

SOCIETY

By JACK BELLINGER

The Waffle luncheon this noon, the Senior tea this afternoon, the Kappa Alpha Theta, Alpha Tau Omega, Chi Psi and Phi Mu dances and the presentation of "Hamlet" this evening are the main social events scheduled for today.

The spring weather has been an inspiration for a number of spring dances this week-end, and the spring time motif has played a large part in the preparations for these affairs.

Internationalism has lent color to plans for a number of affairs, including the International house dance last night, the International banquet Tuesday and the Cosmopolitan club carnival on Wednesday evening.

Waffle Luncheon Takes Place This Noon

The attention and interest of the whole campus is centering about the Waffle luncheon this noon. Alpha Chi, Chi Omega, Delta Gamma, Alpha Phi, Hendricks hall and the men's dormitory are the places that will serve the delicacies.

Students have been given tickets which are good for one waffle and a cup of coffee at the house that they have been assigned to attend. The affair is being sponsored by the upperclass commission of the Y. W. C. A., of which Virginia Hartje is president.

Evelyn Kennedy is chairman of the affair. She is being assisted by Lois Greenwood, Esther Hayden, Caroline Hahn, Marian Camp, Marjorie Swafford, Frances Keene, and Marvin Jane Hawkins.

International Banquet Is Event of Next Tuesday

Next week's leading social event preceding Junior Week-End will be the Associated Students' International banquet, which takes place at Lee Duke's at 7:30 Tuesday evening.

The principal speaker at the affair, which honors foreign students on the campus, will be Mr. Y. E. Hsiao, general secretary of the Chinese Student Christian association in North America. Mr. Hsiao arrived in the United States this week from Shanghai, China.

Foreign students who will give short talks are Wu Tang, Chinese; Richard Funai, Japanese; Maximo Pulido, Filipino; Nella Roster, Italian; and Siegfried Schleuning, German.

Decorations will be carried out in the international motif. Blue Dutch iris, red tulips and other flowers are being used. The table will be lighted with white tapers.

Ethan Newman is general chairman for the affair. Helen Binford is assistant chairman. Others assisting in preparations for the event are Helen Evans, decorations; Eleanor Jane Ballantyne, tickets; Louise Barclay, secretary; Rolla Reedy, Carroll Pawson, speakers; Julian Apil, music; Almee Sten, arrangements; Dave Wilson and Jack Bellinger, promotion.

Junior Prom Event of Next Week

Elaborate and painstaking preparations for the Junior Prom, annual all-campus formal event of Junior Week-End next Friday, make it probable that the ball this year will be, in point of decorations, programs, features and attendance, one of the most brilliant of third-year dances for many years past.

Tickets for the Prom were placed on sale yesterday morning in all living organizations and reports indicate that attendance will be large.

An entire special section will be reserved in the balcony opposite the band for mothers who are on the campus for the Mother's day celebration.

Dorothy Hall, queen of the Prom, will receive her symbols of authority and the royal title of "Queen Dorothy" at a special ceremony at 9:30.

Senior Tea Will Take Place on Campus Tuesday

An important event for today will be the annual tea of the American Association of University Women for all senior women and women graduate students. The affair will take place in Gerlinger hall from 3 until 5 o'clock.

In the receiving line will be Mrs. Virgil D. Earl, Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall, Mrs. Wallace Potter, Mrs. C. L. Schwing, Mrs. Nelson F. Macduff, Mrs. George York is general chairman.

An interesting program has been arranged for the occasion by Miss Mary McCormack and will include piano numbers by Aurora Potter Underwood, violin numbers by Miss Peggy Sweeney, and vocal numbers by Mrs. Donald Young.

Cosmopolitan Club To Have Carnival Wednesday

Spanish caballeros, Volga boatmen, Parisian Apaches, German burgomasters, Venetian gondoliers, Chinese coolies, Japanese geisha girls, Russian Cossacks, and Argentine gauchos will revel Wednesday evening at the Cosmopolitan club costume carnival, which takes place from 7:30 to 10:15 at International house.

Maximo Pulido will give feature Filipino dances. Ruth Griffin is in charge of the program and Lois Greenwood has charge of refreshments.

Delta Zeta To Have Musicales Today

Delta Zeta will entertain their Mothers' club with a musicale, to take place at the chapter house this afternoon. Margaret Atwood is chairman of the affair.

Josephine Rice will give piano solos; Kamilla Klekar will play the violin; Alyce Cook will give a feature dance; and Emma Medor and Miss Atwood will give special numbers. Mr. and Mrs. George Hopkins will entertain with musical numbers.

Faculty Women's Club To Honor Mr. and Mrs. Barker
The Faculty Women's club is giving a reception for Mr. and Mrs. Burt Brown Barker on the evening of May 2, at 8:15 o'clock in Gerlinger hall. Mr. Barker is to tell something of how he came to give the "Pioneer Mother" statue to the University, and the idea which it is intended to symbolize.

