy Lamb has announced his rook entries for the meet. Charles Fyoch, sensational sprinter who recently ran a 9.9 hundred yard dash, is conspicuous by his absence from the list. Fyoch will be ineligible for competition until he makes up a number of incompletes on his grade list.

The rook entries are as follow: 440-yard relay—Rutherford, Bill Patrick, Hicks, and Franklin.

880-yard relay—Franklin, Rutherford, Hicks, and Campbell.

1 mile relay—Koerner, White, Bob Patrick, and Bardsley.

Three-mile relay—Buffon, McDowell, Zentner, and Farrow.

Distance medley—Bill Patrick, Bob Patrick, Hixon, and Bryant.
