

Frosh Track Squad Drops Meet to Rooks

Orange Cindermen Take Four Relays

Ducklings Win Only One Event; Winners' Times Fast

Oregon's Duckling tracksters met defeat, yesterday afternoon at the hands of Roy Lamb's O. S. C. rooks. Winning four of the five events on the relay program, the Orange babes easily romped off with the meet, the first for both teams this season.

The only event in which the Oregon yearlings were victorious was the three-mile relay. Harold Myers, Bus Leggett, Bob Wagner, and Tom Lee were the runners who scored the win.

The Patrick brothers, Bill and Bob, were the outstanding performers for the victors. One of them carried the baton in every event the Beaver freshmen won except the 880-yard relay.

For the frosh, Fred Nowland, Tallant Greenough, and Tom Lee looked best. Greenough almost scored a victory for the Oregon yearlings in the mile relay with his fine lap as anchor man. Lee, running last in the three-mile relay, was the only Duckling to break the tape all afternoon.

Summary:

Distance medley—Won by Oregon State (Rutherford, Bill Patrick, Hixon, Bryant). Time 7:57.

440 Relay—Won by Oregon State (Rutherford, Bill Patrick, Franklin, Hicks). Time 44.1.

Mile relay—Won by Oregon State (Bob Patrick, Bardsley, White, Korner). Time, 3:28.4.

880 relay—Won by Oregon State (Rutherford, Campbell, Hicks, Franklin). Time, 1:32.2.

Three mile relay—Won by Oregon (Leggett, Myers, Wagner, See). Time, 13:40.

Mashie-Swinging Co-Eds Required To Do Test Round

ALL those intending to enter the first annual women's golf tournament must play an 18-hole qualifying round between now and tomorrow night at Laurelwood golf course. Announcement to this effect was made yesterday by Miss Florence Tennant, who is in charge of the meet.

Miss Tennant said all scores must be phoned in to her at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house as soon as they are made. It is imperative that all who want to enter complete the qualifying round at once, she says.

Spring Weather Aids Completion Of Tournaments

Progress Is Made Toward Final Rounds in All-Campus Rivalries

The advent of spring weather of the usual variety has been a boon to the various all-campus tournaments now in progress. The aspirants for the sundry titles have had ample opportunity to play off their matches, with the result that there is now marked advance in the four tournaments, which include tennis singles, tennis doubles, horseshoes, and golf.

In the net solo event, Alfred Swenson has advanced more than any other contestant and is in the fourth or quarter-final round. Several other netmen are in the third barrier.

In the racket-wielding doubles rivalry, the two tandem teams of Fred Deuel and Swenson and of Bob Allen and Bib Gile have made the greatest progress and find themselves in the semi-finals.

Irving Manasse leads the pack in the fairway competition by virtue of his presence in the semi-final division. Jack Mulder and Don Olden are a step behind, in the third round.

Rich Prochnow is the only one who has played a match in the barnyard golf tourney. His victory places him in the semi-final section.

The limiting dates for each of the rounds in all these arguments have been set back a week, according to Earl Boushey, supervisor of intramural athletics, to make allowance for the inclement weather which last week delayed the completion of the battles.

Standings Of Donut Hitters Are Released

Soft Ball Squads Divided Into Five Leagues

SPE, Betas, Deltas, Yeomen, SAM Hold First Places In Associations

The league standings of the teams vying in the intramural soft ball tournament were released yesterday from the men's gym. The aggregations, which total 25, have been divided in leagues of five squads each. The combinations which top their respective companies will meet in a play off series after the regular tourney is completed in order to determine the donut pansy pellet champion.

In League I, Sigma Phi Epsilon is at the head of the procession with two victories for a perfect record. In League II, the Sigma Alpha Mu and Omega hall nines are rulers, the former with three wins and the hall team with two victories.

The Beta Theta Pi aggregation occupies the top cell of League III as a result of the compilation of three conquests without the taste of defeat. Sigma Alpha Epsilon is co-sharer of the location with two successes. The Yeomen hold undisputed possession of first place in League IV with a perfect percentage composed of three winning tilts.