Refreshments will be served. All members of the University staff, whether or not represented in the Faculty Women's club, are invited to attend.

Reynolds-Clements Engagement Is Announced
The engagement of Mildred Reynolds to Arthur Clements was announced at dinner Sunday at the Sigma Kappa sorority, with which Miss Reynolds is affiliated. Mr. Clements is a member of Sigma Pi Tau fraternity.

In observance of the engagement, Sigma Kappa entertained Sigma Pi Tau for dessert and dancing Tuesday evening.

Koon-Wick Nuptials Will Take Place Today
The marriage of Miss Mary Koon, former student of the University of Oregon, to Clarence Wick, who graduated from the University last year, is to be solemnized today in Portland. Miss Koon is a member of Phi Mu sorority.

Alpha Omicron Pi Mothers To Entertain Seniors
The Mothers' club of Alpha Omicron Pi is entertaining senior girls of Alpha Omicron Pi at a breakfast party Sunday morning at the Anchorage. Alumnae of the sorority have been invited to attend.

The alumnae are planning for a dinner later to honor freshmen members of the house. Mrs. Ronald Robnett was hostess to the alumnae group Thursday evening.

Newcomers' Division Entertains With Bridge Party
The Newcomers' division of the Women's Faculty club entertained with a bridge party Wednesday afternoon at the Faculty club.

Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall and the past officers of the club, Mrs. Daniel D. Gage, Mrs. Wayne L. Morse, Mrs. Andrew Conrie, and Mrs. Victor P. Morris, were honor guests at the affair. The card committee, with Mrs. Sante Caniparoli as chairman, was in charge of the party.

Oriental Arts Class Will Have Tea
The Oriental Arts class will have a special program and tea next Thursday afternoon. An exhibit of Japanese color prints will be on display in the club rooms in Gerlinger hall.

At the meeting of the group this Thursday, Mrs. Henry D. Sheldon gave a paper on modern Japanese painters.

Rushes Entertained By Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority
Eighteen rushes from Portland are being entertained at the Kappa Alpha Theta house this week-end. The girls will be taken up the McKenzie for luncheon today, and will be entertained at Betty Rebec's home for dinner tonight, preceding the dance at the chapter house.

Chi Psi Fraternity Will Have Dance at Country Club
"In Bohemia Hall" will be the motif for the Chi Psi dance at the Eugene Country club tonight.

The patrons and patronesses for the affair are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rae, S. Stephenson Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Neighbor.

"Hamlet" Will Be Given Tonight in Gerlinger Hall
The presentation of "Hamlet" tonight is one which will attract a large number of campus people to Gerlinger hall to see the performance of one of Shakespeare's greatest plays, directed by Mrs. Otilie Seybolt.

Gene Love has the title role; Inez Simons will portray Queen Gertrude and Marian Camp will play Ophelia. This group is supported by a large cast of performers.

Kappa Alpha Theta Has Spring Dance Tonight
Abbie Green's orchestra will play at the Kappa Alpha Theta spring dance at the chapter house this evening. A water fountain and spring flowers will be used in the decorations.

Frances Helfrich is chairman of the dance. Bessie Darling has charge of the decorations; Marian Camp is arranging for features and music, and Laura Drury will have charge of refreshments.

Patrons and patronesses will be: Mrs. Grace Russell, Mrs. Catherine Yerex, Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Schwing, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh E. Rosson, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Neighbor.

Alpha Tau Omega Plans Formal Dance Tonight
The Alpha Tau Omega chapter house will be transformed into a realistic garden of flowers for their formal dance tonight. Fountains, spring time flowers, rock gardens, and awnings will serve to bring about the effect.

Patrons and patronesses are Dean and Mrs. Wayne L. Morse, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gage, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cutler, and Lieut. and Mrs. E. W. Kelly.

Phi Mu Will Formal Dance
The spring formal dance of Phi Mu sorority will take place tonight at the Craftsman's club. An oriental idea is being carried out in the decorations, with black and white being used as the predominating colors.

The patrons and patronesses will be Miss Sue Badollet, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Shumaker, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hood, and Mrs. Nelson Macduff.

Oregon Yeomen Have Spring Informal
The Craftsman's club was the scene of the Oregon Yeomen informal spring dance, which took place last night. Springtime decorations in keeping with the informality of the occasion were used. Robert O'Leary was chairman of the affair.

Patrons and patronesses were: Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Schumaker; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Kelly, and Mr. and Mrs. Carlton E. Spencer.

International House Uses Chinese Motif for Dance
A bit of China was transposed to International house last night, turning the place into a veritable Chinatown, when the house entertained at an informal dance, using Chinese decorations entirely.

Imported Chinese hangings, borders, lanterns and art pieces were used to give the Oriental effect. A Chinese pagoda made the picture even more realistic.