The Delta Tau Delta combination graces the highest rung of the ladder in League V, and three wins without a loss have boosted them to that position.

The standings follow:

League I
SPE	W. L. Pct.
Sigma hall	2 0 1.000
Fiji	2 1 .667
Alpha Upsilon	1 1 .500
Alpha Psi	1 2 .333
SPT	0 2 .000

League II

Forum Committee Listed

The forum committee, which consists of Wilson, Barbara Conly, Aimee Sten, Art Potwin, Wallace Campbell and Robert T. Miller, will meet this afternoon to draw up the final draft of its report. Acceptance of a plan of representation and the election of a chairman will be major items of business for the meeting.

Speculation as to whether the committee would recommend the acquisition of legislative power in student government by the forum is widespread among students interested in the new body. The imminence of the A. S. U. O. elections is expected to draw a record crowd to Guild hall for the meeting.

cently been reading in the Journal of the American Medical association how experimenters at Yale have been poisoning dogs with strychnine and then saving their lives with injections of phenobarbital, gave the rescuers a hynodermic needle full of the drug, which is called a "physiological antidote" for strychnine poisoning.

The pair rushed back to the dog and shot the phenobarbital into his shoulder, then carried him off to Dr. L. G. Heltterline, veterinary, at 1117 West Eleventh street.

Doctor Heltterline examined the dog and announced that the dog had not been poisoned, but was suffering from coreah, a chronic after-effect of distemper, and that the dog will probably continue to twitch as long as he lives.

Pepelnjak Makes 100 Yard Run in Practice Gridiron Tilt

Blues Take Whites, 12-6; Walsh, Smith Other Point Makers

A 100-yard run to a touchdown by Pep Pepelnjak of the Blues early in the first quarter was the outstanding play of the third spring football practice battle yesterday. The Blues beat the Whites, 12 to 6, in a hard-fought and torrid struggle under a boiling sun.

In the last period, the Whites knotted the count at six points with Joe Walsh, husky fullback, punching through the Blue line to scoring sod from the six-inch marker. In the dying moments of the fracas, the victors cinched the game when Johnnie Parker, sub left half, tossed a short pass to Ross Smith, who had shifted to end from his regular position at guard.

Pepelnjak's run was a thriller.

SPE Fairway Artists Enter Finals in Golf

Conquerors Will Battle Sigma Chi for Title

Kitten Ball Fray Postponed Yesterday With Play To Resume on Monday

MONDAY'S SOFT BALL SCHEDULE

4 P. M.
Pi Kap vs. Phi Delt.
Sigma hall vs. SPE.
SAM vs. Omega hall.
ATO vs. Friendly hall.
5 P. M.
Beta vs. SAE.
Yeomen vs. Chi Psi.
Alpha Upsilon vs. Fiji.
Phi Psi vs. Sigma Chi.

The Sigma Phi Epsilon golfers entered the finals of the donut golf tournament by beating the Yeomen yesterday in a semi-finals battle, 6-1-2 to 5-1-2. The victors will lock horns with Sigma Chi for the intramural scepter in the fairway event, probably on next Monday or Tuesday.

The match was the second one played between the two foes, the first one resulting in a deadlock with the count at 6-6. Three of the tilts were replayed earlier this week, but the last and deciding one was completed yesterday, when Duane Frisbie walked in with the half-point so vital to the SPE cause. Irving Manasse of the Yeomen took two and one-half markers from Anderson, but they were not enough to give the independents a possible tie, since the SPE swingers had amassed a lead of 6 to 3 in the earlier battles.

In the arguments fought earlier this week, Leonard Anderson, the Yeomen No. 1 man, took three tallies from Al Schmidt of the victors. Two of the other Sig Ep divot-diggers came through with three points each from foes, Jack Bauer and Don Caswell, respectively. The result was a 6-3 advantage for the fraternity golfers, but the outcome of the match hung fire until Anderson and Manasse could complete their match.

All soft ball games were postponed yesterday in the donut kitten ball tournament because many of the participants were at Corvallis to see the Oregon varsity nine open the conference season of the Orangemen.

between Sigma Pi Tau and Sigma Phi Epsilon, the houses of the presidential candidates.