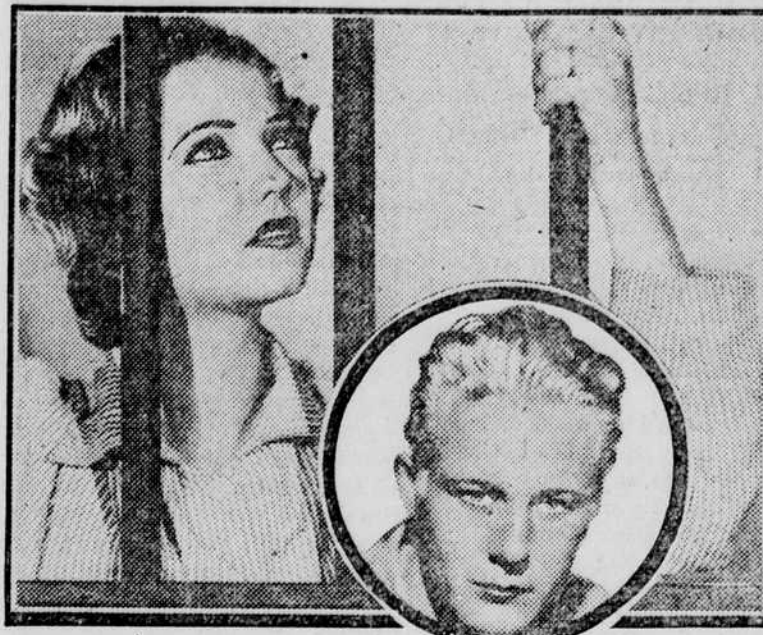

The patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. George Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Tuttle, and Dean and Mrs. Karl W. Ontank.

Outdoor Pavilion Motif Of Friendly Hall Dance
An outdoor pavilion was the motif of the Friendly hall informal dance last night. Green branches, Japanese lanterns, and red and yellow flood lights were used in carrying out the idea. Bernard Faunce was in charge of the music.

The patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. Hewitt, Mr. Easton Rothwell, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cutler.

WHAT AND WHERE

McDonald—"The Amateur Daddy," Warner Baxter and Marion Nixon. Today only. "Miracle Man" coming Sunday.

Colonial—"Ben Hur," Ramon Novarro, Francis X. Bushman, May McAvoy.

Rex—"Riders of the North," Bob Custer. Sunday, "Delicious," Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell.

State—"Police Court" and Vaudeville.

Heilig—"Monkey Business."

New Policy

Hereafter, as suggested by a friend, shows seen by this reviewer will be classified as POOR, GOOD, or EXCELLENT, judging them by their entertainment value as well as their artistic quality. These grades are entirely from our own standpoint, and we don't expect everybody to agree with us. The majority will be marked GOOD, an occasional one EXCELLENT, and a few, but very few, POOR.

A Night in Venice

GOOD.
"This Is the Night" shows the tendency to go back to the musical show. In spots it almost approaches being a musical comedy.

Scene from "The Miracle Man," showing Sunday at the Mac.

There is a theme song, of course, of the same name as the show.

But thank goodness the actors and actresses don't try to sing when they can't. They get a real singer; none other than Donald Novis of the Cocoanut Grove in L. A. He is incidental, however, appearing as an oarsman on a gondola.

A bachelor, Roland Young, is carrying on an affair with a married woman (Thelma Todd). The husband (Cary Grant) appears. So the bachelor has to produce a wife. He hires a French extra actress to play the part, and it's Lily Damita, of all things! Charles Ruggles runs in and out and has his usual "drunk" scene.

Charles Ruggles, incidentally, is a teetotaler and a genuine one in real life. His exceedingly mobile face and Roland Young's exceedingly long and straight face are perfect foils for one another. Thelma Todd is still our idea of one of the most beautiful actresses on the screen. Good entertainment.

"The Amateur Daddy," tomorrow at the Mac, shows Warner Baxter as a man attracted by a girl of no education (Marion Nixon), and we ask "Do men prefer charm to intellect?" Horse-whipping, et al.

Revival Popular

EXCELLENT.
"Ben Hur" proved so popular to collegiate audiences that the management of the Colonial theater were considering holding it over Sunday and Monday, but the final decision is that it will close tonight.

Don't miss it. We recommend it absolutely, and without any fear of being contradicted. The chariot race is a real thriller, and the Roman circus is a wonder of motion picture setting, even if it was faked.

GOOD PLUS.
"Ladies of the Big House," with Sylvia Sidney and Gene Raymond, will be showing Sunday. This could easily have been a tragedy had it been cut off about five minutes before the end, and the contrasting pleasure which the fan experiences against the impending tragedy makes this picture particularly delightful.

The Rex has "Riders of the North" with a gentleman named Bob Custer. Can't find a thing out it anywhere, but trust it's a western with hot lead and all the fixin's.

Sunday the Rex will have that ever popular team of Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell in "Delicious."