Plans were being made by several living groups to have the various candidates speak at meetings during the week-end and early next week. An all dormitory meeting is expected to be called Monday or Tuesday night. Both presidential aspirants were to appear at the Yeoman dance Friday night.

Husky Squad Will Play Ball Games Without Finances

SEATTLE, Wash., April 29.—(Special) —The University of Washington baseball team is going to play out its schedule by hook or crook. Without receiving any financial support from the associated students, the nine traveled to Pullman by machine to do battle with the Washington State squad today and tomorrow.

Plans are under way to find some method of financing the roster so that it can complete its schedule.

Helene Madison Helps Establish New U. S. Record

Seattle Mermaid Gives Club Victory in 400-Yard Relay Event

LOS ANGELES, April 29.—(AP)

—Miss Helene Madison, after a one-day absence as a record breaker, returned to the role in the second day of the women's national indoor A. A. U. championships today when she led the Washington Athletic club 400-yard free style relay team to a new American record.

The Seattle mermaid, just to prove that she was more than a match for Miss Josephine McKim of the Los Angeles Athletic club, who pressed her hard in the 100-yard free style championship yesterday, pulled away from her opponent in the final lap of a race that went four minutes and 19 1-5 seconds.

This eclipsed by one-fifth of a second the old American mark set in 1930 by the New York Women's Swimming association.

Oregon to Vie With Vandals In Track Meet

Webfeet Sprinters Good; Idaho Improved

Hayward Grooms Cinder Stars for Saturday Tussle

Next Friday Colonel William L. Hayward will embark with his varsity tracksters for Moscow, where the Webfeet are scheduled to tangle with the University of Idaho cindermen Saturday afternoon in their second conference meet of the season.

If the Oregon runners are up to the standard they set a week ago when they trounced Oregon State college tracksters, they should give the Vandals an interesting afternoon. Reports from Moscow state that the Idaho team is considerably stronger this year than last and will be out to win.

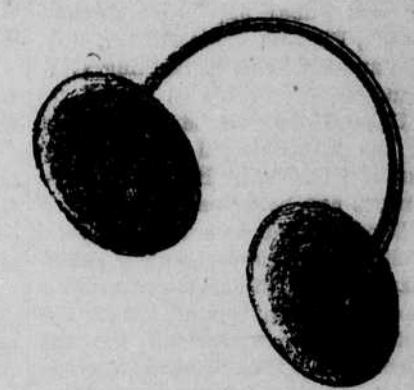

The Webfeet are strong in the sprints with Captain Paul Starr, Paul Bale, Johnny Marrs, John Hamilton, Art Holman, Chuck Dolloff, and Jack Rollwage on hand. Marrs, Holman, Dolloff, and Rollwage can be counted upon for anything under a half mile, while the others named specialize in the shorter dashes.

Where the Oregon squad lacks experience is in the field events. When Ed Moeller, weight king, completed his third year in an Oregon track suit last spring, he left no one to work in his place. Marion Hall and Al Hakanson are the most promising in the weights, and with improvement should be point-getters.

With only five more practice sessions remaining, the Webfeet have none too long to whip into shape for the Idaho fracas. This meet will constitute the first competition of the season for the Oregon weight men and jumpers.

Ear Muffs

WENT OUT OF STYLE YEARS AGO!

WHEN steam-heated houses and closed automobiles came into style, red flannels and ear muffs went out. Time was when people protected themselves against the weather with all sorts of heavy clothing on the outside—and all kinds of hot, heavy foods on the inside.

But no longer! Now, you'll find that winters seem much milder—and most of it is due to modern living conditions. That's why crisp, ready-to-eat flakes at breakfast are such a healthful dish. You feel better, work better, and enjoy your meal more.

Try a bowl of Kellogg's PEP Bran Flakes. You'll love the flavor! And these better bran flakes are made of whole wheat with its rich store of nourishment. Just enough bran, too, to be mildly laxative.

Wonderful for a late bedtime snack. Try it.
